1. INTRODUCTION

Executive Summary

During the twelve-month period, from 1 October 2021 to 30 September 2022, there were 478 antisemitic incidents logged by volunteer Community Security Groups (CSGs), official Jewish state roof bodies, and the ECAJ. In the previous 12-month period, ending 30 September 2021, these same bodies logged 447 incidents. Accordingly, there was an increase of 6.9% in the overall number of reported antisemitic incidents compared to the previous year (2021), which had a 35% increase over the number of recorded incidents in 2020.

Overall, from 2021 to 2022, there were substantial increases in the number of reported incidents in two categories: posters/stickers (up 70% from 72 to 123) and graffiti (up 18% from 106 to 125). There were significant decreases in two categories: physical assault (down from 8 to 5), and messages (down from 103 to 76). There was a minor decrease in verbal abuse (down from 147 to 138). Vandalism remained the same at 11.

The average number of reported antisemitic incidents each year from 2013 to 2021 was 298. As such, the total number of reported incidents in 2022 is above that average by 180 incidents.

The huge 70% increase in incidents in the poster category (which includes banners, clothing, flags, leaflets, posters, placards and stickers) had two contributing factors. Firstly, the COVID regulations which produced mass street protests, particularly in Victoria, and the antisemitic conspiracy theories associated with the anti-vaxxer, anti-lockdown camp, resulted in antisemitic placards at protests and antisemitic stickers on streets. Secondly, the increase in neo-Nazi activity, putting up antisemitic propaganda material in the form of posters, stickers and the like, particularly in the eastern states and SA.

There were monthly spikes in incidents in November 2021 and February 2022. Contributing factors to these spikes were most likely due to multiple street protests against vaccinations and lockdowns in November 2021 and the release of the Amnesty International report on Israel, eliciting a few individuals to make multiple abusive phone calls and emails to Jewish community organisations, especially synagogues, in February 2022.

Of increasing concern for the Jewish community is the rise in neo-Nazi activity and the proliferation of neo-Nazi groups. Most of these groups are connected to each other and share propaganda material especially posters and stickers. Many neo-Nazis are becoming brazen in their activities, from performing Nazi salutes outside a Holocaust Museum in Adelaide to holding up their neo-Nazi flag in a public park in Sydney, as well as targeting synagogues with antisemitic posters and stickers. Some white supremacist and right-wing extremists are moving across into neo-Nazism.

Banning the Nazi swastika in Victoria and Nazi symbols in NSW will provide a legal remedy for acts of vilification and promotion of genocidal symbols. It will not stop the rise of neo-Nazism, but it will curtail their use of particular symbols. Most importantly, it sends a very clear message to everyone that neo-Nazism is not only unacceptable but abhorrent.
The use of Nazi analogies in mainstream society is increasingly becoming more common. Parliamentary political figures or events, such as COVID restrictions, are compared to Nazism or the Holocaust in order to embellish and sensationalise or to portray something as being on the same level as, or worse than, the planned murder of six million people. Although the intention may not be antisemitic per se, it has the effect of minimising and distorting the Holocaust and tends to desensitise people to the evils of Nazism and antisemitism.

There was a concerted campaign by anti-Israel activists and groups to oppose the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) Working Definition of Antisemitism from being adopted by parliaments, universities, and any other organisation. MPs were lobbied. There was even a street protest by anti-Israel activists in Adelaide to oppose IHRA being adopted by state parliament. These anti-IHRA groups deliberately misconstrue the IHRA definition claiming that it prohibits any criticism of Israel, despite the definition explicitly stating that Israel can be criticised.

The IHRA definition has been widely accepted by governments and other bodies, and Jewish communities throughout the world, as a non-legally binding standard and educational tool to combat antisemitism.

Although it is not antisemitic per se to oppose or criticise the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism, such opposition is often expressed in a way that downplays the extent and severity of antisemitism, or suggests that the concerns of the Jewish community about antisemitism should be dismissed or minimised, or implies that Jewish community organisations which support the IHRA Working Definition are acting in a duplicitous manner and with malicious intent.

Incidents of abusive behaviour towards Jewish school students at public and private schools continued to emerge throughout the year, with very little response by school administrations to halt such behaviours. University student unions passed anti-Israel resolutions, often based on fabrications about Israel, and these created an increasingly toxic environment for Jewish students.

As antisemitism continues to rise in Australia, and around the world, it is important for political leaders, the media, law enforcement, academics, faith leaders, and others in positions of power or influence, to act to counter antisemitism in all its forms. One way is for governments to enact laws criminalising the advocacy of violence against ethnic and other groups of people, rather than only incitement to violence; another is to establish a national database on hate crime.
Current situation for Jews in Australia - Security

The Jewish community is the only community within Australia whose places of worship, schools, communal organisations and community centres need, for security reasons, to operate under the protection of high fences, armed guards, metal detectors, CCTV cameras and the like. This necessity is recognised by Australia’s law enforcement agencies. It arises from the entrenched and protean nature of antisemitism in Western and Middle Eastern cultures, resulting in a high incidence of physical attacks against Jews and Jewish communal buildings over the last three decades, and continuing threats.

Selection Criteria for Inclusion in the Report

All incidents and material in this report occurred in Australia between 1 October 2021 and 30 September 2022. All content reproduced in this report was published in Australia or is freely accessible online from Australia.

Antisemitic content (Chapters 3 - 7) includes only discourse which is clearly and overtly antisemitic, according to the ‘IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism’ (see section headed “Working Definition of Antisemitism” below). If there is reasonable room for doubt about whether anti-Jewish attitudes were a factor in the publication, the publication has not been included in this Report. Antisemitic content also includes anti-Israel content that uses clear antisemitic themes, including the denial of Jewish peoplehood and basic rights, within the meaning of the ‘Working Definition’. The criteria used for inclusion of content in Chapter 2 ‘Incidents’ are more restrictive and are detailed in that chapter.

Antisemitism: Incidents and Discourse in the Report

Each year, since 1990, the Executive Council of Australian Jewry (ECAJ), the peak elected national representative body of the Australian Jewish community, has published the Report on Antisemitism in Australia.

The ECAJ records antisemitism in two broad categories: incidents and discourse. In general, incidents are what ‘is done to’ Jews, while discourse is what ‘is said about’ Jews. Nevertheless, it is recognised that the latter can have a considerable influence on the former.

Incidents comprise six categories: physical assault; vandalism; verbal abuse, harassment and intimidation; hate messages via email, postal mail, and telephone; graffiti; and propaganda material such as banners, flags, leaflets, posters and stickers. Discourse refers to public discourse in the mainstream and other media, in print and online publications, discussions at public forums, and any other public discourse where the content is antisemitic. In the annual antisemitism reports published by the ECAJ both categories of antisemitism are covered.

Two other forms of antisemitism are discrimination and casual racism. Discrimination, for example, in employment, workplace, educational institutions, clubs, and elsewhere, is not covered in this report unless there is abuse or similar overt behaviour associated with the discrimination. In most cases, discrimination is covert, making it difficult to obtain evidence of its motivation. Casual racism is included in this report, citing some examples, in Chapter 3.
The Term ‘Antisemitism’

Antisemitism (often misspelled as ‘anti-Semitism’), despite its name, is not directed at Semitic languages or Semitic peoples as a whole. It is directed solely at Jews. The word ‘antisemitismus’ (‘antisemitism’) was coined in 1879 by the German journalist, Wilhelm Marr, to replace the traditional word Judenhass (“hatred of Jews”) which denoted traditional hatred of Jews for religious reasons.

Marr subscribed to the pseudo-scientific theory that humanity consists of a hierarchy of biological races, and believed that Jews are immutably inferior to other people for biological reasons. Thus, ‘antisemitism’ expressed hatred of Jews on the basis of so-called “race science”, which has long since been discredited, rather than on the basis of religion or theology. The reliance on racial pseudo-science rather than religion was deemed necessary by Jew-haters because Europe was seen to be becoming less religious and more secular, and the anti-Judaism of Christianity was becoming less relevant to western societies.

The original spelling of ‘antisemitism’ was the German ‘antisemitismus’. It is translated as ‘antisémitisme’ in French, ‘antisemitismo’ in Spanish, ‘antishemiyut’ in Hebrew, and so on, with no hyphen and no capital letters. Only English - more particularly American English - for some reason changed the spelling to include hyphenation and a capital ‘s’ to form the word 'anti-Semitism’.

Emil Fackenheim in his Post-Holocaust Anti-Jewishness, Jewish Identity and the Centrality of Israel, in ‘World Jewry and the State of Israel’ ed. Moshe David, p11, n2, stated: “…the spelling ought to be antisemitism without the hyphen, dispelling the notion that there is an entity 'Semitism' which 'anti-Semitism' opposes.”

Alternative terms to antisemitism, although not in popular usage, are Judeophobia and Misop-Judaism. As well, the older term ‘Jew-hatred’ is making a reappearance, in part due to the word ‘antisemitism’ not being understood what it refers to, or not being recognized as referring only to Jews, or being deliberately misused to promote it in its literal sense to include all Semitic peoples, notably Arabs.

What is Antisemitism?

Antisemitism is racism and bigotry against Jews. It is a prejudice and hatred spanning approximately 3000 years.

Racism and religious bigotry generally are the products not only of a fear of difference and aversion to “the other” but also of a reductionist mindset that craves simplification and cannot cope adequately with complexity. Rationality is cast aside for prejudice in the form of a series of generalisations about the presumed moral and other qualities of people based solely on their membership of an ethnic or religious group. The target of this prejudice is therefore not seen in all of his or her individual humanity, with a unique character and personal qualities, but rather as an anonymous “type”. Yet experience tells us that there are good and bad people within every ethnic and religious community, and that individuals are also a mixture of good and bad qualities.
In fact, racism and bigotry are rarely the product of any kind of purely cognitive process. People who propound racist or bigoted beliefs are almost always motivated by emotional or psychological factors born of their own insecurities and failures, or by a supervening interest, and will therefore persist in such beliefs even when there is overwhelming evidence to the contrary. The so-called “reasons” proffered for racist and bigoted attitudes towards entire ethnic or religious groups are necessarily no more than rationalisations.

Antisemitism has both ethnic and religious dimensions and differs from other forms of racism and bigotry. Over time it has mutated in order to adapt to changing circumstances. In pre-Christian and pre-Islamic pagan societies, Jews were berated for nurturing, rather than killing, those of their children who fell ill, and for mandating a day of rest each week. With the advent of rival forms of monotheism, Christianity and Islam, this cultural prejudice gave way to religiously based hatred. The Jews’ refusal to accept the theological claims of Jesus or Mohammed elicited indignation and demonization from their respective followers. Christian doctrine for many centuries held Jews collectively to be eternally guilty of Deicide, a belief not officially abandoned until the second half of the twentieth century.

From the late 1800’s onwards, religious antisemitism was eclipsed by the anti-Jewish racial theories eventually embraced by the Nazis. These theories were put forward in the name of genetic “science”, but without the slightest evidentiary foundation. With the discrediting of Nazi racial doctrine, antisemitism went underground for several decades. It has now returned with a vengeance.

Contemporary antisemitism can also take the form of a denial of Jewish peoplehood and basic rights. To try to redefine the Jewish people as a non-people so as to suit the interests or convenience of others is not only dishonest but also an assault on the human dignity of every Jew. This is quintessential antisemitism. Given their relatively small numbers, the Jewish people have always been vulnerable, and for a long interval of 1800 years, were stateless, and could usually be victimised with impunity. Much of the rage directed against the modern State of Israel and the Jewish people arises from the fact that this is no longer possible. Some antisemites see Jewish powerlessness and vulnerability as the natural order of things which they seek to restore. Thus, it is precisely when Jews defend themselves successfully that the rage against them is at its most intense.

It is therefore a mistake to equate antisemitism only with yellow badges, concentration camps and gas chambers, and to dismiss other forms of antisemitism as “lesser” manifestations or not as “genuine” antisemitism.

In summary, contemporary antisemitism is manifested through:

1. Religious anti-Jewish themes deriving from Christian and Islamic theological supersessionism and supremacism

2. Racial antisemitism deriving from racial supremacist ideologies, including Nazi and white supremacist ideologies

3. Political antisemitism disguised as anti-Zionism and the denial of Jewish peoplehood, history, rights and dignity, emanating from both the far Left and the far Right.
The most widely accepted definition of antisemitism by western governments, among others, is the ‘Working Definition of Antisemitism’ adopted by the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) on 26 May 2016. Australia was admitted to full membership of the IHRA in June 2019.

The IHRA is an intergovernmental body composed of (as of September 2022):

- 35 member countries: Argentina, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Canada, Croatia, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Netherlands, North Macedonia, Norway, Poland, Portugal; Romania, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, United Kingdom, United States;

- 10 observer countries: Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Brazil, Cyprus, El Salvador, Moldova, Monaco, New Zealand, Turkey, Uruguay; and

https://www.holocaustremembrance.com/countries-and-membership

The IHRA Working Definition has its roots in the ‘Working Definition of Antisemitism’ formulated by the European Union Monitoring Commission (EUMC), now called the European Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA), which was adopted in 2005 and distributed to all its national monitors. The EUMC and IHRA definitions are almost identical.

For the purposes of this Report, the ECAJ uses the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism.

WORKING DEFINITION OF ANTISEMITISM

Working definition: “Antisemitism is a certain perception of Jews, which may be expressed as hatred toward Jews. Rhetorical and physical manifestations of antisemitism are directed toward Jewish or non-Jewish individuals and/or their property, toward Jewish community institutions and religious facilities.”

Manifestations might include the targeting of the state of Israel, conceived as a Jewish collectivity. However, criticism of Israel similar to that leveled against any other country cannot be regarded as antisemitic.

Antisemitism frequently charges Jews with conspiring to harm humanity, and it is often used to blame Jews for “why things go wrong.” It is expressed in speech, writing, visual forms and action, and employs sinister stereotypes and negative character traits.

Contemporary examples of antisemitism in public life, the media, schools, the workplace, and in the religious sphere could, taking into account the overall context, include, but are not limited to:

- Calling for, aiding, or justifying the killing or harming of Jews in the name of a radical ideology or an extremist view of religion.
- Making mendacious, dehumanizing, demonizing, or stereotypical allegations about Jews as such or the power of Jews as collective — such as, especially but not exclusively, the myth about a world Jewish conspiracy or of Jews controlling the media, economy, government or other societal institutions.
- Accusing Jews as a people of being responsible for real or imagined wrongdoing committed by a single Jewish person or group, or even for acts committed by non-Jews.
- Denying the fact, scope, mechanisms (e.g. gas chambers) or intentionality of the genocide of the Jewish people at the hands of National Socialist Germany and its supporters and accomplices during World War II (the Holocaust).
- Accusing the Jews as a people, or Israel as a state, of inventing or exaggerating the Holocaust.
- Accusing Jewish citizens of being more loyal to Israel, or to the alleged priorities of Jews worldwide, than to the interests of their own nations.
- Denying the Jewish people their right to self-determination, e.g., by claiming that the existence of a State of Israel is a racist endeavor.
- Applying double standards by requiring of it a behavior not expected or demanded of any other democratic nation.
- Using the symbols and images associated with classic antisemitism (e.g., claims of Jews killing Jesus or blood libel) to characterize Israel or Israelis.
• Drawing comparisons of contemporary Israeli policy to that of the Nazis.

