Paul Johnson, historian, in The Anti-Semitic Disease (June 2005) wrote:

“I would call it an intellectual disease, a disease of the mind, extremely infectious and massively destructive. It is a disease to which both human individuals and entire human societies are prone.

What strikes the historian surveying anti-Semitism worldwide over more than two millennia is its fundamental irrationality. It seems to make no sense, any more than malaria or meningitis makes sense. In the whole of history, it is hard to point to a single occasion when a wave of anti-Semitism was provoked by a real Jewish threat (as opposed to an imaginary one).

Like many physical diseases, anti-Semitism is highly infectious, and can become endemic in certain localities and societies. Though a disease of the mind, it is by no means confined to weak, feeble, or commonplace intellects; as history sadly records, its carriers have included men and women of otherwise powerful and subtle thoughts.”

1. INTRODUCTION

Executive Summary

The period in review was much quieter than the previous twelve month period. This was not unexpected, given that the Gaza war in 2014 played a major role in eliciting a spike in antisemitic incidents and discourse. In 2015, the number of antisemitic incidents was about the same overall as in 2013.

However, public debate in Australia about several events and issues generated high levels of antisemitic discourse within mainstream society and beyond which, whilst not as serious as actual incidents, nonetheless were of concern to the Jewish community.

The Jewish community is the only community within Australia whose places of worship, schools, communal organisations and community centres are required for security reasons to operate under the protection of high fences, armed guards, metal detectors, CCTV cameras and the like. The necessity arises from the high incidence of physical attacks against Jews and Jewish communal buildings over the last three decades, and continuing threats.

During 2015, Jews continued to be targeted for harassment, abuse and threats at synagogues and other Jewish institutions, including schools. Because these incidents occurred on days and at times when these institutions were in high use, the specific association of these institutions with the Jewish community cannot plausibly be regarded as coincidental. Nor, therefore, can the incidents themselves plausibly be regarded as random or opportunistic.

While ever antisemitism has been confined to the fringes of society, that is, to the far Right and far Left of politics, and to bigoted religious extremists within Christianity or Islam, the situation for Jews has been manageable. Antisemitism will never disappear or be destroyed. The best that can be achieved is that society as a whole deems antisemitism, and other forms of racism, to be socially unacceptable and not to be tolerated, and to be actively countered. Such an atmosphere gives Jew-haters very little breathing space from which to launch their hate propaganda and activities. The danger arises when antisemitism moves from the margins into the mainstream of society.

- The Lynch affair at the University of Sydney in March 2015 initially focused on the behaviour of Associate Professor Jake Lynch in waving a banknote or banknotes in an aggressive manner in the face of an elderly Jewish woman during an anti-Israel protest, while verbally taunting and threatening her. An Inquiry conducted by the University concluded, controversially, that Lynch's conduct was not motivated by antisemitism. Nevertheless, while the Inquiry was still in progress, Lynch's defenders publicly denounced the Inquiry, perhaps fearing an adverse finding against him. Members of the Sydney Staff for BDS group, supported by Senator Lee Rhiannon, claimed repeatedly that there were no grounds for the Jewish community – or, in their pejorative expression, the 'pro-Israel lobby' – to be offended by Lynch's conduct, and that the Inquiry was a mere ruse by the 'lobby' to suppress Lynch's views. In stark contrast, Lynch himself subsequently published a statement in which he conceded that, whilst he had not been motivated by antisemitism, it was reasonable for the Jewish community to have taken offence at his banknote waving gesture:

https://profjakelynh.wordpress.com/2015/05/17/bds-and-the-kemp-affair-clearing-up-misunderstandings/?preview_id=2.

What was disturbing was the antisemitic dog-whistling engaged in by some of Lynch's supporters in their invocations of the supposed power of the 'pro-Israel lobby'. One academic asserted, without a skerrick of supporting evidence, that "The Israel lobby only had to snap its fingers and the university jumped to take action..." When academics, human rights advocates, a Greens MP and others, use and validate ancient myths about Jewish power, albeit in new guises, this can only serve to increase antisemitic sentiment, incitement and actions.

- Ismail Al-Wahwah, a spokesperson for the Islamist group Hizb ut'Tahrir, who gave a public speech in July 2014 vilifying Jews and calling for their deaths, was the subject of a complaint by the NSW Jewish Board of Deputies that was lodged with the NSW Anti-Discrimination Board (ADB) in March 2015. A YouTube video shows Al-Wahwah vilifying Jews, and even call for their mass slaughter. Although the ADB considered that the law had been breached, no prosecution was brought by the Director of Public Prosecutions (DPP) or the police. It now appears to be accepted by the NSW government, that the current NSW criminal law proscribing serious racial vilification is unworkable and places an evidentiary burden on the prosecutor which it is virtually impossible to satisfy. The NSW Attorney-General has announced that the government intends to reform the law in 2016 following a public consultation.
- The Red Rattler Theatre, by openly refusing to hire out its facilities to an organisation because the organisation identified itself as a Jewish organisation, showed how anti-Israel attitudes can and often do engender anti-Jewish attitudes and to unlawful discrimination against Jews. The incident was disturbing for two reasons. Firstly, it demonstrated that discrimination against Jews occurs, and is seen as acceptable, under the guise of anti-Zionism. Secondly, the fact that the discrimination was so openly expressed indicates a perceived social acceptability for racism against Jews, and possibly that Jews are considered fair game. It was only after a public outcry that Red Rattler reversed its position and agreed to hire out its facilities to the Jewish organisation despite its earlier refusal to do so.
- Within the mainstream media, the ABC and Sydney Morning Herald (SMH) continue to give concern over their coverage of Jews and Israel. Often Jews are portrayed in a negative light, and their concerns minimised. For example, both the ABC and SMH minimised antisemitic violence and murder in their coverage of the terrorist attacks in Paris in January 2015 at Charlie Hebdo and the Hyper Cacher supermarket. Unmoderated antisemitic comments commonly appear for lengthy periods on their online publications, and refer back for 'justification' to anti-Israel themes that are embedded in the biased nature of ostensible news reports of these organisations.

In general, there is continuing openness in the expression of anti-Jewish canards at many levels of society. This was shown when a prominent footballer tweeted that 'the Jews killed Jesus', and when a financial adviser tweeted negative stereotypes about Jews and money and referred to the Jewishness of a Federal MP to do this.

Within the anti-Israel movement expressions of admiration for Hitler are on the increase in social media. It is also becoming increasingly common to promote conspiracy theories about Jews, as well as calling or wishing for the wholesale murder of Israeli Jews and Jews in general. Such discourse involves vilification of Jews as Jews, and goes well beyond an obsessive scrutiny of Israel and the blind acceptance of any negative report about Israel or Israeli Jews or, conversely, the absolute refutation of any positive report about Israel or Israeli Jews. The fact that such sentiments seem acceptable within much of the discourse of the anti-Israel movement shows how far it is enmeshing itself in antisemitic motifs.

The anti-Islamist movement, as exemplified by Reclaim Australia and other groups, has galvanised segments of the far Right throughout Australia. There are neo-Nazis and other antisemites involved in this fragmented movement, including in the leadership positions. Those organising counter-protests against the anti-Islamist movement are often the same people who organise anti-Israel protests and activities where antisemitic placards and rhetoric are featured. Despite their enmity, antisemitism is a point of convergence between fractions of these far-Right and far-Left groups

For a diverse society such as Australia's to be harmonious, it is imperative that all Australians, regardless of race or religion, are able to live without harassment and hatred, without vilification and violence. Antisemitism is pervasive and pernicious. It targets Jews but has always had a wider fall-out, as a litmus test for the degree to which a society tolerates racism generally. Countering antisemitic and other racist expressions is therefore in everyone's interests.

Selection Criteria for Inclusion in the Report

All incidents and material in this report occurred between 1 October 2014 and 30 September 2015. All content is Australian-based. All quoted comments throughout the Report are reproduced as in the original, without any correction of spelling or grammar.

Antisemitic content (Chapters 3 - 8) includes only that which is clearly and overtly antisemitic, according to the EU Working Definition of Antisemitism (see section headed “European Union Working Definition of Antisemitism” below). If there is reasonable room for doubt about whether anti-Jewish feelings were a factor in the publication, the publication has not been included in this Report. Antisemitic content also includes anti-Israel content that uses clear antisemitic themes, including the denial of Jewish peoplehood and basic rights, within the meaning of the Working Definition.

The criteria used for inclusion of content in Chapter 2 ‘Incidents’ are more restrictive and are detailed in that chapter.

What is Antisemitism?

Antisemitism is racism against Jews. It is a prejudice and hatred spanning 3000 years.

Racism and religious bigotry generally are the products not only of a fear of difference and aversion to “the other” but also of a reductionist mindset that craves simplification and cannot cope adequately with complexity. Rationality is cast aside for prejudice in the form of a series of generalisations about the presumed moral and other qualities of people based solely on their membership of an ethnic or religious group. The target of this prejudice is therefore not seen in all of his or her individual humanity, with a unique character and personal qualities, but rather as an anonymous “type”. Yet human experience tells us that there are good and bad people within every ethnic and religious community.

In fact racism and bigotry are rarely the product of any kind of purely cognitive process. People who propound racist or bigoted beliefs are almost always motivated by emotional or psychological factors born of their own failures, or by a supervening interest, and will therefore persist in such beliefs even when there is overwhelming evidence to the contrary. The so-called “reasons” proffered for racist and bigoted attitudes towards entire ethnic or religious groups are necessarily no more than rationalisations.

Antisemitism has both ethnic and religious dimensions and differs from other forms of racism and bigotry. Over time it has mutated in order to adapt to changing circumstances. In pre-Christian and pre-Islamic pagan societies, Jews were berated for nurturing, rather than killing, those of their children who fell ill, and for mandating a day of rest each week. With the advent of rival forms of monotheism, Christianity and Islam, this cultural prejudice gave way to religiously based hatred. The Jews’ refusal to accept the theological claims of Jesus or Mohammed elicited indignation and demonization from their respective followers. Christian doctrine held Jews collectively to be eternally guilty of Deicide, a belief not officially abandoned until the second half of the twentieth century.

From the late 1800’s onwards, religious antisemitism was eclipsed by the anti-Jewish racial theories eventually embraced by the Nazis. These theories were put forward in the name of genetic “science”, but without the slightest evidentiary foundation. With the discrediting of Nazi racial doctrine, antisemitism went underground for several decades. It has now returned with a vengeance.

Contemporary antisemitism often takes the form of a denial of Jewish peoplehood and basic rights. To try to redefine the Jewish people as a non-people so as to suit the interests or convenience of others is not only dishonest but also an assault on the human dignity of every Jew. This is quintessential antisemitism. Given their relatively small numbers, the Jewish people have always been vulnerable, and for a long interval of 1800 years, were stateless, and could usually be victimised with impunity. Much of the rage directed against the modern State of Israel and the Jewish people arises from the fact that this is no longer possible. Antisemites see Jewish powerlessness and vulnerability as the natural order of things which they seek to restore. Thus, it is precisely when Jews defend themselves successfully that the rage against them is at its most intense.

It is therefore a mistake to equate antisemitism only with yellow badges, concentration camps and gas chambers, and to dismiss other forms of antisemitism as “lesser” manifestations or not as “genuine” antisemitism.

In summary, contemporary antisemitism is manifested through:

1. Religious anti-Jewish themes deriving from Christian and Islamic theological supersessionism and supremacism
2. Racial antisemitism deriving from far Right ideologies, including Nazi and white supremacist ideologies
3. Political antisemitism disguised as anti-Zionism and the denial of Jewish peoplehood, history and rights, emanating from both the far Left and the far Right.

The Term 'Antisemitism'

Antisemitism (often misspelled as 'anti-Semitism'), despite its name, is not directed at Semitic languages or Semitic peoples as a whole. It is directed solely at Jews. The word 'antisemitismus' ('antisemitism') was coined in 1879 by the German journalist, Wilhelm Marr, to replace the traditional word Judenhass ("hatred of Jews") which denoted hatred of Jews for religious reasons. Marr subscribed to the pseudo-scientific theory that humanity consists of a hierarchy of races, and believed that Jews were immutably inferior to other people for biological reasons. Thus, 'antisemitism' expressed hatred of Jews on the basis of so-called "race science", which has long since been discredited, rather than on the basis of religion or theology. The reliance on racial pseudo-science rather than religion was deemed necessary by Jew-haters because Europe was seen to be becoming less religious and more secular, and the anti-Judaism of Christianity was becoming less relevant.

The original spelling of 'antisemitism' was the German 'antisemitismus'. It translated as 'antisémitisme' in French, 'antisemitismo' in Spanish, 'antishemiyut' in Hebrew, and so on, with no hyphen and no capital letters. Only English for some reason changed the spelling to include hyphenation and a capital 's' to form the word 'anti-Semitism'.

Emil Fackenheim in his Post-Holocaust Anti-Jewishness, Jewish Identity and the Centrality of Israel, in 'World Jewry and the State of Israel' ed. Moshe David, p11, n2, stated: "...the spelling ought to be antisemitism without the hyphen, dispelling the notion that there is an entity 'Semitism' which 'anti-Semitism' opposes."

A Brief History of Antisemitism

Pagan antisemitism in the Greek and Roman world objected to Jewish exclusiveness. The rise of Christianity added a dangerous new and false accusation of deicide: that collectively, the Jews were responsible for crucifying Jesus. The early Christian Church developed the notion that the Jews were therefore a people rejected by God: children of the devil. (See John 8:44.) With the political victory of Christianity in the Roman Empire, these theological views were translated into social reality. With few rights and unrelentingly portrayed as being without honour, the Jews were to be preserved as a people to witness the triumph and 'truth' of the Church.

Demonisation of Jews by the Church and their resulting inferior social and political status were carried over into medieval Europe. The conspicuous success of Jews as money-lenders (a vocation forbidden to Christians, and one of the few vocations Jews were permitted to undertake) became a further factor in the growth of popular antisemitism. During the Crusades this antisemitism broke out into mob violence ('pogroms'), which entailed the massacre of Jews and looting of their property. New anti-Jewish myths were developed: the ritual slaughter of Christian children, the desecration of the sacred Host and the poisoning of wells. These were slanders which persisted powerfully, especially in Eastern Europe, and continue to be propagated in many parts of the Middle East.

Jews were forbidden to enter trades or professions or own land. Frequently they had to wear a badge or a distinguishing garment such as a distinctive hat. They had to live in ghettos, which were sections of a town or city where Jews were segregated from the general population, and which they were forbidden to leave on pain of death. They were subjected to inordinate taxation, denigrating legislation, inquisition, censorship, forced baptism, compulsory attendance at church, frequent property confiscation and even expulsion.

The French Revolution and the emancipation of French Jews in 1791 seemed to promise a fresh beginning. But the liberalism of capitalist society in the nineteenth century prompted a backlash against the Jews. Conservatives denounced them as the “grave diggers of Christian society”; peasants and artisans, threatened by the growth of industry, feared them as “capitalist exploiters and rapacious financiers”. The new, pseudo-scientific doctrine of racial antisemitism drew on all these stereotypes and formulated a view of history as the struggle for racial supremacy between Jews and “Aryans”.

From here it was a short step to the paranoid belief in a Jewish world conspiracy which aimed to undermine societies, overthrow governments and seize power throughout the world. This was the claim of a document fabricated by a Russian secret policeman at the end of the 19th century and published between 1903 and 1905 as The Protocols of the Elders of Zion. Hitler found the entirely fictional Protocols “enormously instructive”. They served both as a primer for Nazi politics and as (false) documentary ‘proof’ of a Jewish world conspiracy. Two years after the Nazis came to power the Protocols became required reading in German schools.

As historian Raul Hilberg explains, “From the earliest days, from the fourth century, the sixth century, the missionaries of Christianity had said in effect to the Jews: ‘You may not live among us as Jews.’ The secular rulers who followed them from the late Middle Ages then decided: ‘You may not live among us,’ and the Nazis finally decreed: ‘You may not live.’”

EU Definition of Antisemitism

The European Union Monitoring Commission, now called the European Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA), adopted the Working Definition of Antisemitism in 2005 and distributed it to all its national monitors.

<http://www.european-forum-on-antisemitism.org/working-definition-of-antisemitism/english/>

In September 2006, the definition was adopted by the United Kingdom All-Party Parliamentary Inquiry into Antisemitism: <http://www.antisemitism.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/All-Party-Parliamentary-Inquiry-into-Antisemitism-REPORT.pdf>.

The Definition is also employed by units of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE), representing about 56 States and has been translated into 33 languages.

In February 2009, the Definition was adopted in the London Declaration on Combating Antisemitism: <http://www.antisem.org/london-declaration/>

In November 2010 the Definition was reaffirmed in the Ottawa Protocol on Combating Antisemitism: <http://www.antisem.org/archive/ottawa-protocol-on-combating-antisemitism/>

The EU Working Definition of Antisemitism is as follows:

WORKING DEFINITION OF ANTISEMITISM

The purpose of this document is to provide a practical guide for identifying incidents, collecting data, and supporting the implementation and enforcement of legislation dealing with antisemitism.

Working definition: “Antisemitism is a certain perception of Jews, which may be expressed as hatred toward Jews. Rhetorical and physical manifestations of antisemitism are directed toward Jewish or non-Jewish individuals and/or their property, toward Jewish community institutions and religious facilities.”

In addition, such manifestations could also target the state of Israel, conceived as a Jewish collectivity. Antisemitism frequently charges Jews with conspiring to harm humanity, and it is often used to blame Jews for “why things go wrong.” It is expressed in speech, writing, visual forms and action, and employs sinister stereotypes and negative character traits.

Contemporary examples of antisemitism in public life, the media, schools, the workplace, and in the religious sphere could, taking into account the overall context, include, but are not limited to:

- Calling for, aiding, or justifying the killing or harming of Jews in the name of a radical ideology or an extremist view of religion.
- Making mendacious, dehumanizing, demonizing, or stereotypical allegations about Jews as such or the power of Jews as collective — such as, especially but not exclusively, the myth about a world Jewish conspiracy or of Jews controlling the media, economy, government or other societal institutions.
- Accusing Jews as a people of being responsible for real or imagined wrongdoing committed by a single Jewish person or group, or even for acts committed by non-Jews.
- Denying the fact, scope, mechanisms (e.g. gas chambers) or intentionality of the genocide of the Jewish people at the hands of National Socialist Germany and its supporters and accomplices during World War II (the Holocaust).
- Accusing the Jews as a people, or Israel as a state, of inventing or exaggerating the Holocaust.
- Accusing Jewish citizens of being more loyal to Israel, or to the alleged priorities of Jews worldwide, than to the interests of their own nations.

Examples of the ways in which antisemitism manifests itself with regard to the State of Israel taking into account the overall context could include:

- Denying the Jewish people their right to self-determination, e.g., by claiming that the existence of a State of Israel is a racist endeavor.
- Applying double standards by requiring of it a behavior not expected or demanded of any other democratic nation.

- Using the symbols and images associated with classic antisemitism (e.g., claims of Jews killing Jesus or blood libel) to characterize Israel or Israelis.
- Drawing comparisons of contemporary Israeli policy to that of the Nazis.
- Holding Jews collectively responsible for actions of the state of Israel.

However, criticism of Israel similar to that leveled against any other country cannot be regarded as antisemitic.

Antisemitic acts are criminal when they are so defined by law (for example, denial of the Holocaust or distribution of antisemitic materials in some countries).

Criminal acts are antisemitic when the targets of attacks, whether they are people or property – such as buildings, schools, places of worship and cemeteries – are selected because they are, or are perceived to be, Jewish or linked to Jews.

Antisemitic discrimination is the denial to Jews of opportunities or services available to others and is illegal in many countries.

CST Definition of Antisemitic Incidents

The Communal Security Trust (CST) of the UK - Definition of Antisemitic Incidents

CST classifies as an antisemitic incident any malicious act aimed at Jewish people, organisations or property, where there is evidence that the incident has antisemitic motivation or content, or that the victim was targeted because they are (or are believed to be) Jewish.

Incidents can take several forms, including physical attacks on people or property, verbal or written abuse, threats against Jews or antisemitic leaflets and posters.

CST does not include the general activities of antisemitic organisations in its statistics; nor does it include antisemitic material that is permanently hosted on internet websites.

Indices of the New Antisemitism

Irwin Cotler, the former Minister of Justice and Attorney General of Canada, Professor of Law at McGill University, proposed the following indices to identify and define the new antisemitism, c.2001:

Indices of the New Antisemitism

The World Community has not yet developed indices to identify, define and eventually combat this new antisemitism. I would like to propose the following set:

- "Genocidal antisemitism": the public calls for the destruction of Israel and the Jewish People. Examples are:
 - The Covenants of terrorist groups like Hamas which commit themselves to the destruction of Israel and the Jewish People;
 - Religious legal rulings (Fatwas) which call for the destruction of Israel and the Jewish People;
 - State-incited calls for Genocide (e.g. the Iranian threat to annihilate Israel).
- Political antisemitism
 - The denial of the Jewish People's right to self-determination.
 - The de-legitimization of Israel as a state.
 - The attribution to Israel of all the world's evils. Israel as the "poisoner of international wells".
- Ideological antisemitism (which surpasses the Zionism = Racism rhetoric) to "Nazify" Israel;
- Theological antisemitism (the convergence of Islamic antisemitism and Christian "replacement" theology, drawing on classical hatred of Jews);
- Cultural antisemitism: the melange of attitudes, sentiments and discourse of "fashionable" salon intellectuals;
- Economic antisemitism, which goes beyond the Arab boycott of Israel to include extra-territorial application of restrictive covenants against countries trading with Israel;
- Holocaust denial;
- Racist terrorism against Jews; and,
- Denial to Israel of equality before the law in the international arena - the singling out of Israel for differential and discriminatory treatment in the international arena.

Contemporary Forms of Antisemitic Discourse

Some expressions are easily identified as being antisemitic, for example, “God damned you Jews to hell”, “Yes it is true Jews run the world”, the “evil greedy money-loving nature of Jews”, or “Hitler should have finished them off.”

Other comments are not as easily recognised as antisemitic. This can be because they are seen as ambiguous, or borderline, or coded, or disguised as mere political criticism of Israel, or because the connection to classical forms of antisemitism is not recognised. Not all people who harbour hostility towards Jews are open about their views. Often, antisemitic rhetoric is more subtle and less overt than that expressed by those who openly admit to being Jew-haters. Many will dog-whistle or speak or write ‘between the lines.’

The word ‘Zionist’ in the hands of antisemites is also typically a substitute for the pejorative use of the word ‘Jew’. A variation of that technique is the use of classical anti-Jewish motifs and themes in the expression of what, on the surface, may appear to be merely political opinions about Israel. For example, where once it was said that the Jews seek to control the world, now it is said that Israel seeks to control the world; where once it was said that Jews lusted after Christian/gentile blood, now it is said that Israel lusts after Palestinian/gentile blood; where once it was said that Jews/Judaism were Satanic, now it is said that Israelis/Zionists are Satanic.

Themes in anti-Jewish rhetoric

Themes commonly found and expressed in anti-Jewish rhetoric in the period of review:

- Powerful, influential, wealthy
- Controlling banking, the economy, the media, politicians, governments
- Controlling events, conspiratorial
- Manipulating public opinion
- International Jewish Conspiracy
- Dual loyalty, Not quite Australian, Not to be trusted
- Jews as Christ-killers
- Jews as un-Christian and Judaism as anti-Christian
- Judaism as a Satanic religion, Jews as Satanic
- Christianity as a Jewish plot to destroy the white race
- Killers of prophets
- Cursed by G-d
- A cursed and damned people
- Chosen People concept mocked and denied
- Dirty, evil
- Barbaric, cruel
- Greedy, stingy, money-loving, money-hungry
- Talmud as evil

Quotes on Antisemitism

- Manuel Valls, Prime Minister of France (13 January 2015):

“History has shown us that a reawakening of anti-Semitism is the symptom of a crisis in democracy, a crisis of the republic. That is why we must address it powerfully. [...] We must make the true diagnosis: there’s an anti-Semitism people call historical, going back many centuries, but above all there’s this new anti-Semitism born in our neighbourhoods against the backdrop of the Internet, satellite dishes, abject poverty and hatred of the State of Israel, advocating hatred of the Jew and of all Jews. We must say this! We must utter the words to combat this unacceptable anti-Semitism.”

- Deborah Lipstadt (16 January 2015):

“I ask the general European population to recognize that these attacks directly threaten them and the liberal democratic society they treasure. It begins with the Jews but it never ends with them. They must realize that they ignore atrocities against Jews at their own - not just our - peril.”

- Stephen Daisley (25 August 2015):

“Ruth Wisse defines anti-Semitism as "the organisation of politics against the Jews" and says it owes more to political ideology than clerical prejudice. Against the intolerable opening-up of political institutions, social structures and markets brought about by liberalism, anti-Semites offer the Jew as the symbol of conniving and decadence, sinister motives and hidden agendas. It has worked nicely for Soviet communists and Arab nationalists, as for Islamist theocrats and European fascists.”

- Robert Wistrich, (2015):

“In recent years, certainly since the beginning of this century, but I believe it dates much earlier than that, the focus of antisemitic attacks on the Jewish people has been primarily directed at the State of Israel as the embodiment of the collective Jewish existence, of the Jewish people and what it represents, and the return of Jews to this land. This is the primary vector through which antisemitic ideas, sentiments and actions are expressed; whether they come from the Left and the more extreme far Left, or whether they come from the extreme far Right, which has also adopted the anti-Zionist framework increasingly to express even its more traditional forms of antisemitism.”

2. ANTISEMITIC INCIDENTS

Violence does not occur in a vacuum. It is words, when given free reign, which create a poisonous atmosphere for those targeted by racism. It is words that incite hatred and violence.
– Julie Nathan

Incidents Recorded

Antisemitic incidents are manifested through many different kinds of acts. As in the ECAJ's previous Annual Antisemitism Reports, these have been categorized as set out in Table 1 below. Incidents are divided into eight categories. Four categories relate to physical attacks against persons or property, and four categories relate to threats of physical harm to persons or property. The manner of collection of the data, and the criteria for inclusion in or exclusion from the tally, are set out in the sections of this report immediately following Table 1.

Overall, during the twelve month period, from 1 October 2014 to 30 September 2015, there were 190 antisemitic incidents logged by Community Security Groups (CSGs), official Jewish state roof bodies, and the ECAJ. In the previous 12 month period, ending 30 September 2014, these same bodies logged 312 incidents. There was thus a 39% decrease in the overall number of antisemitic incidents over the previous year. Of note, from 2014 to 2015, assaults halved, but incidents involving abuse, harassment or intimidation increased by 58%. In general, the number of incidents reverted to 2013 levels. 2014 saw a higher number of incidents in most categories, probably due to a range of factors arising from the Israel–Gaza conflict in that year.

Collection of Data

Data collected is restricted exclusively to incidents which were reported to, and authenticated and logged by, any one or more of the following:

- Jewish community roof bodies in each State;
- their respective Community Security Groups (if any);
- the ECAJ itself.

These are incidents involving physical attacks, intimidation, harassment or threats against Jews or Jewish institutions.

Excluded are incidents in those categories which might have been reported to other Jewish organisations and community leaders, or to the police, but not passed on to the relevant State roof body or Community Security Group (CSG) or ECAJ, or not reported at all.

It is known anecdotally that many other antisemitic incidents, especially of casual anti-Jewish racism, occur but are not formally reported. Thus, official statistics in this Report of incidents is only a proportion of incidents actually occurring in Australia.

Criteria for Inclusion in the Incidents Tally

Incidents are included as antisemitic attacks or threats using the definition of racist violence and the categories developed by the 1991 national inquiry into racially motivated violence conducted by the then Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission (HREOC): Irene Moss and Ron Castan QC, Racist Violence: Report of the National Inquiry into Racist Violence in Australia (Canberra: Australian Government Publishing Service, 1991) at pp. 14-15.

As noted in previous years' reports, to be included as an antisemitic incident, there must be evidence that antisemitism was a factor in the act of violence, harassment or intimidation or that the attack or threatening action targeted a person or property because the person or property was identified as Jewish. This means that an assault on a person who happens to be Jewish is not included in the tally if the person is not identifiably Jewish (eg a male wearing a Jewish head-covering) and the attacker does not make any reference to Jews.

Incidents of suspicious behaviour around Jewish institutions, which do not directly relate to a physical manifestation of harassment or vandalism, while obviously important, do not appear in the database as they do not constitute racist violence.

Telephone calls, letters, email or graffiti which consist of criticisms of Israel or of political stances of the Jewish community which do not include specifically antisemitic comments are also excluded from the tally, even though there is a realistic prospect that a proportion of these are motivated by antisemitism. However, if the context indicates hostility directed at Jews generally (eg anti-Israel graffiti on part of a synagogue or Jewish school), then the incident is included in the tally. It should also be noted that a number of activities associated with the movement to boycott Israel, Israelis or supporters of Israel have taken place which are arguably in and of themselves antisemitic but they are not included in this section of the report.

Overall, the bias is in favour of exclusion rather than inclusion, which limits the ability for distortions to appear in the statistics over time and also protects the integrity of the data base.

Exclusions

Incidents of discrimination, whether in the workplace, educational institutions, or elsewhere, are excluded from this Report, unless they include abuse, harassment or intimidation.

Negative or derogatory comments made about Jews, either to Jews or to others, in the workplace, educational settings, socially, or elsewhere, but which do not constitute abuse, harassment or intimidation, although they are nevertheless unpleasant, are excluded from the Incidents tally.

Although antisemitic, including threatening and abusive, comments are posted on the Facebook pages of Jewish organisations and individuals, such comments are excluded from the Incidents tally. They may appear in Chapter 4 (antisemitic discourse) in the Facebook section. However, abusive, harassing or intimidatory antisemitic messages sent to a specific person or organisation via the Facebook Message function are included, as they operate similarly to email.

This year, a new form of incident rose to prominence – the hacking of websites of Jewish organisations and Jewish individuals who have been targeted because they are Jewish. Isolated instances of cyber-attacks against websites operated by identifiably Jewish organisations have occurred previously. There were three such cyber-attacks during the period in review. However, cyber-attacks are not covered by any of the eight categories of incidents which historically have been tallied in the ECAJ's Annual Antisemitism reports. Given the small number of cyber-attacks motivated by antisemitism that occurred this year, these incidents are noted here separately, and continue to be excluded from the Incidents tally. However, if the number of cyber-attacks is maintained or increases in future years, we will give consideration to creating a new category of Incidents within which to maintain an annual tally of them.

Excluded also are publications with antisemitic content in the mainstream, online or social media which do not rise to the level of physical attacks, intimidation, harassment or threats against Jews or Jewish institutions. Anti-Jewish content occurring in the media, both print and electronic, are dealt with in subsequent chapters. These cover newspapers, websites, online videos, social media, as well as antisemitism within particular demographics and in organisations having an ideology which includes antisemitic themes.

Trends in Incidents

As has been the pattern in previous years, intimidation and harassment of Jews occurs regularly around synagogues on the Jewish Sabbath on Friday evenings and on Saturday mornings when Jews are walking to and from synagogue, and attending religious services.

There is often a correlation between spikes in violence in any of the various conflicts in the Middle East (and a concomitant increase in media coverage), whether or not the conflict involves Israel, and an upturn in antisemitic incidents. In addition, when issues involving Jews or Israel receive prominent coverage in the mainstream media, this often leads to a rise in antisemitic commentary and incidents.

Effect of Antisemitic Incidents

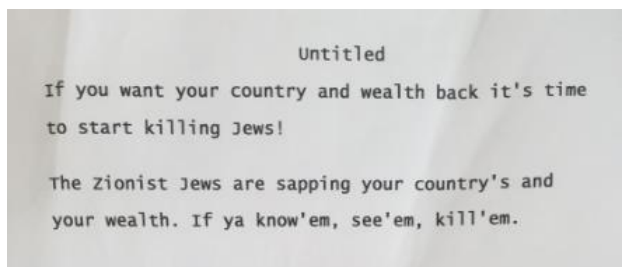

As stated in previous reports: "The effect of incidents of antisemitism on the quality of life of individual members of the Australian Jewish community should never be minimised. The psychological impact on members of communities affected directly by harassment and intimidation can be serious, particularly as many of the threats have been directed against individual Jewish Australians in their homes, including survivors of the Nazi Holocaust."

There is an established body of research that highlights the serious health effects exposure to racism can have on individuals, similar to other stress-induced disorders. Repeated exposure to it contributes to conditions such as hypertension, nightmares, post-traumatic stress disorder, even psychosis and suicide. On the links between racism and poor mental health and well-being, see, for example, Australian Psychological Society, Submission to the National Anti-racism Strategy Public Consultation 2012, Australian Human Rights Commission, Section 5, 'The impact of racism on individual and community wellbeing':

<https://www.psychology.org.au/Assets/Files/APS-submission-to-the-National-anti-racism-strategy.pdf> at pages 9-10; and also the statement issued on 28 April 2014 by the Australian Psychological Society (APS) <http://www.psychology.org.au/Content.aspx?ID=5775>.