• Holding Jews collectively responsible for actions of the state of Israel.

Antisemitic acts are criminal when they are so defined by law (for example, denial of the Holocaust or distribution of antisemitic materials in some countries).

Criminal acts are antisemitic when the targets of attacks, whether they are people or property – such as buildings, schools, places of worship and cemeteries – are selected because they are, or are perceived to be, Jewish or linked to Jews.

Antisemitic discrimination is the denial to Jews of opportunities or services available to others and is illegal in many countries.

Adoption of the IHRA working definition of antisemitism

• National/International Adoption of the IHRA working definition of antisemitism

The following UN member states have adopted or endorsed the IHRA working definition of antisemitism [as of September 2022]. Beyond the 38 countries listed below, a wide range of other political entities, including a large number of regional/state and local governments, have done so as well.

Albania, Argentina, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Bosnia, Bulgaria, Canada, Colombia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Guatemala, Hungary, Israel, Italy, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Moldova, Netherlands, North Macedonia, Philippines, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, South Korea, Spain, Sweden, United Kingdom, United States, Uruguay.

Organizations: The following international organizations have expressed support for the working definition of antisemitism:

United Nations: Secretary General Antonio Guterres, Special Rapporteur for freedom of religion or belief Ahmed Shaheed; European Union: Council, Parliament, Commission; Organization of American States: Secretary General; Council of Europe: European Commission against Racism and Intolerance.

865 entities have adopted IHRA working definition of antisemitism

https://www.jpost.com/diaspora/antisemitism/article-701485

“A newly released study [in March 2022] by the Combat Antisemitism Movement (CAM) and the Kantor Center for the Study of Contemporary European Jewry at Tel Aviv University shows that 865 entities around the world have adopted the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) working definition of antisemitism since 2016. An array of international organizations, national governments, municipalities, NGOs, universities, athletic clubs, corporations and other groups have adopted that definition as the guiding framework for their policies against antisemitism. The definition’s impact and influence are rooted in the mainstream consensus that has formed around it.”

Australian governments adopting the IHRA working definition of antisemitism

The International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) Working Definition of Antisemitism has been adopted in Australia by the following federal, state, and local government bodies:

Australian government (Oct. 2021) with bipartisan support; NSW state government (Dec. 2021); NSW state parliament’s Legislative Council (March 2022); Victorian state government and parliament (May 2022); South Australian state parliament’s Legislative Council (July 2022); Waverley Council, in Sydney (Nov. 2021); Glen Eira City Council, in Melbourne (April 2022).

Sociological definition of Antisemitism

Helen Fein, a historical sociologist and professor, published “The Persisting Question: Sociological Perspectives and Social Contexts of Modern Antisemitism” in 1987. On page 67 she wrote:

“I propose to define antisemitism as a persisting latent structure of hostile beliefs towards Jews as a collectivity manifested in individuals as attitudes, and in culture as myth, ideology, folklore, and imagery, and in actions – social or legal discrimination, political mobilization against the Jews, and collective or state violence – which results in and/or is designed to distance, displace, or destroy Jews as Jews.”

Community Security Trust (CST) in the UK - definition of an antisemitic incident:

“CST classifies as an antisemitic incident any malicious act aimed at Jewish people, organisations or property, where there is evidence that the incident has antisemitic motivation or content, or that the victim was targeted because they are (or are believed to be) Jewish.”

Contemporary Forms of Antisemitic Discourse

Some expressions are easily identified as antisemitic, for example, “God damned you Jews to hell”, “Jews run the world”, the “evil greedy money-loving nature of Jews”, or “Hitler should have finished them off.”

Other comments are not as readily recognised as antisemitic. This can be because they are seen as ambiguous, or borderline, or coded, or disguised as ordinary political criticism of Israel, or because the connection to classical forms of antisemitism is not recognised. Not all people who harbour hostility towards Jews are open about their views. Often, antisemitic rhetoric is more subtle and less overt than that expressed by those who openly admit to being Jew-haters. Many will ‘dog-whistle’ or convey their messages ‘between the lines.’

The word ‘Zionist’ in the hands of antisemites is also typically a substitute for the pejorative use of the word ‘Jew’. A variation of that technique is the use of classical anti-Jewish motifs and themes in the expression of what, on the surface, may appear to be merely political opinions about Israel. For example, where once it was said that the Jews seek to control the world, now it is said that Israel seeks to control the world; where once it was said that Jews lusted after Christian/gentile blood, now it is said that Israel lusts after Palestinian/gentile blood; where once it was said that Jews/Judaism were Satanic, now it is said that Israelis/Zionists are Satanic.

Themes in anti-Jewish rhetoric

Themes commonly found and expressed in anti-Jewish rhetoric in the period of review include:

- Jews as Christ-killers; Jews and Judaism as anti-Christian and Satanic; Christianity as a Jewish plot to destroy the European races; Jews plotting to destroy Islam; killers of prophets; cursed by G-d; a cursed and damned people; the Chosen People concept mischaracterised, mocked and denied; the Talmud portrayed as evil; Jews as bloodthirsty for gentile blood; Jews as the enemy of humanity.

- Jews as powerful, influential, and wealthy; Jews as having and exercising undue and disproportionate power and influence, usually against the interests of non-Jews, especially through the “Jewish Lobby” (aka Zionist or Israel lobby).

- Jews portrayed as conspiring to rule the world through control of international finance, media, and politics; manipulating events; fomenting wars; unleashing pandemics; aimed at subjugating the non-Jewish population of the world; an existential threat to non-Jews; and possessing enormous power and drive aimed at world domination.

- Jews as ‘the other’, not ‘real Australians’, foreigners, with dual loyalty.

- Jews and Jewish organisations being accused of concocting false accusations of antisemitism to gain an advantage, especially in order to stifle criticism of Israel.

- Holocaust denial, minimisation, distortion and denigration; Jews deserve to be killed; Hitler was right to kill Jews; the Jews must be killed.

- Israel as an inherently racist and apartheid state; Jewish/Nazi analogy; Israel as a Nazi state; Jewish Star of David = Nazi swastika; Israeli Jews as terrorists; committing genocide against Palestinians, Arabs, Muslims, and other non-Jews.

- Jews characterised as barbaric, bloodthirsty, callous, cruel, dirty, evil, foreign, greedy, hateful, malevolent, money-hungry, murderous, nefarious, racist, selfish, and stingy.

- Jews described as apes, bacillus, demonic, devils, disease, dogs, filth, germs, leeches, monkeys, parasites, pigs, rats, scum, vermin, a virus.
Studies on Antisemitism

- Gandel Foundation Australia Survey 2021: Key Findings on Antisemitism
  “The Gandel Holocaust Knowledge and Awareness in Australia Survey 2021 is a nationally representative survey of 3,522 Australian adults conducted in September 2021. This project is commissioned and funded by the Gandel Foundation and conducted by Deakin University.”

Key Findings... The Gandel Holocaust Survey asked distinct questions that probed the issue of Antisemitism and Antisemitic tropes and stereotypes, and these were the results:

- Over two-third of Australians (68%) ‘agree’ or ‘strongly’ agree that Jewish people are as loyal to Australia as other Australians; there were 5% that disagreed, and there were 27% respondents who neither agreed nor disagreed;

- 42% of Australians ‘disagree’ or ‘strongly disagree’ with the statement that “Jews have too much power in the media”; 10% of respondents think Jews have too much power in the media, while 48% neither agree nor disagree;

- 42% of respondents ‘disagree’ or ‘strongly disagree’ with the statement that “Jews chase money more than other people”. There were 15% of respondents who agreed with that statement and 44% who neither agreed nor disagreed;

- 59% of respondents ‘disagree’ or strongly disagree’ with the statement that “Jewish people talk about the Holocaust just to further their political agenda”. 6% agreed with that statement, while 36% neither agreed nor disagreed.

Researchers concluded that, “whilst the number of people who explicitly support Antisemitic tropes is very low, of more concern is the large proportion of those that chose not to answer (that is, answered ‘neither agree nor disagree’), suggesting a persistent latent Antisemitism within the Australian society.” Furthermore, researchers also concluded that “Improving Holocaust knowledge and awareness can only have a positive impact on societal attitudes towards Jewish people.”

- Gandel Foundation Australia Survey 2021: Antisemitic Tropes

Antisemitism ... We asked participants to rate their agreement with the following statements on a scale from 1 (= strongly agree) to 5 (= strongly disagree). Some of these statements are negative, and some are positive ...

Antisemitic trope 1 – Jews are disloyal

The centuries-old myth that Jews are disloyal to non-Jews is shared by 5% of Australians, who disagree or strongly disagree that ‘Jewish people are just as loyal to Australia as other Australian people’. Importantly, 27% of respondents neither agree nor disagree with the statement. Over two thirds of Australians (68%) agree or strongly agree that Jewish people are just as loyal to Australia as other Australians.
Antisemitic trope 2 – Jews have too much power
The idea that Jews dominate the world through controlling the media (as well as banks, industry and government) is a prominent myth among people who harbour antisemitic attitudes. About 1 in 10 Australians (10%) agrees or strongly agrees that ‘compared to other groups, Jewish people have too much power in the media’. Almost half of Australians (47%) neither agree nor disagree. Only 42% disagree or strongly disagree with the statement.

Antisemitic trope 3 – Jews are greedy
One of the most persistent stereotypes about Jews is that they are greedy and would do anything to make themselves rich. A significant minority of Australians (15%) agrees or strongly agrees that ‘Jewish people chase money more than other people do’. Forty-four per cent of Australians neither agree nor disagree. Only 42% disagree or strongly disagree with the statement.

Antisemitic trope 4 – Jews in business
Another centuries-old antisemitic trope is that Jews can’t be trusted in business, because they are thieving and dupliculous. Only 5% of Australians disagree or strongly disagree that ‘Jewish people can be trusted just as much as other Australian people in business’, and 23% neither agree nor disagree. Over 7 in 10 Australians (72%) agree or strongly agree with the statement.

Antisemitic trope 5 – Holocaust guilt
The idea that Jews use sympathy following the Holocaust to gain advantage for themselves is shared by 6% of Australians, who agree or strongly agree that ‘Jewish people talk about the Holocaust just to further their political agenda’. Thirty-six per cent neither agree nor disagree, and 59% disagree or strongly disagree with the statement.

Exclusion of Jews
Only 2% of Australians disagree or strongly disagree that they are ‘just as open to having Jewish friends as I am to having friends from other sections of Australian society’. Twelve per cent neither agree nor disagree, and most of the Australian population (86%) agree or strongly agree with the statement.

Whilst the numbers who explicitly support antisemitic tropes is very low, of more concern is the larger proportion of those that neither agree nor disagree on some of the items suggesting a persistent latent antisemitism - associated with certain negative stereotypes - within society.

  A study “Are More Highly Educated Individuals More Antisemitic? Findings Based on a New Approach to Measuring Antisemitism Using Double Standards” was undertaken by Albert Cheng, Jay P. Greene, Ian Kingsbury, which was published in the journal ‘Antisemitism Studies’, Indiana University Press, Volume 6, Number 1, Spring 2022.
The three researchers also wrote an article on the study:

Jay P. Greene summarised the findings of the study via Twitter, on 25 April 2022:

Jay P. Greene@jaypgreene
The peer-reviewed journal, Antisemitism Studies, just published research by @AlbertxCheng, @iskingsb, and me finding that antisemitism is much more common among people with higher educational attainment. https://muse.jhu.edu/article/852569/pdf

Our result that antisemitism is worse among people with more advanced degrees is contrary to the conventional wisdom (and some past research) that the problem is concentrated among people with low education levels.

Past research directly asked people how they felt about Jews or whether they agreed with antisemitic statements. "Better" educated people are more likely to understand what they are being asked and sophisticated enough to give socially desirable but false answers.

We developed a new way to measure antisemitism based on the application of double standards that avoids this social desirability bias. For example, half of the sample was asked about the military banning Jews from wearing kippot, other half about Sikhs wearing turbans.

The principle of the military banning religious headgear is the same, so people should give the same answer regardless of whether they were presented with Jewish or Sikh version of the question.

Highly educated people were much more likely to favor restricting religious headgear when shown the Jewish example than when shown Sikh example. Same pattern observed across several different sets of double-standard questions.

The implication of our finding is that antisemitism is not, as is commonly believed, primarily the result of ignorance and can best be addressed with education. Instead, antisemitism has to be understood for how it provides political and social benefits to its adherents.

Highly educated people are more likely to get something politically or socially out of sticking it to Jews. The benefit may be how it facilitates certain political coalitions, as Ruth Wisse suggested in this @NationalAffairs piece, The Functions of Anti-Semitism

Understanding how the threat of antisemitism is coming more from highly-educated coastal elites than from lower-educated flyover country and is not largely a function of ignorance means that we must change how and where we combat antisemitism.

An earlier version of our research can be found in @tabletmag without a paywall.

• HOPE Not Hate: ‘Fear and Hope 2022’ survey in UK

The second dot point below - “a single group of people who secretly control events and rule the world together” - is the basis of antisemitic conspiracy theories.

HOPE Not Hate: in its survey ‘Fear and Hope 2022’, the report (pages 33, 38) found that:

- 34% of people aged 18-24 and 28% of people aged 25-34 agree that “Jewish people have an unhealthy control over the world’s banking system.” Overall, 20% agree and 42% disagree with this statement.

- 50% of people aged 25-34 and 47% of people aged 18-24 agree that “Regardless of who is officially in charge of governments and other organisations, there is a single group of people who secretly control events and rule the world together.” Overall, 36% agree and 34% disagree with this statement.

Insights into Antisemitism

Ahmed Shaheed, UN Special Rapporteur on Freedom of Religion or Belief, 3 Nov. 2021:
“[I found a serious lack of attention to human rights violations faced by Jewish communities, in the work of my UN mandate. It is very strange, given the fact that one of the key factors in the rise of religious hatred globally was violence against Jews. The number of attacks targeting Jews is not only heartbreaking, but is disproportionately high, and this required a response. Antisemitism is often propagated by influential political leaders. It is the oldest form of religious hatred. It is global. It occurs across the entire political spectrum, and it is growing. Although it takes many forms, at its core is a conspiracy theory, a scapegoating, a dehumanisation that is egregious, and highly destructive of democracy. ]”

Australasian Union of Jewish Students (AUJS), 24 May 2022:
“AUJS rejects the idea that antisemitism only exists on the political “right”, and condemns the hypocrisy of those people who have no difficulty condemning racial forms of antisemitism and Holocaust denial from neo-Nazis and other white supremacists, but seem to be emotionally and ideologically incapable of recognising more contemporary forms of antisemitism from the “progressive” side of politics. This includes the rejection of Jewish peoplehood and the Jewish people’s collective right to national self-determination.”

“As always the case with anti-Zionism, the hostility isn’t restricted to Israel as a state entity but spills over into open anti-Semitism targeting Jews more generally.”

Charles Blattberg, Professor, University of Montreal, Canada, 12 July 2021:
“Sooner or later, antisemitism always takes the form of a conspiracy theory. These range from medieval libels about infant sacrifice and eighteenth century warnings about international puppet masters to contemporary allegations of Jewish-engineered immigration policy designed to “replace” Western whites with non-white foreigners. But despite endless variations, all such theories purport to reveal secret plots by powerful, malevolent Jews. Of course, the allegations are false.”

Charlotte Littlewood, former Prevent Officer, 29 July 2022:
“It is the ideological diversity of modern antisemitism that makes identifying and countering it exceedingly difficult. Its home in the far left has added to its mainstreaming, making tackling some manifestations politically unfashionable. ... Many teachers know what far-right, Nazi-style antisemitism looks like, but when Israel is blamed for nefarious power, corruption and murdering Palestinians, identifying antisemitism and why it is a problem is often lost. Rather than being historic, antisemitism is on a steep and terrifying incline.”

Craig Dershowitz, Executive Director of Artists 4 Israel, 21 Nov. 2021:
“Let us talk, then, about the fictional Jew. He is the hook-nosed banker, the crooked politician, the crippling oppressor, and the master of the fate of all who feel victimized. The fictional Jews are the makers of media, and the powerful, influential, privileged, dominant majority. The fictional Jew is the Hollywood elite. They control what you see, hear, watch, and believe. ... The factual Jew is a minority. A minority beset by enemies. A minority with millennia of attempted genocide by those with rabid blood lust. A minority wrestling with intergenerational trauma so pronounced that it makes it difficult for us to walk this earth without seeing monsters under the bed and within the shadows. The factual Jew lives in a world where parents must have “the talk” with their children, and where every major Jewish institution believes they must now have armed guards and metal detectors. ... We are a minority simply struggling to survive.”

David Baddiel, author, screenwriter, 12 Jan. 2022:
“This vehemence is about a number of confusions – many see Jews as whites, when it would be truer to say that, as far as racism goes, Jews are Schrödinger’s whites: white or non-white depending on the politics of the observer. Many instinctively see Jewishness as a religion, rather than an ethnicity, and therefore antisemitism as religious intolerance rather than racism ... But primarily, it’s about Jews being assumed, antisemitically, to be successful and privileged and powerful, and therefore not in need of the protections that identity politics affords other minorities.”

David Brooks, political and cultural commentator, The New York Times, 24 March 2015:
"Most bigotry is an assertion of inferiority and speaks the language of oppression. Antisemitism is an assertion of impurity and speaks the language of extermination."

Deborah Lipstadt, US envoy to monitor and combat antisemitism, 12 May 2022:
“Too many people, organizations and institutions do not take antisemitism seriously ... they fail to include it in their litany of legitimate prejudices. They wonder, ‘what is it that Jews are complaining about? After all, they’re powerful. They have no reason to complain.’ ... Conversely, too often, when there is an act of antisemitism, those who condemn it cannot bring themselves to focus specifically on this particular prejudice; they condemn antisemitism together with all other acts of prejudice. ... it’s as if antisemitism is not a true outrage and cannot stand alone as something of real concern...”

Debbie Wasserman Schultz, US Congresswoman, 22 Sep. 2022:
“Antisemitism is a viral toxic infection that drives real world violence.”

Einat Wilf, Dr., former Labor MP in Israel, author, 22 Sep. 2022:
“Wherever Anti-Zionism becomes a defining feature, the environment turns hostile to Jews, Jews leave and Anti-Zionists have nothing to show for it (Arabs, Soviets, Corbyn’s Labour). That some US progressives want to pursue this destructive arc is evidence of an irrational impulse.”

Emmanuel Macron, French President, 17 July 2022:
"This antisemitism is even more burning, rampant ... in so many places in the world. ... But the odious antisemitism is there, it prowls around, always alive, persistent, stubborn, coming back. ... [it] can take on other faces, drape itself in other words, other caricatures.”

“... the ‘Triple Threat’. This is the increasing growth of the regressive left, the far right and Islamist theocracy. The one type of hatred that binds all three of these is hatred of the Jew, the oldest bigotry that we still have in modern existence. Antisemitism is used as a recruiting sergeant for all three of these and has become the fuel that drives these ideologies. This prejudice is therefore not just a threat to Jews but to the very fabric of our society.”

Irwin Cotler, Professor, former Minister of Justice in Canada, 6 Oct. 2021:
“And where a growth of what I can only call demonological antisemitism, as I’ve described it, has been underpinned by five dynamics that we need to appreciate: 1 The mainstreaming, the normalisation, the legitimisation, of antisemitism in the political culture, in other words, the absence of outrage, underpinned by indifference and inaction ..., 2 The globalisation of antisemitism, in other words, what happens in London and Paris finds expression also in Montreal and Toronto or in Melbourne and Sydney ..., 3 The marginalisation of antisemitism in the overall struggle against racism itself; 4 The laundering of antisemitism under the very cover of anti-racism, ..., and finally, the revival of classic tropes against the Jews as poisoners of the wells, where the COVID-19 is a case study where Jews, the Jewish people and Israel are blamed for it, manufacturing the COVID-19 virus, for causing its spread, and indeed profiting from it, in the classic antisemitic trope.”

Jason Stanley, professor of philosophy at Yale University, 26 Feb. 2022:
“Central to European fascism is the idea that it is the Jews who are the agents of moral decay. According to European fascism, it is the Jews who bring a country under the domination of (Jewish) global elite, by using the tools of liberal democracy, secular humanism, feminism and gay rights, which are used to introduce decadence, weakness and impurity. Fascist antisemitism is racial rather than religious in origin, targeting Jews as a corrupt stateless race who seek global domination.”

“It was antisemitism dressed as antizionism that led to the ethnic cleansing and displacement of close to one million Jews refugees from SWANA [Southwest Asian North African region].”

Joan Ryan, former Labour Member of the U.K. Parliament, for 17 years, 9 Feb. 2022:
“This ideology—antisemitic anti-Zionism—is on the march. It is an ideology rooted in ancient hatreds which targets for hate and opprobrium the modern-day State of Israel. ... Jew-hate will never be snuffed out in an environment in which anti-Zionism is tolerated and condoned.”

Jonathan Greenblatt, CEO Anti-Defamation League (ADL), 18 Aug. 2022:
“To draw an analogy, the antisemitism of the extreme right is like a tsunami. You know it’s coming … the wave is going to come and destroy everyone in its path. The antisemitism of the radical left is more like climate change. It starts slowly and some people don’t see it. Some people deny it. Some people dismiss it. And it grows and it grows and suddenly the temperature is up here. ... antisemitism from the left that’s often steeped in this kind of political milieu, when in reality, it’s as racist and as toxic as the antisemitism from the extreme right. …”

“Antisemitism was protean, constantly mutating into new forms and providing an object for new fears. It could not be defeated by rational argument because it had no rational basis. But it was murderous in its intent and its effect, and we still bear its scars.”

Jonathan S. Tobin, editor-in-chief of JNS (Jewish News Syndicate), 27 Jan. 2022:
“The roots of Jew-hatred run deep, and they are nurtured by a diverse set of attitudes, including traditional Western anti-Semitism, Islamist contempt for dhimmis, (second-class-status non-Muslim peoples), and leftist intersectional ideology that promulgates the toxic myth that Jews and the Jewish state are white privileged oppressors who must be delegitimized. ... However, the only real measure of opposition to anti-Semitism is how willing you are to stand in solidarity with the rights of live Jews, not whether you think the Nazis were bad.”

Juliet Moses, spokesperson for the New Zealand Jewish Council, 12 Feb. 2022:
“For white supremacists like the Nazis, Jews will never be white, even if they have pale skin, and will always be imposters trying to ingratiate themselves with white society. For the far left and those who subscribe to critical race theory, Jews are, despite their Levantine origins, white (at least insofar as they are not ‘people of colour’), and often ‘peak white’, the most powerful and privileged people, because of course, they are all wealthy and wield outsized control over everything that those critical race theorists despise. And because critical race theory does not conceive of any form of racism apart from ‘white on colour’, Jews cannot possibly be victims of racism.”

Justin Amler, writer and commentator, 1 Sep. 2022:
“All these continuous false accusations, which can easily be dispelled with a bit of research, are motivated by a single factor: hatred. Unfortunately, it is a very powerful motivating factor, for it causes rational human beings to lose that rationality and swallow the kind of slanderous and false accusations that are being peddled against Israel and the Jews. And perhaps many want to believe these lies, despite how ludicrous they are, because if Jews are portrayed as bad, then is any action against them really that unjust?”

Justin Welby, Archbishop of Canterbury, 5 Aug. 2022:
“God’s church fanned the flames of anti-Semitism, and provided a seabed and theology for the persecution of the Jews and ultimately for the Holocaust.”

Katja Theodorakis, of Australian Strategic Policy Institute, 8 April 2022:
"This kind of antipathy against the government - the idea that the government is itself so corrupt and has been taken over by power elites or a Jewish cabal - is becoming very prominent.”

Kenan Malik, UK Observer columnist, 8 Feb. 2022:
“Racism today is viewed primarily through the lens of “whiteness” and of “white privilege”. It is something that white people dish out. And something from which non-whites suffer ... Jews today are seen as white and privileged and so incapable of being victims of racism. It’s a perspective that has led some on the left to become blind to antisemitism.”

Melanie Phillips, British journalist, 10 Dec. 2021:
“That’s why antisemitism is, by contrast, the purest form of bigotry—because it is created entirely by falsehoods, distortion and an eclipse of reason that demonizes the Jewish people as well as the collective Jew in the State of Israel.”

Mitchell Siegler and Richard Hirschhaut, American Jewish Committee, 12 July 2022:
“Antisemitism is sneaky. It can be subtle as often as it is blatant. It is a hatred that can be manifested in conspiracy theories, often portraying Jews as puppet masters pulling the strings of the world. For some on the right, it may be the belief that Jews are orchestrating the “Great Replacement” of White Americans with non-White immigrants. Sometimes, the term Jew is replaced with a word like “globalist” or the name of a person or organization — like George Soros or the American Israel Public Affairs Committee as the “Jewish lobby.” For the progressive left, the hatred is just as insidious, as it can deny Jews their 4,000-year-old peoplehood and demonize Israel, the eternal home of the Jewish people. ... But what makes antisemitism so sinister is that it conflates legitimate concerns about government policies with ancient conspiracy theories that vilify an entire people. The former is legitimate protest while the latter is Jew-hatred, pure and simple.”

Neta Meltzer, national vice president Zioness Movement, 23 Aug. 2022:
“Why are we so afraid to delve into the problem of antisemitism on the political left? Of the exclusion of Jewish students on campus when they identify as proud Zionists, the rejection of Jewish participation in a marches meant to celebrate diversity and acceptance, the unwillingness to address the progressive movement’s most pressing issues side by side with Jewish organizations, the complete erasure of the Jewish connection to their indigenous homeland in Israel, and the idea that denying the legitimacy of the Jewish state is anything short of clear and blatant antisemitism? ... Left-wing antisemitism may look very different from what we face from the other end of the political spectrum, but it is no less urgent that we name it and work together to stop it.”

New Zealand Jewish Council, Survey of Antisemitism in New Zealand 2021, March 2022:
“The recent global emergence of left-wing associated antisemitism creates a particular paradox. While most forms of discrimination are unacceptable in “progressive” thinking, antisemitism does not seem to count as racism because Jews can be accused of “white privilege”, despite Jews being indigenous to the Levant and often of colour, and latent hatred can be hidden under a cloak of Zionophobia.”

Noa Tishby, Israel’s Envoy for Combatting Antisemitism & Delegitimization, 21 Sep. 2022: “One of the special aspects of antisemitism is that it is shapeshifting: it morphs, mutates and adapts. ... The two-thousand-year back catalogue of antisemitic tropes, stereotypes and accusations has been transferred from “the Jew” onto the Jewish State. ... “The Jew” was simply a cipher onto which the antisemite could project whatever it was that they considered to be the ultimate evil. ... The old antisemitism had very little to do with how Jews really are. The new antisemitism has very little to do with what Israel really is. ... Israel is consistently attacked as the ultimate evil. ... Never mind if it includes age-old antisemitic tropes. Never mind if the outcome of your position would be disempowered and dead Jews. ... In an online space in which Israel is the ultimate evil, then we must suspect all Jews as they might be evil too ... Calls to destroy Israel are not merely free speech – they are an incitement to violence against Jews worldwide.”

Royee Zvi Atadgy, writer, June 2022: “In progressive circles, critical race theory and postmodernism categorize Jews as white because of the same power dynamic that makes white supremacists suspicious of Jews. Borrowing from allegorical and religious thought, progressive antisemites label Jews not as victims or inheritors of generational trauma, but as wealthy assimilated capitalists in America and genocidal nationalists in Israel. ... By classifying Jews as white, progressives see no need for Jews to be protected or defended, as they are part of a sinister white hegemony.”

Ruth R. Wisse, professor emerita at Harvard, 21 Sep. 2022: “The war against the Jews remains, as it has always been, a war of ideas against the Torah’s civilizing laws.”

Shany Mor, Adjunct Fellow at Foundation for the Defense of Democracies, 16 Jan. 2022: “The tenets of contemporary "anti-racist" discourse on Jews: 1. Antisemitism that doesn't come from white supremacists is fundamentally an expression of a GRIEVANCE and not a PATHOLOGY. 2. Concern about such antisemitism is itself a FORM OF RACISM. 3. Muslim antisemitism is best understood as an EFFECT not a CAUSE in both historical and current events. 4. Jews who reject tenets 1-3 are UP TO SOMETHING, whether it's protecting their wealth or silencing those brave souls who want to expose their lust for child killing.”

Yair Rosenberg, journalist, 19 Jan. 2022: “Anti-Semites are ... animated by one of the most durable and deadly conspiracy theories in human history. ... Jews play a sinister symbolic role in the imagination of so many that bears no resemblance to their lived existence. ... Unlike many other bigotries, anti-Semitism is not merely a social prejudice; it is a conspiracy theory about how the world operates. ... The fevered fantasy of Jewish domination is incredibly malleable, which makes it incredibly attractive. If Jews are responsible for every perceived problem, then people with entirely opposite ideals can adopt it. And thanks to centuries of material blaming the world’s ills on the world’s Jews, conspiracy theorists seeking a scapegoat for their sorrows inevitably discover that the invisible hand of their oppressor belongs to an invisible Jew. At the same time, because this expression of anti-Jewish prejudice is so different from other forms of bigotry, many people don’t recognize it. ... law-enforcement officials overlook it. Social-media companies ignore it. Anti-racism activists - who understand racism as prejudice wielded by the powerful - cannot grasp it, because anti-Semitism constructs its Jewish targets as the privileged and powerful.”
Ten Points on Contemporary Antisemitism

1. There is an exponential rise in antisemitism throughout the world, especially incidents of antisemitic violence and public discourse inciting or enabling that violence, occurring over the last two decades.