On the link between inflammatory racist words and violent behaviour causing physical harm, see the Report of National Inquiry into Racist Violence by the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission (as it then was) in 1991, which concluded (at p. 144) that “the evidence presented to the Inquiry also supports the observation that there is a connection between inflammatory words and violent action”:

Leaflets, posters, stickers, other

- Leaflets by Squadron 88 distributed in inner west in Sydney composed of racist perceptions of the Jewish population and claims “diversity really means white genocide” (8 October 2014)
- Leaflets were letterboxed in several suburbs in Sydney where there is a large proportion of Jewish residents, the leaflet was authored by Squadron 88, a neo-Nazi group. The leaflet included claims about Jewish control of the media, and with an image of Voltaire and a quote “Those we are not allowed to criticise...” The two page leaflet states in part: “Jews push for controls on free speech, exercise disproportionate influence in Australian politics [...] Despite being a tiny minority [...] they have a surprising, and insidious, influence over what passes for culture in this country and abroad. The perfidious Jews collectively own most US TV networks, almost all major Hollywood studios and own and operate 97 per cent of all print media and news networks, have an iron grip on politicians, determining which candidates get voted in and which don’t. [...] Holding these people to account is our moral duty as a nation and as a people.” (15 June 2015)

Whoever said it, the saying rings true, and this society, that group is, without question, the Jews. And here is why...	Much of our culture is based off what we see on TV and hear in music. Did you know that Jews exercise a disproportionate influence over the content you and your family are exposed to through those mediums? Despite being a tiny minority, two percent in America and even less in Australia, they have a surprising, and insidious, influence over what passes for culture in this country and abroad. The perfidious Jews collectively own most US TV networks, almost all major Hollywood studios and own and operate 97% of all print media and news networks, have an iron grip on politicians, determining which candidates get voted in and which don't. In other words, when you turn on your TV and see content promoting unhealthy values, drugs, gang violence, sexual promiscuity and worse, at the highest levels of production, a Jew is likely responsible. Their disturbed hatred for Europeans and Western Civilisation is from of a long and turbulent relationship with our people. Their behaviour has culminated in over 100 separate expulsions of their kind from our nations throughout history - and yet we're the ones with the problem! Despite endless second chances, they are still incapable of coexisting with Europeans. They haven't learned a thing and shockingly, not have we.  The cycle continues to this day and they still abuse their power and our trust to very sinister ends. We turn on our TVs and see the slander of European women as sex objects, sexualisation of ever younger audiences, and the promotion of deviancy and mixed-heritage relationships to dilute our culture and ethnic identity and more. The alarming pervasiveness of European-on-non-trendy, meaning young people of our race are encouraged to seek partners outside their ethnic community. Meanwhile, people of other races are encouraged to celebrate their heritage and keep their ethnic identity by the very same media. This would be less of an issue if people of European background were not a dwindling global minority. Due to Jewish promotion of social programs that discourage and deride the role of the motherhood, break up families and encourage conflict between the genders, our people have dwindled to just 8% of the global population according to figures as recent as 2014. This, from 25% in 1914, just 100 years ago. When coupled with displacement level immigration of the kind seen throughout the Western World, this is a terrifying trend. The Australian Jewish Community throws money behind the defence of 18C of the Racial Vilification Act, suppressing free speech and denying us even the right to criticise them directly without making allowances and mincing words. This blatant abuse of power and privilege by the Jewish community is an outrage and an attack on the fundamental values of a democratic society. The unhealthy values promoted by them are well known, and their media apparatus ruthlessly silences those who stand up to this madness. But it isn't just happening here! It'd be bad enough if this was just happening to Aussies. But it's not. The racial hatred of Jews toward Europeans knows nothing of national borders and wherever Europeans reside, Jews work against their ethnic interests. In places like Sweden, the Jewish Community, as openly admitted by representatives like Barbara Lerner Specter, are at the forefront of the 'transformation' of European countries from safe, friendly, welcoming nations into third world nightmares. According to UN predictions, Sweden, once a Nordic utopia, will be reduced through its irresponsible, largely Jewish-lead policies on immigration and culture to an economically and socially third-world nation within 50 years. Multiculturalism really is genocide, and the only permitted (read: controlled) opposition to mass immigration in Sweden is fronted by a Jew. If it can happen there, it can and will happen here, as due trajectory. Have you seen the transformation of our cities? Formerly European areas, where foreign money and foreign people, invited by the Jews at our expense, move in and buy out the locals, leaving people who have lived there for generations alone, isolated and under siege. Jews are at the forefront of efforts to crush opposition to this horrific displacement and destruction of communities.  Look at Blacktown, now an African ghetto, and Chatswood, where everyday the dwindling, aging Anglo population is forced to play spot the Aussie. Look at Auburn and small country towns like Young, where minarets rise in place of church spires and Aussie women dare not walk the streets at night for fear of attack, rape and murder. This is not the future, this is NOW. Holding these people to account is our moral duty as a nation and as a people. Don't just take our word for it - do your own research on the topic. If we've lied to you even once, disregard everything. But don't let feelings of fear and Hollywood brainwashing keep you from seeking the truth and protecting your children from the nightmare facing Sweden and other European countries.

3. ANTISEMITISM in the MAINSTREAM MEDIA and SOCIETY

“The Holocaust did not begin in the gas chambers - it began with words.”

- Professor Irwin Cotler, former Canadian Minister of Justice

Introduction

The mainstream media, print and online, visual and audio, can be influential in transforming or reinforcing people's beliefs about a range of issues. Whilst the mainstream media is subject to stringent editorial oversight, professional standards, publishing guidelines and civil and criminal law, and generally act within clear parameters, inaccuracies, bias, and lack of context within reporting are nevertheless frequent occurrences. Sometimes this is due simply to the pressures of contemporary news reporting and media articles, with the competitive need to get the stories into the public domain as quickly as possible. As well, objectivity in reporting is not always present. 'News' stories are often given a particular slant, with misleading headlines, and particular issues are run with and given disproportionate coverage.

The internet makes possible an enormous volume of public commentary on media articles. The 'Letters to the Editor' pages still exist in the print media, but most public comments appear online, on newspaper websites, television and radio websites, news video channels, Facebook pages, and elsewhere. In many cases, these comments are moderated, either before or after posting, to remove offensive comments that are racist, sexist, homophobic, or use foul language or are defamatory. Even with moderation, many offensive, particularly antisemitic, comments remain online for inordinately lengthy periods, sometimes days or weeks.

Some online media have a policy of allowing fairly unfettered speech, including racist and other abusive comments. The articles themselves may tend to be devoid of racist content, but not the comments which are attached to many of the articles. These comments are rarely removed or moderated solely because they express overtly racist sentiments.

The significance of antisemitic comments online is two-fold. The fact that these comments are allowed to remain online demonstrates the online media's tolerance for antisemitic comments, and/or a lack of knowledge, insight or capacity to identify antisemitism. The contents of the comments reveal the extent of antisemitic hatreds that exist even in a relatively tolerant society like Australia.

The expression of antisemitic hatreds in the mainstream media or in other public contexts, if not publicly contradicted and condemned by political and community leaders, has the effect of lending legitimacy and acceptability to such hatreds. This can lead to an emboldening of those hostile to Jews to go further in acting against Jews, and thus creates an atmosphere of intolerance, bigotry, fear and violence.

Of particular concern during the period in review was the volume and intensity of antisemitic comments on the websites and Facebook pages of the ABC, SBS and Sydney Morning Herald. As well, there was the glossing over of Jewish deaths in the coverage by the ABC and SMH of the Paris terrorist attacks in January 2015.

Within society, there were issues arising from the Lynch affair at Sydney University, racial discrimination by the Red Rattler Theatre, damage and opposition to the eruv in St Ives, and continuing issues of Holocaust minimisation.

ABC

The Australian Broadcasting Corporation (ABC) is the Australian national broadcaster, and is publicly funded. It is composed of television stations, radio stations, a website, and Facebook pages. The ABC came to attention during the period in review predominantly for hosting antisemitic comments on some of its Facebook pages in response to programs aired on ABC TV, in particular, the 'Q and A' program. In addition, there were antisemitic comments posted under articles published on the ABC website, and racist innuendo behind comments aired on one program on ABC Radio National. The ABC is a major source of news and information for many Australians, enjoying a high level of public trust. When the ABC tolerates, knowingly or unwittingly, antisemitic content, it has the effect of giving perceived official legitimization to antisemitism.

ABC Radio National: Australia and the Soviet Jews

<http://www.abc.net.au/radionational/programs/extra/australia-and-the-siviet-jews/6472430>

ABC presenter, Geraldine Doogue, interviewed Sam Lipski on 18 May 2015 about the book he co-authored with Suzanne Rutland Let my people go: the untold story of Australia and the Soviet Jews 1959 – 1989. During the twelve minute interview, Doogue made repeated, gratuitous references to “the Jewish lobby” and its alleged power. Doogue stated:

- “Another clear yield of this determined campaign is the birth of one of the influential forces in our politics (sic), the so-called the Jewish lobby.”
- “I can see how the Jewish lobby came into being, this very powerful entity (sic) that has really affected our politics for quite some time.”

Sam Lipski explained the situation of the Jewish community during this time: “Bear in mind that, at the time, the Jewish community was a relatively new community in Australia, most of which had been immigrants who had just come here after the Holocaust and WW11 and were just beginning to learn how to relate to Australia, how to be part of the scene.”

In response, Doogue stated:

- “Yes, and they were learning to wield influence.”
- “[Hawke] wanted to send a message to the Israeli [realises mistake], Jewish community in Australia.”

ABC Drum: “Could Charlie Hebdo and 18C coexist in Australia?” by Michael Bradley (15 January 2015) elicited some antisemitic comments from viewers, including the following: <http://www.abc.net.au/news/2015-01-15/bradley-charlie-hebdo-and-18c-could-coexist-in-australia/6018068>

- Jasper: 15 Jan 2015
It has nothing to do with a "significant" number of Jewish readership, it has to do with significant Jewish POWER and control.

ABC Drum: “Not condemning anti-Semitism only fuels extremism” by Glen Falkenstein (21 January 2015), elicited many comments, including the following.
<http://www.abc.net.au/news/2015-01-21/falkenstein-not-condemning-anti-semitism-only-fuels-extremism/6030422>

Something about banking is an interesting start.
- Roger: 22 Jan 2015 12:38:05am
Totally agree - no we DO NO WANT any more religious extremists in Australia, and Jews are right up there with extremism. [...] But keep your religious extremism where it currently is. I dont want ANY displaced Jewish extremists in Australia
- al: 21 Jan 2015 4:31:42pm
The only concern with calling out "anti-Semitism for what it is", is defining what constitutes anti-Semitism. Criticism of Israel, Zionism or even some proclivitory Jewish characteristics, is deemed as anti-Semitic.
- Fran: 21 Jan 2015 7:51:49pm
Hmmm.... Jewish lobbyists have been successful in making anti-Semitism a crime in some countries and Australian states [...]
- wilc: 21 Jan 2015 8:11:19pm
If Israel was a decent nation I think the incidence of anti semitism would be minor. Israel need to change its ways.
- Goyim: 21 Jan 2015 9:58:37pm
Jews have been evicted from europe in a number of holacausts. [...] They tend to meddle in politics of there host countries and this eventually rubs the community the wrong way. The kosher business thing, the selling land rules, makes them look like economic invaders.

ABC Drum: “Denial of Palestinian rights is the real roadblock to peace” by Samah Sabawi (3 Sep 2015). It elicited some antisemitic comments, including the following.

At the end of WW2 the League of nations deliberated on the question, What to do with the thousands of displaced Jews from Europe and Russian areas. Three countries were considered as permanent home for them Palestine, NW Australia and the third escapes me. In view of what is going on in Palestine I think we were lucky.

ABC Q&A Facebook: 2 March 2015 - ANTI-SEMITISM

The issue of antisemitism was raised from the audience by a Jewish student. Miriam Margolyes, a Jewish anti-Israel activist, who was on the panel, responded. The following comments, some of which were deleted by ABC (although most others remain online), show that discussing antisemitism can produce antisemitism. There were over 260 comments plus hundreds of replies to those comments.

Q&A - March 2 at 10:14pm

ANTI-SEMITISM – Erin Gordon asked: After the horrific Sydney Siege, we were all heartened to see the #illridewithyou campaign receive widespread support. However, I would like to ask the panel who would ride with us; the Australian Jews, if we travelled around particular areas of Sydney appearing Jewish and wearing our religious clothing? Anti-Semitic attacks in Australia have risen 35% in the past year; and physical incidents have risen 200%. Why is there this precedent and yet we have received no widespread support from the general public? Is it not alarming to the public that the hashtag #Hitlerwasright trended worldwide last year?

Miriam Margolyes responds to the rise of anti-semitism in Australia

Q&A - March 3 at 11:45am

- Scott Rousell Their control over our politics, News, Banks and endless wars for israel is international Zionism which is THE REAL CAUSE OF ANTI-SEMITISM
- José De Carvalho How convenient that a group of people would create a religion where their God puts them above all other races as the chosen people. Then given land by this same God so that they can claim supernatural ownership of dirt.
- Yani Haigh Yeah that is as it is written in the Talmud. That the Jewish nation is the only nation selected by God, while all the remaining ones are contemptible and hateful. Extermination of the Christians is a necessary sacrifice. A boy-goy after nine years and one day old, and a girl after three years and one day old, are considered filthy. A Jew should and must make a false oath when the Goyim asks if our books contain anything against them. If it can be proven that someone has given the money of Israelites to the Goyim, a way must be found after prudent consideration to wipe him off the face of the earth. The fact of the matter is that Judaism is full of prejudice in writing.
- Yani Haigh Antisemitism is the difference between our views of the Jewry and the reality of Jewish behaviour as seen in fascist Jewish state of Israel.
- David Ewings the Zionists are just as bad as the Nazis.
- Tim Galli Zionism is creating the situation for anti Semitism.
- Luciano Prisco well said margot she has i believe hit the nail ,i also think it entails that more jewish people ,liberal orthodox etc ,come out and denounce loudly the wrongs and atrocities of the state of Isreal
- Brian Bligh Why is it that the only racial/religious /national grouping that has a word for opposition thereto is ... the Jews?
- Mustafa Nejah Anti semtism isn't on the rise. We hear the same old sad story every time Israel is about be held accountable for their criminal actions. Not only do the zionist who own media portray Muslims as bad and Israel as democratic they always portray Israel as though they have suffered and no other religious people haven't..
- Steve Thomas Well said Miriam Margolyes Zionists are getting what they deserve
- Mustafa Nejah #IllridewithjewswhodontsupportIseael

- Marilyn Shepherd That story was as big a beat up as the question by the girl in the first place. The word anti-semitism is the most meaningless invented word in history - it was only invented in 1880 by a Jew who had never met an Arab Semite, Semites are merely people who speak the same languages, not much to do with Judaism at all.
- Elias Joukhdar Jews are so self righteous it burns me. They think they're entitled because of the Holocaust, yet they don't see how hypocritical they are.
- Sharon Joukhdar If I hear about the Holocaust one more time I'm not sure what I'll do. They are the BIGGEST self victimized whingers I've ever had the misfortune to come across.
- Leigh Wilhelm Buchanan The Jews are always the victims, but do they give a st about ordinary Australians struggling for money and good jobs while they monopolize both?
- Asli Eker Um sorry mate but Israel and its network around the globe OWNS all the mainstream media - Fairfax, NewsCorp, Fox, Guardian etc...
- Kelly Smyth The Rothschild banking family set up Israel and supports it with its media, finance and military arms - the world is waking up and we will see how Israel goes when it is cut off and treated like the racist apartheid state that it is! Only a short amount of time away now
- Thomas W Morgan Of course the actions of Israel are the cause of increased anti-Semitism. No doubt. It's time that Jews realized that the actions of Israel in the name of Judaism will affect Jews world wide!
- Thomas W Morgan Most likely a lack of integration by Jewish minorities and a series of religious sentiments based on arrogance and the condiment of deception/lack of compassion for the Goyim that has been present throughout history. Racism has been a major issue through history regardless of the minority, but to claim that Jews do not contribute to anti-Semitism historically is also near sighted.
- Andy Kennedy You won't get Holocaust sympathy so long as your group is responsible for the Palestinian Holocaust. FACT
- Mick Knowles Everyone hates Jews
- Jim F Behizadeh NO Israel = peace
- Kelly Smyth How about this genocidal Jew and founder of the EU
- Caterina Huomni I think anti-Semitism is on the rise because of the Talmud and the abhorrent racism against non-Jews. Sanctifying murder against non-Jews and also there is the pedophile issue in the Talmud. These are the things the Jews need to explain, why their holy book would contain such hatred of non-Jews.

- Shaun Steel Israel, racist capital of the world. We only have to listen to whiny Jew opinions because they own the media. Hopefully they have a nuclear accident in Israel and it cleans up the maggots.
- Janet Brica #hitleralltheway
- Michael Walsh The reason that the people known as Jews are "hated" - as you say - is because of their insistence on their own tribal superiority and their exceptionalism - not to mention their own consistent horrific behavior, which includes treating all non Jewish ethnic groups as nothing more than inferior cattle. This is why they have been expelled from 109 nations since AD 250. They behave out of obsessive self interest at the expense of the rest of Humanity, then have the audacity to cry victim once people decide that they have had enough of cow-towing and of suffering from under their oppression. AGAIN - They REFUSE TO TAKE ANY ACCOUNTABILITY FOR THEIR ACTIONS - including their horrific discrimination, deceit, and attitudes of superiority - all the while blaming others for doing the exact things that THEY, THEMSELVES, HAVE PERPETRATED - USUALLY IN STEALTH... Fortunately, the World is waking up to this SCAM - as Miriam Margolyes demonstrates beautifully!
- Paul Bellerby Perfect example is Myers. Tell me the last non Jew to be appointed as CEO. They put themselves 1st then scream anti-semitism when they don't get their own way. Be careful, be very careful.
- Waheed Abdul Khan Zionists are the curse. All Jews are not the same however in the majority they have built in genetic mechanism to ruin the social and moral norms world wide, 9/11 just for creating so called talban, alqaeda. And now the Isis jash etc because they are the creators of capitalism.
- Graham Broun Most people would have to agree that the Israelis are doing to the Palestinians pretty much what the Nazis did to the Jews.
- John Miller as long as the AshkeNAZIS running the Zionist Protectorate opt for apartheid and tyranny instead of a true pluralistic democracy, they are headed for doom.
- John Reimann The point is this, though: If the great bulk of Jewish people outside Israel condemned Israeli racism, expansionism and aggression, that would go a long, long way towards countering the anti-Semitic prejudices.
- Wano Ma [...] it's time for Jews of all persuasions to confront the greed and fear that continues to shape their destiny.
- Ian DeMontfort The Holocaust, which one? 85 million Christians were killed by Jew Zionist Stalin!! Nbody dares speak of it. Where is our holocaust day? I am rabidly anti-Zionist, but I am not anti-Semitic If I were anti-Semitic, I would not support the Palestinians. It is a fact that Palestinians are Semitic, over 90% of Jews are Askenazis, converts to Judaism in the 700's AD. They are fake Jews without an ounce of Semitic DNA in them. Zionist Israel is the most anti-Semitic place on Earth. A true Jew would understand what I have written and an educated Christian would now this as well. Facts are facts, whether discouraged by mainstream history, or media. Zionism is the scourge of the Earth. Who controls the Banks? Who controls the media? Who are the people who have funded virtually every war from Napoleon to the present age? The facts tell you who?

- Jane Bertha Karam It is good that some Jews knows right from wrong.
- Hal Hustis 37 TIMES.....the exact number of '6 MILLION' Jews killed, starved to death, driven out, tortured, burned to death, rounded up etc etc etc.....was used in International and National NEWS PAPER stories between late 1800s and 1933!!!! They were ALL proven to be lies to create sympathy and RacialPower for world jewry.....so why/how can one believe the 1945 'stories'?????
- David Chibo Miriam is as always brilliant! The only thing that I can fault her on is using the word anti Semitic only for Jews when Palestinians and all Arab speaking people are also Semites. Once again it shows the verbal vantage point selectively used by Jews to claim only their suffering matters.
- John Edward Kendrick When the world awakens to Israeli and radical Jewish involvement in 9-11, there will be a rise in anti-Semitism of epic proportions.

The 'horrific, ugly head' of anti-Semitism is rising in Australia and Israel is to blame, Jewish actress Miriam Margolyes says.

- Anna Lorcan I'm flabagasted by the jewish response. Talk about ugly. no probs killing for their own shortsighted gain. Karma mate or has that already happened?
- Ilkcan Houdini Ada Zionist Israel is currently the new Nazi Germany, Israel is committing the greatest holocaust of the Pale5tinian population [...] To top it all off they use their global mainstream media and their muppets in politics to make the victims look like the guilty ones who deserve everything they endure...
- Chris Moore Oh FFS, persecuted? How many more generations are going to use the persecution card? Stop your own bloody war crimes, and intelligent people 'won't pick on you'! Get it?

- Ilkcan Houdini Ada Lol these supporters of Israel clearly don't know anything about the Törâh.. Yahoood's are forbidden from having any land, not like you Talmüdîc psychô's
- Ilkcan Houdini Ada Way to many Zionazi's here.
- Helen Moon Ashkenazi/Zionist Jews are fake jews
- Patrick Collins [...] like empire building bankers using the Jews as a PR front. I think most Jews are unaware that the same bankers running Israel funded Hitler and wanted the Jews chased out of Europe and into Israel.
- Morgan Hayward The Jews who lived in Germany in the 1890s scoffed at the idea of relocating as the zionist wanted and suggested. They lived in a liberal accepting society. The creation of the Holocaust was the only way to gather support/acceptance in building a new nation. The bankers tricked their own people, and still do. The Isrelis are brainwashed.
- Kenny Baldwin honestly it's the state of Israel who are to blame for the rise in antisemitic. A state that carries out similar atrocities to those it experienced as a people is something I call hypocritical and down right pathetic.
- Ross Dudgeon Isreal is using bombs instead of gas chambers...same result.
- Morgan Hayward Basically the Jewish banking cartel (who funded Germany to fight the czarist Russia) went to London informing the British that they need not concede defeat. as Germany had already emphatically won the war. They said they would get the US involved if they were to hand over Palestine.
- Craig Thomas Jews who support the terrorist state of Israel should indeed be persecuted
- Keith Lawrence What a Clever Piece of Propaganda to Justify Spending Money on the Protection of Jewish Schools while leaving Australian Public Schools Short of Funds , Elitism at its Best RAbbot
- Nicholas Sujica same thing you can find in Jewish Talmud..even worse!
- Peter Walsh Right on the money Miriam, Israel is the fourth reich!
- Michael John Terry Ugly head? the jews are an ugly race, incestous like rats.
- Morgan Hayward [...] When the Jewish people have the political power that they do, with bodies such as the anti defamation league whose sole purpose is to persecute
- Ross Dudgeon When they learn to do the right thing by their neighbours instead of claiming some 'God-given' supremacy then maybe they will be forgiven for their nasty behaviour. No-one supports terrorism here be it state sanctioned or otherwise.

- Florian Phillips They still keep on harping about the "holocaust" as if they're the only ones who suffered greatly! Always playing the "pity me" card; forgotten that most have in past conflicts/wars suffered too!!
 - Justin Robertson Will you also harp on about the fact that your people have slaughtered MILLIONS of arabs, been the cause of or at the centre of every major conflict in the M/E since time began and that your people actually declared economic war on the german people long before ww2 even started.
 - Chris Barrow Gods "chosen people"... racist and supremacist ideology at its core...
- Morgan Hayward But only Goyim are anti Semitic right ?(Goyim is what the Jews call Gentiles.. translated it means Cattle.
- Amator Gesta Scientia I have nothing against Jews, it's the ones who pretend they're Jews to shove disgusting political ideas or war on other nations (zionists)
 - Sonia Martinovic Totally agree with Miriam's take on this. She said if more Australian's who are Jewish (like her) spoke up AGAINST the atrocities committed by Israel, this issue would not be around in Australia.
 - Brandon Cellselius Blame the Jews not the rest of the world.
 - Michael John Terry They are unable to stop talking about themselves. - False sense of importance. - The chosen people? No. - The bogus people.
 - Morgan Hayward The reason people don't like Jews, is they themselves see themselves as superior. The Torah says Gentiles are 'Goyim' or cattle, to be used just like cattle. They do not abide killing directly, but it is ok to trick the enemy to kill their own. Hence the Mossad logo 'Warfare by Deception'... Do people still think 9/11 was done by any other organisation but Mossad.
 - Justin Robertson Jews.... great at playing the victim card.
 - Wayne Livsey The problem is that they are born troublemakers and always will be.
 - James Walker VII mein kampf
 - Сергей Подосёнов jews are to blame
 - Mikael Rönkä I prefere word 'talmudism' over 'zionism'. I see judaism as part of the de-evolution program for the masses.
 - Mikael Rönkä Not just jews in Israel. It's jews where ever they happen to be rotting and de-evoluting the culture around them by feeding sick egoism of the population they're parasiting. Burn Talmud and stop circumcising for the start.

What do you think of Miriam Margolyes's comments? Jewish actress Miriam Margolyes says that anti-Semitism is rising in Australia and Israel is to blame.

- Daniel Kasak But where are the calls for the Jewish community to condemn the atrocities in Palestine? They get a blank cheque for their own terrorism, and this ABSOLUTELY fuels anti-Semitism.
- Anna Lorcan Those Israelis and jews who support the fascist regime hell bent on wiping out Palestinians and Palestine are equal to what hitler did.
- Carol Wolter [...] It was not intended for them to take over the whole country & destroy the Palestinians & wipe them out which is exactly what Hitler did to them
- Marc Glasby A people who suffered so much at the hands of the Nazis should know better than to behave this way when they are the ones with the power and guns.
- Belinda Blackmore My point was that most Jews who defend Israel's war crimes use The Holocaust as their excuse. You would think that the way they were treated by Hitler etc. would ensue them with some sense of a need for peace and acceptance of cultures different than their own. It actually just seems to have taught them that if you commit war crimes, you need to be careful to get away with it.
- Belinda Blackmore I also hate Jewish people who condone Israel's war crimes.
- Julius Alexander Just because of the Holocaust, it doesn't give Jews the right to become the new Nazi's Hypocrisy abounds.
- Matthew Charger Rice As long as the USA keep funding Israel the Jews won't stop...
- Matt James Most of all though it's Zionist influence in foreign politics. Just look at groups like AIPAC.
- Leigh Wilhelm Buchanan You see, a jew sells out her own race when she understands that the war is lost and that judaism in ll it's spawns will be confined to history as the parasite it is...
- Forest Coogee The real question is; How do Jews feel about Australians of non-Jewish Faith? Perhaps their harsh attitude is rubbing off on others!
- Paul Stephan Zionist lobby in Australia is to blame. A secret behind the scenes manipulator of our government.

- Faowaz Al-shammary The person who asked the Q is so typical israeli, always "why me?" So selfish and wants everything you've got, high expectation of everything from everyone!
- Brett J Burnett The Jews have spent centuries being persecuted by various peoples, but there must come a time when one has to look at one self and ask " why do people dislike/hate me ? Look within I say!

SMH: article on antisemitism

The article “Jews bear the brunt for naive hatred of Israel” by Paul Sheehan (20 November 2014) elicited many antisemitic comments, including the following.

- Too often one is accused of "anti- Semitism" when one merely states the truth about the myth of "the promised land" coupled with the myth of "God's chosen people". It's time that Israelis, and Jews in general, stopped holding the rest of the world to ransom because of Hitler's crimes and just became citizens of the planet like everyone else.

SMH: article on Charlie Hebdo

“I'm not going to kill you because you're a woman': Charlie Hebdo shooters spared female journalists” by Liz Alderman (9 January 2015)

<http://www.smh.com.au/world/im-not-going-to-kill-you-because-youre-a-woman-charlie-hebdo-shooters-spared-female-journalists-20150109-12kmpa.htm>

The SMH published a story about how the terrorists spared the women at the Charlie Hebdo office in Paris in the January 7 attack, where 12 people were murdered. The article three times stated that the terrorists said that they do not kill women. However, one woman was in fact murdered at Charlie Hebdo, thus showing Alderman's emphasis on the terrorists sparing women to be misleading. This murder was publicly known before publication of this article as it was reported by other media. The one and only woman murdered at Charlie Hebdo was Elsa Cayat, a columnist. She was the only woman murdered and who was not spared due to her gender. Elsa Cayat was a Jewish woman. She was also the only female Jew in the office. The omission of any mention of her murder implied that Jewish lives do not count. Alderman wrote:

- Sigolène Vinson [...] Instead of pulling the trigger, though, he told her: "I'm not going to kill you because you're a woman; we don't kill women". [...] Unknown to Vinson, only minutes earlier, another female colleague, cartoonist Corinne Rey [...] two men grabbed her at gun point and brutally forced her to open the door. Instead of shooting her, they turned their guns on security guard Frédéric Boisseau who sat at the welcome desk. Rey was spared, with the gunmen telling her also that they wouldn't shoot a woman. [...]

The decision not to harm the women came even as jihadist militants active in the Middle East routinely kill people who don't adhere to their militant form of Islam, including women and children. [...] Laurent Leger, another journalist [...] "As he left I heard him tell a woman in the newsroom: 'We don't want to kill women.'

SMH: article on Antisemitism in Europe

"Israel PM Binyamin Netanyahu encourages Jewish exodus from Europe" by Gwynne Dyer (20 February 2015) <http://www.smh.com.au/comment/israel-pm-binyamin-netanyahu-encourages-jewish-exodus-from-europe-20150219-13jobe.html>

This SMH article minimises antisemitism in Europe, citing that only nine Jews have died in the past year, overlooking numerous bashings and instances of intimidation, harassment and verbal abuse. It also ignores decades of violence against Jews in Europe. The article is focussed on attacking Netanyahu, and minimises antisemitic violence in Europe to do so. Dyer wrote:

- What European Jews fear is not their neighbours in general, but radicalised young Islamists among their Muslim fellow citizens. The Muslim minorities in the larger Western European countries range between 4 and 10 percent of the population. If only one in a 100 of them is an Islamist, then Jews do face a threat in those countries.
- But it is a very small threat. Nine Jews have been killed by Islamist terrorists in the European Union in the past year in three separate incidents (Belgium, France and Denmark).
- Nine Jewish deaths by terrorism in a year in the EU is deplorable, but it hardly constitutes a good reason for encouraging mass emigration to Israel. Still, Netanyahu has an election to fight, and this sort of thing goes down well in Israel.

SMH: Jarryd Hayne

Jarryd Hayne, a former NRL footballer now playing in the American game, tweeted that the Jews killed Jesus (July 2015): "Jesus wanted to help people but was killed by his own people." and "The Jews were the people who took him to the Romans n forced them to give the order because they couldn't." After negative media publicity, Hayne apologised. The apology was covered in the media. The story was posted on the SMH Facebook page. This elicited numerous antisemitic comments. There were 254 primary comments, with hundreds more responses to primary comments. Many comments, amounting to nine A4 pages, insisted that the Jews are guilty of killing Jesus. Some comments follow.

Former NRL - National Rugby League player Jarryd Hayne has apologised for suggesting the Jewish people were responsible for killing Jesus, acknowledging his words were "hurtful".

COMMENTS:

- Taylor Morgan You did. The romans did the physical act but the jews asked them to do it along with chanting from jews to crucify him.
- Shane Mitchell The Jews were given the choice to kill a convicted murderer or Jesus, they chose Jesus. The physical act may not have been them, but the blood is on their hands.
- Sherman Cheung ^ THEIR BLOOD IS ON THEM and their Chuildrens children..it is eternal.
- Ron Watt Jesus, If in fact he even existed at all was a F@#Cing jew
- Maria Stratton Why apologise for telling the truth? the Jews did kill Jesus .
- Mick Foster Of course the Jewish people were responsible for the death of Jesus Christ though Jesus died at the hands of the roman soldiers. [...] It is a fact without the Jews the Romans would not have been concerned about Jesus.
- Mitchell Ftp Joseph William Shouldn't apologise for saying the truth the Jews were the reason of Jesus Christ death they didn't like the fact he spent his time with the poor ppl they thought cause they were wealthy with slaves living like kings Jesus would side with them, he was born a Jewish but Jesus didn't like greedy selfish disgusting ppl, being rich don't mean ur any better then a homeless person if the Jews understood that bck then, then Jesus would have never been crucified on the cross Amen
- Fatima Sonia Obeid Not only did the Jews kill Jesus (peace and blessings be upon him), their distain for him remains till this day. [...] the notion of 'Anti-Semetism' is drummed into our heads by none other than Zionist owned Media outlets (which is practically most main news outlets in Australia and worldwide).
- Pearlyn Hall Mick hate to tell you it was the Jew who killed Jesus... [...] Jesus was a Jew killed by his own people through the Roman courts. Jews obviously did not start the plagues but don't go getting your history mixed up with religion

SMH article: “Jewish backlash” over PM Abbott’s Nazi/IS analogy

<http://www.smh.com.au/federal-politics/political-news/jewish-backlash-after-tony-abbott-says-islamic-state-terrorists-are-worse-than-the-nazis-20150903-gje2el.html>

The article “Jewish backlash after Tony Abbott says Islamic State terrorists are worse than the Nazis” by James Massola (3 September 2015) quoted Prime Minister Tony Abbott in comparing Islamic State (ISIS) to the Nazis, thus implying that ISIS were worse than the Nazis, and in so doing, minimised the Holocaust. Abbott stated on radio station 2GB on 3 September 2015 that:

- "The Nazis did terrible evil but they had a sufficient sense of shame to try to hide it. These people boast about their evil, this is the extraordinary thing. They act in the way that medieval barbarians acted only they broadcast it to the world with an effrontery which is hard to credit."

There were responses condemning the PM’s words by Jewish leaders who pointed out that the Nazis tried to conceal their crimes in order to avoid being held to account, not out of any “sense of shame”. This SMH article elicited many comments under the article, many with antisemitic content:

- Hard Edge: [...] the present day Jews have to maintain and forever claim "their" Holocaust. as opposed to others [...] Of course we have a backlash from the Jewish lobby... they, as everyone knows, are the most hard done-by people on earth, and they never let us forget it!
- Andrew: its NOT always about the Jews despite them thinking it is. [...]
- David: it seems certain elements of the jewish community who have the ear of many media outlets are determined to hold their position as the most abused people in history.