2. Antisemitism is a universal problem and not only a Jewish problem; while it is an existential threat to Jews, it is also a threat to democratic values and liberal societies.

3. The biggest threats to the security and well-being of Jewish individuals and Jewish communities stem from the propensity to violence by Islamist extremists and right-wing extremists; in addition, left-wing extremists have become enablers of antisemitism and create a toxic environment for Jews.

4. Antisemitism has moved from the fringes of society into the mainstream, and is found across all sectors of society – regardless of socio-economic status, educational level, ethnicity, race, religion, gender, or whether religious or secular.

5. Antisemitism is predominantly grounded in misinformation and fabrications; and is predominantly based in conspiracy theories, accusing “the Jews” of being responsible for a range of events and situations.

6. Denial and distortion of the Holocaust, which is increasingly being promoted and spread, is not just an atrocious perversion of history; it is also now being utilised by neo-Nazis aiming to rehabilitate the genocidal ideology of Nazism, and for inciting violence against Jews; and remains a serious threat.

7. The internet (especially social media sites, both mainstream and extremist sites, and websites) is one of the major propaganda tools for antisemitism, a recruiting ground for antisemites, and is responsible for the proliferation of anti-Jewish hatred and incitement to violence reaching millions of people across the world instantaneously.

8. Anti-Zionism (opposition to a Jewish state in any part of the Jewish national homeland of Eretz Yisrael) is the latest manifestation of antisemitism: it is a denial to the Jewish people of their right to national self-determination; it is often expressed using anti-Jewish tropes cloaked in anti-Israel language.

9. The International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) Working Definition of Antisemitism makes identifying antisemitism easier and is a standardized form, and should be adopted and used by bodies throughout the world.

10. Individuals and organisations, Jewish and non-Jewish - international bodies, governments, civil society, law enforcement agencies, educators, and journalists, and others - can take effective actions to counter antisemitism in all its forms.
2. ANTISEMITIC INCIDENTS

Executive Summary

Antisemitic incidents are manifested through many different kinds of acts. As in the ECAJ’s previous Antisemitism Reports, incidents have been categorized as set out in Table 1 below. Incidents are divided into six categories, based on the categories noted by the 1991 National Inquiry into Racist Violence in Australia (see details below under “Criteria for Inclusion in the Incidents Tally”).

Two categories relate to violence, namely physical attacks against persons or property (‘physical assault’ and ‘vandalism’). Two categories relate to non-physical abuse, namely verbal abuse, harassment and intimidation of people, either in person, or through a medium of email, telephone, letterbox (‘verbal abuse’, and ‘messages’). Two categories relate to propaganda material (‘graffiti’, and ‘posters’, banners, flags, flyers, leaflets, placards, stickers).

The manner of collection of the data, and the criteria for inclusion in or exclusion from the tally, are set out in this chapter following the tables and charts.

During the twelve-month period, from 1 October 2021 to 30 September 2022, there were 478 antisemitic incidents logged by volunteer Community Security Groups (CSGs), official Jewish state roof bodies, and the ECAJ. In the previous 12-month period, ending 30 September 2021, these same bodies logged 447 incidents. Accordingly, there was an increase of 6.9% in the overall number of reported antisemitic incidents compared to the previous year (2021), which, it is worth recalling had represented a 35% increase over the number of recorded incidents in 2020.

Overall, from 2021 to 2022, there were substantial increases in the number of reported incidents in two categories: posters/stickers (up 70% from 72 to 123) and graffiti (up 18% from 106 to 125). There were significant decreases in two categories: physical assault (down from 8 to 5), and messages (down from 103 to 76). There was a minor decrease in abuse/harassment (down from 147 to 138). Vandalism remained the same at 11.

The average number of reported antisemitic incidents each year from 2013 to 2021 was 298. As such, the total number of reported incidents in 2022 is above that average by 180 incidents.

Antisemitic Incidents in Australia 2013 - 2022
Incident Categories: changes
In order to simplify and to ensure greater clarity, two minor changes have been made to the Incident categories in the ECAJ Report on Antisemitism. There has been no change to the nature of the incidents included or the criteria for inclusion or exclusion.

In previous years, there have been eight categories of incidents (assault, abuse, vandalism, graffiti, email, postal, telephone, posters). This year, three of these categories (email, postal, phone) have been combined into one new category ‘Messages’. These three types of hate ‘Messages’ are related, as each are conveyed not face-to-face but through a medium such as email, telephone, letterbox. Thus, there are now six categories of incidents: assault, vandalism, abuse, messages, graffiti, posters.

In addition, in previous years, these eight categories were sub-divided into ‘Attacks’ and ‘Threats’. This led to a confusing situation, and an unjustified discrepancy, in suggesting that some incidents were of a different level. Eg that swastika graffiti on a synagogue was an ‘attack’, but a swastika sticker put on a synagogue was only a ‘threat’. Hence, these sub-divisions are no longer used.

Collection of Data
Data collected is restricted exclusively to incidents which were reported to, and authenticated and logged by, any one or more of the following:

- Jewish community roof bodies in each State and the ACT;
- their respective Community Security Groups;
- the ECAJ itself.

Criteria for Inclusion in the Incidents Tally

- there must be evidence that antisemitism was a factor in the act of violence, harassment or intimidation or that the attack or threatening action targeted a person or property because the person or property was identified as Jewish.

- certain anti-Israel incidents eg graffiti which targets a synagogue or Jewish school etc, are included as they indicate hostility or prejudice towards Jews generally.

- abusive, harassing or intimidatory antisemitic messages directed specifically to an individual person or organisation via social media eg the Facebook Message function, are included, as they operate similarly to email.
Criteria for Exclusion from the Incidents Tally

Only incidents involving violence or the threat of violence are included. Accordingly, other incidents are excluded for the following reasons, even though they may be motivated by antisemitism:

- An attack or threat against a person who happens to be Jewish is excluded unless there is evidence that the attack was motivated by antisemitism – for example, the attacker makes a hostile reference to Jews in the course of the attack.

- Incidents of suspicious behaviour around Jewish institutions, which do not directly relate to a physical manifestation of violence, harassment, vandalism or threats.

- Incidents in which both Jews and people who are not Jewish are targeted, and there is no evidence that the attack was motivated by antisemitism.

- Discrimination on the basis of the actual or perceived Jewishness of the victim, whether in the workplace, educational institutions, or elsewhere, is excluded unless the incident includes violence, threats, abuse, harassment or intimidation against the victim. Incidents solely involving discrimination without any of these other elements are recorded separately from attacks or threats.

- Negative or derogatory comments made about Jews, either to Jews or to others, in the workplace, educational settings, socially, or elsewhere, but which do not constitute violence, threats, abuse, harassment or intimidation are excluded, and are recorded separately.

- Publications with antisemitic content in the mainstream, online or social media are excluded if they do not rise to the level of physical attacks, intimidation, harassment or threats against Jews or Jewish institutions. Such content is recorded separately in the section of this report covering Antisemitic Discourse.

- Social media comments which are antisemitic, including those posted on the pages of Jewish organisations and individuals, are excluded unless the comments include, threats, abuse, harassment or intimidation directed against a specific individual or individuals.

- Telephone calls, letters, email or graffiti which consist of criticisms of Israel or of political stances of the Jewish community which do not include specifically antisemitic comments are excluded (even though there is a realistic prospect that a proportion of these are motivated by antisemitism).

- Activities associated with the movement to boycott Israel, Israelis or supporters of Israel which have taken place and are arguably in and of themselves antisemitic are excluded unless they include, threats, abuse, harassment or intimidation directed against a specific individual, or individuals or an institution.

- Antisemitic emails which are sent to Jewish individuals and/or organisations which are a ‘form’ type of email (often an antisemitic rant of several pages in length which is forwarded to multiple Jewish recipients) rather than an email directly addressing the recipient are excluded and recorded separately.

Overall, the bias is in favour of exclusion rather than inclusion, which limits the scope for distortions to appear in the Incidents statistics over time and also protects the integrity of the data base.

Exclusion of Online Antisemitism from Incidents
In contrast to other organisations which produce reports for other targeted communities in Australia, the ECAJ does NOT include as incidents expressions of hate against Jews that are online, for the following reasons.

Firstly, online postings are discourse, ie what people are saying about Jews rather than what is being done to Jews. However, it is recognised that vilification often precedes violence, and for this reason trends in antisemitic discourse during the year are analysed separately.

Secondly, the astronomical amount of online antisemitism makes counting impractical. The volume of such discourse is almost limitless – such is the nature of the internet.

Thirdly, if online hate content was to be counted and included in the tally of incidents, it would have an immense distorting effect on the number of incidents, and would therefore not give a true or accurate picture of what is actually happening to the targeted community. In our view, it would adversely affect the credibility of the data, and hence would be counter-productive to countering antisemitism.

Under-Reporting of Antisemitic Incidents
It is known that many incidents of antisemitism in Australia occur but are not formally reported either to appropriate Jewish authorities or to the police. Thus, the statistics in this Report represent only a proportion of incidents actually occurring in Australia. According to the ‘GEN17 Australian Jewish Community Survey’ (more fully reported on below), almost one in ten adult Jews (9%) indicated that they had witnessed or experienced verbal insults and harassment or worse over the previous 12 months. This would suggest that the actual number of antisemitic incidents in any one year could be up to 30 times the number reported.

Trends in Incidents
As has been the pattern in previous years, verbal abuse, intimidation and harassment of Jews occurs regularly around synagogues on the Jewish Sabbath on Friday evenings and on Saturday mornings, and on other Jewish holy days and festivals, when Jews are walking to and from synagogue, and attending religious services. It is common for people who are driving past Jewish venues, especially synagogues and Jewish schools, to shout verbal abuse and/or to make gun shooting gestures towards people out the front of Jewish venues. Some drivers will drive past several synagogues on the one day in order to harass, abuse, and threaten.

When issues involving Jews or Israel receive prominent coverage in the mainstream and social media, this has often led to a rise in antisemitic commentary and incidents. In addition, in the past, there has often been a correlation between spikes in violence in any of the various conflicts in the Middle East (and a concomitant increase in media coverage), whether or not the conflict involves Israel, and an increase in the number of antisemitic incidents.

Incidents Omitted: 2021 Report

Some incidents were reported to the ECAJ after the 2021 annual Report had been published. The following incidents were not counted in the 2021 report, nor are they counted in the 2022 report, but are placed here to maintain a record of them.

- Verbal abuse by a male who shouted “I will fucking murder you” outside a Jewish preschool, Melbourne (16 April 2021).

- A placard with images equating the Jewish Star of David with the Nazi swastika, at a street protest, Sydney (15 May 2021).

GEN17 Australian Jewish Community Survey

The ‘GEN17 Australian Jewish Community Survey’ conducted by David Graham and Andrew Markus, was a nationwide study, carried out between February and May 2017, with a total sample size of 8,621 respondents. Its ‘Preliminary Findings’, published in 2018, found that:

- “almost one in ten Jews (9%) indicated that they had witnessed or experienced verbal insults and harassment over the previous 12 months.”

- “a small proportion indicated they had witnessed (2%) or experienced (0.5%) physical attack over the last twelve months.”

- “the large measure of consistency in the reports by young adults across the different streams of Judaism indicate that targets of attacks are not simply those who are identified as Jewish by visible markers such as distinctive religious clothing or ornaments.”
The Hakenkreuz (Nazi Swastika) - symbol of antisemitism
A common form of expression of antisemitism is the Nazi swastika, or Hakenkreuz, often found on flags or in graffiti. The following explain why the Nazi swastika is a specifically anti-Jewish symbol.

- Britannica - Swastika
  “In 1910 a poet and nationalist ideologist Guido von List had suggested the swastika as a symbol for all anti-Semitic organizations; and when the National Socialist Party was formed in 1919–20, it adopted it.” https://www.britannica.com/topic/swastika#ref285600

Rebecca Davis, Senior News & Features Writer, April 6, 2022:
“The swastika is more than a criss-cross of jagged lines, or a symbol of history from time long ago. As a Jewish person, part of me wishes it was just that. But it is forever a part of our present - etched into our identity. "Never forget." And yet sadly, it is brandished by those who choose to weaponise it against us. Because the swastika doesn’t just represent the regime of the Third Reich. It represents all that the Nazis and their collaborators destroyed under it. Six. Million. Individual. Jewish. Lives. Grandparents and great-grandparents. Mothers, fathers, siblings and children. It is the burning of our sacred books, and the pilfering of homes where families once ate together, and the broken glass of our shopfronts. It is starvation in the ghettos. And nakedness in forest ravines. And the camps, the camps where all that remained are piles of well-worn shoes. The swastika is also the loss of millions more - Roma, Sinti, LGBTQI + people and political prisoners. Their lives, stories and histories gone forever too. So yes, it’s a visceral symbol.” https://www.mamamia.com.au/frydenberg-antisemitism/

Incident Categories: Acts Covered

Assault: covers all acts under Australian law that constitute assault, and includes throwing items at people (whether it hit or missed), spitting at/on people, causing injury from physical assault right through to grievous bodily harm, and murder.

Vandalism: covers damage to property and destruction of property, including to motor vehicles, buildings, infrastructure, and other property.

Abuse: covers predominantly verbal abuse, harassment, intimidation, and bodily gestures such as the Nazi salute, raising the middle finger, shooting gestures, directly targeting Jews or Jewish communal institutions. These incidents tend to occur in public places, such as on the street, outside Jewish community venues (eg synagogues, Jewish schools), at work or in educational settings.
Messages: covers messages directly and privately sent to specific targets eg emails, material placed in selected letterboxes or posted material, telephone calls and texts to synagogues and other Jewish community venues, Jewish communal organisations, and Jewish individuals.

Graffiti: covers marking by drawing with texta, paint etc, or etchings/engraving, of hate words and/or symbols on property, whether public or private. Some graffiti involves serious damage to property and may be categorised as vandalism eg when scratched on a vehicle.

Posters: covers all literature/propaganda type material publicly displayed, including banners, flags, flyers, leaflets, placards, posters, and stickers, plus images or text on clothing being worn, eg on t-shirts, bandannas. This may include stickers and posters on the street, banners and placards in street protests, mass letter-boxing leaflets in entire streets or suburbs.

LIST of ANTISEMITIC INCIDENTS

Many of the incidents which occurred during the period in review are listed below, in chronological order for each category. The expression “identifiably Jewish” refers to a person wearing traditional Jewish garb, such as a kippah (skull-cap) in the case of a male, a Jewish Star of David necklace or ornament, and the like.

Assault

- A student at a high school was the victim of ongoing antisemitic abuse, both verbally in-person and online, and was physically assaulted, regional NSW (4 Nov. 2021).

- A group of Orthodox Jewish males were verbally abused and physically assaulted - they had their religious skullcaps forcibly removed from their heads, and were taunted by the assailants who refused requests to return the skullcaps. The Jewish males were pushed and physically harassed and called "Zionist dogs". They were subjected to shouted insults of "Fuck you, you Jew dogs, fuck your mums, you fucking rats, fuck you, get out of here". The assailants were a group of males of Middle Eastern background, Panda Nightclub, Prahran, Melbourne (Feb. 2022).

- A Jewish man was physically assaulted (multiple punches, multiple kicks, bitten on the hand causing the removal of flesh, dislocated finger) by a woman after she saw his Star of David necklace. As the physical assault continued, she ripped the necklace off him and said "Now you are not Jewish. You don't have the Star of David on you". She also ripped his shirt during the assault, and made negative comments about him being Jewish. The man was taken to hospital for the injuries he sustained. CBD Brisbane (6 May 2022).

- A man approached an identifiably Jewish male, refused to allow him to pass and attempted to remove his skullcap, outside a store; another Jewish man then attempted to intervene and help, leading to the man physically assaulting the second Jewish man, who sustained bodily injuries, of bruising and lacerations, Coles, Elsternwick, Melbourne (15 May 2022).

- A man approached an identifiably Jewish male, refused to allow him to pass and attempted to remove his skullcap, outside a store; another Jewish man then attempted to intervene and help, leading to the man physically assaulting the second Jewish man, who sustained bodily injuries, of bruising and lacerations, Coles, Elsternwick, Melbourne (15 May 2022).

- A male and female approached an identifiably Jewish man, the female shouted at the Jewish man "You Jews don't belong in the area!" and "You're destroying the heritage!", then the female removed the man’s hat from his head and threw it on the ground, Bondi, Sydney (3 June 2022).
Vandalism

- A cross was etched into the door of a home with a Jewish resident, the door had a mezuzah on it, identifying the resident as Jewish, South Yarra, Melbourne (24 Nov. 2021).
- A series of ongoing attacks on a Jewish community soup kitchen, over many months, including: slashing of the tyres of the charity’s van three times; the van’s side mirrors snapped off; the trailer stolen and dumped in two separate incidents, Melbourne (25 Nov. 2021).
- A male approached the entrance to a Jewish community organisation facility, then defecated and urinated on the front door, Sydney (24 Feb. 2022).
- Nazi swastika carved into a timber sign at the Harry Seidler Reserve (named after the prominent architect, who was Jewish), the swastika was placed between the words “Harry” and “Seidler”, Killara, Sydney (28 Feb. 2022).
- Vandalism of soccer field with two giant Nazi swastikas chemically burned into the grass, killing the grass, at Lilydale Eagles Soccer Club, Mount Evelyn, outside Melbourne, regional Victoria (2 March 2022).

Abuse

- Two males verbally abused security guards outside a Jewish school, Perth (7 Oct. 2021).
- Verbal abuse by a male towards several identifiably Jewish persons inside a shopping centre, calling them “Jewish sluts” and “Jewish dogs”, Bondi Junction, Sydney (12 Oct. 2021).
- The driver of a state transit bus raised the middle finger towards security guards at a Jewish school, Sydney (14 Oct. 2021).
- Verbal abuse by an individual from a neighboring building who shouted “Bloody Jew! Heil Hitler! I know where you live” towards an identifiably Jewish male who was standing outside his residence, Rose Bay, Sydney (24 Oct. 2021).
- Verbal abuse by two males in a vehicle parked across from a synagogue who shouted “What are you doing you fucking Jew!” towards people at the synagogue, Sydney (Fri. 29 Oct. 2021).
- Verbal abuse by the male driver of a passing vehicle who shouted indecipherable verbal abuse and made an aggressive gesture towards people standing outside a Synagogue, Sydney (Sat. 30 Oct. 2021).
- A female approached security personnel outside a Synagogue and repeatedly mentioning “Jews”, “Judah”, “Malcolm Turnbull” and “how to identify a Jew”, while trying to conceal her face and adjusting cloth on her head, Sydney (Sat. 30 Oct. 2021).

- Occupant of a passing vehicle shouted “Allahu Akbar” towards an identifiably Jewish male (minor), outside a synagogue, Sydney (Sat. 30 Oct. 2021).

- Driver of a passing vehicle slowed down driving past a Synagogue, then turned around and drove past again, and raised the middle finger towards people outside, Sydney (Sat. 30 Oct. 2021).

- A male shouted indecipherable abuse at staff, Jewish school, Perth (1 Nov. 2021).

- Occupant of a passing vehicle shouted “Allah” and other indecipherable abuse towards the guards outside a Jewish school, Sydney (3 Nov. 2021).

- Harassment of a Jewish family by a neighbour, who then began leaving bread purchased from a kosher shop, three times (on their doorstep, shared stairwell, and garage space), eastern Sydney (11 Nov. 2021).

- Male driver of a passing vehicle raised the middle finger to people outside a synagogue, Sydney (Fri. 12 Nov. 2021).

- Driver and passenger of a passing vehicle verbally abused a small group of identifiably Jewish youths at a synagogue, Perth (Sat. 13 Nov. 2021)

- Verbal abuse by an Uber driver who said that “Jews are dirty people”, “Israelis are terrorists”, “Zionists will die in hell” and other remarks towards two Jewish passengers, eastern suburbs, Sydney (14 Nov. 2021).

- A female standing directly opposite a Jewish communal facility, raised her arm to perform a Nazi salute gesture whilst walking for approximately six seconds, Sydney (16 Nov. 2021).

- A male approached two Jewish individuals, and said “Jews are killers and Nazis” and “You’re as bad as the people who killed your grandparents”, Bondi, Sydney (20 Nov. 2021).

- A vehicle stopped on a corner with the windows down and music playing very loudly; an identifiably Jewish man sitting near the corner approached the vehicle and asked “could you play it any louder”; the driver of the vehicle then started yelling at the Jew telling him “Fuck off!” and “Go fuck yourself Jew cunt!” Elsternwick, Melbourne (24 Nov. 2021).

- A male in a vehicle driving near a Jewish religious institution stopped in the street and yelled “Death to Israel!” out the window, Noble Park North, Melbourne (28 Nov. 2021).

- A male, potentially homeless, sleeping near the centre where a public function was being set-up, was woken up by the noise and yelled "Oh you fucking Jews!", St Kilda, Melbourne, (28 Nov. 2021).
• An identifiably Jewish rabbi was harassed and verbally abused, including with the words “You’re one of those that Hitler didn’t finish”, at Crown Casino, Southbank, Melbourne (30 Nov. 2021).

• Passenger of a passing vehicle shouted derogatory abuse and the word “Jews” towards people outside a Jewish school, Sydney (30 Nov. 2021).

• Driver of a passing vehicle shouted “ Fuck all the Jews!” multiple times towards security personnel, outside a Jewish school, Sydney (1 Dec. 2021).

• A male exited from a tram near a Jewish school and approached a female teacher waiting outside the school, asking her if she believed paedophiles were criminals, the teacher said yes, the man then asked her how she could believe that as “90% of Jews are paedophiles”, when the teacher walked away, he began yelling “the Rabbis in the school just wanted to fuck you up the ass”, St Kilda, Melbourne (1 Dec. 2021).

• Verbal abuse of boys in an identifiably Jewish Venturer Scouts group by boys in another Venturer Scouts group (aged 15-17) through a series of antisemitic comments, including “Go gas yourselves” and ”Hitler is my dad”, at a Boys Scout Camp in Mount Martha, near Melbourne (3 Dec. 2021).

• A male began harassing an individual sitting on the stairs at the entrance of a Synagogue, then left but returned and shouted “Akbar!” towards the Synagogue, Sydney (Fri. 3 Dec. 2021).

• A female shouted towards people outside a Synagogue, “What are you Jews have to be here” and “Jews with big noses try to attack me” Sydney (Sat. 4 Dec. 2021).

• Rider of a passing bicycle shouted “Heil Hitler” and made a Nazi salute towards individuals gathered outside a Jewish community organisation’s venue, Sydney (16 Dec. 2021).

• Passenger of a passing vehicle shouted “Fuck you bitch!” towards two identifiably Jewish female congregants outside the Synagogue, Sydney (Sat. 18 Dec. 2021).

• Passenger of a passing vehicle raised his middle finger to people outside the Synagogue, Sydney (Sat. 25 Dec. 2021).

• Four male teenagers approached an identifiably Jewish family (wearing Star of David necklaces) and said “Happy Chanukah”, then after one of the Jews replied with “Merry Christmas”, the males shouted, “Heil Hitler”, made Nazi salutes and placed their fingers under their noses to indicate Hitler moustaches, Tamarama, Sydney (26 Dec. 2021).

• The driver of a passing vehicle tooted the horn then made gun gestures with his hand, as if shooting, at an identifiably Jewish male who was jogging on the footpath, Umina Beach, NSW (28 Dec. 2021).

• Discrimination against Jewish students - at a meeting to discuss food stalls for the campus Harmony Day (in March), the Jewish students were told they could not have Israeli or Middle Eastern foods, such as hummus and felafel, as that would overlap with the Arab/Middle Eastern food stalls and it would also make Palestinians/Arabs, Muslims feel uncomfortable on campus if a Jewish stall had such foods; the Jewish students offered to have a joint food stall with the other Arab/Middle Eastern food stalls, but this was rejected; the Jewish students were then told that these other student societies would never work with them (ie AUJS - the only Jewish organisation on campus) as they were a threat to Palestinian students and other students who supported Palestine; the Jewish students were told they could have food at their stall but not any Middle Eastern food, even though it was explained that a substantial number of Jews are Mizrahi and Sephardi (Middle Eastern); Sydney (20 Jan. 2022).

- Occupants of a vehicle raised their middle fingers to people outside a synagogue, then further down the road they tooted the horn, then driver yelled antisemitic slurs at pedestrians walking on Inkerman Road, Melbourne (Sat. 22 Jan. 2022).

- Occupant of a passing vehicle shouted “Jewish cunts!” and “Yes, I mean you” towards a group of men in Queens Park, Sydney (23 Jan. 2022).

- A Jewish man wearing a skullcap was accosted and spat at in the street, Albury, NSW (28 Jan. 2022).

- Verbal abuse by a man of German origin, who is a person of public prominence, towards a Jewish person stating “All Jews should go to the gas chamber” and “When I have a son, I’m going to call him Adolf”, Brisbane (29 Jan. 2022).

- Occupants of a passing vehicle slowed down outside the Synagogue and yelled indecipherable abuse towards people outside, Sydney (Sat. 29 Jan. 2022).

- A male approached security personnel outside a synagogue and aggressively stated, “This is the problem with you people, I can’t even walk along the footpath in my own country without you looking at us”, then raised his middle finger at them, Sydney (Sat. 29 Jan. 2022).

- An individual boarded a tram, swearing and cursing, he then approached a woman and threw his drink on her unprovoked; an identifiably Jewish man then came to the aid of the woman, at which point the male began verbally abusing the Jewish man saying “You’re a fat cunt Jew bitch with no foreskin and balls” and “a rich doctor”, Elsternwick, Melbourne (1 Feb. 2022).

- The driver and passenger of a passing vehicle yelled “Free Palestine!” towards people outside a synagogue, Sydney (Sat. 12 Feb. 2022).

- University students shouted “Free Palestine!” towards Jewish students during orientation week, Sydney (16 Feb. 2022).

- A Jewish student was subject to anti-Israel verbal abuse, Camperdown, Sydney (16 Feb. 2022).

- Driver of a passing vehicle gave the middle finger towards a Jewish school, Sydney (17 Feb. 2022).
• Driver of a passing vehicle shouted “Free Palestine!” towards people at a Jewish school, Sydney (18 Feb. 2022).

• A Jewish woman in a café asked for a cheese and tomato sandwich, normally $7, but the café owner charged her $12.50; when she remarked that it was very expensive, he ranted on about COVID and the woman began to walk away, but then he pointed to the Jewish “Chai” pendant she was wearing and said “that explains it”, implying that she queried the price because she is a Jew, Waverton, Sydney (19 Feb. 2022).

• A male approached the Synagogue and began shouting abuse at security personnel, he then dropped a bag and an umbrella that he was carrying and raised his hands, appearing as though he wished to engage in a physical altercation, then picked up the bag and umbrella and left, Sydney (Fri. 4 March 2022).

• The passenger of a passing vehicle yelled "Jew! Jew! Jew!" towards a congregant outside a synagogue, Sydney (Fri. 11 March 2022).

• The driver of a passing vehicle yelled "You can all die!" as they passed the front gate of the Jewish school, Sydney (14 March 2022).

• Driver of a passing vehicle stopped outside the front of the Synagogue and yelled, "Why are you staring at me?" and "You're still staring at me" multiple times towards security personnel, then yelled, "Fuck you, you piece of shit!" Sydney (17 March 2022).

• Driver of a passing vehicle yelled “Free Palestine!” at people out the front of synagogue, Sydney (Fri. 18 March 2022).

• Speech by Mark Murtrie, of sovereign citizens, at a public rally, who stated: “I notice there’s a lot of people here today wandering around with the red and the blue flags. That piece of shit that’s in the corner of that flag is the Union Jack, the union of Jacob, represents three or it is three Hebrew tribal flags. And if you’re worried about their standing under the Jews and what they represent, that’s what you’re standing under when you carry that flag.” Canberra (29 March 2022).

Six million killed, what bullshit, just a convenient figure and very exaggerated at that. Tell us about your terrorism in the middle east, Stern gang your invention of car bombing innocent people. Will that be included in the curriculum? No of course not. Jailing of Mortichi Vanunu too, and detention for life. He was kidnapped by your spy network. All for exposing your nuclear arsenal, which you still slimily keep a secret from the rest of the World. Steal land from Palestinians and murder them. Then whinge your guts out if they retaliate. AS so call “race” of people your constant insisting of dreamed up hereditary lineage of the lowest form. To come into a free democratic country and evolve with your crap and be accepted by government is showing the poor representation of governance in this country.” Sydney (28 Jan. 2022).

Many abusive phone calls were made to multiple Jewish community organisations by an individual in relation to the Amnesty International report on Israel, released on 1 Feb. 2022:

- Phone call to Jewish community venue: "Well, the whole worlds woken up to you guys like you and your little whingy cycle about fucking bullshit. You're now the new apartheid centre. You want to treat your neighbours like scumbags pieces of shit, and you guys all think you're fucking hierarchy and all fantastic. Now everybody knows, the whole world knows, Jewish people treat their neighbors like scumbag animals, treat them like dogs. Now the whole worlds going to come round to the Jewish fucking people and treat them like dogs, even though they've been whinging about fuck, what went on in the gas (somethin) 80 years ago, oh what we've been through, oh what we won't let anybody forget. Well, that's you. You're the new Nazis. The way you treat Palestinians is how the Jews are going to be treated from now on. The whole world cottoned on after all (recording cuts off)” Melbourne (1 Feb. 2022).