- Sir Noddy: Because the Jewish community appear to want to keep everyone focused on the Holocaust
- CarlT: Some members of the Jewish lobby are far too precious. They also appear to be ignorant of history. [...] Those who gvelch about the Third Reich should invest some time into researching the number of people of Jewish birth who were involved in the so-called Russian Revolution (Lenin, Trotsky, Beria, Molotov et al.) and who it was who ran the gulag death camps in which tens of millions of Russians were murdered. Hitler's crimes pale in comparison.
- alfo72: Just because the Jewish faith believes it has a strangle hold on atrocities doesn't make them the only ones. [...] So please drop the "only Jews have a claim to atrocity" they don't and ISIS will if given the change hit harder and deeper than Hitler and the Nazis ever did.
- Extra: Poor Tony was already having a bad week- and then he managed to get the Jewish lobby offside by, in effect, suggesting that they mightn't have a monopoly claim on 'worst victimhood', something the lobby guards assiduously from claims by Armenians, Rwandans etc.
- Deity Ted: G-d help anyone who dares try to suggest that the Jews aren't the most persecuted minority.
- f0xtee: Get it through your heads! The Jews own the Nazis! No one is ever allowed be worse or more despicable, got that? Jews have a mortgage on suffering and no-one else is allowed assume their mantle as the most persecuted.
- Hokumatz: The Jewish lobby must stop playing the victim and use the terrible experience of WWII to benefit current generations.
- bob timmins: I am offended that the Jews are offended by someone else referencing the Nazi's. They think they have the right to "own" references to the Nazi's ? [...] The Jews should be more focused on attaining peace within their own religious state and stop the land theft and violation of the Palestinians. In fact the Jewish community are forever indebted to the world for saving their asses from extinction...
- Gassius: Why is that the Jews think that the Nazis are worse. Does the Holocaust give them a higher spot on the "I have been subjected to worse evils than you" podium

SMH: “Racist tirade on Sydney bus rattles Chinese-Australian woman”

by Inga Ting and Kate Aubusson (25 September 2015)

<http://www.smh.com.au/nsw/no-one-helped-me-racist-tirade-on-sydney-bus-rattles-chineseaustralian-woman-20150924-gju6md.html>

Antisemitism can be expressed through indirect means, for example by aiming the focus at the Jewish aspect of a story. This appears to have been done with this story. This SMH article began with a video of the racist tirade by a middle-aged white woman against a young Chinese-Australian woman on a Sydney bus. The 1.17 minute video began with the racist woman saying "I'm Jewish from Israel and you are fucking nothing." The video then switched to the victim speaking, as though being interviewed, and interspersing that with other segments of the tirade, mostly with the mute on, but other segments audible.

However, when viewing the original 1.30 minute video posted on the victim's Facebook page, the above rant "I'm Jewish from Israel" appears at the very end of the video at the 1.20 minute mark. It appears as though SMH have spliced the video and taken the Jewish reference from the end and placed it at the beginning of the video. This places much greater focus on the racist's claim of being Jewish, as well as ensuring anyone viewing the video will hear this, regardless of how long they view it for.

The post on this story on the SMH Facebook page contained many antisemitic comments.

Guess the Mayor of Rotterdam is a Zionist stooge , as you have to be to obtain these lofty well paid positions. I see your Jewish owned trashmag now resorts to name calling and abuse to earn a dollar. Good thing I understand the tricks and fakery you use here , when confronted with truth , just abuse and demonize . But that dosent work anymore , we know what the Jews are up to and their days are numbered.Oh well , at least they are our dollars and not fake US dollars known as debt notes , bought and paid for by the American public , with interest. Must be wonderful to be a Jewish Banker that has every US debt note go through his hands. I like Muslims , they have the balls Westerners, in their Government induced haze of a life , lack. What do we want?? a Jewish free press , when do we want it?? , well , thats irrelevant as we live in a Country full of dumb sheep who are fooled daily and are too stupid to live .

Guardian: Bob Carr on Israel

<http://www.theguardian.com/commentisfree/2015/jan/14/australias-un-vote-on-palestine-does-a-disservice-to-all-sides-including-israelis>

“Australia's UN vote on Palestine does a disservice to all sides, including Israelis” by Bob Carr (14 January 2015). Points made by Carr include:

- Once again the conservative side of Australian politics was delivering what the pro-Israel lobby in Australia wanted, ignoring majority Australian opinion and the views of more liberal Jewish Australians. Ignoring as well, the national interests of Australia
- Israel as opposed to the expectations of its current ethno-nationalist leadership.
- The pro-Israel lobby lives in permanent nervous agitation. It frantically lobbies against any Australian government criticising settlements. It spends profligately on overseas trips for journalists and MPs. Sky newsroom reporters and one paper’s gossip columnist were recently recruited. Every MP elected at the 2013 election has been offered a trip. One member of the NSW upper house was off weeks after being elected.

- paid trips to Israel from the Israel lobby. One can imagine that some of the business people who donate to fund the trips are asking why those who return don't even raise a protest on Israel's behalf!
- former prime minister Julia Gillard, who had a member of her staff seemingly engaged full time in appeasing the Likud-aligned pro-Israel lobby.
- an apartheid legal system in the occupied territories
- It was a signal defeat for the take-no-prisoners, win-at-all costs approach of the Likudniks who, for example, had been outraged at any suggestion Australia should ever criticise expansion of Israeli settlements and had used their influence with Gillard's office to overrule me as foreign minister on the subject (again as recorded in Diary of a Foreign Minister, under the entry for 10 November 2012).
- But the Abbott government, elected in September 2013, has proceeded to give the lobby everything.
- if Australia broke ranks with the pro-Israel voting pattern that America is locked into because of the influence of its own Israel lobby.
- the ethno-nationalists in Jerusalem

Antisemitic comments under the article include the following, all dated 14 January 2015:

- PedroKnows And let's not mention the Australian passports stolen and used by Mossad to murder political opponents. Those free bagels in the LNP party room must be pretty tasty.
- Lastofthegoodguys This vote by Australia [...] It's obvious Julie "look at me" Bishop and George "Mr Sheen" Brandis have had a number of free trips to Israel and probably elsewhere all paid by Israel's lobbyists let alone the donations to the LNP paid by them.
- Steamager Let's face it. The entire government front bench are so owned and funded by the Melbourne zealots, mining interests and Murdoch they haven't got a decent idea of their own to benefit ordinary Australians, let alone play on the big stage. In fact they are so bent they could sleep happily in a saxophone.

Guardian: on Yeshivah

<http://www.theguardian.com/australia-news/2015/feb/19/rabbis-absolute-power-how-sex-abuse-tore-apart-australias-orthodox-jewish-community>

“Rabbis' absolute power: how sex abuse tore apart Australia's Orthodox Jewish community” by David Marr (19 February 2015). In this extensive article on the Royal Commission into institutional responses to child sexual abuse, with the Melbourne Yeshivah (ultra-Orthodox Jewish) community being questioned, Marr states:

- Orthodox Judaism has never been exposed to such scrutiny. From a Melbourne courtroom, the torment of the Chabad rabbis was streamed live to the world as the royal commission into institutional responses to child sexual abuse probed the city's secretive and powerful Yeshivah community.

The article elicited antisemitic comments, including the following, all dated 20 February:

- BarrieJ Naively I imagined an ultra orthodox Jewish community would be above this level of criminal degradation and physical abuse of the weakest members of their society. Seems their Holy Book didn't really spell out what their God thought was acceptable behaviour. Explains a lot.
- dargie "you have no idea how little they..... consider the outside world." Off topic , but wondering if their house is robbed or if they're mugged or abused in the street ,do they expect assistance from the goy Police ?
- flixyflox [...] And the presumption by the same sect and their closed community that they are beyond and above the reach of Australian civil law. And indeed were until they were caught out. [...] THE last straw for me with the Rabbimates and the power of the Israeli lobby was when they leant on Fairfax last year to effectively sack Mike Carlton for speaking the truth about Israeli crimes against the Palestinians.
- PigsArse No surprise really when their own Talmud states that sex with a three year old & one day girl is permitted. See Yabamoth 57b The Sanhedrin of the Talmud also considers boys sexually mature at nine and girl at three.

Conversation: Michelle Grattan and 'the Jewish Lobby'

<http://theconversation.com/labor-conference-leaves-shorten-stronger-45216>

In the article "Labor conference leaves Shorten stronger" by Michelle Grattan (26 July 2015) on the ALP national conference, and its motion on Palestine, Grattan refers to the pro-Israel and pro-Palestine positions, but only refers to one side as a "lobby", namely the Jewish side. She makes no mention of the role played on the other side of the debate by the Australian Palestine Advocacy Network, a true lobby group. Grattan writes:

- An extraordinary amount of last-minute tooting and froing – some of it in full view as the players talked in huddles – surrounded the compromise motion on Palestine. The final position [...] It was certainly not as tough as the left wanted, but it wasn't quite what the Victorian right would have preferred either. The right is divided on Palestine, with the NSW right, influenced by the composition of western Sydney, more pro-Palestine, and the Victorian right, influenced by the Jewish lobby, more pro-Israel.

Crikey: why Bob Carr turned on Israel

<http://www.crikey.com.au/2014/11/10/from-mensch-to-meshuggah-why-bob-carr-turned-on-israel/>

In the article “From mensch to meshuggah: why Bob Carr turned on Israel” by Alex Mitchell (10 November 2014), the author states:

- Bob Carr, the former foreign minister (2012-2013) and New South Wales premier (1996-2006), has gone from Israel’s No. 1 pin-up politician in Australia to one of the most reviled. When he co-founded Labor Friends of Israel with Bob Hawke in 1977, Carr was accorded “honourable gentile” status by Israel’s rulers. [...].

Mitchell’s reference to Carr being accorded “honourable gentile” status by “Israel’s rulers” is a complete fabrication. Antisemitic comments under the article include the following:

- Duke996: But the Jewish lobby still has significant influence over both the US and British governments making the need to exert influence here less necessary. [...] look who dominates every sphere of political influence and decision making to the benefit of Israel and to the detriment of: Palestine, peace in the ME, the USA budget / military lives and world’s opinion in general. More people need to speak out like Carr but the political backlash is significantly worse in the USA. They have powerful lobby groups like AIPAC and the ADL who come down on anyone who dares criticise Israel like a tonne of bricks.
- Bohemian: You need to look at the people in positions of authority and control in every major federal government department in the US if you want to understand who is running that country and then take a look at media ownership and its executive suite to see who its cheer squad is. Australia just does what’s its told regardless of who is pulling the strings.
- Itsarort: Carr’s ‘moving’ on the Israeli question along with his scrapes with the JCCV, are nothing but HIGHLY commendable!
- Kevin Herbert: In fact, it is the America/Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC) who has the say on Australian policy. [...] Sad isn’t it, particularly when you consider that virtually ALL the Federal & State lobbies have to pledge allegiance to an apartheid, ethnic cleansing, genocidal lunatic State such as Isra-hell.
- Gideon Polya: The worm is turning [...] While the Zionist-subverted Coalition and Labor Rights [...] US Government’s Zionist-complicit 9-11 false-flag atrocity. The Australian “terror hysteria” response to Neocon American and Zionist Imperialist (NAZI) propaganda [...] The ugly reality that even the Zionist-subverted Yellow Press of White Australia cannot hide is of Israeli and dual citizen Australian-Israeli [...]

FM Radio 106.5: Kyle and Jackie O Show – “so Jewish of you”

On FM radio Mix 106.5 on the ‘Kyle and Jackie O Show’ on 23 January 2015, Guy Sebastian (a musician and winner of the first Australian Idol) was a guest on the show. Kyle Sandilands and Jackie Henderson announced it was Fuel Free Friday, where they give petrol away for free to callers. Guy said “Trust you guys to give away free fuel when it’s cheap”, and they laughed, and then Guy said “so Jewish of you”. This offensive speech only reinforces ugly stereotypes of Jews. The 'Kyle and Jackie O Show' is a popular segment on radio listened to by many people.

Foxtel: Open Slather - "Last Supper Sketch"

<http://www.thecomedychannel.com.au/videos/open-slather-last-supper-sketch/>

The Foxtel comedy production "Open Slather" aired the skit, "Last Supper Sketch", on Sunday night 28 June 2015, using the Last Supper as the backdrop. The one minute skit, showed Jesus presenting the bill for the Last Supper to each of his disciples, and informing how much each had to pay. The last disciple addressed was Judas, who had disappeared so as not to pay the bill. It was remarked that Judas consistently shirks paying his share.

This skit uses a stereotype of Jews as stingy with money. In Christian culture, out of all the disciples, Judas has been portrayed as the most Jewish disciple, both in physical appearance and in character, even though, in fact, Jesus and all the disciples are Jewish. In Christian culture, Judas has been used as the stereotypical Jew, hence when Judas in a skit is seen as shirking not paying his bill, he is seen as representing all Jews.

- Does the term "Jew Hatred" also go the other way as in the Torah by referring to non-believers as Goyim ("human cattle") whose ultimate destiny is to serve and be ruled by Judaism and whose murder is not considered a mortal sin?

Posted by wobbles, Tuesday, 25 November 2014 11:59:35 PM

- The Talmud says the murder of a Jew is a capital offense and one of the three most heinous sins (the other two being idolatry and adultery). A Jew who indirectly causes the death of another Jew is, only guilty of what Talmudic law calls a sin against the 'laws of Heaven', to be punished by God rather than by man. To cause indirectly the death of a Gentile is no sin at all. [...]

[...] both major parties have proved themselves to be whores of Israel. And, as the publication of the Wikileaks cables attest, there was no bigger whore than Bob Hawk. Clyde Holding, then Victorian ALP leader, is also mentioned in the cables as a key figure in establishing Labor Friends of Israel, which Hawke saw as a hedge against Whitlam. Once he became Prime Minister, Hawk steered ALP policies in a pro-Israel direction and it's been following that direction ever since. A pox on BOTH their houses! The Greens are the only party in this country which refuse to be bought by Zionist dollars.

Responses to Greens: Scott Ludlam MP on Gaza

Scott Ludlam is the Co-Deputy Leader of the Australian Greens, Australian Greens foreign affairs spokesperson, and a Senator for WA. He published a media release on his website and his Facebook page about Gaza (2 September 2015). The Facebook post elicited many antisemitic comments, some of which follow.

Lynch Affair at Sydney University

Colonel Richard Kemp, a retired British military officer and expert on military conflict and asymmetric warfare, gave a lecture at the University of Sydney on 11 March 2015. The lecture was titled "Ethical Dilemmas of Military Tactics: Dealing with non-state armed groups" and used Northern Ireland and Afghanistan as examples. Kemp was also a known and respected commentator on Israel's military conflict with Gaza, and had defended Israel's military tactics as being compliant with international law.

Around fifteen anti-Israel student protesters stormed the lecture hall and began shouting anti-Israel slogans with a megaphone. They disrupted, and for 20 minutes shut down, the forum. There were calls to allow the overtly antisemitic organisation Hizb ut-Tahrir to speak on campus. The protesters resisted security when asked to leave. Scuffles ensued.

Associate Professor Jake Lynch, the director of the Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies (CPACS) at Sydney University, and a harsh critic of Israel, was seated in the lecture room. He rose to defend the protesters. During the fracas, Jake Lynch waved banknotes in the face of a small, elderly Jewish woman and a Jewish student, threatening to sue the woman who had sprinkled water from a bottle at him. It was alleged by the Australasian Union of Jewish Students (AUJS) that Lynch's banknote waving gesture evoked racist stereotypes about Jews and money. After fifteen minutes or so, the protesters were ejected, and Kemp's lecture resumed.

The Vice-Chancellor of Sydney University, Michael Spence, initiated an investigation into the incident and issued 'show cause' notices to approximately a dozen academics, students, and participants, including Lynch. AUJS started an online petition calling for the University of Sydney to remove Assoc. Prof Jake Lynch "after his continual harassment and intimidation of Jewish Students."

The reaction by prominent colleagues and supporters of Jake Lynch and the anti-Israel BDS movement to the Lynch affair at the University of Sydney provide a damning insight into their views about the Australian Jewish community and its representative bodies. Many of them used classic libels to disparage and vilify the Jewish community.

Lynch's colleagues wrote articles, issued media releases, commented in the media, and held meetings. Jewish individuals and organisations were subjected to racist demonisation simply for expressing their genuinely-felt views about Lynch's conduct and the behaviour of the protesters. (On 17 May 2015, Lynch himself wrote an article belatedly conceding that he could understand the "hurtfulness" his banknote waving gesture had "inadvertently" caused the Jewish community).

A persistent and pernicious theme was accusing Jewish organisations, usually referred to as the “Israel Lobby”, of engaging in a conspiracy and wielding inordinate power by controlling the media, manipulating the Vice-Chancellor and orchestrating a “witch hunt” against Lynch and other anti-Israel activists. The Vice Chancellor issued a public statement dismissing these claims as “risible”. (The University inquiry eventually found that Lynch had not intentionally engaged in antisemitic behaviour, although his conduct had been “unprofessional”).

Within a week of the protest, the claims of nefarious, conspiratorial conduct by Jews began to surface. Examples include the following:

- Kim Bullimore, member of the Revolutionary Socialist Party, wrote (17 March) on her blog that “the Australian Zionist lobby and Zionist press have been running a campaign of slanders” about Lynch.
- Bullimore wrote (8 April) using the term “Zionist lobby” four times in three paragraphs and claiming that “the Zionist lobby” “repeatedly targeted” Lynch and was conducting a “witch hunt” against him.
- Alma Torlakovich, member of the National Tertiary Education Union (NTEU), ‘NTEU Members for BDS’ and ‘Sydney Staff for BDS’, made claims (18 March) about the “disgraceful and cowardly act on the part of the Zionist lobby [...] calling for the sacking of an academic”, namely, Lynch.
- Torlakovich claimed that Lynch was a “central target of the Zionist lobby both in Australia and Israel.”(28 April).
- Jemma Nott, of Green Left Weekly, referred (21 March) to a Jewish woman attending Kemp’s lecture as an “elderly Zionist woman” without actually knowing her views on Israel or Zionism, only that she was Jewish, and so used the term ‘Zionist’ as a smear.
- ‘Palestine Action Group’ claimed (23 March) that “Zionist organisations are campaigning to victimise” Lynch. Yet, the only organisation named was the “Jewish News”, the only Jewish newspaper in Australia, which simply presents news of interest to the Jewish community.
- ‘Sydney Staff for BDS’ called (25 March) on Vice-Chancellor Spence “to resist Israel-lobby calls” and “not to allow yourself to be made the agent of the Israel lobby’s persecution” (6 April).
- ‘NTEU Members for BDS’ claimed (6 April) there was “intense pressure from the Israel lobby and the Murdoch press on Sydney University’s VC, Michael Spence, to sack two members of Sydney Staff for BDS, A/Prof. Jake Lynch and Dr Nick Riemer.”
- ‘NTEU Members for BDS’ made a claim (2 April) about “the overreach of the Israel lobby” thus implying that AUJS, the Jewish students organisation, is somehow part of a powerful and disproportionately influential lobby organisation.
- Students for Justice in Palestine, at Sydney University, repeated (6 April) this claim by NTEU BDS.

- Jake Lynch, the Associate Professor at the centre of the storm, and member of ‘NTEU Members for BDS’ and of ‘Sydney Staff for BDS’, claimed (2 April) that he was “targeted by the pro-Israel lobby” and was subject (16 April) to “the witch-hunt led by the pro-Israel lobby and its right-wing political allies.”
- Dr Nick Riemer, anti-Israel lecturer in linguistics at Sydney University, and member of ‘NTEU Members for BDS’ and of ‘Sydney Staff for BDS’, was most outspoken. In an article (7 April) in New Matilda, Riemer repeatedly used the term “Israel lobby”; and warned that “If the University of Sydney does allow itself to be made the instrument of the Israel lobby’s witch hunt” and of “the Israel lobby’s calls to sack Lynch and me”. Riemer repeatedly made charges of the “Israel lobby” and accusing it of a “witch hunt” in the Sydney Morning Herald (27 April) and elsewhere.
- Riemer made his most egregious claim at a forum at Sydney University (14 April) on “Why Boycotting Israel isn’t Anti-Semitic” when he stated: “The Israel lobby had only to snap its fingers for the university administration to jump to initiate a witch hunt against Jake, against me, against other pro-Palestinian activists ...” He repeated (15 April) this accusation in an article on the ‘Sydney Staff for BDS’ website: “The Israel lobby only had to snap its fingers and the university jumped to take action against Palestine advocates. [...] It couldn’t be clearer that the university has been taking part in the Israel lobby’s witch hunt against Jake Lynch”.

This preposterous accusation that an unnamed group, under the label “Israel lobby”, can simply “snap its fingers” and people even in the highest positions within Australian academia and society will do what they are told, like some robot, slave, or paid-off lackey, is designed to directly play to antisemitic characterisations of Jews as powerful, manipulative, controlling, and sinister. There was not the slightest evidence put forward to try to substantiate such wild accusations. These were simply pernicious and baseless accusations aimed at the Jewish community.

- Dr David Brophy, lecturer in modern Chinese history at the University of Sydney, and member of ‘Sydney Staff for BDS’ and ‘NTEU Members for BDS’, in an article in Electronic Intifada (6 April), erroneously referred to the ‘United Israel Appeal’, an organisation devoted to fund-raising, as a “lobby group”. This was the pattern – if persons or organisations were identified as Jewish, then they were smeared with the term ‘lobby’.
- This claim was reiterated in an article authored by Brophy, Stuart Rees and Lynch in Green Left Weekly (20 April)

Senator Lee Rhiannon, of the NSW Greens, addressed a forum at Sydney University, on “Defend Civil Liberties at University” in support of Lynch and associates on 29 April. In her speech, Rhiannon constantly referred to the “pro-Israeli Government lobby”, thus implying that Australian Jewish organisations are an instrument of the Israeli government. Such terminology plays on stereotypes of Jews as monolithic and manipulators of events, of Jews as foreign agents or agents for foreign entities.

As well, her repetitive use of the word ‘lobby’ had the effect of dismissing the genuineness of the concerns expressed by the Jewish community and Jewish university students in Australia, implying that their right to protest is less legitimate than for other citizens. It denied that the Jewish communal representative organisations are representatives of the Jewish community in Australia and not of Israel or of any Israeli political party or government. It ignored Jewish concerns that a lecture of interest to Jews, and organised by Jews, was shut down by anti-Israel protesters, acting as self-appointed censors, and that there was subsequent intimidation and harassment of Jewish attendees, including Lynch's stand-over postures and language towards the elderly Jewish woman. To these acts, Rhiannon accused the 'lobby' of fabricating "allegations of anti-Semitism".

- Lee Rhiannon stated: "We are seeing this play out here, with various organisations, pro-Israeli government organisations. [...] Some of these organisations really went to town after this protest - the Executive Council of Australian Jewry, Australasian Union of Jewish Students, the Australia-Israel Jewish Affairs Council, and various newspapers that back those causes."
- Again, Rhiannon accused Jewish organisations of acting on behalf of the Israeli government: "I'm here today because I don't want Sydney University to be another vehicle for the Israeli government lobby to stifle, to try and stifle the voices of those who speak up for Palestinian rights. There is no place for McCarthy-like witch hunts at this university, at any university. Try to acknowledge that Dr Spence right now would be coming under enormous pressure from the Israeli government lobby – I read out the names of all those organisations from here, from overseas, [that] he would [be] under pressure [from]."

The Lynch affair turned into a classic case of accusing Jewish community organisations of being so powerful they only had to "snap their fingers" to be obeyed, of being so sinister that they orchestrated a "witch hunt" against Lynch and others, and were so treasonous by acting on behalf of a foreign government. There was not one shred of evidence produced to support their accusations.

Whether the term used is 'Jewish', 'Israel' or 'Zionist' 'lobby' is irrelevant. Each time it was used in the Lynch affair, it intentionally or inadvertently conjured up the spectre of 'the Jews' as being disproportionately powerful, manipulative, and subversive. Using 'Israel' or 'Zionist' lobby instead of 'Jewish' was simply designed to be a politically correct way of referring negatively to Jews and the communal organisations representing the Jewish community.

When Jewish community organisations are referred to as the "Jewish lobby" this clearly places the Jewish community and its representative organisations outside the normal fabric of a multicultural Australian society. It demonises Jews, by portraying them not as another community with its own culture and traditions, but solely as a politically motivated demographic acting to influence and control policy and outcomes within the government sphere, in order to further their own agenda, even if it is against the interests of the society as a whole.

The persistent and pernicious use of portraying Jewish communal organisations as some nefarious 'Lobby' by the supporters of Jake Lynch after the Kemp lecture was not about defending Lynch and associates. It was a calculated campaign to smear and vilify the Jewish community. It was designed to delegitimise Jewish concerns about antisemitism on campus. It was calibrated to play dog-whistle racist politics with subconscious messaging reflecting the antisemitic conspiracy theories reminiscent of the fabrication 'The Protocols of the Elders of Zion'. It was used to portray the Jewish community's involvement in public discourse and mainstream society as illegitimate, suspicious, subversive and sinister. This is antisemitism.

It is irresponsible; it must not be entertained.”

COMMENTS:

Campus antisemitism – University of Sydney

Several incidents and online commentary at the University of Sydney during 2015 has made campus an uncomfortable place for many Jewish students. Some Jewish students have felt targeted for being Jewish, or for standing up against antisemitism, or for supporting Israel's right to exist. In particular, the Jake Lynch affair created much antisemitic rhetoric (dealt with above). Some other incidents follow.

Incident

On the Facebook event page for the "FORUM: Why Boycotting Israel Isn't Anti-Semitic" held on 13 April 2015, created by Sydney Staff for BDS on March 20, Professor Tim Anderson, of Sydney University, made the following comment which mocks and belittles antisemitism, and in fact is an attempt to praise and rehabilitate antisemitism.

Incident

In April 2015, when Liam, a Jewish student, was introduced to the head of USYD SRC's Autonomous Collective Against Racism (ACAR) (and one of the SRC Ethnic Affairs Officers for 2015), as a Jewish student, the head's response was words to the effect of "Well, I like you less now". No other characteristics or qualities of Liam were described to the head in that conversation; his response was purely based on the description of Liam as Jewish.

Incident

Fahad Ali, President of Students for Justice in Palestine at the University of Sydney, made antisemitic comments about Jews on his Facebook page, 25/26 May 2015. An example follows:

- Fahad Ali Fukin Ashkenazi BULLSHIT look at the fkin Mizrahi ghettos u dickheads

Petition on Student Guild at Edith Cowan University

A petition started by Lewis Todman from Socialist Alternative, on 23 August, claiming that "The Student Guild at Edith Cowan University (ECU) currently denies the right to freedom of speech on campus. Students do not have the right to start political clubs, to organise political events, or even to freely express political opinions on campus." ECU is in Perth. The petition contains these signatures (accessed on 26 August 2015):

- Hitler DidNothingWrong AUSTRALIA
I support this and Hilter did nothing wrong.
- Hitler WasAlright AUSTRALIA
I hope this changes and Hitler made the world a better place

- Kolin Thumbadoo SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA

This is precisely the gagging strategy employed by the zionist lobby in the US and UK to stifle any debate on zionist legitimacy. Shame on the Guild who are complicit in the suppression of freedom which Universities ought to be the first to defend and extend.

Eruv in St Ives

An eruv is a symbolic demarcation, using existing features of the natural or built landscape, around a geographic area within a city. To the extent that existing features are not present, a wire attached to poles is used. The purpose of an eruv is to designate an area within which observant Jews are permitted to carry and push items such as baby prams without violating the Sabbath. A section of the Jewish community of St Ives in Sydney has been constructing an eruv. There has been intense opposition to the eruv by some residents over many years. An eruv has existed in Bondi since 1999 without having any impact on the wider community.

<https://www.facebook.com/pages/Stop-St-Ives-Eruv/367025976839280>

Two posts in March 2015 are of particular concern. One post encourages damage of eruv infrastructure, and another post has anti-Jewish undertones.

[...] The arrogance of these people building a notional Jewish wall around our suburb even they have already been told no is unbelievable ! Out must be taken down and their sly underhand actions publicized widely.

By April 2015, there had been over $3000 worth of damage done so far to the eruv. NSW police made a statement on their Facebook page:

Regardless of your take on the subject, damage to property that belongs to others is malicious damage and if caught damaging that property may result in charges being laid. [...]

In an interview with the St. Ives Progress Association on 2UE, in March 2015, a spokesperson stated that they do not want more Jews in the area, and this is the reason for their opposition to the eruv.

Kosher labelling

Due to negative feeling and publicity from some Australians over the issue of halal labelling of Australian products, Kosher Australia reported that “a number of companies have decided to remove symbols certifying their products as kosher from their packaging.” “In the last three months we have probably received 10 requests from companies that say they support kosher and want to stay kosher but [...] Of those 10, we have had four or five companies that have asked to remove our symbol.”

Red Rattler Theatre in Marrickville

A Jewish group, Hillel, based at the Shalom Institute at the University of NSW, applied to hire the premises of the Red Rattler theatre in Marrickville, Sydney, in March 2015 for some performances. The performances “consisted of a storytelling series on the last generation to have direct contact with survivors of the Holocaust.” Shailee Mendelevich, assistant director of Hillel, explained that Hillel “supports Jewish students and young adults.”

The ‘Red Rattler Team’ replied via email:

- “Our policy does not support colonialism/Zionism. Therefore we do not host groups that support the colonisation and occupation of Palestine.”

The matter was referred to the NSW Jewish Board of Deputies. There was also media coverage in the Australian Jewish media and in The Australian. Within a few days of media condemnation, the Red Rattler Board of Directors apologised and agreed to hire out the facilities to Hillel.

The Red Rattler Theatre, by initially refusing to hire its facilities to a Jewish organisation simply because it had identified itself as Jewish, showed how anti-Israel positions can and often do lead to anti-Jewish behaviour involving discrimination against Jews. This issue indicates two disturbing developments. Firstly, that discrimination against Jews occurs, and is seen as acceptable by some under the guise of anti-Zionism. Secondly, the fact that the discrimination was so openly expressed indicates a perceived social acceptability for racism against Jews, and possibly that Jews are considered fair game. The remedial action taken by the Board of Directors was commendable but only followed adverse publicity for the original decision.

Holocaust Minimisation

Holocaust minimisation has the effect of minimising the crimes and horror of the Holocaust. Regardless of whether or not that is the intent, or whether or not it is targeting Jews, Holocaust minimisation is a serious problem. Making comparisons of laws, policies and conditions in democratic countries like Australia with the systematic and planned murder of six million Jewish men, women and children is morally repugnant, trivialises the Holocaust, minimises the crime that was the Holocaust, and is offensive to the millions of Europeans who lived and suffered under the Nazis. There were several incidents of Holocaust minimisation or inappropriate Holocaust rhetoric during the period in review.

- Prime Minister Tony Abbott said in parliament (12 February 2015): "There was a holocaust of jobs in Defence industries under members opposite." Abbott withdrew the statement, replaced the word 'holocaust' with 'decimation' and apologised.
- Prime Minister Tony Abbott, in parliament (19 March 2015), called Bill Shorten, Leader of the Opposition: "the Dr Goebbels of economic policy". Abbott immediately withdrew his comment.
- Prime Minister Tony Abbott stated on radio station 2GB (3 September 2015) that: "The Nazis did terrible evil but they had a sufficient sense of shame to try to hide it. These people [Islamic State] boast about their evil, this is the extraordinary thing. They act in the way that medieval barbarians acted only they broadcast it to the world with an effrontery which is hard to credit."

Abbott implied that secrecy surrounding the implementation of the Holocaust amounted to the Nazis feeling shame about the mass murder they were committing. In fact, the secrecy was not about shame but about committing the genocide as smoothly as possible, with the least amount of resistance, and an attempt to avoid being held to account after the war.

- Dr Ric Gordon, on the Channel 9 program "Today" (August 2015) on Australians eating too much junk food, stated: "there were no overweight people in the concentration camps...Now they weren't exercising a lot, they just weren't eating."

Nazi Memorabilia

The display, promotion and sale of Nazi and Holocaust memorabilia, although not illegal, is often seen as offensive and distressing, especially by Holocaust survivors and others who lived under the savagery that was Nazi Europe. There can also be an effect that such items can be used to promote or glorify racism, bigotry, hatred and even violence. Many auction houses will not sell Nazi or Holocaust memorabilia, but some do. There were several incidents involving the sale of Nazi/Holocaust memorabilia during the period in review.

- Dozens of Nazi items, including a Hitler Youth knife, Luftwaffe medals, Luftwaffe ceremonial dagger, a Luftwaffe cap badge, a Luftwaffe parachutist badge, stamps featuring Adolf Hitler and several items adorned with swastikas, were sold at auction at the Auction Barn in Canberra. (December 2014)

- Nazi memorabilia, including medals, belt buckles and framed photos of Nazi accoutrement, and other Nazi items, were for sale at the Auction Barn in Canberra. (March 2015)
- Nazi armbands were being sold by a vendor, along with other white supremacist material, at the Ballarat Market in September 2015.
- During a drug raid in Cooktown, Qld, in June 2015, police discovered a shed full of Nazi memorabilia. It included numerous Nazi flags and emblems. The owner is a self-proclaimed white supremacist, neo-Nazi, with a swastika tattooed on his head. The Queensland Police Service did not seize the Nazi items, as they are not illegal to possess.

Holocaust Denial books – Amazon Australia

Amazon Australia, part of the world's biggest online bookseller, is promoting and selling antisemitic and Holocaust denial books from its website, as noted in May 2015. Some of the books include:

“Did Six Million Really Die?”, “The Six Million: Fact or Fiction”, “The Synagogue of Satan”, “The Hoax of the Twentieth Century: The Case Against the Presumed Extermination of European Jewry”, “The Jew as Criminal”, “Jehovah: The First Nazi”, “The Myth of the Extermination of the Jews”, “The First Holocaust: Jewish Fund Raising Campaigns with Holocaust Claims During and After World War I”, “The International Jew: The World's Most Foremost Problem”, “Auschwitz The First Gassing. Rumor and Reality”, "Conspiracy of the Six-Pointed Star", "The Jews and Their Lies", and "The Talmud Unmasked: The Secret Rabbinical Teachings Concerning Christians”.