- Phone call to a rabbi: “Hello Jewish scumbag, I’d just like to congratulate you on your new label, Captain Apartheid, because that’s how Jewish people are going to get named, just like shit to a blanket. ... South Africa ... apartheid how the blacks got treated ... Well, that’s how you treat your neighbours. That’s how Israel’s going to get remembered from now until the end of time, for apartheid, because you are true fucking cunts to those people for no fucking reason. You take their houses, you shoot their kids... you fucking Jewish scumbag motherfucker ... Go fuck yourself, shalom. You motherfucking cocksuckers! Congratulations on the apartheid label, stuck to you like shit to a blanket, shit to a blanket.” Melbourne (1 Feb. 2022).

- Phone call to a rabbi: “I wasn’t sure about that name … Is this rabbi [...]? I guess it’s rabbi apartheid from now on. Oh my god I can’t believe how that name is going to stick to you, Rabbi Apartheid. How dare you treat people like that! ... Dump that fucking stupid religion that got made up a million years ago by fucking paedophiles. Walk away... Or stick to the name Captain Apartheid, Rabbi Apartheid, Religion Apartheid, I-live-in-the-Israel-country-apartheid. [laughter] You’re going to die with it. That’s your new name, rabbi apartheid. Piss on you! Piss on you!” Melbourne (1 Feb. 2022).

- Phone call to Jewish community venue: "Yeah, is this the Jewish apartheid centre? You know how you treat your neighbours like the lowest piece of earth and tread on them like dogs? You know how just like the Jewish people got treated by the Nazis? Well that's how the Jewish people treat the Palestinians. That's why the Jewish people have got the new name, apartheid. So next time you think about whinging and say oh fucking poor us, you wouldn't believe what happened to us 80 fucking years ago, that what you’ve done for the last 80 years to the Palestinians. You're the new Nazis. That's what you've just been given a new time. apartheid. Oh, that's gonna stick to you like shit to a blanket, because you know how apartheid in South Africa and Nelson Mandela, all stuck together like shit to a blanket? Well now you are going to be treated like that. Now how you treat the Palestinians, is going to be how you're going to be treated. Isn't it fucking gull. Fuck you you Jewish scumbag motherfuckers. Fuck you, how you treat the Palestinians is a crime. If I was Palestinian... you know, if I was Palestinian I'd be upset that my kids threw rocks at your fence so you shot my kids, because that's what Jewish people do. Oh, if you chuck rocks at our fence, we'll just shoot ya. If you chuck a little hot air balloon with a little fiery thing over the fence, we'll shoot ya. Fuck you, you fucking Jewish apartheid motherfuckers. You are the scum shit of earth. Well, welcome to the bottom rung of the ladder.” Melbourne (2 Feb. 2022).

- Voice message left on telephone of a synagogue with message including: “I’m just wondering what it’s like getting the label Apartheid put on your silly little religion? Now everyone is going to wake up seeing what fucking lowdown cunts you’ve been to those Palestinians, for fucking over 70 years. And you’re still going on about ‘us poor Jews’ what happened in the Holocaust, ‘oh you can’t believe what we went through’ and you’re doing it to them, and you have done for a life time, and their fathers’ lifetime and their granddads’ lifetime. Fuck you, you fucking Jewish fuckwits. Fuck You. It’s fucking about time you guys got a label that you deserve. Apartheid, Jewish, the Apartheid People [laughs]. It’s going to stick like shit...” Launceston, Tasmania (2 Feb. 2022).

Don’t you know that all Jewish people are considered apartheid. Maybe you should watch the news, because, yeah, everybody’s announced that Jewish people are apartheid. ... It’s been on every channel all day for the last two days ever since the [Amnesty International] announcement came out. The Jewish people like to crush the Palestinian people just because they can; just like the Nazis did to the Jewish people, now the Jewish people have become the new Nazis ... You’re the scum of the earth, and now the whole world’s cottoning on, the whole world’s caught on. The last 77 years of ‘poor us, you can’t imagine the gas chambers, ah poor us’ but you’ve become the new Nazis, you are now the scum of the earth Jewish apartheid ... Go fuck yourself you Jewish cunt, you’re Jewish, you think you’re better than everybody else.” Launceston, Tasmania (2 Feb. 2022).

So you work with paedophiles ... Your Kabbalah, your satanic texts, Jewish mysticism, your demon invocation shit ... You guys used a Mossad terrorist to writing on Jew World Order on your submissions to parliament to get hate speech laws ... Mr Wertheim’s submission to parliament ... glad to see your counterparts in the Executive Council of [Australian] Jewry want to shut down Orthodox Jewry in this country ... You guys appearing at the anti-vilification inquiry in Victorian declaring war against Buddhists ‘how dare those fucking Buddhists, those Nazi Buddhists using swastikas before Hitler even plagiarised it’ ... ‘We are the master race, we are the Jews, and if we’re triggered, fuck those Buddhists, and fuck their symbols they’ve been using for 4000 years’. ... You racist cunts! ... Organised Jewry, a satanic paedophile cult, with a proven doctrine of human blood cult... and gay pedophile rights activists are all working together in what I like to call the Kabbalah axis of evil. ... don’t support rabbis mass raping kids ... it’s a big Jewish paedophile angle ... make sure you give it to the police when you complain about this call for the crime of criticising you ... kabbalah is your deep-rooted love of satan demon worship. ... You fucking paedophiles! ... Go fuck yourself!” Sydney (14 Feb. 2022).

3. ANTISEMITISM in the MAINSTREAM POLITICS, MEDIA, SOCIETY, EDUCATION

“The Holocaust did not begin in the gas chambers - it began with words.”
- Professor Irwin Cotler, former Canadian Minister of Justice

Introduction
Even within western liberal democracies like Australia, antisemitism persists. Mostly, it is found on the fringes of society, within the political and religious extremes, and it is commonly condemned by political and community leaders, and in the media. However, racism, including antisemitism, becomes a more serious problem for a society’s moral integrity and inner cohesion when it moves from the fringes into the mainstream and is not repudiated by society’s leaders (or, worse, is validated by them). This sends a signal that it is socially permissible for human beings to be demonised and vilified, threatened and attacked, on the basis of their race, ethnicity, religion, or other attributes.

Antisemites, and other racists, will usually attempt to have their views publicly and widely proclaimed, and aim for acceptance and legitimacy of their racism within the mainstream of society. This can occur through the mainstream media, and also through social media commentary. When leaders in politics, the media, academia, business, clergy, or ordinary Australians, either publicly support or silently ignore the expression of racist sentiments and the commission of racist acts, including those which are antisemitic, the message this conveys to racists is that they will be able to get away with their racism.

Racism vilifies and dehumanises its targets before an audience that consists of the rest of the community. It is a form of mass psychological conditioning that breaks down the common ethical norms that apply in inter-personal relationships, and gives license and impetus to acts of violence and, in the most extreme cases, to mass murder. The expression of antisemitic hatreds, if not publicly contradicted and condemned by political and community leaders, has the effect of lending legitimacy and acceptability to such hatreds. This can lead to an emboldening of those who are hostile to Jews to go further in acting against Jews, and thus creates an atmosphere of intolerance, bigotry, fear and violence.

This chapter on Mainstream antisemitism has five sections: Politics, Media, Society, Education, and COVID-19 antisemitism.

MASS STREAM POLITICS

This section on mainstream politics is about discourse and actions within the realm of mainstream politics, as expressed in two main ways. Firstly, it includes discourse or acts by individuals holding, or standing for, seats in any parliament in Australia, and some high-level former politicians who are still politically active. Secondly, it also includes those Members of Parliament (MP) or political parties in parliament who are being targeted because of stances, perceived or real, taken on matters to do with the Jewish community. It in no way suggests that any of those parties or politicians are antisemitic.
During the year in review, comments by MPs and candidates tended to fall into one of two categories: making analogies with Nazism, or promoting misinformation about the Jewish community. Of note, a federal election was held on 22 May 2022.

1. DISCOURSE by Politicians / Candidates / Parties

Balmain Branch: Nazi analogies

During 2022, the Facebook page of the Balmain Branch of the Labor Party, in Sydney, was used to post images of Australian MPs as Nazis, including Josh Frydenberg who is Jewish. The two images imitated the TV show Hogan’s Heroes, portraying three Liberal MPs - Peter Dutton, Michaelia Cash and Linda Reynolds - in German army uniform, and Josh Frydenberg, federal Treasurer, as a Nazi SS officer. It subsequently emerged that a Balmain man who belongs to the “Advance Australia” lobby group, and is not an ALP member, hacked Balmain Branch’s Facebook page, and created a group, which excluded the Balmain branch secretary, who was also administrator of the Facebook group, so that he would be unaware of the hacking.

!Josh Frydenberg, Liberal MP, photoshopped into a Nazi SS uniform, 4 March 2022

Bernie Finn MP: Nazi analogy

Bernie Finn, a Victorian state Liberal Party MP, was expelled from the Liberal Party in May 2022. He joined the Democratic Labour Party in June 2022. Finn posted a fabricated image of Dan Andrews, Premier of Victoria, dressed as Hitler, and wearing an armband with an ABC logo in the place of the hakenkreuz, (Nazi swastika) on his Facebook page on 1 November 2021. He deleted it shortly afterwards, following complaints that the image was, inter alia, an example of Holocaust minimisation.
Bob Carr: “Jewish lobby”
Bob Carr is a former Labor Premier of NSW and a former federal Foreign Minister. Although no longer a member of any parliament, he remains politically active. As part of his anti-Israel activism, in a tweet on 14 January 2022, Carr accused the “Jewish lobby” (a catch-all term used to refer to Jewish community leaders, without naming any person or organisation, but leaving it amorphous and generic) of promoting “laws to prosecute advocates of BDS”. Carr wrote:

- Bob Carr@bobjcarr · Jan 14, 2022
  Extraordinary overreach for Jewish lobby to promote laws to prosecute advocates of BDS. Means indigenous or multicultural artists who withdrew from Sydney Festival would lose access to government venues and subsidies to shield Israel from criticism.

The accusation was false. No representative Jewish organisation has promoted “laws to prosecute advocates of BDS”. In our view, the following example in the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism applies to the above passage:

Making mendacious, dehumanizing, demonizing, or stereotypical allegations about Jews as such or the power of Jews as collective...

Bob Katter MP: distortion of Nazi antisemitism
Bob Katter, federal Member for Kennedy in Queensland, for ‘Katter's Australian Party’, held a press conference at Parliament House on 28 July 2022. He read out a speech, while holding up a bible, in defence of the seven players, from the Manly Warringah Sea Eagles rugby league football club, who withdrew from a game rather than wear a specially designed jersey with a rainbow stripe in support of LGBTQI communities. All seven players identify as practising Christians. Katter’s speech focused on how those who believe in the Bible are persecuted. He erroneously asserted that Jews were persecuted and murdered in Nazi Germany due to Jews believing in the Bible, rather than Nazi ideology placing Jews as a sub-human and destructive ‘race’. Katter stated:

- “Six million people were sent to the gas chambers in Germany because they believed in this book. No other reason, than they believed in this book. It started pretty unthreateningly ‘oh we just want you to tell us whether you believe in the bible and whether you're a Jew, that’s all we want you to do.’ That’s how it started in Germany.”

Craig Kelly MP: associating with antisemites
Craig Kelly, was a Liberal Party MP for a federal seat in Queensland from 2010 to 2021. He resigned from the Liberals and joined the United Australia Party, becoming its National Director. Kelly lost his seat in the federal election held in May 2022. He has been vocal against COVID-19 counter-measures, and has propagated conspiracy theories relating to COVID-19. Craig Kelly has come to attention for several acts during the period in review.

Firstly, in November 2021, he employed Stuart von Moger, a known neo-Nazi, associated with Antipodean Resistance, Lads Society, and National Socialist Network, as his security guard.

Secondly, Craig Kelly spoke at a rally organised by the United Australia Party (UAP), held on the lawns of Parliament House in Canberra on 29 March 2022, with advertising noting “Craig Kelly and many other headline speakers.” However, one speaker, Mark McMurtrie, a subscriber to the sovereign citizens’ ideology, stood on stage, the tray of a truck, and told the rally:

- “I notice there’s a lot of people here today wandering around with the red and the blue flags. That piece of shit that’s in the corner of that flag is the Union Jack, the union of Jacob, represents three or it is three Hebrew tribal flags. And if you’re worried about their standing under the Jews and what they represent, that’s what you’re standing under when you carry that flag.”

Immediately, a woman in the crowd yelled “Get rid of them!” and another woman yelled “Zionists!”, and after a few more words from McMurtrie, there were cheers from the crowd. Craig Kelly was apparently within ear-shot of the speaker and comments from the crowd, but did not denounce the antisemitism at the UAP rally.

Thirdly, Craig Kelly a has Telegram channel, ‘CRAIG KELLY - National Director, United Australia Party’. On 23 July 2022 he posted a video which highlighted a painting depicting the antisemitic blood libel that Jews drain the blood of gentile children in a religious ritual. The painting is by Italian artist Giovanni Gasparro and titled “The Martyrdom of St. Simon of Trento in Accordance With Jewish Ritual Murder,” and was unveiled in March 2020. The men in the painting are stereotypically depicted as Jews with hooked noses and curled side-locks as worn by ultra-Orthodox Jews. In the video of the painting, Covid-related words have been superimposed for each Jew, namely Pfizer, Moderna, Atagi, CDC, TGA, ABC, media, Chant, Fauci, Gates, Klaus (WEF), and the image has been titled ‘The Cult of the Vaxinists’.

In our view, the following example in the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism applies to the above passage:

_Making mendacious, dehumanizing, demonizing, or stereotypical allegations about Jews as such or the power of Jews as collective — such as, especially but not exclusively, the myth about a world Jewish conspiracy or of Jews controlling the media, economy, government or other societal institutions._
George Christensen MP: laughed at Auschwitz analogy
George Christensen was the Liberal National Party member for the federal seat of Dawson in Queensland from 2010 to 2022. He retired from the seat in April 2022 to contest a Senate seat for Queensland in the federal election in May 2022, which he did not win. Christensen appeared in a podcast, InfoWars, hosted by far-right American conspiracy theorist Alex Jones on 6 December 2021. At one point during the 35-minute interview, Jones compared Australian COVID-19 quarantine facilities with Auschwitz because they both had "big fences" – at that, Christensen laughed. Christensen’s attitude towards the Holocaust was condemned in the media and by the Prime Minister.