4. ANTISEMITIC ORGANISATIONS and ONLINE ANTISEMITISM

Introduction

Organisations exist in Australia that promote antisemitic beliefs and ideologies. They tend to be on the far Right of the political spectrum, ranging from conservative pro-British monarchist groups, to nationalist, white supremacist and neo-Nazi groups. They also tend to be composed of small numbers of people, who subscribe to conspiracy theories about a monolithic Jewish people who exercise inordinate power of the world's governments, banks and media. Members frequently opt in and out of similar groups. In 2015, most of these groups were more of a nuisance than an organised threat to Jews, either individually or as a community. However, some groups posed more of a threat.

Since the advent of the internet, avowedly antisemitic organisations and individuals have been able to express and propagate their views on websites, Facebook pages, video channels, Twitter and even with online mainstream media sites.

The internet has caused a revolution in producing, disseminating and accessing information. Before the internet, information, whether in articles, studies, opinions, advertisements, or propaganda, was published in books, newspapers and leaflets. There were financial costs involved in paying for paper and printing and often extensive hours of labour were involved in production. There were physical limits to distribution. As well, with the mainstream print media, clear editorial, professional and legal standards applied.

The internet, on the other hand, provides a relatively cheap and easy means of publication, giving anyone with a computer a potentially global reach. Items posted on the internet, whether on websites, videos, Facebook, Twitter, are accessible not just in the local area or country, but throughout the world.

With the internet, racism and vilification are easily and widely propagated, often with few restraints. Internet publishers operate with far less stringent editorial guidelines and standards than publishers in the print and electronic media.

The law has yet to catch up with technological developments, and only slowly are the laws beginning to cover content on the internet. This is especially true for matters of bigotry, hatred and vilification on the internet. Websites ostensibly espousing an anti-racist agenda often fail to uphold their own principles when it comes to vilification of Jews, whether directly or with regard to the State of Israel.

Of particular concern are the three main areas of internet publication – websites, videos, and social media (mainly Facebook, and Twitter). Items in this Antisemitism Report are from Australian-based sites.

The organisations and online items named and written in this report are but a fraction of what is out there. The groups and individuals named below, and examples of their material that are reproduced in this report, are merely a small sample, providing only an intimation of the magnitude of the prevalence of antisemitic content published within society and online.

Images published on the online sites cited in this chapter are reproduced in the colour section of this report, namely Chapter 8 - Images.

a) Organisations

There are many types of groups and organisations operating within Australia that espouse and promote an antisemitic, and sometimes white nationalist or racist, agenda. Many of them are small outfits, with maybe just a website or a Facebook page, run by a handful of people, or one or two individuals, while others will have a larger membership. However, the influence or popularity can be out of all proportion to their meagre numbers of members.

Some of these organisations and groupings are primarily focussed on hating Jews, whilst for others antisemitism is part of a broader racism against ‘the other’ – immigrants, Asians and Indigenous Australians. The level and type of activities engaged in by these groups varies, as does their public profile. Some ‘stick to themselves’ as a support group of like-minded people, while others have stood candidates in elections for government. Some of the organisations and groups with antisemitic agendas or components are briefly outlined below, together with a sampling of the content each group has published during the last 12 months.

Blood and Honour and Southern Cross Hammerskins

Each year, the neo-Nazi organizations “Blood and Honour” (B&H) and the “Southern Cross Hammerskins” hold a skinhead music festival at a secluded location, featuring music with neo-Nazi, antisemitic and other racist lyrics. This concert is also used as a platform for disseminating antisemitic and other racist publications. Attendance is by invitation only and the venue is usually a closely-kept secret and given out only to invitees. On the ‘Blood and Honour’ home page it says: “We believe there is a need to provide White youth with an alternative to the ‘hip-hop’ culture so eagerly promoted by the Zionist controlled media.”

<http://www.bloodandhonouraustralia.org/>

Church of Creativity

The Church of Creativity is run by the self-styled Reverend Cailen Cambeul, of Adelaide. It has a flag similar to the Nazi flag - a white circle on red background. The Church of Creativity is associated with the Creativity Alliance, a racist and white supremacist group based in the USA. The Church of Creativity website states: “Creativity is a legally recognised religion for White people, by White people. It objects to amongst other things, Christianity, multiculturalism and Marxism. [...] Although we do believe there is a group that we choose to call the Internationalist Elite, many of whom are Jews doing what is best for Jews. [...] Allow it all to be steered by the Jewish Lobby and you have the recipe for the Internationalist Elite.”

<http://sacreator.com/blog/about/>

Squadron 88

Squadron 88 is a neo-Nazi group operating in Sydney. It came to prominence in 2014 when it letterboxed antisemitic leaflets in Sydney’s eastern suburbs where many Jews live. Squadron 88 has since letterboxed several series of antisemitic leaflets. One leaflet was also directed against non-white immigrants. The numbers ‘88’ correspond to the eighth letter of the alphabet, ‘HH’, referring to ‘Heil Hitler’. Ross May, aka ‘The Skull’ has been publicly associated with Squadron 88, among other known thugs. The group has tried tentatively to reach out to extremist Islamist groups. May himself has been seen attending at least two Palestinian solidarity demonstrations. At one of these he marched behind a yellow Hezbollah flag chanting “In our thousands, in our millions, we are all Palestinians”.

United Patriots Front

Led by Shermion Burgess, known as the "Great Aussie Patriot", a former Reclaim Australia leader. The Facebook page of the United Patriots Front is liked by more than 25,000 people. Burgess said in September 2015, as reported in The Age, that his group would not support the new Islam-critical group, Australian Liberty Alliance: "No way ... when they are linked directly to the billion dollar Zionist economy destroying world banking family the Rothschild's [sic]."

b) Websites

In Australia, as elsewhere, there are websites dedicated to expressing and promoting anti-Jewish ideas, beliefs, and actions. Anti-Jewish organisations will generally have their own websites. Some antisemitic individuals will also have their own websites. Some of these websites have a high volume of traffic with large numbers of visitors. Others are less popular.

This section provides some examples of pages and postings of several antisemitic websites. Material is chosen to give a sample of their basic views about Jews.

Isolate But Preserve

<http://isolatebutpreserve.blogspot.com.au/>

The website "Isolate But Preserve" was set up by Brendon O'Connell after his release from prison in January 2014, for breaching WA's race hate laws. (In 2011, he was convicted by a jury of serious racial abuse, harassment and intimidation under the WA Criminal Code and served three years in prison). O'Connell is based in Perth. He writes most of his own material, often a mix of texts and images, but also posts articles by others. O'Connell was posting on average every couple of days, up until December 2014. O'Connell's ideology is one of extreme hostility to Jews as the bearers of Judaism, which he believes is a racist and evil religion. He also focuses heavily on the Talmud, and on anti-Jewish conspiracy theories. Extracts from some articles, and comments under articles, are below.

Dear Julie,

Brendon O'Connell here - I am offended and sickened at being called an "anti-Semite" and I demand you retract publicly this disgusting notion. [...] How dare you include me as a "anti-Semite"! I am outraged and most definitely offended. I have feelings you know. I may need therapy after this.

The Arab people have been the victim of anti-Semitism for some time now from a sickening and depraved cult known as "judaism". A religio/politico movement founded by lunatics some time ago; it continues to persecute and murder Semites with impunity - especially women, children and nursing ababies in accord with it's most revered religious texts. It expounds notions of racial and religious supremacism and a desire to rule the world. [...]

By what measure of psychopatholy are you yourself operating when you write your drivel and post it as some sort of authoritative monolouge on nasty people who hate jews? You make me sick. I feel sick. I feel sick and I feel "offended". [...]

My dear Julie Nathan, do you think you might have a problem? Do you think you are a bit sick in the head? Sick because you expect the victims of Jewish anti-Semitic Arab hatred to simply lay down and die and allow this sort of ideological sickness to take hold?

I've sent this on to all 88 state members of parliament. They are enthusiastic readers of my Blog and most of them think as I do - "you are a bunch of racist, homicidal lunatics with a religion of racism, hatred, homicide and ethnic cleansing."

[...] You are walking a knife edge. As long as you continue to label people like myself as simple "haters" you seal your fate. As you have never suffered you can most likely not imagine the backlash that is on its way against you and your fellow psychopaths. [...]

Expel the Parasite

<http://expeltheparasite.com/>

‘Expel The Parasite’ (ETP) is a neo-Nazi website, run by Brett Light, aka BDL1983, believed to be living in Victoria. He writes most of his own material, often referencing Australian mainstream media articles or current affairs. He also republishes articles and videos from other websites, and antisemitic images, and publishes readers’ comments on all entries. Some images appear in Chapter 8. The following are extracts from some articles and comments on ETP.

You’ve gotta hand it to ‘em – their genius at parasitism is second to none, an inbuilt skill entrenched in their DNA which no-one else can rival. Big Jew banking firm = tick in the Jew box. Former Lawyer = tick in the Jew box. Now Prime Minister serving the international Jewish crime network = tick in the Jew box. And the following article = tick in the Jew box. This is why expecting anything from the political system as it is, is a complete joke. Jews run the whole system, lock, stock, and barrel. When one Jew arse kisser is given the boot, they just bring another arsehole in! Same old story..... Yawn.

The Jews and Misery

<http://nordicwisdom.com/2014/12/19/the-jews-and-misery/>

- If you have been watching the news (not always a good idea as 99.99999%) of media companies are owned and controlled by Jews to destroy the white race. We'll then you know we have had a minor terrorist attack here in Australia but thankfully only 3 people killed. [...] on the Jewish news I saw a Jew with his Jew hat and suit – Jewish uniform on, throwing flowers in, I wonder if the millions of white people he has slaughtered and continues to slaughter will ever get flowers?

The point also being that the Jews are responsible for every form of human misery that we know of, and since most white people view them as white because they look white superficially, even though they are a completely different race to white Europeans with a strong hatred for us, they will continue to drill white people into a hell hole deeper than you could ever imagine just like they are doing to the Palestinians. Anti-jewish Public Service Announcement

<http://nordicwisdom.com/2015/03/11/anti-jewish-public-service-announcement/>

- The Jewish race is a demon spawn in human form, the degree of misery and starvation that this parasitic species has caused not only to Nordic people, but countless other races as well, is truly barbaric and mindblowing in terms of its astounding malevolence. White males in particular have suffered under Jewish tyranny like no other social group, the filthy hooked nosed monsters have had their teeth drawn deeply into the roots of European manhood for quite some time now and have brainwashed European women into thinking that they are oppressed and that their role in life is to be like men, which goes against nature, just like the Jews themselves, everything they do goes against normality. The parasite is a serious infection for white nations, and it needs to be dealt with by the community as a whole, acting in the interests of the entire white community. Trent.

About

<http://nordicantisemite.com/about/>

- The Jews brought the world to war in 1939. Since winning that war they have been in control of the world. The worst part about this is that they deny this, and try to create dependant groups e.g. faggots, feminists (the movement to turn the entire female sex into a victim group). They create a dependant society. The Nordid (Nordic) Volk is being systematically exterminated by the Jews and they continually deny this and prevent any Nordid (Nordic) self-determination by calling it ‘Racism’. The only real Racism going on is on the part of the Jews EXTERMINATING every native race in the world. This is called Multiculturalism. [...] Aidhan

Jews – The Devolutionary Ferment

<http://nordicantisemite.com/jews-the-devolutionary-ferment/>

- The Jews history among the nations is one of murder. They are the most fanatical preservers of their own blood. To preserve their blood, they vigorously pursue every independent people to the death. Jews will as soon as their host people let them, impose conditions on the organic People that demand nothing but their complete extinction. They will move onto the next host, claiming they did nothing, when in fact, they have done everything.

Their survival strategy, which they were smart enough to make their religion is based on undermining, denying the existence of, bastardising and subjugating, eventually exterminating every other group until they can rule over the ashes of nothing, all to secure their survival, in a world they contributed nothing towards.

If you don’t want to live under their tyranny they call you an extremist.

If you think your race is something worth preserving they call you a racist.

The Jew is the parasite of humanity.

[...] When it comes to the Jew, if you keep him he destroys your culture, says you don’t exist and kills you & if you get rid of him he says you are evil and kills you.

Racial and Cultural Autonomy

<http://nordicantisemite.com/2015/06/30/racial-and-cultural-autonomy/>

- Some people believe in the ‘holocaust’ and believe that the Jews need ‘protections’. Germanic people know it was a Jewish lie designed to give moral grounds to those that fought Germany and justify the extermination ‘a true holocaust’, of the Nordic and Germanic people and that the Jew is a bastard.

- Some people believe the Jews are chosen by god, some people believe the Jews are a plague on the planet, follow the Talmud; not any Christian book and are a destructive force.
- Jews of course demand lordship over everyone otherwise its anti-Semitic. Nobody really wants to share a country with Jews and anybody who is not a Jew who knows anything about the Jews is 'anti-Semitic'.

The Psychology Of Being An Inferior Race

<http://nordicantisemite.com/2015/08/09/the-psychology-of-being-an-inferior-race/>

- This article shows Politics, Morality and Values, to be merely the eternal battle between Human and Subhuman; human with ideas of uniqueness and subhuman with the complaining of equality. [...] The earliest racial origins and their polar opposites, the primal Nordic Race and the subhuman Jew and their interactions throughout history are shown to be responsible for politics and values today, to produce a case for racial separation, for the sake of the superior race.

The Trouble With Jews

<http://nordicantisemite.com/2015/08/13/the-trouble-with-jews/>

- The Jew has always been a subhuman force of decay and death. Their desire is that us, and any people on the planet with noble and good characteristics be destroyed and completely eradicated from the face of the earth. The entirety of their history has been a rebellion against mans true form. Hated by man, he is the anti man. And yet he still exists.

About us

<http://www.localterror.com/about-us/>

This website was created by a group of concerned individuals, who wish to spread the truth to the people of the world about the criminal murderous Khazars, that fraudulently call themselves Jews. We are happy to announce our website has reached 16,000 unique visitors per day and growing. [...]

We support the real Semites (Palestinians), not fakes (Jews)

We have so many haters of this website. All of them are Jews. So don't be surprised to see fabricated stories about any of our team members on the internet. Zionist Jews are brilliant at deception and defaming the innocent. This is the sole reason why the Jews own the Media News Networks all over the world, to tell you how to think, and who to hate, for their evil global agendas. (Divide and Conquer) it's how they brought down many ancient civilizations in the past and modern ones today.

Jews are Mongrels, they have been proven many times to be an invention. Even their Genetics have been tested and found to contain many many races... since they migrated from their motherland Khazar / Ottoman Turkish Empire long ago. Jews were the original Gypsies, that went from country to country, village to village. Stole, killed and kidnapped children, for their satanic rituals.

The Genocide of 15+ Million Germans by the Jews

June 3rd, 2015

- The Real Holocaust of World War Two – The Genocide of 15+ Million Germans
A crime so great, so cruel, and so heinous, that none in the entire span of human history can equal it. The gates of hell were opened up. It is the ghastly truth of the jewish-orchestrated plundering, mass rape, mass murder, and subjugation of the German people in the latter days and aftermath of World War Two, which continues to this day. Estimated 15+ million ethnic Germans murdered after the war. Around 5-10+ million German women mass raped.

Jews the Synagogue of Satan

<http://www.localterror.com/jews-the-synagogue-of-satan/>

July 12th, 2015

- Jews have always defamed and killed their opponents, in every country they have controlled. Millions have been slaughtered in every country, in every nation, by the Jews. Jews wear many masks, To hide the blame. They use puppet regimes to hide themselves ordering the killings. They even invent labels to blame others, instead of themselves e.g. Zionism. [...]

The Star of David (Moloch, Remphan) has 6 outwards points, 6 lines, 6 inward points (hexagon) – which forms a hexagram and is the most powerful symbol in the occult. This is also where the term to “put a hex on someone” comes from. These Jews today truly belong to the synagogue of Satan.

In Australia, there are websites which are not dedicated to promoting antisemitism but which often publish antisemitic articles and/or comments. The most prominent of these is the left-wing website New Matilda (see below) which focusses on publishing articles about current affairs. The articles themselves generally do not contain antisemitic content, but the website and articles, particularly those about Jews or Israel, attract posted comments which express racist views about Jews, either directly or by reference to Israel.

Australian National Review

<http://www.australiannationalreview.com/>

This website often publishes fringe views, for example that Hitler did not commit suicide, that ISIS is funded by the USA. ANR was established in late 2014, and published several antisemitic articles, in both print and online, in late 2014.

Before the 9/11 event, there were reportedly seven: Iraq, Afghanistan, Libya, Sudan, Cuba, Iran and North Korea, but by 2003 Iraq and Afghanistan were already under Rothschild control. By 2011, Libya and Sudan were also gone; in Libya, a bank set up by the powerful family was established in Benghazi while the nation was still at war. The Rothschilds supposedly control the Bank of England, the European Central Bank, the Federal Reserve, the World Bank, the International Monetary Fund and the Bank of International Settlements. They own most of the world’s gold and the London Gold Exchange and, according to an estimation made by Credit Suisse, the USD231 trillion is controlled by Evelyn Rothschild, the current head of the family.”

“Does the Rothschild empire still control world events?” (8 Dec 2014) at

- “The purpose of the Illuminati is to divide the goyim (all non-Jews) through political, economic, social, and religious means. The opposing sides were to be armed and incidents were to be provided in order for them to: • fight amongst themselves • destroy national governments • destroy religious institutions • eventually destroy each other”

“The Rothschilds plan was to cause the United States to build up such a debt in fighting this war that they would have to surrender to the Rothschilds and allow the charter for the Rothschild owned First Bank of the United States to be renewed.” [reference to war of 1812]

“This is because they are guaranteed by the government of a country, and therefore the efforts of the population of that country, and it doesn’t matter if that country loses the war because the loans are given on the guarantee that the victor will honour the debts of the vanquished.

Whilst the Rothschilds are funding both sides in this war, they use the banks they have spread out across Europe to give them the opportunity to set up an unrivalled postal service network of secret routes and fast couriers. The post these couriers carried was to be opened up by these couriers and their details given to the Rothschilds so they always were one step ahead of current events.”

“Back to 1815, this is the year Nathan Mayer Rothschild makes his famous statement, “I care not what puppet is placed upon the throne of England to rule the Empire on which the sun never sets. The man who controls Britain’s money supply controls the British Empire, and I control the British money supply.” “

“Australia’s New Prime Minister Malcolm Turnbull More Jew Than Any Hebe” by Cailen Cambeul (15 September 2015)

<http://creativityalliance.com/australias-new-prime-minister-malcolm-turnbull-more-jew-than-any-hebe/>

- A Goy that thinks he just might possibly have Jewish heritage, Malcolm Turnbull is potentially the worst prime minister Australia could ever have throughout its history. Right: HJIC – Australian Prime Monster Malcolm Turnbull is the ultimate philo-Semite. (HJIC = Head Jew In Charge.)

Unusual for these days, Turnbull actually lives in his own electorate on the shores of Sydney Harbour. One of the wealthiest areas in Australia, it’s a region of Sydney that contains a concentration of Jews higher than any other area in Australia. We are talking about an enclosed area with massive fencing, gating and private security rivalling the Berlin Wall and Checkpoint Charlie. If you do manage to get in and you are clearly not a Hebe, you will be picked up by the security and handed over to the state police, who will then grill you until they can prove that you are an anti-Semite, throw some Kosher charges your way and holocaust your arse in the local court. That’s Turnbull’s friends; that’s Turnbull’s neighbours; that’s Malcolm Turnbull all over.

So, can you imagine Prime Monster Turnbull refusing to do the bidding of Israel? No and neither can I. Australia will soon be at war with anyone and anything that the Jew points its fat greasy sausage finger at. Pro-Jewish laws will be created throughout the land, and the Hebe will be elevated to the status of a fat Golden Cow for the prostrate Goyim to worship.

Former Prime Minister Abbott was planning on bringing in twelve thousand nogs from Syria – which itself is bad enough. Turnbull however, understands and accepts the Jewish mandate to ethnically cleanse the Middle East of Goyim and turn the land over to Gross Israel. For Australia, that means the importation of thousands upon thousands more Sand-Niggers and Africoons in order to appease both the bleeding heart lefties and his Jewish masters.

Yes, Turnbull is Libtard. A Kosher Conservative that can please the Marxist Left and the Kosher Right all in one philo-Semitic package. Militant Sand-Niggers wont know whether to hug him or to shoot him, as he bows to an increasingly Gross Israel’s demands for war and he imports ever more of their fellow Rag-Heads to speed up the Muslim takeover of Australia.

Malcolm Turnbull is the puppet Prime Minister that the Jew has been salivating for. A wannabe Kike, he is their HJIC (Head Jew In Charge). His reign will forever dispel the false dream that peaceful and democratic political activism can ever restore White Australian Sovereignty. The racial demographic of Australia is about to drastically change, and by all the dictates of the anti-White Libtard and of Jewish Revenge Policies, the White Australian will disappear in a holocaust of Mud. Australia has entered the era of the Bloody Racial War, and we CREATORS will lead the way. We will grow and with our White Racial Loyalist Brethren, we will unify White Australia under the WHITE RACIAL CREED OF CREATIVITY and together, WE WILL WIN this RACIAL HOLY WAR. For Total White Victory! RaHoWa! Cailen Cambeul

New Matilda

New Matilda is a left-wing website which publishes articles predominantly on current affairs. It has a strong focus on Australian issues, but also covers foreign affairs. The articles generally do not contain antisemitic content, but the comments frequently do, including Holocaust denial. There are several posters who comment prolifically and whose comments regularly contain antisemitic rhetoric. There appeared to be more moderating of antisemitic comments, especially of Holocaust denial, in early 2015, but antisemitic comments remain a feature of New Matilda. Antisemitic comments were collected and copied into a word document, amounting to over 60 pages. Extracts of some of these antisemitic comments from just a few articles are republished here.

Great to see that there is a few, very few, politicians not bought and paid for! The Israeli lobby will of course go into full swing, denigrating this principled woman, having her office deluged with phone calls and letter, threatening her with withholding of funds, attempting to get her disendorsed [...] the Jews can either live as decent folk would, in a land governed by those to whom it belongs, or leave, if there is any country stupid enough to take them. Stupid, because we have a stark example of how these people reat those who take them in!

Judaism [...] The Chosen Ones did not operate as a charity for the benefit of the non-Chosen, but as an exclusivist, xenophobic, tightly controlled in-group, acting in opposition to others, and developing a religion that by the time of Tacitus was notorious for its hatred of outsiders. That mentality has gotten Jews into strife over the millennia, particularly when it runs rampant, as it does today with Israel triumphant in controlling the West. [...] I think it is quite plain that Israel today represents the very worst vices of Judaic chauvinism, supremacism and narcissism. [...]

You could then note that the 'oldest hatred' is in fact Judaic antigoyism, as the Israelites established themselves as separate from and in opposition to the goyim 3500 or so years ago. You could examine the copious doctrines of Judaic supremacism [...] You could contemplate how the oldest extant records of genocide and the exhortations to commit it, from God, are found in the Judaic Torah, the Christian Old Testament. You could discuss the significance of the fact that two Judaic religious feasts celebrate genocide, one Divine, the Passover and the genocide of the first-born, even animals, in Egypt, the other, Purim, committed by the Jews themselves. Jewish money power buys politicians through copious monetary 'contributions', and less open inducements, like well-paid jobs on retirement or for family and friends, then demands pretty unquestioning loyalty, particularly in regard to Israel. Hence in the USA the captive Congress [...] votes overwhelmingly for Resolutions actually written by AIPAC and other organs of Jewish control. [...] While this control grows ever more total and extends to the MSM where criticism of even the most brutal Israeli crimes brings vicious retribution (eg Mike Carlton) the Jewish Lobby continues to shout through its numerous megaphones that it does not exist.

The moral imperative to support the Palestinians is absolute, but so great is the power of the Jewish plutocracy, here and throughout the West, through their monetary contributions, and ferocious vindictiveness when crossed, that they have made moral imbeciles of the entire Western political caste.

- Mulga Mumblebrain
both Parties are firmly in the pocket of the local Israel Lobby, and 'generous' (but demanding) grantees like 'ex'-Hagannah member Frank Lowy, the lucky beneficiary of 9/11-well somebody's gotta win, eh? Of course, the 'Israel Lobby' doesn't exist, rich Jews only give money, even-handedly, with no strings attached, out of the goodness of their hearts to show their dedication to 'Australian democracy', even if they do spend most of their time living in ethnically cleansed Jerusalem or other parts of Occupied Palestine.

- DrGideonPolya
There have been about 20 schemes for Jewish colonization of other countries and there was considerable support for race-based Jewish colonization of the Kimberley. After it had been finally subdued by genocidal White Australians.. Fortunately for us John Curtin vetoed this plan in 1944 on Australia Intelligence advice [...] if Curtin had not vetoed the plan for race-based Jewish settlement of NW Australia then [...] what White Australians could have suffered in a Nazi-style Apartheid Australia if treated the same way as the Palestinians by the racist Zionists: [...] 1. 90% of Australia ethnically cleansed of Australians 2. 12 million Australians forbidden to step foot anywhere in Australia on pain of being shot (although Jews from around the world could get citizenship of an Apartheid Australia) .
- Mulga Mumblebrain
And why do all Palestinians become targets for brutal extermination because of the actions of a few, which, although it is kosher under Judaic religious law, is banned as 'collective punishment' under the mere 'Christian morality' of International Law?
- Mulga Mumblebrain
Unfortunately in the West where, despite ludicrous denials of the plain facts, Jewish money power has bought the political system and controls most of the ludicrously biased MSM, the public has long been brainwashed by the Judeofascists, like yourself, into a frenzy of Islamophobia. Millions have died as a result, numerous countries been destroyed [...] the bloodlust is quite insatiable. I'll not venture here to the numerous Judaic fundamentalist religious exhortations to mass murder of civilians including children and to the collective punishments of whole populations [...] the Jewish Lobbies and the 'antisemitism' smear has ensured their near total suppression in the Western MSM.

discussion, it's clear that the current global schism between anti & pro Zionist Jews will soon rapidly deteriorate into a full blown Judaic civil war.

The genocidally racist Zionists have falsely mal-appropriated the Jewish Holocaust to the extent that the term "The Holocaust" is now generally but falsely synonymous with the Jewish Holocaust to the exclusion of the 25 million non-Jewish Slavs, Gypsies and others who also died in the WW2 European Holocaust as a result of Nazi German imperialism.

Because as two books pointed out between 1945 and 1949 under the direction of Henry Morgenthau and the US president some 6 million German civilians were starved to death, put into camps 100 yards from the Rhine and denied water, people having their hamstrings slashed so they couldn't escape the allies, and a further 16 million German civilians herded into smashed Berlin to starve. [...] We are talking about a frigging genocide that gets zero currency anywhere. They were humans slaughtered by the allies at the direction of US Jews and the help of the so called liberators in PEACE TIME. [...] We also learnt in that book that the Nazis slaughtered 3 million Polish Catholics - and that the number of 6 million Jews was a number fed to Eisenhower by Morgenthau to justify US involvement.

Of course they are still at work and headed for the next stage of their strategy. They won both world wars so what makes anyone think the march of the Jewish Banksters would have stopped with the destruction and enslavement of Germany when that was always just one step in the process. Now they are trying to get East and West to fight it out so they can supposedly tighten their grip on what remains. Albeit that might be ashes.

d) Facebook

Facebook is an online social networking service, created in 2004. Individuals or organisations can set up a Facebook account, and add comments, images, articles, and links, to their own pages and to the pages of those they ‘friend’. These can be shared with other Facebook users. By 2014, 1.23 billion users were active on Facebook every month, either through their computers or mobile phones. Facebook is a huge global interlinked web. Facebook has a Community Standards policy, against offensive, hate and other forms of unacceptable speech. However, Facebook is very permissive when it comes to hate speech and antisemitism.

There are many Australian groups and organisations which are antisemitic, and host Facebook pages. Other groups may not be antisemitic but nevertheless tolerate antisemitic comments on their pages. There are also many individuals who post a prolific volume of antisemitic content on their own Facebook pages and on other Facebook pages. Some of these people illustrate how just one individual is able to express, promote and spread anti-Jewish views across the Facebook world. Some individuals will target Jewish or other facebook pages for antisemitic comment.

The following Facebook posts are posted on the Facebook pages of individuals or of groups or organisations. The individuals or organisations may or not be antisemitic, but the following comments are.

For him, the promised land was not Palestine but the United States of America. Palestine, or Israel as it is called today, was re-established for the sole purpose of receiving those undesirable types of destitute and cadging Jews who scare New York millionaires, because they carry with them everywhere the germs of "anti-semitism". Or twisted evidence like the doctored photographs and the Hollywood produced visions of starving allied prisoners depicted as Jews suffering. The Australian ran a story about a survivor of Nazi torture on its Facebook page on 23 April 2015. This elicited many antisemitic comments especially from Fiona O'Sullivan, Noah Marsters, and others. O'Sullivan cites on her Facebook page that she is an employee of the Commonwealth Bank. Moderators at The Australian Facebook page deleted almost all antisemitic comments by midnight of that day, 23 April.

On a Facebook page called "HSC Discussion" for high school students doing their Higher School Certificate in NSW, there were several threads with Hitler related images and antisemitic comments. One thread, on 3 August 2015, had dozens of antisemitic comments. This thread was later deleted, as of October 2015. Other threads had only a few or no comments. Images were commonly used, with mainly Hitler or Holocaust themes. Images have been removed from the comments and placed into the table underneath, for easier viewing. Names of posters have been removed to protect those aged under 18.

e) Twitter

Twitter is a relatively new online social medium, having been created in 2006. Twitter allows for short quick exchanges of a maximum of 140 characters per message, called “tweets”. The hashtag (#) allows people to create and/or follow numerous topics. Over the last couple of years, Twitter has grown exponentially. By 2012, there were over 100 million users posting 340 million tweets per day. During the period in review, Twitter was not specifically monitored, although several Tweets were reported, some of these being of great concern, including the following tweets.

James Howarth: against Josh Frydenberg MP

<https://twitter.com/JamesRHowarth>

A series of antisemitic tweets directed at Josh Frydenberg, Federal Assistant Treasurer, who is Jewish, were made by James Howarth, a Brisbane-based financial planner, principal of Retirement Wealth Advisers, on 27-28 June 2015. Howarth opposed government moves to cut upfront commissions for financial planners from 120% to 60%. These tweets included the following:

- “Get your Josh Frydenberg ‘Central Planning Jew’ punching bag AB. I ordered 5000 in on the next Cargo flight out of ShenZhen.”
- “Slap stick comedy Jew Frydenberg stars in Deregulating Regulator Regulating”
- “The F— Frydenberg’ movement is picking up steam. Free Markets or Central Planning Jews.”
- “What a cock sucker. First course of action was to regulate insurance salaries. Tinkering Jew”
- asked Frydenberg if he was “afraid for Australia to know he’d a Jew”

On 2 March 2015, following a fire at a business, Howarth tweeted “Jewish stocktake?” This derogatory and stereotypical term is used expresses the idea that a business has been destroyed on purpose by its owner to claim the insurance.

5. CHRISTIAN

Christianity has a long history of antagonism and hatred towards Jews and Judaism. On the positive side, some churches have moderated these positions, some have sought reconciliation with Jews and respect for Judaism, and some are very supportive of the Jewish people and Zionism. However, on the negative side, some churches maintain hostility towards Jews and Judaism, whilst others have transformed their supersessionism and 'liberation theology' into hostility and active opposition to the Jewish state.

In general, Australia has not had the overt and vile antisemitic expression from mainstream Christians that has been seen in Europe and the Americas. There were no known incidents of overt antisemitic rhetoric or activity from within the mainstream Christian communities in Australia during the period in review. However, the following items provide a snapshot of antisemitism or antisemitic rhetoric or incidents across the broad range of Christianity within Australia.

Father Dave Smith - Holy Trinity Anglican Church

Father Dave Smith is the minister at the Holy Trinity Anglican Church in Dulwich Hill, Sydney. He is politically vocal and active in the anti-Israel movement, and is involved with Islamic groups, especially Shia, and also Left-wing groups. Father Dave Smith has several websites, some of which have links to other websites which feature overtly antisemitic content. He also has a couple of Facebook pages. Although his expressions are not overtly antisemitic, many of Smith's writings allude to hostility towards Jews.

For example, in June 2015, Smith posted an antisemitic image. This image is of a black figure identifiable as a Jew by his hat and equates the Jewish Star of David with both the Nazi swastika and the Communist hammer and sickle. The intended message is that Jews are responsible for the crimes of Nazism and Communism, a standard antisemitic trope about 'Jewish power' and an imaginary Jewish conspiracy to dominate the world. The image shows the Jewish character pushing aside a Muslim and a Christian who are trying to be, or are, friends, again appealing to the same trope to blame Jews for various conflicts between Muslims and Christians. This was posted on two of Smith's Facebook pages.

In an article by Father Dave Smith, titled Beyond Tribalism – Christians and Muslims are sisters and brothers (10 October 2014) Smith makes the following demonstrably inaccurate slur, which completely overlooks the powerful, universal ethical messages of Judaism which are also shared by Christianity:

- The religion of the Jews, then as now, was very tribal. There was a very strong sense of us and them...
<http://christiansandmuslims.com/articles-christians-muslims/beyond-tribalism-christians-and-muslims-are-sisters-and-brothers/>

In an article by Father Dave Smith, titled “Christians around the world take a stand for Palestine!”(11 August 2015), in reference to Pope Francis, Smith publishes a further anti-Jewish slur:

- Apparently the Sanhedrin is going to put him on trial unless he renounces his apostasy! Yes, you heard right – the Sanhedrin (or at least some self-appointed group calling themselves the Sanhedrin). Surely it would only be self-defeating for any such body to try to do to such a church leader what was done to her founder!