Sam Cannuli, candidate: preferring Nazi party posters
Sam Cannuli, a former candidate for the Shooters, Fishers and Farmers Party, wrote (dated 2 Dec. 2021) in his submission to the NSW government ‘Inquiry Into Crimes Amendment (Display Of Nazi Symbols) Bill 2021’:

- “Dear committee. I find political party slogans and how to vote billboards far more offensive than Nazi party slogans and posters. The Nazi party is a part of history and you cannot ignore history. To ignore history is foolish and discriminatory as well as a form of censorship. There are far more important issues to resolve than wasting taxpayers money on frivolous nonsense. Wake up and be responsible”

As a result of Cannuli’s submission, the Party expelled him. Shooters, Fishers and Farmers leader Robert Borsak, leader of the Shooters, Fishers and Farmers Party stated, 25 January 2022, that “Pro Nazi opinions expressed by Sam Cannuli are not those of the party, never have been and never will be. ... Mr Cannuli has been expelled from the party, as the Shooters Fishers and Farmers party will not be associated in any way with pro-Nazi propaganda.”

https://www.australianjewishnews.com/candidate-expelled/

Sam McMahon, Senator: False Nazi analogy
Sam McMahon, Northern Territory (NT) Senator 2019-2022, formerly of the Country Liberal Party, joined the Liberal Democratic Party in April 2022, and lost seat in the May 2022 election. In reference to the NT government’s mandatory vaccination policy, McMahon, on 14 October 2021, stated:

- “From the announcement you could be forgiven for thinking we’re living in Nazi Germany, not the Northern Territory.”

Greens: Statement on Antisemitism
The Greens issued a statement - GREENS STATEMENT ON FIGHTING ANTISEMITISM – on 16 November 2021. See https://greens.org.au/antisemitism. The Greens statement is primarily directed at permitting, rather than condemning, expressions which most Australian Jews, and most western governments, regard as antisemitic. In contrast to their generous and expansive understanding of other forms of racism, the Greens seek to constrict the definition of antisemitism so as to exclude at least half of its contemporary manifestations, namely those most frequently expressed from the left of politics or by Islamists. Firstly, much of the Statement is dedicated to opposing the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance’s (IHRA) Working Definition of Antisemitism, the only internationally accepted definition of antisemitism; and one accepted by all mainstream Jewish organisations, the Australian Federal Parliament and various state parliaments. The definition is non-legally binding and is primarily an educational tool. Secondly, the only source of antisemitism that the Greens mention and condemn is “far-right extremist politics and neo-Nazi activity”. All other sources – whether left-wing, Islamist, quasi-Christian, or other – are ignored and omitted from the statement. Thirdly, the Statement is focussed on racism in general, rather than on antisemitism.

GREENS STATEMENT ON FIGHTING ANTISEMITISM 16/11/2021

“Amid a disturbing trend of antisemitism, the Greens are calling for a broad-ranging antiracism strategy, and are concerned about the government’s recent announcement that the Australian Government would move to adopt the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance’s (IHRA) working definition of antisemitism.

Antisemitism is a scourge and must be combatted vigorously. With a worrying local and global rise in far-right extremist politics and neo-Nazi activity, the urgency of this fight has rarely been greater.

However ... the ‘weaponisation’ of the definition has been used to silence critics of the Israeli government, when it was originally designed as an educational tool. ... The capacity of this definition to be used to silence critics of the Israeli Government for its human rights abuses of the Palestinians is reason enough to be worried about this definition being adopted and enforced. ...

To that end, the Greens have consistently called for an institutional and societal response to all forms of racism, including antisemitism, through the establishment and funding of a national anti-racism strategy and a coordinated plan to tackle far-right extremism in all its forms. ...” [emphasis added]

NSW parliament: responses to motion on antisemitism / adopting IHRA

The NSW state Parliament, in the Legislative Council, on 23 March 2022 debated and adopted a motion on Antisemitism “That this House endorses and adopts the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance definition of antisemitism together with its contemporary examples ...” The motion was moved by Reverend the Hon. Fred Nile MP, who read out the full IHRA definition including all its 11 examples. However, two Greens MPs and two Labor MPs opposed the motion.

Although it is not antisemitic per se to oppose or criticise the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism, doing so often has the effect of downplaying the extent and severity of antisemitism, of creating an atmosphere where the concerns of the Jewish community about antisemitism are ignored, and of implying that Jewish organisations supportive of it are acting in a duplicitous manner and with malicious intent.

- DAVID SHOEBRIDGE, Greens:
  “I speak to oppose the motion... We should be worried about all attempts to conflate legitimate criticisms of the actions of the State of Israel with antisemitism. ... Likewise, it is not antisemitic for Palestinian people to criticise the divisive and racist actions of the Israeli State. ... A definition that censors legitimate critique does not help the fight against the scourge of antisemitism. Conflating criticism of the actions of a State with bigotry against some people of that country makes no-one safer. We oppose the motion.”

- ABIGAIL BOYD, Greens:
  “The motion seeks to endorse a definition of "antisemitism" that has been incredibly controversial and, when read alongside the accompanying contemporary examples from the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance [IHRA], explicitly links criticism of Israel with antisemitism. ... We also stand very firmly against the diminishing of antiracism through its misuse for political purposes. Equating criticism of the State of Israel with antisemitism without additional evidence to suggest antisemitic intent, damages the plight of legitimate action against antisemitism. ... By pivoting on expression that arouses hatred, it does not cover speech that arouses hostility and it fails to protect Jewish people from many prevalent and insidious kinds of antisemitism. The definition is liable to suppress legitimate criticism of human rights abuses against Palestinians by defaming critics of Israel as antisemitic. ... For that reason, we cannot support a definition of antisemitism that equates an entire people with the actions of a nation-state. ... The Greens oppose the motion.”

- The Hon. SHAOQUETT MOSELMANE, Labor:
  “I speak in debate on the motion regarding the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance [IHRA] ... However, the motion is not about protecting people of the Jewish faith against antisemitism. The motion is no more than a tool pushed by Israel and its lobbyists around the world to silence criticism of Israel's human rights violations. ... The International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance definition of antisemitism is a political statement. The issue of substance are the examples attached to the so-called "definition", which are unacceptable. The so-called definition conflates criticism of Israel—an apartheid State and settler colonial State—as being antisemitic. ... It is a political tool being used to deflect criticism of Israel as an apartheid State, which for the past 70 years has subjugated, oppressed and dehumanised the Palestinian people. Palestinians are made to walk on separate footpaths, drive on separate roads, eat in separate eateries and wait in long lines at checkpoints on their way home from work or on their way to work, and the sole aim is to denigrate and humiliate them into submission. The incarceration of young men and women, and children as young as eight being subjected to police or military questioning, is not a democratic practice. It is clearly nothing else but apartheid.”

- The Hon. ANTHONY D'ADAM, Labor:
  “I make a brief contribution to the debate. There are many concerning features with the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance's definition of antisemitism. ... First of all, the definition implies that Israel is a proxy for Jewish people, and it is not. ... In fact, I would argue that Israel has made Jewish people more unsafe. The core problem that we have to face in terms of combatting the politics that underpin the motion is that the agenda to close down debate around Israel is problematic. ... But I have serious reservations about the underlying agenda of the motion.” [emphasis added]

In response, The Hon. WALT SECORD, Labor: “I speak in support of the motion ... Only a tiny fringe are advocating an alternative definition, and they are being manipulated by a disingenuous group of anti-Israel activists and people on the far left and far right of politics.”

NSW Parliament: response to motion on BDS

A private members’ bill, moved by Mark Latham MP, in the NSW lower house on 23 March 2022, called for the NSW Government “not to financially support the Sydney Festival or any other arts, cultural, sporting and education system events where participants and event organisers engage in Boycott Divestment Sanction [BDS] campaigns directed at Israel, given the antisemitic nature of BDS.” It should be noted that the aim of the BDS campaign is the elimination of the State of Israel (see the Israel chapter for further information on BDS). The following is a response in opposition to the motion.

- ABIGAIL BOYD, Greens:
  “... To criticise the actions of the Israeli Government is not antisemitic ... Boycotts, divestments and sanctions [BDS] continue to be an effective way to pressure governments to change. This motion, and the reactionary narrative that it is riffing off, is an attempt to silence those who are concerned about human rights violations by accusing them of antisemitism. The people claiming that the BDS movement is antisemitic ... try to use it as a weapon to silence the progressive left. ... We oppose the motion.”

South Australian Parliament: responses to motion on IHRA

The South Australian Legislative Council debated the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism on 15 June 2022. Two Liberal Party MLC’s, Jing Lee and Dennis Hood, spoke in support of adopting the IHRA definition. The leader of the SA Greens, Tammy Franks MLC, spoke in opposition to the motion. Franks’ statement showed her ignorance of the fact that the term “antisemitism” was coined in the nineteenth century specifically to describe racially-based hatred of Jews, and no other group. She also acknowledged that MPs had been lobbied by the Australian Friends of Palestine Association (AFOPA) to oppose the motion. She claimed that the Greens oppose racism and antisemitism, but only mentioned far right extremism, glossing over the fact that antisemitism occurs across the political and religious spectrum. She also failed to acknowledge that the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism states plainly that “criticism of Israel similar to that leveled against any other country cannot be regarded as antisemitic.”

- Tammy Franks MLC, Greens:
  “What is not as clear is what is a Semite? In my exploration of this issue, it has become clear that the definition is not as simple as it has been portrayed. Originally, a Semite was someone who spoke a Semitic language. This is a family of languages that came from areas that spanned from western Asia to Africa. The meaning includes a much broader range of people than the Jewish people. The definition of antisemitism clearly requires clarity in order to be understood here.
The motion before us faces some of that same challenge. Everyone in this chamber has received correspondence from the Australian Friends of Palestine Association (AFOPA). AFOPA has written to us and raised their concerns about the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance definition of antisemitism. They say: ... Australian Friends of Palestine Association does not endorse the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance definition of anti-Semitism as its effect will be to silence valid criticism of Israel and its supporters. We see its adoption by governments and other organisations as an attack on the right to free speech for all Australians.

It goes on to say: Jewish community leaders continue to push for the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance definition of anti-Semitism, ostensibly to fight racism, while invariably defending Israel which practices racism.

...The capacity of this definition to be used to silence critics of the Israeli government for its human rights abuses of Palestinians is reason enough to be worried about the definition being adopted and potentially enforced. ...

CANDIDATES in Federal election 2022
The federal election was held on 22 May 2022. Among the candidates were those who were part of the new group “Climate 200” which contested 23 electorates, all held by the Liberals. Although technically Independents, they formed a campaign bloc, and were dubbed ‘teals’ due to their green-blue campaign colour. These candidates attracted much media attention. With the prominence of social media, many political opponents and journalists trawled through social media posts of election candidates in order to find “dirt” on them that could be used against them. Many such posts appear below.

Anthony Bull, candidate: “14 words and the 88 precept”
Anthony Bull was the Liberal Democrat candidate for the seat of Brisbane in the 2022 federal election. He is currently still the president of the QLD State Executive 2022 of the Liberal Democrats. He made many offensive posts on Facebook posts in 2017 and 2018. In one, Bull told a Facebook friend to look up the terms “14 words and the 88 precept” - the term “14 words” refers to David Lane’s white supremacist slogan: “We must secure the existence of our people and a future for white children” and the term “88 precepts” refers to a document Lane wrote regarding “natural law”. Lane was a prominent US white supremacist who was jailed over the killing of Alan Berg, a Jewish radio host in 1984. The number “88” stands for “Heil Hitler”. Bull also used the antisemitic meme the “Happy Merchant” and referred to the term “Annuda Shoah” (Another Shoah), which is commonly used to mock Jews and the Holocaust.

Katherine Deves, candidate: Nazi analogy

Katherine Deves was the Liberal Party candidate for the seat of Warringah in north Sydney, held by an Independent. She is also the co-founder of an organisation, “Save Women’s Sport”, which aims to exclude trans people (males who identify as females) from playing in women’s sport. On a podcast, recorded on 18 February 2021, hosted by Irish television writer Graham Linehan, who interviewed Deves and another woman, Deves compared the “Save Women’s Sport” campaign to the French resistance against the Nazi occupation, with reference to Nazi trains transporting Jews to concentration and death camps as part of the Holocaust. The inference was that those who do not oppose trans people being allowed to compete in women’s sport are like people during WW2 who saw the trains go past taking Jews to concentration camps, but did not oppose it.

- "I've always loved 20th-century history and I think many people would say to themselves, 'I'd never been to villages that stayed quiet, while the trains went past or whatever, I would have been part of the French Resistance, the underground, you know, I would be one of those people.'"

  https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9GeTliLuoUs

A Tweet by Deves expressed the same view:

- “I have no doubt these people would imagine themselves to be part of the French Resistance in WWII - but no, they are the villagers who watched the trains go by, ignored the clouds of soot & smoke, and joined the Party to get good jobs. They are complicit.”

  https://twitter.com/katherine_deves

In response, Peter Wertheim, co-CEO Executive Council of Australian Jewry, “There is nothing in contemporary Australian life and politics that is remotely comparable to the wholesale destruction of human life and civilisation that occurred during World War II. This sort of hyperbole trivialises the depths of inhumanity that were plumbed during that terrible conflict, and desensitises people to evil, instead of educating them to recognise and counteract it.” Ms Deves subsequently expressed regret over her statements and visited the Sydney Jewish Museum to learn more about the true nature of the Holocaust.

Dr Monique Ryan was the ‘Climate 200’ (aka “teal”) independent candidate for the seat of Kooyong in Melbourne, held by Josh Frydenberg, federal treasurer. On Facebook, Dr Ryan shared a 2017 Facebook post of a meme referring to Donald Trump, President of the USA, as Hitler. The meme consisted of an image of Hitler’s book, ‘Mein Kampf’, which was photoshopped so as to replace Hitler’s photo with that of Trump’s, and the book title “Mein Kampf” was replaced with “Mein Covfefe” (the latter word, a spelling error, used in a Tweet by Trump). Ryan wrote on the post: “this book is so covfefe right now”.

Dr Ryan apologised for the inappropriate post. Her spokesman said “the posting of this meme was a poor attempt at humour... Dr Ryan agrees that the post could be seen as offensive and she is deeply regretful of any hurt that she has caused to any member of the community, including members of the Jewish community and all other communities persecuted by the Nazis... Dr Ryan is deeply sorry to anyone who is offended by her misguided attempts at humour.” Ryan won the seat.
2. Politicians TARGETED

Both Liberal and Labor politicians were targeted after posting on their respective Facebook pages messages about banning hate symbols, commemorating International Holocaust Remembrance Day (commemorated internationally each year on 27 January, the date Auschwitz was liberated), and greetings for the Jewish festival of Chanukah. All these posts elicited antisemitic comments. Many comments ignored antisemitism and engaged in ‘whataboutism’ or mentioned ‘Palestine’, some engaged in Holocaust minimisation or denial, others claimed that the COVID-19 counter-measures were akin to the treatment of Jews in Nazi Germany, and even the Holocaust itself.