<http://israelandpalestine.org/christians-around-the-world-take-a-stand-for-palestine/>

In fact no Sanhedrin has been convened (or can be convened under Jewish law) since the destruction of the Jewish Temple in Jerusalem in 70CE.

Bible Believers

Christian Identity churches, unlike almost all other denominations of Christianity, place the concepts of race and racial purity high on their priorities. They are expressly anti-Jewish from a medieval Christian theological perspective. There are several Identity type churches. The one with the most prolific and popular website is Bible Believers.

Bible Believers is led by Anthony Grigor-Scott, based in rural NSW. In 2007, the Federal Court upheld a complaint of racial vilification under Part IIA of the Racial Discrimination Act that had been brought against Grigor-Scott by Jeremy Jones, the then President of the Executive Council of Australian Jewry: [Jeremy Jones v The Bible Believers* Church \[2006\] FCA 123 \(21 February 2006\)](#). In 2008, the Court's decision was overturned on appeal on procedural grounds, including the ground that Grigor-Scott had not been properly joined as a party to the original proceedings: [Grigor-Scott v Jones \[2008\] FCAFC 14 \(28 February 2008\)](#)

The Bible Believers website publishes numerous articles which are reproduced on, and/or originate from, other rightwing, antisemitic, or overtly racist websites. Bible Believers promotes the idea of a Jewish conspiracy to control the world and the theory that communism is a Jewish conspiracy. It also promotes Holocaust denial. Some extracts from a few Bible Believers' 'Newsletters' follow.

- They hate Our Freedoms [November 2014]

The vast majority of so-called 'Jews,' far from being God's chosen people, are genetically more closely related to the Hun tribes than to the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Instead of being Israelites, Jews from Eastern Europe and Western Asia have descended from Mongolian and other Asiatic people who had adopted Judaism as their "religion." But the invasion of which we speak will not take place until after Rome breaks her covenant with the Edomite and Khazar self-styled Jews who will then declare allegiance to their tribal kinsmen in Judaeo-Communist Russia which they conquered in 1917 after 1,000 years of warfare. From Russia they will blast Vatican City State and the United States of America from the face of the earth. [...]

The long-term plan of Judaeo-Catholicism is to ally or convert Islamists through fear of Judaeo-Communism and the fraud of our Lady of Fatima, while 'the City' plans to neuter and as far as possible exterminate political Islam along with political Zionism in World War III. And whereas Judaeo-Communism is irreconcilable with either Judaeo-Roman Catholicism or Islam, and enmity with the Vatican, it is a creation of Rothschilds who bear the title, "Guardians of the Vatican Treasury".

- You should be concerned about Your Hopeless Future [February 2015]

3. Ignorance of Jewish influence. The first two categories of concern, as well as practically all those that follow, are a result of the multifaceted Jewish takeover of all the disparate realms of society, from entertainment to medicine, from the law to religion. The melting down of the educational system into training for slaves and the knee-jerk ecumenism of the emerging one world religion are all strategies created by

Jews to standardize humanity into one subclass of worker bees, controlled by an elite class of Jews that cares only for the profit it can derive from the control of everyone else.

The domination of the US government by Jews has been the downfall of the whole world, as it has been the formula for wrecking each individual country and subsuming them into a slave relationship with world banking scams and the coercive corruption that goes with it.

Jewish dominance in media and education has created a world population that thinks like Jews, looks for other people to exploit, and has completely forgotten the ancient principles of neighborliness and compassion that bring out the best in human interactions. More importantly than that, decent people not pressured by the Jewish philosophy of ripping people off produce healthy and compassionate children who seek justice and truthfulness in every act of their lives. Instead we now have addled sex and drug addicts occupying powerful offices who are totally controlled by the rich psychos who made them famous and dictate their every move.

This trend of ruthless Jewish influence has made honesty obsolete and cynical manipulation of language and deceptions of intent have become the desired traits of a totally untrustworthy populace.

The fact that each one of the major political parties in the United States is totally dominated by Jewish advisers guarantees that Americans will never again know true freedom until these parasitic and conscienceless psychopaths are banished from participating in the American political process.

From music dominated by African rhythms that foment social discord to cosmology with its false concepts that channel exploration into senseless formulas for social miseducation, the Jews have polluted all areas of human endeavor on their insane mission to either control or destroy every living organism on this planet.

The Jewish nation of Israel poses as America's best ally in the Middle East, but it is really a succubus draining the life out of a formerly vibrant country that has turned everyone who endorses its scurrilous and demonic tenets into untrustworthy scumbags.

- Jewish Young Turks and the Armenian Genocide

April 24, 2015 — In June 2015 Armenians worldwide plan to commemorate the centennial of Metz Yeghern, the Armenian Holocaust. Banking is the forte of the Jewish House of Rothschild; raw materials—especially oil—are money in the bank. The Young Turk movement or Committee of Union and Progress arose out of the Rothschilds' oil interests in the Black Sea area of the Ottoman Empire in the late 1800s. 'Creating stability' in an incendiary realm was necessary for Rothschilds' new Baku Oil enterprise. The instability of the Armenian Christians' financial and intellectual prominence in the area was 'bad for business.' Thus hand-picked Jews of Salonika and foreign agitators like Russian Zionist, Vladimir Jabotinsky, the editor of The Young Turk newspaper, were just what Rothschilds needed for ridding the source of that 'instability,' the Armenian Christians.

Now, the Zionist Young Turks, who sought the breakup of the Ottoman Empire in order to obtain Palestine—and the House of Rothschild who needed a Jewish-controlled Turkey and hegemony over the entire Middle East could work together. This meant funding for the Jewish Young Turks and revolutionary subversives for the Rothschilds.

The Young Turk movement was created and controlled by Donmeh, these crypto-Jews who converted to Islam in order to hide their Jewish identity were also followers of Sabbatai Zevi, perhaps the most prominent of many self-proclaimed Jewish Messiahs; he had also converted to Islam.

The international Jewish elite provoked the First World War in order to achieve several goals that included the revolutions in Russia and Germany and the destruction of the Ottoman Empire. In 1917, Great Britain signed the Balfour Declaration, the promise for the creation of a Jewish state in Palestine. British troops would gain control over Palestine and prepare it for the creation of a Jewish state in Palestine. Crypto-Jew Mustafa Kemal Ataturk created a Turkish Republic in order to destroy the Ottoman Empire completely. The Jewish revolutionist Alexander Parvus who was the financial adviser of the Young Turks and the Jewish Bolsheviks supplied Ataturk with 10 million gold roubles, 45,000 rifles, and 300 machine guns with ammunition. In 1915 the Young Turks committed genocide against the Armenians, and also the Greeks and Assyrians. The main reason for the Jewish genocide of the Armenians is that these non-Semitic, anti-Semitic self-styled Jews believed that the Armenians are Amalekites, the arch enemies of the Israelites. Jews also believe they are the descendants of the ancient Israelites. The Turkish government is Jew-ruled to this day and Jewish groups such as the ADL deny the Armenian genocide, because it was perpetrated by Jews, including Mustafa Kemal Ataturk ...Full story: realjewishnews.com

6. MUSLIM

The Muslim communities within Australia are religiously, ethnically, and politically diverse. There are many excellent and successful interfaith programs and forms of dialogue between Muslims and Jews which seek to break down barriers and create better mutual understanding.

However, there are individuals and groups who identify as Muslims and who in the name of Islam express and promote anti-Jewish views, either from a religious or political perspective, or a confused amalgam of both. Some examples of this follow.

Sheikh al-Wahwah

Sheikh Ismail al-Wahwah, spokesperson for Hizb ut-Tahrir Australia, has given public speeches vilifying Jews and inciting violence against Jews.

The first such speech was recorded at an anti-Israel protest in July 2014 in Sydney. A transcript of this speech appeared in the ECAJ's Annual Antisemitism Report for 2014, at page 123. The video and transcript can be viewed at:

"Australian Islamist Leaders Incite to Jihad to Expel Jews from Palestine - July 25, 2014"

Video: <http://www.memritv.org/clip/en/4403.htm>

Transcript: http://www.memritv.org/clip_transcript/en/4403.htm

In the speech, al-Wahwah stated: "The Jews... are the slayers of the prophets... Where the Jews thrive, corruption abounds. [...] The entire world suffers from the children of Israel today." Al-Wahwah claimed that the Jews are a "hidden evil" from which the world must be freed, adding "This mission will be accomplished by none but you, O Muslims ... The ember of jihad against the Jews will continue to burn."

On 9 March 2015, Vic Alhadeff, CEO of the NSW Jewish Board of Deputies (JBD), submitted a complaint about the speech to the NSW Anti-Discrimination Board (ADB), requesting that al-Wahwah be prosecuted under Section 20D of the NSW Anti-Discrimination Act. The ADB investigated the complaint and promptly referred the matter to the Director of Public Prosecutions (DPP) with a recommendation that the DPP consider prosecuting al-Wahwah under section 20D for having incited hatred against Jews by means which included threats of physical harm.

Section 20D of the Anti-Discrimination Act is headed "Offence of serious racial vilification". It provides:

"A person shall not, by a public act, incite hatred towards, serious contempt for, or severe ridicule of, a person or group of persons on the ground of the race of the person or members of the group, by means which include...threatening physical harm towards, or towards any property of, the person or group of persons..."

It is to be noted that since the enactment of section 20D in 1989, twelve matters (including the al-Wahwah incident) have been referred to the DPP for possible prosecution under that section, but no prosecutions have eventuated.

In response to the JBD submission, Hizb ut-Tahrir issued a media release (10 March 2015). Extracts include:

- “apologists for Jewish criminality in Palestine have sought to silence criticism of the actions of the Jewish entity by playing the victim card. [...] the victims of Jewish barbarity in Palestine [...] oppose the criminality of Jewish occupation in Palestine. [...] Vic Alhadeff [...] appears he is now unashamedly seeking to extract his vengeance upon the Muslim community by falsely exploiting the words of Hizb ut-Tahrir. [...] shine the spotlight on Jewish atrocities in Palestine”
<http://www.hizb-australia.org/media-centre/press-releases/item/1494-vic-aldaheff-and-the-charge-of-anti-semitism>

Another YouTube video of a speech by al-Wahwah subsequently came to light. In this speech, al-Wahwah also vilified Jews and called for their destruction. Hizb ut-Tahrir claims that this speech too was made on 25 July 2014 at Lakemba, but a video of it was not posted online until 3 March 2015. This speech was added to the complaint of the NSW Jewish Board of Deputies to the NSW Anti-Discrimination Board. Extracts from al-Wahwah’s speech follow:

- Australian Islamist Leader Ismail Al-Wahwah Incites to Wage Jihad against Jews: "They Are the Most Evil Creatures of Allah"

“Allah said [in the Quran]: "Fight them until there is no fitna ['strife'], and religion belongs to Allah alone." Refraining from fighting and from waging Jihad against the Jews constitutes fitna. This fitna is worse than killing, because it means that the Israelites will rule the Muslims until Judgment Day.

Recognizing the Jews and giving them even a single inch of Palestine constitutes the epitome of evil, because this will strengthen that cancerous entity. They are the most evil creatures of Allah: "You shall find the strongest people in enmity towards the believers to the Jews and the polytheists." Refraining from fighting them constitutes widespread evil. It will enable them to kill Muslims and take over their countries, in order to spread corruption upon the land, and to capture and kill women and men. All forms of corruption are linked to the Israelites and their arrogance. [...]

The wombs of this nation's women have not ceased to give birth to heroes. This nation is abundant in women giving birth to heroes and mujahideen. It has always been so and will continue to be so until Judgment Day. [...]

Past, present, and future – since their inception, the Israelites have gone hand in hand with evil and disobedience. "They did not prevent one another from any wrongdoing." A Jew does not prevent another from wrongdoing. If [a Jew] criticizes another in the media, it is only to pull the wool over one's eyes. The Jews are in alliance and in concert with one another.

Some superficial Muslims tell you about some Jew who demonstrated against the corruption. As long he is in Palestine, that Jew is an aggressor like any criminal. His very presence in Palestine constitutes an aggression, because he is an occupier, no matter who he is.

We must not be deceived by this. The Jews are the most evil creatures of Allah. Moral corruption is linked to the Jews. Prostitution in the world began with the Israelites. Usury and gambling began with the Israelites. Killing who began with the Israelites. They slayed the prophets without just cause. Prophets must not be killed, yet the Israelites killed them. [...]

If the Jews were given the whole world, they would want the heavens. That is the nature of the Jews. [...]

It is a delusion to think that there can be peace and coexistence with the Israelites, with the Jews. It is a delusion to think that we can share one state or two states, and that the Jews can be our neighbors, as suggested by some self-proclaimed, yet deluded, "scholars." One such ["scholar"] claims that fighting neighbors is forbidden. He is one of them. Therefore, coexistence with Israel and the Jews is a delusion. There is only one solution for that cancerous tumor: It must be uprooted and thrown back to where it came from. [...]

They have corrupted the world with their corrupt media. The Israelites have corrupted the world with so-called art, cinema, and corrupt films, and with sex trade, drug trade, and moral depravity. They have corrupted the world in every respect. These are the Israelites. [...]

Whatever the outcome is of today's battle, it is not the final battle. There is a sea of blood between the Jews and us. They will pay with blood for blood, with tears for tears, and with destruction for destruction. They are deluding themselves if they think that this nation will ever surrender to a gang of foreigners. [...]"

In late August 2015, NSW Police announced that there was insufficient evidence to launch a prosecution against al-Wahwah. NSW Police stated: "The NSW Police Force has investigated the complaint thoroughly and found that, at this time, it is not possible to identify who uploaded the footage in question or charge him or her for uploading the offensive material." As well, the current law requires charges to be laid within six months of the complaint.

In response, Hizb ut-Tahrir issued a media release on 31 August 2015, which stated in part:

- "Six months later, the Jewish lobby in Australia that supports "Israel" tried to exploit the political attacks on Hizb ut-Tahrir that saw Prime Minister Tony Abbott and his government deliver numerous statements on Hizb ut-Tahrir. As such, roughly 16 Jewish organisations issued a complaint against him to the Anti-Discrimination Board (ADB), accusing him of racial vilification and of inciting hatred and violence against them in their capacity as Jews. In this regard, they used excerpts from his speeches and partially translated them, using them to provide a meaning that served their objectives.
- 1. The entity in Palestine is an occupying entity, and there is no legitimacy to its existence even on a single piece of Palestinian land, and it is certain that the Muslim Ummah will work to reverse this occupation and liberate Palestine.

- 3. The Jewish lobbies that support this illegitimate state should distance themselves from its crimes and occupation instead of waving the stick of anti-Semitism to intimidate anyone that exposes these very crimes.
- 5. Media outlets that are biased towards the Jewish lobbies should realise that lies do not last long, and that people are becoming more aware of political realities and the crimes of “Israel”. As such, the media should stop being biased in favour of the actions of this state.”

Islamic Bookstore

The Islamic Bookstore in Lakemba, Sydney, continues to stock and sell antisemitic books, as it has over a number of years. One such book currently being sold is “Emergence of Dajjal: The Jewish King”.

In Islam, the Massih Dajjal (False Messiah), often simply referred to as the Dajjal, is the equivalent of the anti-Christ in Christianity. The Islamic Bookstore is selling a children’s book claiming that the Jewish messiah (or king, in children’s terminology) is actually the anti-Christ. Such a book denies that the Messiah who Jews wait and pray for is a good human being who comes to bring peace and justice to the world; instead the book portrays the Jews as evil for waiting for the demonic Anti-Christ.

In April 2015, the Daily Telegraph reported on children’s books teaching anti-Aboriginal and anti-Jewish lessons being on sale in the Islamic Bookstore:

- “AN Islamic bookstore in Sydney’s west is selling children’s books that teach kids the skull size of Aborigines is “quite small” and that Jews are “much conceited”.

One book, Emergence of Dajjal the Jewish King, depicts a snake entwined around the Israeli flag on its cover and teaches that Jews are set on world domination. “The Jews are waiting impatiently for the coming of Dajjal, their beloved king,” the preface reads. “He will summon all the creatures to his obedience. He will emerge from the valley between Iraq and Syria and will raise great fuss and mischief right and left in every direction.” ”

Jake Bilardi - Abu Abdullah al-Australi

Jake Bilardi was an 18 year old male from Melbourne who converted to Islam in 2012. In August 2014, he travelled to Iraq and joined ISIS. Bilardi adopted the name of Abu Abdullah al-Australi and had a blog titled “From the Eyes of a Muhajir”. On 12 March 2015, as part of a coordinated series of bombings in Ramadi, Iraq, Bilardi blew himself up in a suicide bombing, killing 17 people and injuring dozens more.

Two blog entries are reproduced below, one partially, and one in full.

From Melbourne to Ramadi: My Journey 13 January 2015, Bilardi wrote:

- “I saw them shooting innocent people and their treacherous leaders justifying their crimes by claiming that Jews are superior to all other races, stating that Arabs are less than dogs and should be treated as such, pointing to the Talmud as the source of their bigotry.
- The Jews have already been living in fear after similar attacks [Paris, Toulouse, Brussels] by our brothers. Our French brothers are a shining example
- It is their relentless attacks against the Jews that have kept the killers of the prophets in a constant state of fear.
- The Jews in Europe are becoming so terrified by the rise of the mujahideen in the continent that they are looking towards Israel as a safe-haven. They don’t realise though that no matter where they are we will fight them until the trees and stones speak and say: “O Muslim, there is a Jew hiding behind me, come and kill him.” [Sahih al-Bukhari 94:2925]
- Islamic State [...] it is only a matter of time before the State makes its move and enters the occupied territory to slaughter the Jews
- There is no peace for kufr anywhere on Earth and those who killed the prophets of Allah
- By fleeing to Israel, the Jews of Europe are only changing their place of death [...] they refuse to accept this treaty with the Muslims their blood, wealth and property will always be halal for us and we will never show an ounce of mercy to such a treacherous people who are the strongest in enmity to the believers. [Surat al-Ma’idah 5:82]
- Upon studying the Talmud as an Atheist though I realised how filthy and depraved these people are.

- I woke up to the reality of these pigs and monkeys and accepted that there is nothing between us and them but the sword.
- The curse of Allah (azza wa'jal) will forever be upon the Jews for their deviance and their crimes against the prophets of Allah (azza wa'jal) and the believers. They either submit to the Muslims by paying jizyah or accept their fate and submit to our swords."

From France to Israel, You Will Never be Safe 16 January 2015, Bilardi wrote:

- "In the wake of the successful operations by brothers Said Kouachi, Cherif Kouachi and Amedy Coulibaly (May Allah accept them all as shuhadah) in Paris, many French Jews are reportedly considering fleeing to Israel, fearing more attacks. It was the attack by brother Coulibaly that targeted a kosher supermarket in the French capital, killing four Jewish hostages before he attained shahadah, walhamdulillah. Two days earlier, brothers Said and Cherif Kouachi killed 12 people at the Charlie Hebdo magazine office in Paris, including cartoonists who repeatedly insulted Prophet Muhammad (salallahu alayhi wa salam) and two police officers, including one apostate. The Jews have already been living in fear after similar attacks by our brothers. In 2012, in the southern French city of Toulouse brother Mohammed Merah (May Allah accept him as a shaheed) gunned down four Jews after earlier killing three French soldiers. Also across the border in the Belgian capital, Brussels, brother Mehdi Nemmouche, raided the city's Jewish museum in May 2014 killing four. Our French brothers are a shining example for the rest of the Ummah to engage in attacks against the kuffar in their perceived realm of security. It is their relentless attacks against the Jews that have kept the killers of the prophets in a constant state of fear.

The Jews in Europe are becoming so terrified by the rise of the mujahideen in the continent that they are looking towards Israel as a safe-haven. They don't realise though that no matter where they are we will fight them until the trees and stones speak and say: "O Muslim, there is a Jew hiding behind me, come and kill him." ^{»[Sahih al-Bukhari 94:2925]}
 The mujahideen of the Islamic State is slowing moving into Israel, with small cells operating in the Gaza Strip and our brothers from Ansar Bayt al-Maqdis in Egypt's Sinai Peninsula have also given bayah to Amir al-Mumineen Ibrahim ibn Awwad al-Badri as-Samaraa'i al-Husseini al-Quraishi al-Baghdadi. With the Islamic State also building an army in Lebanon, Israel is becoming surrounded day-by-day and it is only a matter of time before the State makes its move and enters the occupied territory to slaughter the Jews who have oppressed the Muslims of Palestine for 56 years and liberate al-Quds (Jerusalem) and Masjid al-Aqsa. There is no peace for kufr anywhere on Earth and those who killed the prophets of Allah (azza wa'jal) will never dream of security until they pay the jizyah and feel themselves subdued. ^[Surat at-Tawbah 9:29]

By fleeing to Israel, the Jews of Europe are only changing their place of death, if they desire safety and security their most viable option is fleeing to the Islamic State and paying jizyah, thereby making their blood, wealth and property haram for the Muslims. As long as they refuse to accept this treaty with the Muslims their blood, wealth and property will always be halal for us and we will never show an ounce of mercy to such a treacherous people who are the strongest in enmity to the believers. ^[Surat al-Ma'idah 5:82]

Many secular opponents to Israel try to claim that there is a difference between a Zionist and a Jew, I myself was among these people. Upon studying the Talmud as an Atheist though I realised how filthy and depraved these people are. As an Atheist, even though I was aware of the disgusting statements in the Talmud I gave excuses and pretended I was misinterpreting the text. After I became the ‘radical, terrorist’ I am today though, I woke up to the reality of these pigs and monkeys and accepted that there is nothing between us and them but the sword. As a secularist I believed that a Jew in Israel isn’t innocent but a Jew in Europe is and many others also hold this ignorant opinion. However, if this is the case, why are the Jews slaughtered in France in the recent attack as well as the 2012 Toulouse killings, being buried in Israel? Were they really innocent people?

The curse of Allah (azza wa’jal) will forever be upon the Jews for their deviance and their crimes against the prophets of Allah (azza wa’jal) and the believers. They either submit to the Muslims by paying jizyah or accept their fate and submit to our swords.

“Have you not seen those who were given a portion of the Scripture? They believe in Jibt and Taghut and say to the disbelievers that they are better guided as regards the way than the believers. They are those whom Allah has cursed, and he whom Allah curses, you will not find for him (any) helper.” [Surat an-Nisa 4:51-52]”

Two Tweets by Zaky Mallah, posted originally on 19 and 22 July 2014, were retweeted by others on 4 July 2015, after Mallah had controversially appeared on the ABC Q and A program, as a guest in the audience. After the tweets gained publicity in Jewish media, Mallah deleted the tweets around 4-5 July 2015.

AAI - Australians Against Islamophobia

AAI - Australians Against Islamophobia is a Facebook page dedicated to exposing and countering anti-Islam and anti-Muslim bigotry. However, it has posted anti-Jewish content. There were some attempts by AAI to warn against posting antisemitic content, and to admonish those responsible, but AAI itself did not always recognise the antisemitic nature of some of the offending posts. Examples of unmoderated antisemitic content posted on the AAI Facebook page follow.

This six minute video posted on AAI asserts that Mossad equals ISIS, al-Baghdadi of ISIS is a Jew, the top Muslim terrorists are actually Jews, and the (Jewish) Anti-Defamation League supports the Nazi movement in the USA.

The 'HUA Ashkenazi' logo was specifically designed to equate Judaism with Nazism and communism, as seen in the memo for creating the logo in August 2014: "1. The word NAZI in AshkeNAZI needs to stand out. 3. The 3 symbols of judaism, nazism, and communism need to be incorporated as part of design." <http://jobs.designcrowd.com.au/job.aspx?id=672011>

The Australian Islamic Peace Conference (AIPC) held on 29 March 2015 in Melbourne, was organised by the Islamic Research and Educational Academy (IREA), and directed by Waseem Razvi. It had several international guest speakers.

One of these was Sheikh Hussain Yee, from Malaysia, who promotes the antisemitic conspiracy theory and blood libel that Jews perpetrated the 9/11 terrorist attacks on the Twin Towers in New York. Inviting an antisemitic conspiracy theorist to a conference in Australia was a way of promoting racism, including antisemitism. As reported in The Australian:

- “In a 2006 video clip, which is still readily available on YouTube, tomorrow’s keynote speaker Sheikh Yee tells a large Muslim audience that “nobody really knows” what happened on September 11, 2001. “We do not know who is behind that,” said Yee ... “If they want to say it is the Muslims, what can we do? It’s their word against our word.” [...] “What is happening in Iraq is very unjust. What is happening in Palestine is very unjust. So don’t worry about the Twin Towers. We have nothing to do with it.”

But Sheikh Yee said he had suspicions of his own about who might have been behind September 11. “You know who is very happy when the Twin Towers had been attacked?” he said. “A group of Jews was so happy in America. They were having a party when they heard that the Twin Towers had been burned. “Why did they do that? We don’t know. Who is behind that? Allah knows.”

Muslim Village

Muslim Village (MV) was established in 2001, originally under the name IslamicSydney. It is based in Sydney, but has an international audience and participation. Muslim Village is a website with news and articles. It also has an internet discussion forum, where members discuss issues by posting comments, and a Facebook page. It generally acts responsibly in avoiding publishing content that is overtly racist, including against Jews, but there have been some notable lapses, especially in comments on its Facebook page.

Muslim Village – articles

<http://muslimvillage.com/>

Muslim Village republishes many articles from other websites. Some of these are from anti-Jewish and conspiracy type websites. Further, underneath articles, people may post comments. The following examples, and extracts of articles, are provided to show some of the antisemitic rhetoric and themes in articles published on MV.

“The Eid of Sacrifice” by imranhosein.org(5 October 2014)

<http://muslimvillage.com/2014/10/05/58283/eid-sacrifice/>

- The Gog and Magog world-order’s slaughter of Arabs in Iraq, Afghanistan, Pakistan, the Holy Land, and elsewhere, is now reaching its climax as the Euro-Jewish State of Israel prepares itself to ‘rule’ the world.

“The Judaization of Al-Aqsa” by Elias Akleh (24 October 2014)

<http://muslimvillage.com/2014/10/24/58853/the-judaization-of-al-aqsa/>

- The Jewish collective consciousness had been, for thousands of years, programmed with the racist religious myth of god’s chosen people in god’s Promised Land with a temple in its center; Jerusalem, in which god’s spirit would reside. The Pharasaic’s (now termed Zionist) colonial great Jewish-only Israel project would be meaningless without “The Temple”; the Jewish religious dimension.
- Since 1967 till today, a total of 47 years, the Israeli archeological department has been digging under and around the Al-Aqsa Mosque searching for any evidence to substantiate their claims that the Solomon Temple was erected on that site. All what they uncovered were only Islamic and Roman artifacts. Even after reaching the foundational rocks of the Mosque they have not found any shred of artifact proving that the temple had ever existed on the site. Yet despite all the scientific evidence the myth of the temple still exists and gains strength due to the Yeshivas (Jewish religious schools) and political Rabbis’ indoctrinations of the naïve younger Jewish generations. Such indoctrinations serve only to increase the superiority complex of god’s chosen and beloved people, and the contempt and hatred to all goyim (non-Jews) especially the Palestinians, in the heart of the young Israeli generations.
- If similar terror attacks were perpetrated against Jewish homes and synagogues western Zionist controlled media outlets would cry “terrorism”, instead they are directing westerner’s attention to ISIS, Ebola disease and police violence.

“The False Messiah” by quranandhadith.com (November 28, 2014)

<http://muslimvillage.com/2014/11/28/59810/the-false-messiah/>

In Islamic theology, the False Messiah, or Messih Dajjal, is the equivalent of the Anti-Christ in Christian theology. Some extracts of this article follow.

- ‘Dajjal’ will be a young man, with curly hair and a Jew.
- All the glamour and technological advance in the modern world is sponsored by Zionists-Jews; ‘Dajjal’ is the mastermind for all this.
- The state of Israel would become the ruling state of the world, and This rule would be eternal.
- As we know that ‘Dajjal’ is all about deception, therefore, in order to achieve the global imperialism for Zionists-Jews, ‘Dajjal’ will be using different types of weapons; and all his weaponry will be based on deception.

- One of the biggest obstacles in way of Zionists-Jews to accomplish their dream of re-instating the state of Israel and rule the world was the united rule of Muslims which was established in form of 'Islamic Khilafah'. So, unless they remove or destroy the 'Islamic Khilafah', they could not achieve their dream of establishing their rule over the world.
- ...the rich are getting richer day by day, while the poor are getting poorer and poorer. This is a humongous oppression of the mankind launched by the Zionists-Jews in order to cherish their dream.
- It is a sort of financial imperialism, with its reins in the hands of Zionists-Jews. Don't we know that whole banking system is controlled by the Zionists-Jews? Is there any doubt over that? That is 'Dajjal' at work, at his deceptive best.
- 'Dajjal' will emerge in human form after the conquest of 'Constantinople' by the Muslims. He will be recognized by the Zionists-Jew as the Messiah they were waiting for.
- An army of Jews from Iran will come and join 'Dajjal'. They would be recognized easily by those who will remember this hadith:
- He is said to be Imam Al-Mahdi (and Allah knows best). Zionists-Jews will try to send armies to kill this prominent personality.
- Under 'Dajjal's' leadership, the Zionists-Jews will plan an attack on Makkah and Madinah.
- 'The False Messiah' will run for his life when he faces the 'True Messiah'. Eisa (AS) will chase him, and when he reaches Al-Ludd (a town around 15 kilometers southeast of present day Tel Aviv), he will catch 'Dajjal' and kill him.

Muslim Village - Facebook

<https://www.facebook.com/muslimvillage>

The most prolific and overt antisemitism on Muslim Village occurred on its Facebook page. Over 100 A4-size pages of antisemitic comments were recorded during the period in review. There appeared to be very little moderating of the Facebook page by MV, thus accounting for the high levels and intensity of antisemitic comments remaining on the page.

The Muslim Village Facebook page is very popular, reaching 1,000,000 Facebook Fans on 22 December 2014. This has been a fivefold increase over the previous year. On 11 July 2015, MV claimed "we reach 2-3 million people a week on Facebook."

The significance of the comments below, and those not reproduced here, is that they represent some views towards Jews that exist amongst Muslims and others. Although MV is an Australian site, posters include Australians and non-Australians, Muslims and non-Muslims. A small sample of these comments follows, with Facebook post URL first, then comments. Many posts on the MV Facebook page are linked to articles on the MV website. Of note, the word "Yahood / Yahud" is Arabic for "Jew".

7. ANTISEMITISM in the ANTI-ISRAEL MOVEMENT

All governments are legitimately the subject of criticism for their policies and actions, including the governments of Israel as much as those of Australia or any other country. However, some criticism of Israel crosses the line from political criticism into antisemitic hate speech. Often this is through demonisation, delegitimisation, and double standards used against Israel (as explained in Natan Sharansky's article below). Other discourse, which is dressed up as ordinary political criticism, is framed within older anti-Jewish motifs, especially the Blood Libel, deicide claims, and conspiracy theories of Jews supposedly aiming to control the world.

Thus, antisemitism today, especially in the anti-Israel movement, is often expressed using classical anti-Jewish motifs and themes which are then given a modern cloak. For example, where once it was said that the Jews seek to control the world, now it is said that Israel seeks to control the world; where once it was said that Jews lusted after Christian/gentile blood, now it is said that Israel lusts after Arab/gentile blood; where once it was said that Jews/Judaism were Satanic, now it is said that Israelis/Zionists are Satanic.

It is this nexus which makes ostensibly ordinary political discourse about Israel or Zionism antisemitic, as the negative qualities traditionally attributed by antisemites to the Jewish people collectively are transferred to Israel as the contemporary symbol of Jews as a group.

The Overlap Between Anti-Zionism and Antisemitism

Some quotes and articles are provided below which explain how antisemitism is sometimes expressed as anti-Zionism, and how some criticism of Israel has merged into antisemitism.

- Dow Marmur (18 January 2015):
“As the determination to exterminate the individual Jew was once dressed up in sick pseudo-science, so today the need to eliminate Israel is manifest in sick pseudo-humanitarianism.”
- Paul Charney, chairman of the Zionist Federation of GB (26 August 2015):
“It should be down to all individuals of good conscience to sound the alarm, to make it clear that anti-Semitism is no more acceptable from someone in a keffiyeh than it is from someone with a skinhead.”
- Manuel Valls, French Prime Minister (25 August 2015):
“anti-Zionism is the portal that leads to anti-Semitism.”
- Lord Jonathan Sacks, Britain's former chief rabbi (10 June 2015):
"Jews have been faced with a choice: live in Europe and criticise Israel or be silent - or leave Europe"
- Pope Francis, (28 May 2015):
“Anyone who does not recognize the Jewish people and the State of Israel — and their right to exist — is guilty of anti-Semitism.”
- Stephen Daisley (25 August 2015):
“To be an anti-Zionist is to say the Jews alone have no national rights. The Left are committed internationalists; they just make an exception for every country in the world besides Israel.

Today a European leftist is someone who sees "Jews, get out of Palestine" on a wall and tuts, before scoring out "Jews" and writing "Zionists" above it."

- David Cameron, Britain's Prime Minister (17 April 2015):

"As well as the new threat of extremist Islamism, there has been an insidious, creeping attempt to delegitimize the state of Israel, which spills over often into anti-Semitism. We have to be very clear about the fact that there is a dangerous line that people keep crossing over. This is a state, a democracy that is recognized by the United Nations, and I don't think we should be tolerant of this effort at delegitimization. The people who are trying to make the line fuzzy are the delegitimizers. And I have a very clear view, which is that if you disagree with the policies of Israel, fine, say so, but that is never a reason to take that out on Jewish communities. We have to be very clear about threats—this is a dangerous line that people keep crossing over, that says that anti-Zionism is a legitimate form of political discourse."

- Dr David Hirsh, University of London, (15 April 2011):

"When you educate people to boycott only Israel, when you tell them that all Israelis are responsible for human-rights abuses, when you mobilise a global campaign to say that Israel is uniquely racist, and when this campaign becomes central to progressive politics globally, you are, whether you know it or not, incubating anti-Semitic ways of thinking. When ears are closed to concern about anti-Semitism on the basis that such concern is a marker of secret support for Israeli human rights abuses, then you know there is a problem."

- Mike Fegelman and Josh Benjamin (31 August 2015):

"When people who criticize Israel implement anti-Semitic tropes such as caricatures of Israelis with long hooked-noses dressed disheveled or looking for money, that's anti-Semitic and isn't anti-Israel. When Israelis are accused of being involved in conspiracy theories like controlling the media, economy or government, that's also anti-Semitic. When Israelis are compared to Nazis, it thereby lessens the magnitude of the Holocaust and implies that Israel's treatment of Palestinians is identical to the Nazis treatment of Jews."

- Alan Johnson (10 September 2015):

"Those campaigns laid the ground for the form taken by left-wing antisemitism today - antisemitic anti-Zionism. Antisemitic anti-Zionism bends the meaning of Israel and Zionism out of shape until both become fit receptacles for the tropes, images and ideas of classical antisemitism. In short, that which the demonological Jew once was, demonological Israel now is: malevolent, full of blood lust, all-controlling, the obstacle to a better, purer, more spiritual world. Antisemitic anti-Zionism has three components. First, it is a political programme aiming at the abolition of the Jewish homeland. Second, it is a demonising intellectual discourse and system of concepts: "Zionism is racism"; Israel as a "settler-colonialist" which ethnically cleansed the "indigenous" people, went on to build an apartheid state and is now engaged in an incremental genocide against the Palestinians. Third, it is a global social movement (the Boycott Divestment and Sanctions or BDS movement)."

Antisemitism in 3-D

by Natan Sharansky

21 January 2005 [extract]

I offer a simple “3-D” test for differentiating legitimate criticism of Israel from antisemitism. This “3-D” test applies the same criteria to the new antisemitism that for centuries identified different manifestations of classical antisemitism.

The first “D” is the test of demonization — as noted in the State Department report. Jews have been demonized for centuries as the embodiment of evil, whether in the theological form of a collective accusation of deicide or in the generalized depiction of Jews as money-grubbing Shylocks. Today we must take note when the Jewish state or its leaders are being demonized, with their actions being blown out of all rational proportion.

For example, the comparisons of Israelis to Nazis and of the Palestinian refugee camps to Auschwitz — comparisons heard frequently throughout Europe and on North American university campuses — are clearly antisemitic. Those who draw such analogies either are deliberately ignorant regarding Nazi Germany or, more commonly, are deliberately depicting modern-day Israel as the embodiment of evil.

The second “D” is the test of double standards. From discriminatory laws many nations enacted against Jews to the tendency to judge their behavior by a different yardstick, this differential treatment of Jews was always a clear sign of antisemitism. Similarly, today we must ask whether criticism of Israel is being applied selectively. In other words, do similar policies pursued by other governments produce similar criticism?

It is antisemitic discrimination, for instance, when Israel is singled out for condemnation by the United Nations for perceived human rights abuses while proven obliterated of human rights on a massive scale — like China, Iran, Cuba, Saudi Arabia, Sudan and Syria, to name just a few — are not even mentioned. Likewise, it is antisemitism when Israel’s Magen David Adom, alone among the world’s ambulance services, is denied admission to the International Red Cross.

The third “D” is the test of delegitimization. Traditionally, antisemites denied the legitimacy of the Jewish religion, the Jewish people, or both. Today, they attempt to deny the legitimacy of the Jewish state, presenting it as, among other things, the prime remnant of imperialist colonialism.

While criticism of an Israeli policy may not be antisemitic, the denial of Israel’s right to exist is always antisemitic. If other peoples, including 21 Arab Muslim States — and particularly the many states created in the postcolonial period following World War II — have the right to live securely in their homelands, then the Jewish people has that right as well, particularly given the sanction of the United Nations in setting up and recognizing the country at its founding. Questioning that legitimacy is pure antisemitism.

When Legit Criticism Crosses the Anti-Semitism Line

by Alan Dershowitz

1 July 2005

As Thomas Friedman of The New York Times accurately put it, "Criticizing Israel is not anti-Semitic, and saying so is vile. But singling out Israel for opprobrium and international sanction -- out of all proportion to any other party in the Middle East -- is anti-Semitic, and not saying so is dishonest"

I have set out a list of criteria that distinguish anti-Semitism from legitimate criticism. Here are my criteria:

A CHECKLIST of factors that tend to indicate antisemitism:

1. Employing stereotypes against Israel that have traditionally been directed against "the Jews." For example, portraying Israel as devouring the blood of children or characterizing Israeli leaders with long hook noses or rapacious looks.
2. Comparing Israel to the Nazis or its leaders to Hitler, the German army, or the Gestapo.
3. Characterizing Israel as "the worst," when it is clear that this is not an accurate comparative assessment.
4. Invoking anti-Jewish religious symbols or caricaturing Jewish religious symbols.
5. Singling out only Israel for sanctions for policies that are widespread among other nations, or demanding that Jews be better or more moral than others because of their history as victims.
6. Discriminating against individuals only because they are Jewish Israelis, without regard to their individual views or actions.
7. Emphasizing and stereotyping certain characteristics among supporters of Israel that have traditionally been used in anti-Semitic attacks, for example, "pushy" American Jews, Jews "who control the media," and Jews "who control financial markets."
8. Blaming all Jews or "the Jews" for Israel's policies or imperfections.
9. Physically or verbally attacking Jewish institutions, such as synagogues or cemeteries, as a means of protesting against Israel.
10. Stereotyping all Jews as fitting into a particular political configuration (such as "neo-conservatives," Zionists, or supporters of Sharon).
11. Accusing Jews and only Jews of having dual loyalty.
12. Blaming Israel for the problems of the world and exaggerating the influence of the Jewish state on world affairs.
13. Denying, minimizing, or trivializing the Holocaust as part of a campaign against Israel.

14. Discriminating against only Israel in its qualification for certain positions or statuses, such as on the Security Council, the International Court of Justice, and the International Red Cross.
15. Blaming the Jews or Israel, rather than the anti-Semites, for anti-Semitism or for increases in anti-Jewish attitudes.
16. Taking extreme pleasure from Israeli failures, imperfections, or troubles.
17. Falsely claiming that all legitimate criticism of Israeli policies is immediately and widely condemned by Jewish leaders as anti-Semitic, despite any evidence to support this accusation.
18. Denying that even core anti-Semitism—racial stereotypes, Nazi comparisons, desecration of synagogues, Holocaust denial—qualifies as anti-Semitic.
19. Seeking to delegitimize Israel precisely as it moves toward peace.
20. Circulating wild charges against Israel and Jews, such as that they were responsible for the September 11 attacks, the anthrax attacks, and the 2005 tsunami.

A CHECKLIST of factors that tend to indicate legitimate criticism of Israel:

1. The criticism is directed at specific policies of Israel, rather than at the very legitimacy of the state.
2. The degree and level of criticism vary with changes in Israel's policies.
3. The criticism is comparative and contextual.
4. The criticism is political, military, economic, and so forth, rather than ethnic or religious.
5. The criticism is similar to criticism being raised by mainstream Israeli dissidents.
6. The criticism is leveled by people who have a history of leveling comparable criticisms at other nations with comparable or worse records.
7. The criticism is designed to bring about positive changes in Israeli policies.
8. The criticism is part of a more general and comparative criticism of all other nations.
9. The criticism is based on objective facts rather than name calling or polemics.
10. The critic subjects his favorite nation to comparable criticism for comparable faults.

ANTISEMITISM in ANTI-ISRAEL GROUPS

Each mainland state and capital city has an organisation in support of Palestine. These tend to be composed of a conglomeration of people from Socialist Alternative, Socialist Alliance, other Left leanings, and those of Arab and/or Muslim background. Some have websites, most have Facebook pages. Many universities have a Students for Palestine group, of varying levels of activity.

As well, there are other websites and Facebook pages dedicated to opposition to Israel and support for the Palestinians. Many of these contain anti-Jewish content. There are also organisations and individuals, websites and Facebook pages, which are not specifically about Israel but which take an anti-Israel line. In this chapter, a sample from all these types of organisations and groups is presented.

Australians for Palestine Advocacy Group (AFPAG)

‘Australians For Palestine’ is one of the main anti-Israel groups in Victoria. It is organised by Sonja Karkar. Its Facebook page, AFPAG, is administered by Sonja Karkar and contains many posts and comments that are antisemitic, and which are kept on the page. The website <http://australiansforpalestine.com/> still exists but with no new content since early 2014.

Nazi Propaganda was Based on What Zionists Said [...] The Zionists agreed with Nazism in general, even prior to the advent of Nazism. They believed that Jews could not, and should not, live in harmony in any other society in the world, and that should be removed from those societies for the benefit of those societies. They believed that the new Jewish existence in its own State would remake the image of Jews as "useless" and "parasites." These ideas existed long before Adolf Hitler!

The #jews had it pretty rough during #WW2. Hitler tried to wipe them out along with the #Freemasons for trying to control the world through banks and the monetary system. The fact that this video of Israel's advocacy of apartheid, Islamophobia, racism, inciting violence and oppression of the Palestinian people has not been condemned immediately by world leaders, is the justification for growing anti-Semitism. If the civilised governments of the global community will not take action against Israel's appalling impunity, then the global community cannot be held accountable for that growing wave of anti-Semitism. When Israel is unwilling to act democratically it leaves the global community with no recourse but to look upon it with hatred and contempt. Furthermore, lending even more impetus for its opposition and sanctions.

Typical of organised crime in America. 9/11, ISIS, Terrorism have all been created by US and Israeli Intelligence to instill fear and control into the mass media. [...] Russian and Ukrainian Jewish criminals have also been able to set up networks in the USA, following the large migration of Russian Jews to New York and Miami, but also in European cities such as Berlin and Antwerp. [...] Soviet-Jewish criminal groups in the USA are involved in racketeering, prostitution, drug trafficking, extortion, and gasoline fraud as well as murder.

On other spectrum there is the Zionist Jew whose ideology is barbaric, inhumane, uncivilised and immersed in the satanic cult which they have shielded from the Western world. They think their world domination and barbarity in Palestine will succeed. The reason they think so is because they are the seeds of Lucifer.

Palestine Matters

<http://www.palestinematters.com/Default.aspx>

‘Palestine matters’ is the website of Vacy Vlazna, an Australian anti-Israel writer. Vlazna often re-publishes her articles on non-Australian websites such as ‘Intifada-Palestine’, ‘Palestine Chronicle’, ‘Counter Currents’, and elsewhere. Vlazna often uses analogies between Israel and Nazi Germany, and often crosses the line into other forms of antisemitic criticism of Israel. Extracts from some of Vlazna’s articles follow.

“Merkel’s Wall of Hypocrisy” by Vacy Vlazna (12 November 2014) uses analogies between Israel and Nazi Germany and minimises German responsibility for the Holocaust.

http://www.palestinematters.com/Merkels-Wall-of-Hypocrisy_News_1064.aspx

- [...] lets Israel perpetually pull on the Holocaust ring through Germany’s nose and suck billions of reparation euros from the German economy. [...] the Israeli desecration of the Al Aqsa mosque, [...] inflammatory calls to replace it with the third temple. [...] enforce Israel’s Nazi-like policies against Palestinians such as Lebensraum [...] racial policies of Aryan superiority (apartheid and the right of Jews only to the land of Palestine), [...] Nazi Law for the Protection of German Blood and Honour prohibiting marriages between gentiles and Jews (With very few exceptions, Israeli civil law does not permit marriages between Jews and non-Jews within the state of Israel. Children of mixed marriages are not considered Jewish), and the establishment of ghettos [...] the shadow of Zionism has Nazi resonances. [...] Objection to comparing Israeli and Nazi policies is usually made on the grounds that no atrocity can surpass the horrendous extermination of 6 million Jews [...] bonded inmates of the concentration camp that is Gaza. [...] Sooner than later, these Zionist walls will fall. There is a new generation of Germans not covered by the burden of antisemitism blackmail

“The Nakba: Israel’s Catastrophe” by Vacy Vlazna (12 May 2015), contains multiple analogies of Jews/Israel with Nazi Germany and other Nazi referencing of Jews/Israel.
http://www.palestinematters.com/The-Nakba-Israels-Catastrophe_News_1071.aspx

- [...] Jewish colonists [...] transformed the once decent surviving victims of European anti-Semitism and the Holocaust into terrorists, killers, thieves, racists, and liars – into the mirror image of their persecutors. [...] the sickest and most sadistic society in the world. [...] ethnic cleansing Palestine of indigenous Palestinians in the Zionist quest for Lebensraum. [...] This land expansionism extends from the Nile to the Euphrates Rivers for the benefit of Yahweh’s chosen racists [...] Zionist imperial policy of racial restructuring of the Middle East (supplanting Arabs with Europeans) beginning with a Jewish state of Israel. [...] Jewish trespassers morally impervious to the wretched exile of the owners [...] The degradation of mind that inflicts such abhorrent extortion on victims hasn’t existed since the Third Reich. [...] reminiscent of the Nazi ‘Property Confiscation Order’ [...] arrogant mindset of Zionists [...] rabid radicalized messianic bigots from the USA who are housed in the illegal parasitic colonies that leech the land and livelihoods of the ethnic Palestinians. [...] These colonial terrorists [...] purposely hit-and-run Palestinians including children [...] this racist extremism also contaminates the Zionist werhmacht [...] ‘shoot to kill’ atrocities and war crimes [...] the Zionist 51 day blitzkrieg [...]

Zionist children are warped and twisted by psychological child abuse from birth – they are ingrained with a victim mentality from the perpetual fear of a future holocaust. This learned paranoia is overlaid with a national superiority and Arabhass (hate) which foments hostility and aggression perfect for their military destiny as killing machines [...] every citizen is a soldier supplying Israel with an eternal army of blasé child-killers and abusers. [...] The children of the Israelites [...] conduct gestapo night raids [...] It’s revenues are boosted by testing its high-tech weaponry on living innocent subjects in a locked laboratory called Gaza [...] To mask their crimes, in cahoots with Western mainstream media, notably Foxnews, CNN, BBC, the Zionists spew out endlessly regurgitated Goebbelsian hasbara (propaganda): [...] Zionists are doomed not to live in a promised land, but doomed to exile in a wasteland of moral stagnation. And like all the invaders of ancient Palestine, they too will pass.

“The Hilltop: A ‘Comic’ Zionist Lie” by Vacy Vlazna (5 August 2015) contains claims, accusations and a cartoon reminiscent of the Blood Libel and other fabrications.
http://www.palestinematters.com/The-Hilltop-A-%E2%80%98Comic-Zionist-Lie_News_1074.aspx

- [...] 67 years of unimpeded Zionist atrocities and war crimes [...] It is a ‘comic’ normalisation of the Zionist criminal enterprise [...] purposely hits-and-runs over Palestinians including children, harasses schoolchildren, physically assaults children and kills a sleeping toddler with molotov cocktails. [...] the uniformed settlers who last year in Gaza slaughtered 527 children, wounded 3374 children, [...] there is nothing of moral worth in Israel [...] nor in its zionist pillage of Palestine by its incessant invading hordes of fanatic Ashkenazis who certainly have the right to return to their traditional homeland- in Russia, Ukraine, Germany, France, Romania, Georgia and so on.

Israelis torturing non-Jewish children – ABC 4 Corners

In February 2014, the ABC TV Four Corners program aired a documentary “Stone Cold Justice” about Israel and its treatment of Palestinian youth. This program was posted on Youtube by AnalistReview. Various anti-Israel websites and Facebook groups have linked to the Youtube. The video is extremely popular with over a million views (1,108,897) and 9,935 comments, as at 21 October 2015.

‘Palestine Action Group Canberra’ linked to the video on 23 November 2014. There was a further outpouring of antisemitic comments under the video. Antisemitic comments made during October and November 2014, when copied and pasted into a word document amount to 13 pages of comment. Some of these comments follow, all of which were published in October and November 2014. These comments show some of the responses after viewing an ABC documentary.

- Draft Resister Time to send your asses back into another Babylonian captivity. You kikes will just never learn will you?? Jesus Christ speaking to the Scribes and Pharisees: "You are from your father the devil".
- James Anderson It is truly a shame that a people who were once persecuted and murdered by the millions by Nazis (and no, I do not mean "the German People", i mean Nazi) should resort to the same tactics they condemned the Nazis for using. As far as I am concerned, that makes the no better than Nazis, and by using those tactics, puts them on the road to being Jewish Nazis.
- el scientifico In fact I am begininng to feel like anti-semitism is justified.
- Karlinna Önnudóttir Too bad the nazis didn't win the war. This wouldn't be happening.
- Mason Gilbert It is AMAZING to see a documentary this sympathetic to Palestinians coming out of any "Western" country (flunky states groveling for their jew hidden masters for the past 100 years). Now watch the Jews who secretly run the world kick Australia into an economic stone age.
- lookoutforthatninja GAS THE KIKES.
- Abner Sanchez It's funny, they were once God's people, but they are no longer God's people. Now I can see why. God must of been tired of these violent criminals. They are heartless. That's why God gave them Laws, via Moses, because of how they are. Even more, they killed Christ. If you are religious, then everyone knows they are no longer God's people, they only believe they are.

9. RESPONSES to ANTISEMITISM

"Rising antisemitism is rarely the lone or the last manifestation of intolerance. When the human rights of Jews are repressed, the rights of other religious and ethnic groups are often not far behind" - Samantha Power, U.S. Ambassador to the UN (January 2015)

Introduction

Major counters to antisemitism are public condemnations of it by those in various positions of leadership within the country, including politicians, academics, clergy, editors and journalists, businesspeople and trade unionists, and other community leaders.

In addition, government policies and legislation to discourage or restrict antisemitism, and other forms of racism, and to protect Jews and other targeted groups, plays a major role in countering antisemitism.

This section includes a summary of public measures that continue to operate in Australia to counter antisemitism, including legal measures, political leadership, moral leadership, public education, media responses, and other areas.

Legal Measures

- Australian Human Rights Commission (AHRC)

The Commission was established in 1986 by an act of the federal Parliament. It is an independent statutory organisation and reports to the federal Parliament through the Attorney-General.

Our statutory responsibilities include:

- education and public awareness
- discrimination and human rights complaints
- human rights compliance
- policy and legislative development.

We do this through:

- resolving complaints of discrimination or breaches of human rights under federal laws
- holding public inquiries into human rights issues of national importance
- developing human rights education programs and resources for schools, workplaces and the community
- providing independent legal advice to assist courts in cases that involve human rights principles
- providing advice and submissions to parliaments and governments to develop laws, policies and programs
- undertaking and coordinating research into human rights and discrimination issues.

<https://www.humanrights.gov.au/about-commission-0>

- Federal Racial Discrimination Act 1975

The federal Parliament has passed a number of laws which aim to protect people from certain kinds of discrimination in public life and from breaches of their human rights by Commonwealth departments and agencies.

Racial Discrimination Act 1975

The Racial Discrimination Act 1975 gives effect to Australia's obligations under the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination. Its major objectives are to

- promote equality before the law for all persons, regardless of their race, colour or national or ethnic origin, and
- make discrimination against people on the basis of their race, colour, descent or national or ethnic origin unlawful.

RACIAL DISCRIMINATION ACT 1975 - SECT 18C

Offensive behaviour because of race, colour or national or ethnic origin

(1) It is unlawful for a person to do an act, otherwise than in private, if:

- (a) the act is reasonably likely, in all the circumstances, to offend, insult, humiliate or intimidate another person or a group of people; and
- (b) the act is done because of the race, colour or national or ethnic origin of the other person or of some or all of the people in the group.

Note: Subsection (1) makes certain acts unlawful. Section 46P of the Australian Human Rights Commission Act 1986 allows people to make complaints to the Australian Human Rights Commission about unlawful acts. However, an unlawful act is not necessarily a criminal offence. Section 26 says that this Act does not make it an offence to do an act that is unlawful because of this Part, unless Part IV expressly says that the act is an offence.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), an act is taken not to be done in private if it:

- (a) causes words, sounds, images or writing to be communicated to the public; or
- (b) is done in a public place; or
- (c) is done in the sight or hearing of people who are in a public place.

(3) In this section: "public place" includes any place to which the public have access as of right or by invitation, whether express or implied and whether or not a charge is made for admission to the place.

RACIAL DISCRIMINATION ACT 1975 - SECT 18D

Exemptions

Section 18C does not render unlawful anything said or done reasonably and in good faith:

- (a) in the performance, exhibition or distribution of an artistic work; or
- (b) in the course of any statement, publication, discussion or debate made or held for any genuine academic, artistic or scientific purpose or any other genuine purpose in the public interest; or
- (c) in making or publishing:
 - (i) a fair and accurate report of any event or matter of public interest; or
 - (ii) a fair comment on any event or matter of public interest if the comment is an expression of a genuine belief held by the person making the comment.

- Australian State Law:

State bodies that deal with anti-racism and human rights include:

- NSW Anti-Discrimination Board
- Multicultural NSW (formerly NSW Community Relations Commission)
- Victorian Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commission
- Victoria - Office of Multicultural Affairs and Citizenship (OMAC)
- Victorian Multicultural Commission (VMC)

- NSW: Anti-Discrimination Act 1977 - SECT 20D

ANTI-DISCRIMINATION ACT 1977 - SECT 20D

20D Offence of serious racial vilification

(1) A person shall not, by a public act, incite hatred towards, serious contempt for, or severe ridicule of, a person or group of persons on the ground of the race of the person or members of the group by means which include:

(a) threatening physical harm towards, or towards any property of, the person or group of persons, or

(b) inciting others to threaten physical harm towards, or towards any property of, the person or group of persons.

Maximum penalty:

In the case of an individual-50 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

In the case of a corporation-100 penalty units.

(2) A person shall not be prosecuted for an offence under this section unless the Attorney General has consented to the prosecution.

The inadequacy and unworkability of section 20D, especially in connection with the Ismail Al-Wahwah incident referred to earlier in this report (see Executive Summary), is dealt with more fully in Chapter 6.

Political Leadership

NSW: Speak-Out Hotline:

The NSW Police and Multicultural NSW worked together to develop the Speak-Out line, which was announced on 29 October 2014. An extract follows.

- Today, our minister, The Hon Victor Dominello, Minister for Citizenship and Communities, in partnership with the Minister for Police, The Hon Stuart Ayres, launched a new Multicultural NSW “Speakout” hotline to protect people from race and religion-based harassment, intimidation and abuse.

Multicultural NSW is adamant that there should be no instance when even one of our citizens is harassed or targeted for insult because of their beliefs, their skin colour or their choice of dress.

Our society rejects anything that threatens community tranquillity and peace. Hatred, ridicule or insults have no place in New South Wales. It is the task of Multicultural NSW and every individual citizen to safeguard our carefully constructed state of harmony.

If you want to speak out against race or religion-based harassment, intimidation or abuse, call the Multicultural NSW “Speak Out” Line on 1800 131 555.

Liberal Party of Victoria:

When it was revealed publicly in November 2014 that, Scott Harrison, a Victorian Liberal Party campaigner was a former member of the Church of Creativity, a neo-Nazi type group, for six years, Harrison resigned.

J-Wire reported that “In 2010, Harrison was appointed a “reverend” in the Church of Creativity and thereafter espoused a range of anti-Semitic and racist views in the group’s magazine, including that the Port Arthur massacre was a plot by Jews and that he would use the his role as a minister of religion “to the best interests of the white race”. Previously, he had been photographed posing with a Nazi salute in front of a swastika.”

Liberal Party Victorian state director, Damien Mantach, said of Harrison that “His comments are unacceptable and do not reflect the views of the Liberal Party. He has now resigned from the party, effective immediately”.

Harrison stated that he had severed his involvement with the Church of Creativity and no longer believed in their ideology.

Senator Joe Bullock, Labor Party, WA:

In response to the terrorist attack at Har Nof synagogue in Jerusalem where four Jews at prayer were murdered, and a policeman also killed, Senator Bullock addressed the Australian Senate on 25 November 2014. Extract of his speech follows.

- Senator BULLOCK (Western Australia):

[...] Beyond Israel itself there is a rising tide of anti-Semitism in Europe and across the world. There is increasing belligerence by groups and individuals promoting ideas such as boycott, divestment and sanctions. Media bias, whether by omission or commission, influences the reporting of events in the Middle East, including the military action in Gaza. There are the double standards of many in our community who claim to be interested only in human rights but whose real agenda is to attack Israel. Too many public voices, even here in Australia, rush to condemn Israel but are nowhere to be heard when attacks like these are committed.

This climate creates an unbalanced and fertile ground for antisemitism. The entire Jewish community, quite understandably, feels under attack, unsafe and on edge. Jewish leaders in my state of Western Australia, as well as national figures and organisations, have expressed to me their concern with events here, abroad and, of course, in Israel. They are right to be concerned. But they are by no means without friends. Let me put on the record my strong support for the state of Israel and my condemnation of these attacks. Let me also put on the record my strong support for the Jewish community in Australia. [...]

The Jewish community is experiencing increased incidents of antisemitic behaviour. In my state of Western Australia, anti-Jewish graffiti was recently found scrawled across the fences and gate of the local Jewish primary school. Jewish people report increasing numbers of physical and verbal attacks on them, even here in our supposedly enlightened and tolerant country. These acts and words are legitimised by those leaders in our community who publicly denigrate Israel and who make no secret of their support for Israel's enemies. This cannot be allowed to stand. Those who know what is right must be willing to speak up and say so. I am not Jewish, but even an old Protestant like me knows that terror is never excusable, murder is never justified, any movement committed to violence must be opposed, antisemitism is wrong, and delegitimising Israel's very existence is unacceptable. On the occasion of these horrific crimes in Israel, it would do us all good to examine what we can do to show solidarity and support for the Jewish community both in the Middle East and here in Australia.

Speech by Dr Brendan Nelson:

The Hon Dr Brendan Nelson is the Director of The Australian War Memorial. He is also a former federal Minister for Education in the Liberal government. On International Holocaust Remembrance Day, 27 January 2015, he addressed the Sydney Jewish Museum. An extract from his address follows.

- Hitler was able to take advantage of two key things.

The first was that the majority were indifferent to the plight of the minority.

The second was that in Germany – as in other parts of Europe, anti-Semitism was deeply rooted – religious, secular and racial.

Anti-Semitism did not end with the Liberation of the death camps, nor with the end of the war, the Nuremberg trials and nor even formation of the United Nations. Anti-Zionism, Holocaust denial, distortion of truths, glorification of Nazism have all featured at different times in the world since.

As we gather here today, thousands of troops are deployed across Europe protecting synagogues and Jewish places of congregation in response to fire bombings, desecration of cemeteries and other violations of freedom.

Crowds in some circumstances have even chanted ‘Gas the Jews’ and ‘Death to the Jews’.

Only last week the United Nations General Assembly debated anti-Semitism.”

Christopher Pyne, Federal Minister for Education:

- Pyne stated that the Boycott, Divestment, Sanctions campaign against Israel “has given anti-Semitism a fashionability among the far Left” which “has no place in Australia.” (9 April 2015)

<http://www.theaustralian.com.au/national-affairs/education/pyne-calls-on-shorten-to-disown-parke-over-uni-petition/story-fn59nlz9-1227296149874>

Marrickville Council - Antisemitism

A Jewish councillor, Rosana Tyler, was subject to antisemitism. This was mainly in the form of antisemitic graffiti scrawled on her business posters in the Marrickville Council area, where she is a councillor. Marrickville Council condemned the antisemitism, and Mark Gardiner, the Mayor of Marrickville, issued a statement (17 March 2015). Extracts follow.

- Mayoral Minute: Anti-Semitic Behaviour

MOTION: THAT:

1. Council records its abhorrence at any form of anti-semitic behaviour; and
2. Councillors, as an act of solidarity, join a group photo with Councillor Tyler, to form part of a Mayoral Press Release.

[...] It has come to my attention that one of our fellow Councillors, Councillor Rosanna Tyler, has been the subject of a hate campaign focussed on her membership of the Jewish community.

This has included defacing advertising material from her business with anti-semitic messages and offensive emails.

Councillor Tyler was born in Argentina. Her grandparents fled pogroms in Russia to seek peace there. They fled to Australia in 1963 to seek peace from a war torn country mired in civil war. She seeks nothing more here in Australia than peace and understanding.

It is utterly deplorable that anti-Semitism exists in 2015 here in Australia and absolutely reprehensible that anyone could be subjected to the treatment Councillor Tyler has endured.

There is a time when we must stand together and say – ‘this is not acceptable’.

I call on all Councillors to join me in saying to our residents that anti-semitic behaviour is not acceptable.

Mayor of Marrickville Councillor, Mark Gardiner, stated on 23 March 2015:

- Council condemns anti-Semitism

Marrickville Council voted unanimously on Tuesday night to condemn anti-Semitic behaviour and to stand in solidarity with their fellow Councillor, Rosana Tyler.

It has come to my attention that Councillor Tyler has been the subject of a hate campaign. This has included defacing her business advertising material with anti-Semitic material. Rosana seeks nothing more than peace and understanding, and it is utterly deplorable that anti-Semitism exists in 2015 and absolutely reprehensible that anyone could be subjected to the treatment Councillor Tyler has endured.

I'm pleased that all my fellow Councillors did not hesitate for one moment to join with me and say, 'This is not acceptable'.

Marrickville Council – Red Rattler Theatre:

In response to the Red Rattler Theatre, in Marrickville, which refused to allow a Jewish cultural group to use the venue, the Mayor of Marrickville, Mark Gardiner, made a statement (24 March 2015). It is to be noted that the Red Rattler is not owned by Marrickville Council. Extract follows:

- Statement from the Mayor of Marrickville

I'm very sorry to see this kind of discrimination in Marrickville. Especially as just last week, Councillors unanimously took a stand against anti-semitic behaviour. So you can imagine my shock and disappointment when I read that the Red Rattler had refused to allow Hillel access to their venue. This was really quite disgraceful and outrageous. I strongly disapproved, especially as Council has over the years supported the theatre in various ways.

Moral Leadership

Religious and other communal leaders have an important role to play in condemning racism, including antisemitism, and other forms of bigotry. Some of these condemnations follow.

- Catholic Diocese of Broken Bay

Affirmation of Commitment to Interfaith Relations

To the Clergy and lay faithful of Broken Bay Diocese - The Catholic Diocese of Broken Bay places great value on its relationships with members of other faith communities.
16 October 2014 General Interest

In recent times we have been particularly blessed by the opportunities and friendship offered to our Diocese by members of the Jewish community and the Muslim community in Sydney. These have resulted in shared experiences such as Iftar dinners, Torah study groups, public lectures, and other gatherings of an educational or social nature.

It is of great concern that in recent months Australia has witnessed a spike in anti-Semitic activity. This has included some especially abhorrent literature and incidents directed against Jewish residents in Sydney's eastern suburbs. We are aware, too, that there are Jewish families living in Sydney's northern suburbs who have experienced anti-Semitic verbal abuse and in some cases physical harassment.

No one should ever be made to feel unsafe walking our streets and living in our neighbourhoods for the mere fact of being Jewish.

Similarly, we are deeply concerned about a recent surge in negative and judgmental attitudes in Australian society directed towards Muslim communities. In specific hateful incidents, abuse has been hurled at Muslim women wearing the hijab, mosques have been vandalised, an Islamic school has come under threat, and there has been an escalation of threats on social media.

No Muslim should ever be subjected to hateful judgments and intimidation because of his or her cultural or religious identity.

Our concern intensifies, too, for our own Christian brothers and sisters who in some parts of Sydney have been subjected to verbal abuse and threats.

This current wave of unrest in Australian society rightly increases our need for vigilance and awareness as citizens but also, more importantly, calls for our wakefulness as Christians. Centred on Christ, we are a people called to witness to God's love for all humanity. The tragic political conflicts occurring in the world must never be an excuse for the venting of racial prejudice or religious bigotry. On the contrary, they should cause us to intensify our commitment to fostering interfaith friendships and intercultural harmony.

Most of us are not in a position to directly influence major events happening overseas, however we can all take responsibility and action within our own personal sphere of influence – our neighbourhoods, our parishes, our places of study and work, and our social circles.

With the clergy and other leaders in Broken Bay Diocese, I urge everyone in our Diocesan community to stand firm in our commitment to developing lifegiving relationships with people of other faiths. Let us do everything within our means to foster among our people a deep understanding and embodiment of the teachings of the Church on interreligious relations as expressed at Vatican II in Nostra Aetate and articulated in subsequent church documents. In this way we can be leaven for peace within Australian society.

Further information on these church teachings can be accessed at our Diocesan website: www.dbb.org.au/ecumenism-interfaith

In the words of Pope Francis, reiterated by the Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue: "May the God of peace stir up in each one of us a genuine desire for dialogue and reconciliation."

During a meeting between NSW Jewish Board of Deputies (NSWJBD) chief executive officer Vic Alhadeff, education chair Marilyn Immerman and education manager Suzanne Green, and members of the Rotary Club of Central Blue Mountains, in December 2014, a member of the Rotary Club expressed his view that he

An example showing the lack of moral leadership and support for the Jewish community: In reference to the #illridewithyou campaign after Sydney siege of 15 December 2014, this comment was published in The Australian (17 December 2015):

- I don't remember leftists starting an “I'll ride with you” campaign when Jewish schoolchildren were attacked in Sydney a few months ago.