Annastacia Palaszczuk, Premier of Queensland: banning hate symbols

Annastacia Palaszczuk MP · May 26, 2022

“BREAKING: Queensland will ban the public display of hate symbols. We do not do this lightly or without good reason. Late last year, police seized a Nazi flag flown near a Brisbane synagogue. Only a few months earlier, a train carriage in the suburbs was graffitied with Nazi slogans. Today I’m announcing our intention to introduce legislation to parliament that will make it a criminal offence to display symbols promoting hatred and causing fear. These crimes are not harmless. Nor are their ideologies. They are to be called out, confronted and condemned.”

In response, antisemitic comments and images were posted:

- Trent Randel Symbols that inspire hate, okay is that all hate? Maybe if I was Palestinian I could demand all symbols of Israel are removed … Or are we just getting rid of one set of symbols?

- Jimmy Callan Throw the star of David in as well.

Dave Sharma MP: “pretend Jew”
Dave Sharma was the Liberal MP for Wentworth in Sydney, at the time. He was the Australian Ambassador to Israel during 2013-17. He is not Jewish, but is of Indian background. Rhys Muldoon targeted Sharma on Twitter, often calling him a “pretend Jew” and a “fake Jew”.

Josh Frydenberg MP: targeted for International Holocaust Remembrance Day
Josh Frydenberg was a Liberal MP and federal treasurer, at the time, and is Jewish. His post on International Holocaust Remembrance Day elicited comments minimising the Holocaust, including by making false analogies to the Palestinians, with many claiming that the COVID-19 counter-measures and Australia’s asylum seeker policy are akin to the Holocaust.

Josh Frydenberg · January 27, 2022
Today is International Holocaust Remembrance Day. A recent survey found 1 in 4 Australians have little to no knowledge of the Holocaust. This is why Holocaust education is so crucial - we must ensure future generations are educated about the atrocities committed against humanity. Never again.

- Matt Epstein How can you remember something that never happened?

- Hyder Jaffry It was so bad for Holocaust but what about the daily killing of Palestinian.

- Ahmed Ahmed How about palestiane day were the zionist have killed more than the holocaust

- Laurelle Atkinson So why are the Israelis treating the Palestinians so badly? … Seems like Israelis don't know how to move on and exist in peace.

- Sam Al Remember every Holocaust not just yours, there’s ongoing Holocaust that you’ll never talk about
• Clare Johnston holding people against their will for prolonged periods of time, no release date, causing serious harm has no comparisons how? ... Much like the nazi party. How is that different?

• Sarah Hathway You mean like the atrocities the Federal government commits against asylum seekers/refugees?

• Dan Bramble Jews weren’t allowed to be served in some businesses and Germans had to carry paperwork to confirm they were not Jews. Now change the word Jew to unvaccinated. You have learned nothing.

• Maria Stricek Seriously. History repeating it self. Stop the mandate vaccine. …

• Sallie Adams I’m terrified of the Quarantine Camps in operation now. The Holocaust comes to mind regularly. I do not forget

• Kathryn Caminiti It’s all happening again with the governments creating wellness so called camps …

• Teresa Cornell Josh Frydenberg … Replace the word ‘unvaccinated’ in this statement with either a race, religion or gender! The ‘unvaccinated’ will no longer be able to enter a restaurant, a cafe, a cinema, a gym, a football match, a cricket match, a tennis match, a concert etc etc! This is exactly how the Jews were ostracised and yet here we are again! … ‘history is again repeating itself’

• David Stewart ... see the similarities to the early stages of Hitler Socialist workers' party methods … The vaccine passport is forcing the same segregation as was inflicted upon the Jews in the first stages. Remember the yellow stars and fear that the Jews were spreading disease. Restrictions on movement and control of the media. Then the indoctrination and the Hitler youth movement. … history is repeating. ...

• Dale Champion Repeating history for the last 2 years with QR check in, mandates, coercion for an experimental drug, no travel etc!!

• Paul Clark This gov seems to have missed some valuable lessons that come from the holocaust. We are seeing some of the very same tactics the Nazis used back then. …

• Jarrod Gercovich Scomo and WA = holocaust !!! Both are flogs with no back bone

• Cecile Thompson What hypocrisy!!! What about the human right violations … against the people of Australia by forcing/mandating people to have an experimental "vaccine" to be able to remain employed and feed and house their families. Also the medical segregation … You (especially with your Jewish heritage ) your government and the state governments should be hanging your heads in shame.

• Andy Ess And you’re bringing one upon your countrymen and women and children. Stop the vaccines you monstrous hypocrites.

Kristina Keneally was a Labor Senator for NSW. On Facebook, she posted a Happy Hanukkah festival greeting to the Jewish community. It elicited several antisemitic comments.

MAINSTREAM MEDIA

The mainstream media, print and online, visual and audio, can be influential in transforming or reinforcing people’s beliefs about a range of issues. All media are selective in the issues they cover, how issues are portrayed, and the slant given. In addition, the internet iterations of mainstream media publishers make possible an enormous volume of public commentary on media articles. During the period in review, there were quite a few media articles and news stories in the mainstream media referencing Jews. Some of these focused on the issue of antisemitism, eg the Holocaust, and many on Israel. It was noticeable that when news or articles about Jews were published, these often did not have a comments section online, and some of these articles were not even posted on the social media pages of the media outlet – possibly to minimise the scope for posting antisemitic comments online. The following Media section is divided into two sub-sections: media output and online comments.

Media Output

The following two items, while condemning the flying of a Nazi flag above a Brisbane synagogue, used poorly worded headings in reference to Jews.

SMH article: Erasing Jews from the Holocaust

“Powerfully confronting’: Nolan’s unseen works tackle the greatest evil”

By John McDonald, August 18, 2022.

An article on Australian artist Sidney Nolan’s work exhibited at the Sydney Jewish Museum, about Nolan’s Auschwitz-themed art made no mention of Jews as the victims of the Holocaust. The article mentions “Auschwitz... the largest of the Nazi death camps, responsible for the deaths of more than 1.1 million people” and “… the trial of Adolf Eichmann, the Nazi bureaucrat who devised the mass rail transport system that carted victims to the camps.” But the article does not mention the fact that those murdered in the Holocaust were mostly Jews, nor is there any mention that Jews were victims of the Nazis. The only mention of Jews is that “Nolan is speaking in broad, general terms, linking the Holocaust to the historical persecution of the Jews.”

Erasing Jews as the victims in the Holocaust obscures the fact that the Holocaust was a planned extermination directed specifically against Jews, and it minimises antisemitism during the Nazi era. In addition, the Germans, as principal perpetrators of the Holocaust, are also not mentioned or named. In summary, the article named neither the victims nor the perpetrators.
In response to the erasure, Rabbi James Kennard tweeted: “This is the inevitable reductio ad absurdum of the universalisation of the Holocaust. “The Holocaust is the ultimate manifestation of man’s inhumanity to man”. No; it’s the ultimate manifestation of man’s inhumanity to Jews.” https://twitter.com/JamesKennard/status/1561951825435058177

Online Comments
The following section is composed of online comments by readers on the websites and/or social media pages of mainstream media outlets. The significance of antisemitic comments remaining online is two-fold: firstly, the fact that such comments are allowed to remain online without moderation demonstrates the online host’s (eg media) tolerance for antisemitic comments, and/or a lack of knowledge, insight or capacity to identify antisemitism; and secondly, the contents of the comments indicate the levels and types of antisemitic beliefs held by individuals within the general community, and reveal the extent of antisemitic hatreds that exist even in a relatively tolerant society like Australia. The following is just a sample of antisemitic comments posted online on mainstream sites.

“Israeli air strikes hit targets across Gaza, killing a senior commander of the Palestinian Islamic Jihad movement, which fired 100 rockets and said it could hit Tel Aviv in response.”

Comments:

- Mandy Napier and I’m not a leftist or a rightist. I’m a humanist who thinks that displacing people then committing genocide on them is unjustifiable

- Ngaya Budyeri Wow what a biased headline. No mention of all the innocents including children that lost their lives due to these greedy land grabbing genocidal maniacs?

- Ngaya Budyeri No such thing as an innocent israhelli

- June Nassar Kirk your mob, people suffering over 7 decades of having their homes, villages infrastructure and basic freedom destroyed by a mob of Zionist mainly European Jews who are now living in Palestinian’s homes and on their land simply because they are Jews! I am one who with my family had to leave Palestine under threat by this corrupt “mob”!

- John Jones Israel = the Apex of Evil

- Shane Buck Kick the ☠️ out

- Neil Chandra We can’t actually say, because they’ve convinced our politicians to put in place so many laws regarding anti semetisim. Stricter than any race hate laws against aborigines, even though atrocities, enslavement and genocides against aborigines was actually widespread throughout White settlement in our country and anti-semitism barely has happened here.

- Mossimo Grillo they killed a terrorist. Judaism is mostly old testament, right? not a very peaceful book when i read it
- Ma Memari: Isreal = apartheid, Nazis

- Maaka Raumati: like the Israeli Jewish terrorists who have waged war on these poor people ever since they were gifted something that was never theirs to start with

Comments:
- Andres Nunez: it can't...the jews lobby would cry that is antisemitism.
- John Turner: Israelis hate Palestinians. They use the propaganda they created, which says their God has made them his chosen people and because the US and Britain are controlled by Zionist sympathisers, the war crimes continue without UN condemnation. Nothing changes. … Israel is the cruellest of all nations 70 years of colonial ethnic cleansing cannot be rewritten by their propaganda.

“Bipartisan inquiry urges government to consider listing all of Hamas as terror group” - October 14, 2021

Comment:

- Richard ... Zionist dispossession and occupation of Palestine. It is just another step on the shameful journey by spineless dupes of the Zionist lobby from towards complete servility to a minority group who shamelessly and calculatedly use the pain and suffering of their recent ancestors to provide cover for their ongoing crimes against an beaten and oppressed people. ... The biggest security threat facing Australia is extreme White Fascist Supremacist, not people cowering in the worlds biggest prisons of Gaza and the West Bank. ... But really, this is because there is an election coming and Morrison and his slippery entourage ... are trying to buy votes.

Brisbane Times: website comments

“Melbourne Uni condemns student union over call for Israel boycott” - May 4, 2022. “The University of Melbourne has condemned as anti-Semitic a vote by its student union demanding the university cut ties with Israeli institutions and academics and boycott companies ...”

Many of the comments displayed major ignorance about antisemitism, Jews, Judaism, Zionism and Israel, and the fact that some forms of criticism of Israel are clearly antisemitic, eg support for Israel’s destruction, comparing Israel to Nazis. The comments also showed ignorance and callous indifference to the impact on the way Jews are perceived and treated including on campus. Many asserted that there are no comments at all about Israel which are antisemitic.

Comments:

- Paul Disingenuous by the zionists yet again.
- Sonia Henderson If criticising Israel for its crimes is anti-Semitic then I am proud to be anti-Semitic.
- ddon3307 Surely a university administration should be aware that a motion supporting Palestinians, - Semites, cannot be ‘anti-Semitic’. It is political propaganda to conflate anti-Zionism and anti-Semitism.
- Steve2706 ... It is perfecly accetbale to be anti-Zionist without being ant-Semitic.
- Bretto ... Which allows Israel to act unconscionably and without accountability. For a people that have been persecuted for millennium, the country of Israel are certainly the persecutors now.
- BBill ... I do not understand why Mr Liebler would attempt to link Judaism with Israel. Judaism existed long before the modern day attachment of some Jews to Palestine. ...
- Vote Morrison OUT Free Palestine.

MAINSTREAM SOCIETY

Although most Australians are tolerant and easy-going, and observe the Australian ethos of giving people a “fair-go”, there are segments of society which exhibit and express antisemitism in various forms. Some of the issues during the period in review are outlined below.

Casual Antisemitism
The Australian Human Rights Commission (AHRC) states: “Casual racism is one form of racism. It refers to conduct involving negative stereotypes or prejudices about people on the basis of race, colour or ethnicity. Examples include jokes, off-handed comments, and exclusion of people from social situations on the basis of race.” Some examples of casual antisemitism during the period in review follows.
AFR story: “wealthiest family ... were Jewish”
The Australian Financial Review (AFR) ran a story, titled ‘She failed high school English. Now she’s worth $267m’, and an accompanying Podcast interview with Sarina Russo, on 8 August 2022. According to the AFR, Russo is “one of the richest women in the country after starting a typing school that has grown into an employment, training and education company, Sarina Russo Group.” At 3:40 minutes into the interview, Sarina Russo states:

- “the wealthiest family in Brisbane – if not Queensland, and they were Jewish had the Rolls Royce, the Bentley, they had you know beautiful clothes…”

The reference to the family being Jewish was irrelevant and gratuitous to the story, and was later recognised as such by the AFR Rich List Editor and author of the article. The Editor removed the reference to the family being Jewish from the podcast. Both Russo and the Editor apologised for any offence caused. Russo explained that her intention was to convey how she looked up to the family next door (the family referred to in the podcast) and aspired to be like them. Regardless of the intent, such words referencing a connection between Jews and wealth have a long history of promoting anti-Jewish stereotypes.

Doctor: Jews "not really Australian"
A Jewish man visited a doctor in western Sydney on 9 September 2022. She asked what his ethnicity was. When he replied that he was Jewish, the doctor responded “You’re not really Australian then”. A formal complaint was subsequently lodged with the NSW Health Care Complaints Commission, and the Australian Human Rights Commission (AHRC).

Other forms of Antisemitism

Opera Australia production: portraying Jews as “unforgiving, vengeful and violent”
Opera Australia’s production of La Juive (The Jewess) was staged at the Sydney Opera House from 9-16 March 2022. There were many complaints that the production was antisemitic, without any modifications or editorial to explain the historic context. As expressed by Dr Rachael Kohn, broadcaster and author, who attended the opera:

- “In a world of rising antisemitism, La Juive’s focus on the fraught relations between Christians and Jews delivers an unrelenting portrayal of Jews as unforgiving, vengeful and violent in service of an equally merciless God. It was textbook antisemitism where the loving Christian God is set against the Old Testament God of judgement and retribution.”

- “In our time when an ever-growing list of titles, including Jane Austen’s Emma, is issued with trigger warnings and theatre productions of playwrights from Shakespeare onward are re-imagined and revised to express contemporary sensibilities, Opera Australia’s La Juive delivers the unalloyed bigotry of its original with no redemptive coda to rescue it from the fires of antisemitism.”

Apple Books: Protocols of the Elders of Zion
Apple Books was selling the infamous fabrication “The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion” on its website in November 2021, and it was still available in October 2022. Its sale price was virtually free at $0.99. The Protocols is a notorious antisemitic conspiracy fiction claiming that “the