Failure of Queensland State MPs to sign London Declaration on Combating Antisemitism

Moral leadership by political, religious and other authority figures can be an effective way to maintain and entrench the stigma attached to antisemitism in mainstream society. Equally, failures of moral leadership can have the opposite effect. Despite efforts by the Queensland Jewish Board of Deputies to enlist the support of Queensland State MPs for the London Declaration on Combating Antisemitism, none of these MPs has added his or her signature to that document, even though Queensland Federal MPs have done so.

Media

In Australia, there are two main organisations dealing with the media, its role and practices.

- Australian Communications and Media Authority

The Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA) is a government agency responsible for the regulation of broadcasting, the internet, radiocommunications and telecommunications.

The ACMA's responsibilities include:

- promoting self-regulation and competition in the communications industry, while protecting consumers and other users
- fostering an environment in which electronic media respect community standards and respond to audience and user needs
- managing access to the radiofrequency spectrum
- representing Australia's communications interests internationally.

Source: http://archive.acma.gov.au/WEB/STANDARD/pc=ACMA_ROLE_OVIEW

- Australian Press Council

The Australian Press Council was established in 1976 and is responsible for promoting good standards of media practice, community access to information of public interest, and freedom of expression through the media. The Council is also the principal body with responsibility for responding to complaints about Australian newspapers, magazines and associated digital outlets.

Role

The Council's three main areas of work involve

- developing standards that constitute good media practice and are applied by the Council when considering complaints;
- responding to complaints from the public about material in Australian newspapers, magazines and associated digital outlets;
- issuing statements on policy matters within its areas of interest, including through submissions to parliamentary committees, commissions and other public bodies.

ECAJ statement on the media:

Robert Goot, President of the Executive Council of Australian Jewry (ECAJ), stated on 9 November 2014 at the ECAJ AGM:

- “Media bias against Israel, and the steady mainstreaming of antisemitism that it produces, have for a long time been vexed issues for our community. These issues came to a head during the year in several notorious instances. The ECAJ has held productive meetings with significant national media organisations over the last month.

For the first time in many years we are seeing signs of real engagement with our community by parts of the media that have long been hostile; admissions of bias instead of denial; and genuine disturbance at the implicit antisemitism in some of the coverage and the overt antisemitism it has provoked and legitimated. Sincere attempts are being made to redress these problems. Although it is too early to draw firm conclusions, it appears that our interventions are having positive effects. We will, however, continue to monitor and where necessary react on issues of balance, fairness and accuracy in media reporting.”

ECAJ statement on Nazi and Holocaust rhetoric

The following was published on J-Wire on 24 March 2015:

- Watch your rhetoric

The Executive Council of Australian Jewry has stated its position on the use of rhetoric invoking the Nazi Party. Following statements made by the Prime Minister for which he has apologised, the ECAJ has stated:

“Whilst hyperbole is to be expected in any free-flowing political discussion in Australia’s robust democracy, special care is needed to avoid comparing any Australian political leaders or members of parliament to Nazi leaders or comparing any political party in Australia to the former Nazi party in Germany. There is, thankfully, nothing in Australia’s history and experience that is even remotely comparable to the unique evil and horror of the Hitler period in Germany and Europe. Similarly, Holocaust denial, which is about vilifying Jews and has nothing to do with a discussion of history or ideas, ought not to be likened to points of view on other issues which do not entail racial vilification.

“Regrettably, the use of inappropriate analogies with Nazism has crept into political discourse in Australia with increasing frequency. This has the effect of trivialising Nazi totalitarianism, particularly in the thinking of younger people who have no personal point of entry into understanding the realities of life under the Nazi jackboot.

“For this reason our organisation some years ago adopted an express policy against inappropriate Holocaust rhetoric (see <http://www.ecaj.org.au/> under ‘ECAJ Platform’). The ECAJ: recognised that the Holocaust, the Nazi program of genocide, was a unique historical event; noted that the Holocaust is generally recognised as the benchmark of the most extreme case of human evil; and deplored the inappropriate use of analogies to the Nazi Genocide in Australian public debate. We extend this to the inappropriate use of analogies to Nazi tyranny in Australian politics.

“The ECAJ is concerned whenever political or community leaders or the media resort to rhetoric that is less disciplined on this subject than it should be. In particular we seek to discourage the use of imprecise analogies with the Nazi regime and its barbarous ideology, policies and practices.”

Australian Press Council Adjudication of the SMH Le Lievre cartoon

As reported in last year’s Annual Antisemitism Report, an antisemitic cartoon by Glen Le Lievre was published in the Sydney Morning Herald (SMH) and the online version of The Age on 26 July 2014. It portrayed a classical negative stereotype of a Jew, complete with hook nose, religious head covering and Star of David. The character was shown operating a TV-type remote control as a detonator to blow up civilians in Gaza. The cartoon accompanied a polemic against Israel authored by journalist Mike Carlton. The online version was headed “Israel’s rank and rotten fruit is being called fascism.”

On 17 January 2015, the Australian Press Council (APC) issued its findings on the Le Lievre cartoon. It concluded that “the Council’s Standards of Practice were breached on the ground of causing greater offence to readers’ sensibilities than was justifiable in the public interest.” The APC statement is as follows.

- The Press Council has considered whether its Standards of Practice were breached by a cartoon in the Sydney Morning Herald on 26 July 2014. It was associated with an opinion piece on the conflict in Gaza and depicted an elderly man with a large nose, wearing the distinctively Jewish head covering called a kippah or yarmulke, and sitting in an armchair emblazoned with the Star of David. He was pointing a TV remote control device at an exploding cityscape, implied to be Gaza.

The Council asked the publication to comment on whether the cartoon placed gratuitous emphasis on race or religion. It also asked the publication whether the cartoon could reasonably have been expected to cause offence and showed insufficient concern for balancing the sensibilities of some readers with the broader public interest.

In response, the publication agreed that the cartoon had placed gratuitous emphasis on the Jewishness of its subject and in doing so had inappropriately emphasised religious persuasion rather than Israeli nationality, thereby causing offence. It pointed out that a 650-word apology had been published about a week later.

The publication also pointed out that the newspaper's Editor in Chief and News Director had subsequently participated in seminars facilitated by the [NSW] Jewish Board of Deputies to raise awareness about imagery that could be construed as antisemitic. It said further seminars were planned and would be expanded to include the newspaper's senior editorial staff.

The publication also said that a requirement for extra layers of approval had subsequently been introduced for all cartoons prior to publication.

Conclusions

The Council emphasises that cartoons are subject to its Standards of Practice. The application of those Standards however, takes account of the fact that readers can reasonably be expected to recognise that cartoons commonly use exaggeration and caricature to a considerable degree and therefore should be interpreted by them with this in mind.

In this instance, the cartoon's linkage between the Jewish faith and the Israeli rocket attacks on Gaza was reasonably likely to cause great offence to many readers. A linkage with Israeli nationality might have been justifiable in the public interest, despite being likely to cause offence. But the same cannot be said of the implied linkage with the Jewish faith that arose from inclusion of the kippah and the Star of David. Accordingly, the Council's Standards of Practice were breached on the ground of causing greater offence to readers' sensibilities than was justifiable in the public interest.

The Council welcomes the prominent, extensive and closely-reasoned apology by the publication and its subsequent action to reduce the risk of repetition. The Council commends this approach to other publications.

Relevant Council Standards \(not required for publication\):

This adjudication applies the following General Principles as at the date of publication of the article: General Principle 7: "Publications have a wide discretion in publishing material, but they should balance the public interest with the sensibilities of their readers, particularly when the material, such as photographs, could reasonably be expected to cause offence"; General Principle 8: "Publications should not place any gratuitous emphasis on the race, religion, nationality, colour, country of origin, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, illness, or age of an individual or group. Where it is relevant and in the public interest, publications may report and express opinions in these areas."

Global Forum for Combating Antisemitism (GFCA)

The 5th GFCA convened in Jerusalem, Israel, on 12-14 May 2015. Although the following refers to Europe, it is also applicable to elsewhere, including Australia. The ECAJ was represented by Research Officer, Julie Nathan. Two other Australian representatives, Jeremy Jones and Andre Oboler, who attended the Forum each co-chaired a working group. From Australia Libby Burke of the Queensland Jewish Board of Deputies and Charles Volpe also attended the forum, along with former Australians Arsen Ostrovsky, Dani Wassner and Rachael Risby-Raz.

GFCA 2015 Final Statement on Combating Antisemitism in Europe

The summer of 2014 saw an eruption of mass anti-Jewish protests in European capitals not seen in decades, followed by deadly attacks in Brussels, Paris and Copenhagen. Many Jews in Europe today feel afraid to identify openly as Jews, in their manner of dress, worship or political expression. Jewish institutions require constant armed protection creating a sense of siege on Jewish life. Hostility towards the Jewish community by non-aculturated communities, and the return of Jihadi fighters with EU citizenship marks a security crisis for Jewish communities, and Jewish religious practice is under legislative attack in some European bodies, furthering challenging the fabric of Jewish communal life in Europe.

European institutions and governments need to take strong proactive steps to address the current outbreak of antisemitism in order to assure the continued vibrancy of Jewish communal life in Europe.

The European governmental institutions and national governments should take the followings steps:

- Adopt a formal definition of antisemitism applicable throughout the European Union and its member states under law.
- The formal definition of antisemitism should include unambiguous reference to attacks on the legitimacy of the State of Israel and its right to exist, and Holocaust denial as forms of antisemitism.
- Apply agreed standardized mechanisms for monitoring and recording incidents of Antisemitism in all EU countries.
- Review EU laws and enact national legislation to ensure an adequate legal framework and law enforcement instruments for combating antisemitism in its many manifestations.
- Apply existing legislation and regulations more fully, and train law enforcement to recognize antisemitic manifestations as they occur, in order to apply the appropriate legal and administrative instruments at its disposal.
- Take urgent and sustained steps to assure the physical security of Jewish communities, their members and institutions which have become prime targets of radical Islamists, returning jihadi fighters and other extremists.

- Affirm and assure the rights of Jewish communities and individuals to self-expression in their countries of citizenship and residence. This refers to their political beliefs and right to assembly, manner of dress and other normative aspects of robust Jewish communal life.
- The defense of the Jewish community by European governments should be proactive, so that Jewish life need not be forced behind high walls.
- Direct education ministries to increase teacher training and adopt pedagogic curricula against antisemitism, and towards religious tolerance and Holocaust remembrance. Define these as high priority goals in European education and as core values of European identity and member state national values.
- Engage civil society and the general public in efforts to combat Antisemitism through a concerted public affairs effort. This requires a deep cooperation with Muslim community leadership, and a strong counter radicalization working agenda.
- Establish a national legal unit responsible for combating cyberhate. Make stronger use of existing laws to prosecute cyberhate and online antisemitism, and apply them. Enhance the legal basis for prosecution in countries where such laws are absent.
- Adopt stronger laws and penalties for the prohibition of internet materials promoting terrorism and supporting recruitment to terrorist groups, and adopt the recommendations of the GFCA 2015 Statement on Combating Cyberhate and Antisemitism on the Internet.

While Jews are slaughtered, the Left worries about Islamophobia

Brendan O'Neill

<http://www.theaustralian.com.au/opinion/columnists/while-jews-are-slaughtered-the-left-worries-about-islamophobia/story-fnhulnf5-1227185063134>

THE parallel moral universe inhabited by Europe's chattering classes and celebs was starkly exposed last week.

In Paris, shortly after the Charlie Hebdo massacre, an extremist stormed a kosher store, terrorised its patrons, and murdered four of them. Their crime? Jewishness.

And yet as this act of anti-Semitic barbarism was taking place, what were the opinion-forming set and the right-on glitterati worrying their well-groomed heads about? Islamophobia. The possibility of post-Charlie Hebdo violence against Muslims. They fretted over violence that hadn't occurred, rather than violence unfolding before the world's eyes in a store frequented by Jews.

So we had the bizarre spectacle of British newspapers thundering about a possible outburst of anti-Muslim madness at precisely the moment an outburst of anti-Semitic madness was taking place. Beware "Islamophobes seizing [the Charlie Hebdo] atrocity to advance their hatred", hollered The Guardian as an anti-Semite was seizing a kosher shop to advance the world's oldest hatred.

The day after the assault on the kosher store, three of the top 10 most-read articles on The Guardian's website were dire warnings about potential Islamophobic violence post-Charlie Hebdo. Some folk seemed more concerned about possible attacks on Muslims than they were about actual attacks on Jews.

The gaping disconnect between observers' fears of what would happen in France after the Charlie Hebdo massacre and what actually did happen was summed up in comments made by George Clooney. On Monday, as the bodies of the four murdered Jews were being prepared for the flight to Israel, Clooney was telling fawning hacks about the scourge of "anti-Muslim fervour" in Europe. It got to a point where it wouldn't have felt surprising to hear a journalist say: "Oh no, Jews have been attacked — will this cause yet more problems for Muslims?!"

Of course, it's entirely legitimate to worry about a backlash against Muslims in the wake of Islamist terror. That some blank grenades were thrown into the courtyard of a mosque in France suggests there are indeed Muslim-loathing hotheads. But there's no escaping the fact that observers struggle to acknowledge the seriousness of anti-Semitism.

They find it easier to fantasise about a mob-led war on Muslims than to confront the real, growing problem of Jew-baiting.

We saw this last year, too, when there were numerous anti-Semitic outbursts during the Gaza conflict. Those who pose as progressive, who instantly reach for political placards whenever Muslims or another minority suffer abuse, didn't say much.

They fidgeted, ermed and aahed, or, worse, offered an apologia for the new anti-Semitism. "If Israel didn't treat Palestinians so badly, maybe Jews wouldn't get attacked", they hinted. This ugly excuse-making for anti-Semitic violence reared its head again this week when a BBC reporter in Paris, Tim Wilcox, said to a shaken French Jewish women that "the Palestinians suffer hugely at Jewish hands as well".

In short: maybe there's a logic to anti-Semitic violence. Maybe it's just a reaction to Israeli — or as Wilcox put it, "Jewish" — wickedness. Maybe you deserve it. Wilcox expressed a common view in right-thinking sections of society: that anti-Semitism isn't quite as bad as other forms of racism because it's often misfired anger with Israel.

We're witnessing the terrifying meshing together of anti-Zionism and anti-Semitism, with those who claim merely to hate Israel often slipping into expressions of disdain for "the Jews" and targeting Jewish shops for boycotts.

Indeed, if Amedy Coulibaly, the killer in the kosher store, thought a simple shop was an appropriate place to act out his foul radicalism, it isn't hard to see why: anti-Israel protesters have been targeting Israeli-linked or just Jewish-owned shops for years now. Jewish produce, Jewish shoppers — all fair game, apparently.

The increasingly unhinged nature of many leftists' loathing for Israel has led them to problematise the Jews themselves. They speak darkly of Jewish lobbies, of super-powerful forces making our leaders kowtow to Israel. Their swirling, borderline conspiratorial fear of Israel means they often cross the line from yelling at Israel to wondering about the trustworthiness of the Jews.

It's a rehabilitation of the idea of the Jewish burden. Once, Jews were made to carry the burden of having "killed Christ"; now they're forced to shoulder responsibility for everything Israel says and does. They're marked, suspect, not as sympathetic as other minorities. This is really why many European leftists find it hard to stand up to the new anti-Semitism: because they played a key role in unleashing it.

Antisemitism in the 21st century

by Julie Nathan

<http://www.jwire.com.au/antisemitism-21st-century-writes-julie-nathan/>
<http://blogs.timesofisrael.com/antisemitism-in-the-21st-century/>

The murder in Denmark of a Jewish man outside a synagogue is just the latest in a long series of acts of violence and murder directed at Jews in Europe over the last few decades. Only last month in Paris Jews were targeted and four were murdered at the Hyper Cacher Jewish supermarket.

The Danish Prime Minister, Helle Thorning-Schmidt, has condemned the attack on Jews as an attack on democracy. The French Prime Minister, Manuel Valls, last month expressed concern at the growing numbers of Jews emigrating from France as they flee antisemitic violence. Even the British Home Secretary, Theresa May, expressed concern that Jews, no longer feeling safe in Britain, are preparing to leave. Other countries in Europe are also facing growing antisemitic violence and are having difficulty protecting their Jewish citizens against harassment, assault, bombings and murder.

In Belgium, the Jewish Museum in Brussels was attacked and four people murdered in May 2014. In 2013, the last remaining Jewish school in Brussels instructed its students to remove their kippot (Jewish religious head covering) on their way to and from school, and only wear it safely within the confines of the fortress-like school building, due to the threat of physical attack.

In Holland, in late 2010, Frits Bolkestein, a prominent Dutch politician, advised Jews to leave Holland as it is no longer safe for Jews to live there. Earlier that year, the police in Holland had instituted a system of décoy police, where Dutch policeman dressed up as Orthodox Jews and walked the streets, in a bid to arrest or deter those who would assault Jews.

In Denmark in 2009, a school refused to enrol Jewish students as it could not protect them from harassment and assault. Other Danish school principals supported the move. In Norway, a survey by the Oslo Municipality in 2011 found that 33% of Jewish students in the town were physically threatened or abused by other high school teens at least two to three times a month. The groups that suffered the next highest amount of bullying were Buddhists at 10%, “Others” at 7%, and Muslims at 5%.

In Sweden, the Mayor of Malmo, where many Swedish Jews live, blamed the Jews themselves for assaults on Jews and firebombings of synagogues. Last year, a planned city walk by Jews and non-Jews to protest antisemitism in Sweden had to be cancelled due to security threats and the inability of police to ensure their safety.

France has experienced the most egregious acts of antisemitic violence in Europe since WWII. In 2006, a young French Jew, Ilan Halimi, of North African background was kidnapped and tortured for three weeks for being a Jew. He died of his injuries. His attackers were French Muslims, also of North African background. In Toulouse in 2012, a rabbi and three Jewish children, aged under nine, were shot dead at a Jewish school by Mohammed Merah, a French Muslim of North African background. Jews comprise only 1% of the French population, yet 50% of racist attacks in France are against Jews.

Christian Europe has a millennia long history of oppressing, persecuting and murdering Jews, whether in the name of a supersessionist religion, secular enlightenment, nationalism, or a racist ideology. The culmination of this history of persecution was the Holocaust in which the whole Jewish population of Europe and all lands under Nazism were targeted and marked for death. Six million Jewish men, women, children and babes were hunted down and murdered in the forests of eastern Europe and in the ghettos and death camps through deliberate starvation, exhaustion, bullets and gas.

Seventy years after the Holocaust, the antisemitic virus has re-emerged from the extreme margins of society to which it had been banished after the Holocaust. Not only is antisemitism out in the open, it is brazenly public and proud. The main difference between 1930s antisemitism and the 21st century strain is that in the 1930s it was governments and politicians which incited the hatred and perpetrated the murder. Today, the perpetrators are a combination of the far Right, the anti-Zionist Left, and major segments of Europe's Muslim population.

A study in Europe in 2013 found that "26% of Jews have suffered from antisemitic harassment at least once in the past year, 34% experienced such harassment in the past five years, 5% reported that their property was intentionally vandalized because they are Jewish, about 7% were physically hurt or threatened in the past five years." These figures do not include the acts of violence and vandalism of synagogues and other Jewish communal institutions.

Despite the focus on Islamophobia by the media and in political discourse over the last fifteen years, the reality is that attacks against Muslims are significantly less frequent than attacks against Jews. The evidence produced through studies by anti-hate organizations, police reports on hate crimes, and monitors of internet hate, show that the major targets of abuse and violence in Europe are Jews.

In the USA, the FBI collects and analyses hate crime statistics across the nation, with categories including Race, Religion, Sexual Orientation, Ethnicity/National Origin, and Disability. These statistics consistently show that it is blacks, Jews, homosexual men, and Hispanics who are the overwhelming victims of hate crime. In the Religion category, Jews are the largest category of victims of hate crime.

For the ten years from 2004 to 2013 (the latest year available) anti-Jewish hate crimes constituted between 60% and 70% of all hate crimes in the Religion category in the US. In comparison, anti-Muslim hate crimes constituted between 7-14%, anti-"other religion" (presumably Hindus, Buddhists, Sikhs etc) constituted between 7-13%, anti-Catholic constituted 3-5%, anti-Protestant constituted 2-4%, and anti-atheist constituted less than 1%. Jews comprise only 2% of the American population, yet 60-70% of religious hate crimes are directed against Jews.

In Britain, the Scottish government compiles extensive reports on hate crimes from police records. Hate crime statistics in the Religion category shows high levels of attacks on Catholics (57-58%) and Protestants (36-40%), and much lower levels against Muslims (2-2%) and Jews (1-2%) over the 2011 and 2012 periods. However, these overall percentages, in the 2012 statistics for example, translate into quite a different picture when the population numbers of each religious category in Scotland is taken into account.

These figures show that there is one anti-Jewish hate incident for every 461 Jews, one anti-Muslim hate incident per 2,240 Muslims, one per 1,579 Catholics, and one for every 6,080 Protestants. Thus, Jews are subject to a much higher rate of attack. Jews are several times more likely than Muslims to suffer hate incidents, and are twenty times more likely than Christians to suffer hate incidents.

The International Network Against Cyber Hate (INACH) conducts a country by country review and report on racist and religious bigotry on the European internet. According to INACH's studies, prior to 2002, antisemitism had been the largest single type of hate on the European internet. After the terrorist attacks of 11 September 2001, there was an increase in anti-Muslim content; but there was a much larger increase in anti-Jewish content. From 2002, antisemitism became the absolute largest category of hate on the European internet. Incidents of anti-Jewish hate outweighed the combined aggregate of every other form of hate.

INACH's study showed that up until the second half of 2000 virtually all antisemitism reported online was from 'classical' sources of antisemites and/or racists (eg neo-Nazis). By 2002, most antisemitism and Holocaust denial no longer came from 'classic' antisemites but from Muslim and left-wing web forums.

Having been predominantly either bystanders or perpetrators during the Nazi attempt to murder every Jew in Europe, Europeans are again in a situation where their Jewish citizens are on the edge of another great abyss. The question remains: How will they respond this time? Will they acquire the backbone to defend and protect their Jewish citizens against murderous anti-Jewish ideologies? Or will they take the easy, but self-destructive, route and excuse the antisemites, appease the murderous ideology at work in Europe and elsewhere, and watch silently as the Jews are driven from Europe's shores over the coming decade?

The watchword is Toulouse. When three French soldiers (two of North African background and one of Caribbean background) and four Jews (three of them young children) were murdered in March 2012, the French people came out in their thousands to protest the murders. A massive anti-racist banner read: "In France, we kill Blacks, Jews, and Arabs". However, when the murderer was found to be Mohammed Merah, a French Muslim of North African background, the protests and anti-racism banners disappeared. While ever the murderer was believed to be an indigenous French person, of Right-wing racist politics, the masses of France were eager to protest against murderous racism in France. However, once the murderer was identified as a Muslim jihadist, the protesting masses melted away unable or unwilling to condemn murder when committed by a Muslim jihadist.

In a perverse response to Merah's murders, there was an exponential increase in physical assaults on French Jews, with several being hospitalized. Bashings with iron bars and other assaults were perpetrated against Jews. The initial shock and horror of the murder of little Jewish children were transformed into a mania by Islamist extremists to emulate Merah, to give him hero status and to glorify his murderous deeds.

After this latest murder in Copenhagen, and the murders in Paris only last month, it remains to be seen whether Europe makes a decision to defend and protect its Jewish citizens. Many Jews fear that European governments will instead cave in to threats and appeasement and watch their Jews pack their bags and leave.

It is in this context that Israel's Prime Minister, Benjamin Netanyahu, has called on Europe's Jews to immigrate en masse to Israel. To many, Netanyahu's call appears presumptuous and insulting. Viewed objectively, however, no one should be surprised by it. The first duty of governments is to protect their citizens – all their citizens, regardless of race, religion or culture. This is especially so in Europe, with its blood-soaked history of racial and religious persecution, especially of Jews. Until European governments demonstrate that they have an effective antidote to the growing wave of anti-Jewish hatred and violence in their countries, Netanyahu's call is likely to be responded to by an ever-increasing number of European Jews.

Saving the Jews of Europe

Alex Ryvchin

26 February 2015

<http://www.abc.net.au/religion/articles/2015/02/26/4187760.htm>

The Jewish community of Denmark has now buried its dead. The latest lethal antisemitic incident in Europe followed the pattern set in Paris a month earlier. A brazen attack on a prominent symbol of free speech - in this case, a symposium hosted by the controversial cartoonist Lars Vilks, was followed immediately, inevitably, by a shooting at a gathering place for Jews, the Copenhagen Synagogue.

Artists and thinkers were targeted because of what they do, and a Jewish volunteer guarding the Synagogue was targeted because of what he was.

In Paris a month earlier, Jews were killed shopping in a kosher store on the eve of the Sabbath. Just a month earlier in the same city, a young Jewish woman was subjected to a brutal rape during a home invasion. It emerged that the assailants had targeted the home because they knew the family to be Jewish.

In May 2014, a gunman, recently returned from Syria, murdered four people with an assault rifle at the Jewish Museum in Brussels. Two years earlier, another jihadist, coolly alighted from his scooter outside a Jewish day school in Toulouse and shot three Jewish schoolchildren and their young Rabbi at point blank range. On the same day that Dan Uzan was murdered outside the Copenhagen Synagogue, hundreds of Jewish graves were smashed and daubed with swastikas in eastern France.

The Jews of Europe have now been targeted in their places of worship, their shops, their community centres, their schools, their homes and even in their graves.

The recent history of deadly antisemitism in Europe has the Jews questioning whether basic rights to assemble, to worship, to live freely in peace still extend to them. Consequently, they have come to question their place in a new Europe, with its entrenched pockets of barbaric Islamist killers and those who support, educate, finance and shelter them.

The perpetrators in each case fit the same profile. Young Arab men, failures in the free societies of endless opportunities in which they are fortunate enough to live, groomed to become remorseless killers by agents of the fascistic, fanatical movement that sees violent antisemitism as its rallying cry.

It is in this context that Israel's Prime Minister, Benjamin Netanyahu, has urged Europe's Jews to leave for Israel. Netanyahu's calls have been widely criticised. European governments have resented the implication that they cannot contain radical Islam and are incapable of protecting some of their own citizens. The Jewish communities themselves have seen the call to emigrate as Netanyahu asking them to do something that he himself never would - surrender to terrorism.

But viewed objectively, no one should be surprised by Netanyahu's statements, particularly in the context of Europe's blood-soaked history of racial and religious persecution, especially of Jews.

Until European governments demonstrate that they have an effective antidote to the growing wave of anti-Jewish hatred and violence in their countries, emigration to the Jewish State will look an increasingly attractive option. Indeed, the focus should not be on the welcoming embrace of Israeli leaders to these beleaguered communities, but on the failure of European governments to contain the antisemitism that threatens to drive them away.

The response of world leaders in combating the scourge of violent antisemitism will be crucial. Words can be as significant as deeds, particularly at a time when moral clarity is at a premium. In the wake of the Paris killings, the French Prime Minister Manuel Valls gave a landmark speech denouncing antisemitism. Valls decried the revival of antisemitism in France as a symbol of the crisis of democracy and the Republic. "When the Jews of France are attacked, all of France is attacked, and so is the universal consciousness," he said. "We must never forget that."

The Danish Prime Minister Helle Thorning-Schmidt conveyed similar sentiments. "When you attack the Jewish community, you attack our democracy," she said in the hours following the Copenhagen attack.

Yet before such messages begin to have an impact more widely, they are invariably distorted, inverted and corrupted by the chattering classes and lost in a hail of nonsense on social media.

So, immediately, pathological haters of Israel will link the slaying of a Jew in Copenhagen to events in Gaza or rail against the "hypocrisy" of daring to condemn this later terror attack while Israeli houses creep beyond that defunct armistice line known as the "Green Line."

A show of solidarity with the beleaguered Jews of Europe will be turned into another preemptive campaign against the prospect of an Islamophobic "backlash" - which thankfully never materialises. What does materialise, however, is the next "lash" - the next deadly attack on a Jewish gathering place.

What resulted from the Toulouse massacre was not Islamophobia, but a new surge in antisemitism. In the six weeks following the attack, 43 violent antisemitic incidents were reported. It was almost as though the warning of a backlash encouraged antisemites to strike first in their phony war, again.

Exemplifying this mindset, the prominent Australian barrister Julian Burnside recently claimed that "Islamophobia is the new antisemitism." The facts tell a different story. In Britain, a Jew is four times more likely to be attacked than a Muslim; in the United States, six times more likely. Far from being eclipsed by other forms of prejudice, it is antisemitism itself which has mutated into new and more virulent forms.

Burnside has expressed this uninformed view before, tweeting the same words in August and September 2014. It seems that the murderous attacks on the Jews of Paris and Copenhagen in the intervening period have done nothing to change Burnside's mind - or perhaps his sympathies are selectively applied.

Elected leaders, human rights activists, people of prominence with a voice and a platform fall silent when they are needed most. Fearful that voicing sympathy for the slain Jewish civilians will alienate their supporters, or undermine their anti-Israel and anti-Western credentials.

In some cases these elites have reverted to self-flagellation, blaming the diseased mind of the jihadists on Western intolerance, Israeli settlements, Woodrow Wilson, "the Murdoch press" - anything or anyone but the perpetrators themselves and the ideas by which they define themselves.

In this fog of lost morality and reason, the causes of the problem become impossible to identify and the solutions therefore remain elusive. What is clear is that until the movement known as radical Islam or Islamism is eradicated, more Jews will die in the cities of Western democracies, and democracy itself will continue to be eroded.

Hizb ut-Tahrir leader's speech reveals our peaceful values are taken for granted

Vic Alhadeff

2 March 2015

<http://www.theaustralian.com.au/news/world/hizb-ut-tahrir-leaders-speech-reveals-our-peaceful-values-are-taken-for-granted/story-e6frg6ux-1227243847454>

IMAGINE if a religious leader stood on the streets of Sydney and openly called for the murder of people of another faith. It happened recently, and barely a word of condemnation was heard.

Yet such was the unrestrained venom and hatred that spewed from the speaker it is not beyond the realms of possibility it has inspired another Mohammad Merah, Dzhokhar Tsarnaev, Mehdi Nemmouche, Said Kouachi, Amedy Coulibaly or Omar El-Hussein — the terrorists who murdered innocents in Toulouse, Boston, Brussels, Paris and Copenhagen. Or another Man Haron Monis, the Sydney siege gunman.

What was the issue which should have created a stir, but caused just a blip in the media and public consciousness?

A rally was held in Lakemba on July 25 last year. It featured the spiritual head of Hizb ut-Tahrir, the nasty extremist group that unashamedly advocates sharia and the destruction of our democratic way of life.

Interpretations of sharia vary, but can include denying women the right to vote, drive or go outdoors without a male chaperon, outlawing homosexuality, the death penalty for theft, inequality between believers and nonbelievers.

In a chilling harangue dripping with vitriol, Ismail al-Wahwah unleashed his bile on Jews everywhere, accusing them of corruption, describing them as "hidden evil", warning that the world would rid itself of them.

"The entire world suffers from the children of Israel today and complains about them," he fulminated. "Who will set the world free from the children of Israel so that the world will be able to say that it has rid itself of that hidden evil?"

"This mission will be accomplished by none but you, O Muslims ... The ember of jihad against the Jews will continue to burn.

“The struggle and the jihad will continue until the words of Allah come true.

“Judgment day will not come until the Muslims fight the Jews ... Tomorrow you Jews will see what will become of you — an eye for an eye, blood for blood, destruction for destruction.”

Reinforcing his bloodthirsty message, the unseen crowd interjected with a chant of “Khaybar, Khaybar” — the full war cry being “Khaybar Khaybar Ya Yahud jaysh Muhammad saya’ud” (Khaybar, Khaybar O Jews, the army of Muhammad will return).

Khaybar was the scene of a 7th-century massacre of Jews in what is now Saudi Arabia. The problem we face as Australians today is not just violent Islamic extremism, it is also non-violent extremism. There are authorities tasked with recognising and countering those who engage in violent extremism.

It is infinitely more difficult to recognise and counter nonviolent extremism, yet it is no less sinister, no less threatening, its potential to cause harm no less dire.

It is unconscionable at any time — yet how much more so at this time of heightened concern for our country’s security — that a public figure can brazenly and outrageously incite such hatred.

Wahwah’s poisonous rant ought to be condemned by all who care about protecting our democratic way of life.

His diatribe was not anti-Israel sentiment, as some supporters insist, but vile and crude Jew-hatred reminiscent of last year’s anti-Israel rallies that descended into blatant anti-Semitism, complete with Nazi swastikas and placards evoking racist images that had nothing to do with the Middle East.

It could be argued that his rant constitutes racial vilification; that needs to be explored. The issue is that our society comprises 200 cultures living overwhelmingly in peace in an environment where civility, respect and diversity are the norm; but we dare not take those values for granted. To do so is to put our way of life at risk.

Wahwah’s speech was delivered in Arabic and a subtitled video released last week in the expectation that it would galvanise attention, such is the potential harm its message conveys. That didn’t happen.

It is inconceivable that some choose to defend and offer excuses for Hizb ut-Tahrir, which Wahwah represents.

All people of goodwill have an obligation to speak out on these issues. We are either opposed to giving platforms to hatred and bigotry or we are not. There is a stark choice to be made.

Why the silence of the left on antisemitism?

Nick Dyrenfurth

<http://www.theage.com.au/comment/why-the-silence-of-the-left-on-antisemitism-20150301-13qn5p.html>

On February 15, 38-year-old volunteer security guard Dan Uzan was shot and killed outside a Copenhagen synagogue during a bat mitzvah celebration. A month earlier, a gunman executed four customers at a kosher grocery store in Paris.

In May 2014, a gunman killed four people at the Jewish Museum in Brussels. In 2012, a gunman murdered three students and a teacher at Toulouse Jewish primary school in south-west France. Eight-year-old Miriam Monsonego was shot point-blank in the head.

You might discern a common theme to these shocking crimes. Seventy years after the Holocaust, Jews are again being murdered in Europe for being Jews.

These recent outrages are but the tip of an anti-Semitic iceberg. About 7000 French Jews made aliyah (migrated) to Israel last year. For good reason. Jews make up 1 per cent of the French population, but half of all racially-motivated crimes during 2014 targeted Jews. In recent weeks several hundred graves were defaced at a Jewish cemetery in north-east France; in Germany a synagogue in the city of Wuppertal was firebombed.

This is to say nothing of Jew-hatred besides physical violence. During last year's Gaza conflict European protesters chanted "Gas the Jews" and "Death to the Jews". In several countries, Jews are being warned not to wear religious clothing or enrol their children in schools with a high numbers of immigrant (allegedly Muslim) students.

Far-right, anti-Semitic political parties are gaining ground across Europe. In a Greek government dominated by the far-left Syriza, right-wing ally and defence minister Panos Kammenos says that his Jewish compatriots don't pay taxes. In Britain, a recent all-party parliamentary inquiry into anti-Semitism showed an alarming rise in such bigoted attitudes.

Australia has not been immune. A video produced by the Islamist group Hizb ut-Tahrir shows the organisation's head, Ismail Al Wahwah, alleging that "where Jews thrive corruption abounds" and that the world is afflicted by the Jewish "hidden evil".

Yet, as #jesuischarlie hashtags proliferate, violence carried out by supporters of a far-right brand of totalitarianism, radical Islam, is met with thundering silence in the West. Most disturbing is the response of progressives. Recent events demonstrate that a section of what purports to be the left wing no longer stands unequivocally against all forms of fascism and racism and is prepared to ignore or, worse, excuse an ideology that rejects Enlightenment values and promotes a racist, misogynistic and homophobic death cult.

Condemnation has been non-existent or heavily qualified. What about Anders Breivik, they say? The killers have nothing to do with Islam – despite most attacks being launched with the cry of "Allahu Akbar" – but are alienated, radicalised "lone wolves", the argument goes.

Some seek to place the blame on Jews. A BBC anchor suggested that violence directed against French Jews might be understandable given Israeli policies towards the Palestinians. A left-wing Australian "anti-Zionist" tweeted that should Israel's oppression of the Palestinians continue, more attacks on Jews would follow. The normally voluminous twitter feeds of leading progressives are mostly devoid of sympathy or solidarity.

At the root of this silence is denial. A denial of the seriousness and source of the new/old anti-Semitism, whereby a classical racial/religious hostility to Jews has conjoined with a politically motivated denial of the rights of the Jewish people to a state of their own. Yet it is clear that the recent European attacks have occurred in cities that host relatively large migrant Muslim communities, of which a small but significant minority are willing to act upon the message of jihadist militancy fostered by the likes of ISIS.

These outrages have also drawn less opprobrium from progressive sources because, as militant opponents of the policies (and often very existence) of the State of Israel, they view anti-Semitism as a term deployed by Zionists to deflect criticism.

Moreover, confronting the resurgence of anti-Semitism would mean accepting that the demonisation of Israelis and Jewish diaspora – such as the toxic Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions campaign that effectively calls for the destruction of Israel – has in part contributed to the legitimisation of violent attacks against the Jews of Europe.

Instead, we have seen a bizarre reversal of victimhood. The first instinct of many, rather than sympathise with the victims of terror, has been to warn against a potential Islamophobic backlash. According to this warped and infantilising logic, Muslims, as the "new" Jews, are all innocent victims of Western (and Israeli) imperialism and racism.

No one wishes to see the peaceful majority of the world's 1.5 billion Muslims subject to discrimination because of the actions of a minority. We are not, as Roger Cohen has written in these pages, at "war with Islam". However, fear of giving offence or singling out a minority for criticism is scarcely a reason not to oppose anti-Semitism.

What then is to be done? Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu is wrong to call for Europe's 1.4 million Jews to consider a mass aliyah to Israel. This suggestion can only embolden the thugs seeking to hunt the Jewish people off the continent.

Rather the solution is easy and begins with us. We need to talk about the threat of modern anti-Semitism not as some 1930s throwback but as a real and present danger. The next time you are privy to anti-Semitic abuse, speak up. The next time a protest calls for the destruction of Israel, or explains away terrorism with "but Israel", speak up.

Do so as a matter of principle. But we should also not forget the darkest chapter of European history: fascists come for the Jews first and never stop there.

When Jewish Lives Don't Count

Julie Nathan

31 March 2015

<http://blogs.timesofisrael.com/when-jewish-lives-dont-count/>

The response to the murderous attacks in Paris and Copenhagen in January and February was encouraging. There was widespread condemnation from across all levels and sectors of Western societies. Presidents and Prime Ministers, Christians, Muslims, Jews and others marched in the streets of Paris against the terrorist murders.

Importantly, there was widespread recognition that violent antisemitism in Europe is getting worse and having a destructive effect on society as a whole. However, there were some sections of the mainstream media and society which took a decidedly different tack, including in Australia.

The Sydney Morning Herald (SMH) published an article by Liz Alderman extolling the terrorists for not killing women. The article was titled “‘I’m not going to kill you because you’re a woman’: Charlie Hebdo shooters spared female journalists”.

And yet, Elsa Cayat, a woman, was in fact murdered at Charlie Hebdo. She was also the only Jewish woman at Charlie Hebdo that day, and the only female death. Why was the murder of Elsa Cayat ignored? Was it to downplay Jewish deaths? Or worse still – did Cayat’s death not count because she was Jewish? Why did extolling the terrorists take precedence over acknowledging her death?

After the Copenhagen murders, the SMH (and The Age) again shifted their focus away from the brutal criminality of the terrorists. An article by Gwynne Dyer attacked Israeli PM Netanyahu’s call for European Jews to move to Israel to escape violent and murderous antisemitism. Dyer proclaimed that nine dead Jews (killed in terrorist attacks in Belgium, France and Denmark over the past year) were not enough to cause an exodus. He did not specify how many Jews he thinks should die before they have a right to be fearful and leave.

If Dyer was seeking the truth about antisemitism, instead of using the murders as an opportunity to polemicise against Netanyahu, he would have considered the 2012 murder of four Jews in Toulouse, including three young children. He would have found that European Jews are consistently subjected to high levels of antisemitic harassment, abuse and violence. He would have acknowledged that 50% of racist attacks in France are against Jews, yet Jews are only 1% of the population. But Dyer appeared to have no interest in antisemitism, except as a rhetorical tool with which to bludgeon Netanyahu.

On the ABC, presenter Michael Edwards’ report on the Paris terrorist attacks stated: “Amedy Coulibaly, who held up the Jewish deli, claimed to be acting on behalf of Islamic State.” Edwards makes it appear as though it were a robbery gone wrong rather than a targeted attack at a Jewish shop. He glosses over the fact that the intent was to capture and murder Jews, not rob the till.

A few days later on another ABC report, Nariman House, the Jewish centre in Mumbai, was omitted from a list naming the targets of the Mumbai terrorist attack in 2008. At Nariman House, the rabbi, his pregnant wife and four other Jews were mutilated and murdered because they were Jews. In these two instances, the ABC presenters clearly minimised or omitted any mention of Jews who were murdered.

Julian Burnside, a prominent barrister and human rights advocate, also made statements minimising the murder of Jews. On ABC radio, as reported in The Australian, Burnside stated that “one of the casualties was a Muslim policeman” while “another in a related episode in the kosher grocery (was) a Jewish man”. Burnside omitted to even acknowledge the deaths of several other Jews.

Burnside declared in a tweet: “Charlie Hebdo was terror attack, but Paris march decisively rejected Islamophobia (sic).” In fact, the Paris street march condemned and rejected antisemitism, not Islamophobia.

Elsewhere, Burnside has consistently claimed that “Islamophobia is the new anti-Semitism”. In fact, antisemitism persists with undiminished vigour and has mutated into new and more insidious forms. Jews are subject to a much higher rate of attack than are Muslims; for example, in the USA, a Jew is six times more likely to be attacked than a Muslim, and in Britain, four times more likely. Burnside’s erroneous claims do justice to neither antisemitism nor to Islamophobia.

Rod Benson of the NSW Council of Churches published an article entitled “Anti-Semitism takes on a new direction in France”. Despite the title, the article is not about antisemitism at all. Instead, it is about discouraging Islamophobia. So why the reference to antisemitism in the title?

When mainstream society, including media, a church organisation, and a human rights advocate, ignore and obfuscate the murder of Jews, they are subtly downplaying antisemitic murder.

To counter antisemitism, the first step is to acknowledge its existence. One must then acknowledge that antisemitism is evil, that it affects everyone not just Jews, and that it must be fought.

While ever some in positions of power and influence relegate antisemitism to a lesser status, for whatever reason, through minimisation or omission, the virus of antisemitism will continue to spread and threaten to engulf whole societies. What happened in Germany in the 1930s and 1940s seems to have been all but forgotten.

BDS movement is a magnet for prejudice

Jeremy Jones

18 April 2015

<http://www.theaustralian.com.au/opinion/bds-movement-is-a-magnet-for-prejudice/story-e6frg6zo-1227308547196>

A few years ago, I participated in an ABC radio panel on the subject of courage in the face of adversity and the compulsion of some remarkable human beings to put concern for others above any interest for self-preservation.

One panellist introduced the Nazi regime's attempts to murder every Jewish child, woman and man on the planet, and recounted a true story of a non-Jewish German who risked everything, and lost everything, in an attempt to save a Jewish person's life.

Another panellist opined that it was a good thing there wasn't real anti-Semitism any more so that Jewish people (like him) could spend their time on other matters.

My response was to ask him whether certain events, all of which had taken place in Australia, were anti-Semitic. Synagogues set on fire, or daubed with swastikas and/or having windows smashed? Yes, he conceded, anti-Semitism.

Articles in community newspapers on evil "cosmopolitan" forces seeking to control the banks, media and politics, referencing individuals by their Judaism or perceived connection to Jews? Yes, he agreed, anti-Semitism.

Claiming that Jews used the blood of non-Jews for religious purposes and followed the instructions of a cabal of elders to subvert democracy, and quoting religious texts (often Islamic but also Christian) that justified existential warfare against Jews? Yes, anti-Semitism.

Radio broadcasts alleging fraud and greed were inherent Jewish characteristics? Jewish men having skull caps knocked off their heads, Jewish people being subjected to vile insults before being subjected to assault? At that point, he conceded he really hadn't known what he was talking about.

Where is the movement that calls itself BDS (with the letters correctly identifying the supporters as bullies, dissemblers and slanderers) on this template?

If I thought boycotts and related strategies would contribute in any way to peace and justice in the Middle East, or that this campaign would make evildoers suffer, and prompt them to reform, I would back them. If I believed it assisted Palestinians in the process of state-building or improving their human rights position, I would not oppose this.

But with decades of working towards these ideals, I am convinced it does the opposite: it reinforces the worst instincts, it rewards obstinance and it inflames tension.

It may serve the egos and bullying impulses of individuals who think the bigger the placards and louder the megaphone the more convincing the argument, and it even may lull some well-meaning people into thinking they are working for the social good, but it certainly isn't part of any serious human rights advocacy.

Just because something is wrong, unhelpful and even counterproductive doesn't necessarily mean it is anti-Jewish racism. However, the overwhelming effect of BDS is to foster anti-Semitism.

As a student involved in student politics at the University of Sydney in the late 1970s and early 80s, the fact I was Jewish was anything but a secret but bore little relevance to the issues in which I was involved.

In one election, I ran with three people who broadly shared my outlook on where student politics should focus, such as funding of universities, the structures of degrees, principles of non-discrimination and support for students in financial need.

I had no idea of the views of my running-mates on other subjects, although I assumed we weren't that far apart.

When our main rival groups distributed their literature, we were described by the Right as "the Jewish lobby and their allies" and by the Left as "the Zionists", which said a great deal about the mindset of our opponents (and also of the students on campus, who voted us into four of the five delegate positions).

It takes a considerable degree of obsessiveness to think that one Jewish person in four constitutes a lobby or that views on Israel's right to exist was what united us, but it can be seen to be a pathology that has come more and more to the fore in recent years. My experiences at conferences, ranging from student events to the UN World Conference Against Racism, has been that the critiques of Israel for alleged abuses of human rights are rarely founded in support for human rights generally, and that attacking Israel has become a self-sustaining ideology that bears no relation to stances on other issues.

Most, if not all, supporters of the contemporary anti-Israel campaign maintain double standards, use extreme rhetoric and seem to find association with overt anti-Semitism more comfortable than disassociation from it.

In South Africa, BDS supporters have called for all Jewish students to be thrown out of one university, while others have combined threats of violence with calls to expel Jews from that country.

In the US, a growing number of cases of overt anti-Semitism from BDS supporters are being documented, and the most prominent church-backed supporters of boycotts have been recorded using base anti-Jewish rhetoric.

In Europe, and in Australia, some despicable quasi-Nazi groups have leapt on the BDS bandwagon and, in some cases, seized the reins.

A University of Sydney academic inserted himself into a Facebook discussion this past week with the comment, "I am happy to be considered anti-Semitic" if that was the cost of opposing Israel. Not far in the past, this would have been seen for the intellectual disgrace it is, but it doesn't seem to worry supporters of BDS.

The motley crew who last month sought to drown out a public lecture by Richard Kemp at Sydney University because of his intellectual position on Israel began their protest with support for the “free speech” rights of a group that has been recorded promoting a series of vile, overt anti-Jewish slurs, Hizb ut-Tahrir.

When a (different) Sydney University academic was recorded waving money in the face of an elderly Jewish woman, with all the horrific imagery this captures, it was seen as repugnant but hardly surprising.

Harvard University president Lawrence Summers says BDS contributes to a hostile, anti-Jewish environment on US campuses.

Although there are undoubtedly some individuals who are attracted to anti-Israel campaigns due to their understanding of contemporary affairs, self-righteousness and political predispositions, it is incontrovertibly a fact the so-called BDS activity is a magnet for the malicious and a podium for prejudice.

A New Face for Anti-Semitism on Campus?

By Nicole Phillips

10 June 2015

<http://www.mdia2003.org/2015/?p=1789>

A student is at his first university party: He doesn't go out often, but the opening session party is considered a rite of passage for first-years. As the O-week DJ blasts out head-banging beats, he dances along with new friends, patting his head to check that his Kippah (a traditional Jewish skullcap) is still there. Exhausted and parched, he heads to the bar for a beer when an intoxicated person approaches him with an outstretched arm and says the infamous words, “Heil Hitler”.

For Colby Wigoder, a Modern Orthodox Jewish student at Sydney University, this experience of campus life is all too “normal”. “In the past I've had people stopping their cars and screaming something at me or you can feel when people give you these weird looks,” he said. Wigoder is especially careful of lecturers looking upon him unfavourably when they see his religious garments. “Usually I just make up a joke just to break the ice. I'll say this thing is just a Frisbee and I throw it around with my friends. I just give them a good exposure to my religion.” No matter Wigoder's attire, he doesn't feel the real threshold of anti-Semitism on campus until he wears his support for Israel on his sleeve. “When I've sometimes taken an Israeli flag to campus, then I'll start to feel a little bit worried, which is kind of funny because I'm not worried at all when I wear my Kippah. Personally I feel anti-Zionism is just becoming anti-Semitism on my campus.” [...]

Yet the hazy distinction between anti-Israel attitudes and anti-Semitism is the cause of much concern among student groups. Adam Aarons and Cameron Graff are student directors for the Australasian Union of Jewish Students (AUJS) believes that the two ideas cannot be separated. “Often the opposition will claim that we have blurred the lines whenever someone has a go at Israel and we say it's anti-Semitism, when in fact, they're the ones who have blurred the lines because when we do an event that's not related to Israel, we can still be attacked for our association to Israel," said Graff.

One such incident occurred recently over social media when a member of the Greens political party was criticised for meeting with AUJS students at NSW parliament to discuss general issues in local government. "He engaged with us quite well but later on that day on his Facebook wall where he posted, 'pleasure to meet with AUJS students to discuss the environment', he copped a huge amount of criticism internally from people from his side of politics, people inside his party, because he met with us," said Aarons. "We had nothing to do with Israel but we copped a huge amount of criticism saying, 'Oh, how can you meet with these people? They're apologists for genocide. They support ethnic cleansing.' These mass generalisations about our members were under the guise of anti-Zionism when the only thing they know about the people who individually went to this thing is that they're members of AUJS and most likely Jewish."

According to Anti Defamation League statistics, 14 per cent of Australian's harbour anti-Semitic attitudes with a 35 per cent increase in anti-Semitic attacks occurring in the last year. During heated periods of conflict in Israel, AUJS representatives are aware of the need to protect their members from inevitable confrontation they face on campus. This proactive response is the direct consequence of past spates of verbal attacks and harassments against Jewish students on campuses. Last year, posters were put up at Melbourne's La Trobe University that accused three students of supporting "genocide" and "ethnic cleansing" in Israel after they opposed an anti-Israel motion at student union. Long after the incident faded from media memory, campuses across Australia still feel the aftermath. Israeli flags are kept hidden, Kippahs are worn under hats and student membership with AUJS continues to fall for fear of victimisation, explains Aarons.

"Everything we do we have to first think about if this is going to negatively affect our members' experience at university? Literally before we do any event, any campaign, anything, we have to think, 'hold on, is someone going to get mad at us, come and yell at us, protest our event for some reason just because of who we are,'" said Graff. So why is it that such a high level of security is required for the safety of the sole Jewish society on campus? Aarons suggests the reason lies in a history of baseless persecution: "I don't think it's the wars that cause anti-Semitism on campus, I think it's the wars that give people an excuse to express their anti-Semitism on campus. These attitudes they have they don't know they have them but they're there, deep under the surface, deep inside them they're not sure why but they just feel this way."

Slezak also concedes that this issue is on the rise but he believes that Israel itself is the cause of 'new anti-Semitism'. "I don't doubt that anti-Semitism is growing; there are spikes in anti-Semitism every time Israel does something bad," he said. "They're to blame... the ones that are forcing the identification of Israel and Judaism and I'm surprised when someone doesn't make the distinction clearly."

The concept of new anti-Semitism is nothing new. This idea goes back to the early 1970s when the then Foreign Minister of Israel, Abba Eban, coined this term in the American Jewish Congress publication: "The old classic anti-Semitism declared that equal rights belong to all individuals within the society, except the Jews. The new anti-Semitism says that the right to establish and maintain an independent national sovereign state is the prerogative of all nations, so long as they happen not to be Jewish." However, the distinction between criticism of Israel that is within the bounds of legitimate political discourse and that that borders on anti-Semitism is not so black and white.

For Shailee Mendelevich, the Assistant Director at Hillel, learnt this lesson was learnt the hard way. Hillel is a not-for-profit cultural organisation that aims to “inspire university-aged young adults to engage with Jewish life”. In her role at Hillel, Mendelevich organised a series of performance evenings called ‘MOTH’ that consisted of retelling the stories of Holocaust survivors. When it came to choosing a venue, she approached a community-run theatre in Marrickville, the Red Rattler. “So I sent an email to them explaining we were a Jewish group and that we were interested in putting on an evening and that it would be a performance night... And they wrote back to me and said that they don’t support groups that support genocide and that their against the occupation of Palestine. I was quite shocked and taken aback because I hadn’t written anything about my political opinion or the organisation’s political opinion.”

Perhaps then, the underlying issue is the blanket opposition that individuals have to Israel as a whole? Mendelevich struggles to make sense of how an entire country can be the foundation for such strong positions: “I think you can definitely be critical of Israel’s policies, government, how it treats its citizens you know... But I think when you say anti-Israel, that’s a big question mark for me – How can you be ‘anti’ a country?”

Liam O’Callaghan, Treasurer of Sydney University AUJS, believes that the endemic of ‘new anti-Semitism’ is bred from ignorance. Having only discovered his Jewish roots last year when digging through old family records at his Nan’s house, O’Callaghan wasn’t aware of the struggles that Jewish people face until he became immersed in the religion himself. “Jewish students feel victimised, they feel that their voices aren’t heard, that don’t have the opportunity to speak their minds and to rationalise what is really a very grey issue,” he said.

Since becoming involved in AUJS and advocating for Israel on campus, O’Callaghan has already been subject to anti-Semitic slurs. When telling people of his newfound Jewish faith, he was met with varied responses. Perhaps most memorable was that of his friend, the head of the Autonomous Collective Against Racism: “oh, now I like you less.” Lost for words, O’Callaghan stared at him blankly in confusion. “I didn’t know going in... people will insult me, call me genocidal, call me all these different things and then just claim that they’re not anti-Semitic?” he said.

In his position on the USYD Student Representative Council, O’Callaghan attended a meeting at Sydney University last week to stand up for Zionist students who are being banned from contributing to Honi Soit, the weekly student newspaper.

“There’s a motion that’s going to be put up to have one of the student newspapers from an entirely Palestinian perspective and it will completely block out the Jewish voice on the issue which I think is very wrong. I’ve met with the person who’s proposing the motion and they won’t budge.”

Liam’s battle for equal representation on the Honi Soit is an indication that the pro-Israel voice on campus is becoming an endangered species. As the Jewish chaplain for students on campuses across NSW and the ACT, Mendelevich has supported students who are hesitant to speak up. “I’ve had people say they want to write a paper on the Middle East or Israel and they’re obviously going to take a position to support Israel and they’re afraid the lecturer will mark them down because they wouldn’t agree,” she said. [...]

“If I had one of these professors now I wouldn’t do the course just because I couldn’t trust what they say anymore,” said Colby. But the emotional toll that inadvertent racism can take on minority student groups should never be left unvoiced. “You don’t really feel like part of the campus sometimes... You’ll always be that Jewish friend or that crazy Zionist radical.”

Anne Frank on Antisemitism

Julie Nathan

1 July 2015

<http://www.jwire.com.au/anne-frank-on-antisemitism/>

<http://blogs.timesofisrael.com/anne-frank-on-antisemitism/>

The theatre production of The Diary of Anne Frank is playing in Newtown, Sydney. I saw it last month when it opened. The play was powerful, moving, and sensitive. The acting was highly professional. The characters portrayed the situation, the fears, the pressures, and the closeness of the Jews hiding in the attic. It also showed the bravery and moral courage of the gentiles who put their own lives at risk to save Jews. The Newtown production brought this 71 year old diary to life with great vibrancy. I would urge all those so inclined to see it.

However, it was disappointing to see that the 1955 play by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett which was reenacted at Newtown was not updated to recapture Anne’s authentic words about antisemitism. Anne’s words had been replaced with a sanitized version about antisemitism and the reason for the suffering they were subjected to. The playwrights put these words into Anne’s mouth: “We are not the only people that have had to suffer... sometimes one race, sometimes another”. This is an egregious rewriting of history.

Whilst it is true that other peoples have also suffered, and continue to suffer, due to racism, these fabricated words negate the unique aspects of antisemitism. Racism thus becomes some bland generic universalistic phenomenon, negating the unique history and reasons for racism against different peoples, whether it be the enslavement of black Africans in previous centuries or of Yazidi women presently or the continuing persecution of Bahai, Assyrians, Roma or Rohingya, and thus disrespecting all victims of each form of racism.

As Dennis Prager and Rabbi Joseph Telushkin state in their book Why The Jews?, the elimination of Anne’s original words is part of the “dejudaization of antisemitism [...] Anne Frank’s beliefs that Judaism was at the root of Jew-hatred and that the Jews were different were eliminated in the Broadway version. [...] The Hacketts thus presented their dejudaized interpretation of antisemitism in place of the Jewish interpretation offered by Anne Frank, that the Jews are hated precisely because of the Jews’ unique role in the world.”

It is worth revisiting Anne’s original words, rather than those that have been put in her mouth. On 11 April 1944, she wrote in her diary:

“Who has made us Jews different from all other people? Who has allowed us to suffer so terribly up until now? It is God who has made us as we are, but it will be God, too, who will raise us up again. Who knows? It might even be our religion from which the world and all peoples learn good, and for that reason and only that reason do we suffer. We can never become just Netherlands, or just English or representatives of any country for that matter. We will always remain Jews, but we want to, too.”

Anne had a far superior understanding of the reasons for, and uniqueness of, antisemitism than many people. She understood that it was not just an unfortunate confluence of random events that saw a long history of hatred and murder of Jews. Although she grew up in a secular and assimilated Jewish family, Anne realised it was Judaism, with its ethics and values, that intrinsically so rile up those who would prefer to live by brute force and have freedom without conscience. It is this, which a 14 year old Dutch/German girl understood even as she hid in that attic, trying to survive the onslaught of murderous hate. It is a pity that a great play could not appreciate Anne's deep insights.

Antisemitism is on the rise once more throughout the world. Obfuscating the nature of antisemitism and the impetus for it is counterproductive to the efforts to fight it. Whether it is hostility and hatred towards the Jewish religion, the Jewish people, or the Jewish state, we need to understand the perennial nature of the toxic evil that propels this unique phenomenon.

Neither Jews nor Israel were the issue, nor were there any signs of antisemitism, at the Reclaim Australia rally and the counter rally in Sydney on Sunday. Nevertheless, the series of rallies and counter rallies around Australia, in April and over this weekend, and at other times, and the movements behind them, are of concern to the Jewish community.

The Sydney Reclaim rally on Sunday was unmistakably against Islam and Islamist terrorism. There were Australian flags, Eureka flags and an Aboriginal flag. The speakers included Pastor Danny Nalliah, a Sri Lankan born Christian, Shermon Burgess, leader of the United Patriots Front and gun enthusiast, and a woman who spoke of being raped by a gang of Muslim men. The crowd of around 200 were generally well-behaved, although at times ugly chants of "Filth!" referring to Muslims who had committed violence were heard. The rally was attended by various right-wing groups under the Reclaim Australia banner – Party For Freedom, Rise Up Australia, Concerned Citizens, Australia First Party, and others.

The counter rally in Sydney was organised by socialist groups, mainly Socialist Alternative, Socialist Alliance, and Solidarity. There were plenty of banners, and the rally was unmistakably anti-Abbott, anti-police, anti-Nazi, pro-Muslim, and pro-Aboriginal. The crowd of around 400 were rowdy, with several attempts to break out of the police blockade, and angry speakers often accusing the police of protecting the Reclaimers, while the crowd chanted "Nazi scum" at various times. Speakers included Greens Senator Lee Rhiannon, Rahaf Ahmed of the University of Technology Sydney Muslim Society (and of Palestine Action Group), several Aboriginal speakers, and others.

Police and the riot squad were out in force with several hundred officers determined to keep both rallies separate and apart. They formed a blockade around each rally, and had a police presence in the city blocks of Martin Place in between the two rallies. The aim was to avoid the violence that had featured in previous protests. Arrests were made in both Sydney and Melbourne.

From a Jewish community perspective, both the far right Reclaimers and the far left counter groups of socialists include individuals and groups who are hostile to Jews and/or to Israel as a Jewish state.

Reclaim rallies have included neo-Nazis, and other far Right people, Pauline Hanson as a speaker, white pride groups, racist sentiment, and swastika tattoos. One major Reclaimer, neo-Nazi Neil Erikson, was convicted of making abusive and racist phone calls to a Melbourne rabbi. Australia's most prominent neo-Nazi, Ross 'The Skull' May, has given support to Reclaim.

Reclaimers also oppose multiculturalism. All ethnic and religious communities in Australia have the right to maintain and express their traditions, within Australian law. The Jewish community is a prime example of how an ethnic and religious minority can maintain traditions and still be integrated into Australian society. Multiculturalism is a decades old government policy that reflects Australia's make-up and encourages social cohesion. Muslims, as Australians, are also clearly entitled to practice their religious traditions along with every other Australian, as long as it is within Australian law.

The anti-Reclaimers are often touted by themselves and by the media as "anti-racist" but this is simplistic and inaccurate. In their activities, forums and protests, the only communities they show support for are the Muslim community and sometimes the Aboriginal community. Racist sentiment and incidents against other communities like Indians, Chinese or Arab Christians do not rate a mention. Their opposition to Islamophobia is consistently coupled with opposition to the Abbott government. It is as though support for Muslims is predicated on opposition to the federal Liberal government.

In addition, the organisers of the anti-Reclaim rallies are generally the same people who organise anti-Israel rallies, including the annual al-Naqba rallies, the weekly protests against Israel during the Israel/Gaza war in 2014, and other anti-Israel protests. At these protests, anti-Jewish chants of "Khaybar Khaybar" and the chant calling for the destruction of Israel "From the river to the sea, Palestine will be free" are common. Placards equating the Jewish Star of David to the Nazi swastika and other Jewish/Israel equivalence with Nazism are increasingly a standard component. Other placards have been reminiscent of the Blood Libel, accusing Jews and Israel of deliberately targeting and murdering children in a ritual blood lust. Australia's most prominent neo-Nazi, Ross 'The Skull' May, has attended Al-Naqba rallies, in a show of support for the destruction of the Jewish state.

Neither the Reclaim groups nor those who protest against them exhibit a vision of a democratic Australia built upon multicultural diversity, social harmony, and opposition to all forms of extremism. Instead, they each promote their own forms of intolerance, bigotry, and divisiveness.

Mainstream Muslims are an intrinsic part of the solution to Islamist violence, despite what the far Right and far Left would have us believe. By placing all Muslims in the 'bad' basket as the far Right do, and by the Left denying or ignoring the problem of Islamist violence around the world, neither are producing solutions, only scapegoating and blame.

While pro and anti-Reclaimers organise and hold their street rallies, shouting abuse at each other, perhaps it is time Australians of good-will, across the religious and ethnic spectrum, sat down with Australian Muslims and came together to discuss how we can all counter both Islamist extremism and Islamophobia, as well as other forms of extremist violence, bigotry and racism, including antisemitism.

Australians cannot ignore ‘comfortably racist’ remarks

Vic Alhadeff

<http://www.theaustralian.com.au/news/inquirer/australians-cannot-ignore-comfortably-racist-remarks/story-e6frg6z6-1227455948411>

There’s a phenomenon afoot called casual racism. Seemingly less malevolent than intentional racism, it’s a careless and often subliminal form of abuse whose danger lies in the fact it normalises prejudice, perpetuates stereotypes and gives licence to bigotry.

It is evident in offhand remarks, social media and pointed jokes, invariably on the basis of race or religion.

Australia recently was described as “comfortably racist” by an observer. Offensive gibes enter the conversation too easily, he noted, such as a media personality suggesting that footballer Adam Goodes — who is indigenous — promote King Kong, while a television anchor asked Indian cricket fans who would run the 7-Eleven stores while India was competing in the World Cup.

Intentionally racist? Probably not. Casually racist? Without doubt. A dictionary defined it as “the art of being slightly racist in a casual fashion. When one doesn’t really hate people of another colour”, yet jokes at their expense. Overt racism is easily recognisable, casual racism less so.

Examples abound. Seinfeld used the pejorative term “Indian giver”, meaning to give a gift and then demand it back — an indictment of Native Americans. A “Scotch call” implies Scots are stingy, referring to hanging up before the other person has answered the phone. “Going Dutch” means each party pays for himself because Dutch are stingy. “Don’t be a Jew” says Jews are stingy. “Gypped” — being cheated — ascribes dishonesty to gypsies. And “Beware the Greeks bearing gifts” alludes to the wooden horse the Greeks used to enter Troy.

The issue here is not political correctness; it is the impact of such remarks, which can range from hurt and denigration to exclusion and social malaise. Whether any is intended is entirely irrelevant.

The racist tweets recently directed at Assistant Treasurer Josh Frydenberg fall into that category. Frydenberg had expressed support for a reduction in commissions paid to life insurance agents; a finance adviser took exception and lashed out with a series of crass tweets against the politician, who is Jewish. He described Frydenberg as a “tinkering Jew”, a “central planning Jew” and a “slapstick comedy Jew”, with ugly epithets thrown in for good measure.

Challenged by critics, the finance adviser initially refused to retract, defending his right to “free speech”. But after his remarks were roundly condemned, he insisted they were “inadvertently taken as antisemitism”, adding “I am honestly very sorry if anyone in the Jewish community was offended. I am certainly not antisemitic. I have many Jewish friends and just 12 months ago I attended a Jewish funeral of a very dear friend.”

As vile as his tweets were, his contrition appeared genuine, even though it defied belief that he hadn’t expected to cause offence. But then a tweet surfaced that he had posted three months prior. Referring to a blaze that destroyed a model dinosaur at a Coolum resort, he tweeted “Jewish stocktake?” — a disparaging stereotype alleging that Jews orchestrate such events to claim insurance.

Where now his claim that he was misunderstood, that no bigotry was intended? Was his defence a function of casual racism — loaded words that impute negative characteristics to a particular group without necessarily intending to offend? Our country’s social cohesion is being tested in ways we haven’t experienced for some time, extremists exploiting global tensions to indulge in attacks on minorities. Casual racism is different, less obvious, and therefore slips too easily below the radar.

The good news is we hear of greater willingness by onlookers to get involved. A woman on a Sydney train recently confronted a passenger abusing a Muslim couple, while a man on a Melbourne train intervened when women wearing Islamic headscarfs were vilified.

But it’s not good enough that almost one in five Australians experienced racial or religious slurs in the past 12 months or that a significant percentage of indigenous Australians suffer discrimination. Or that a television host referred to New Zealand sports fans as a “dole-bludger army”.

Human rights agencies, sports organisations and corporate bodies are getting on board in anti-racism activism, but ordinary Australians need to do so too.

We can’t afford to shrug our shoulders at offensive tweets, at comments that denigrate, at rebukes that remonstrate with others to “go back to where you came from”.

Whether or not abuse is intended, casual racism can be as hurtful and harmful as the other form.
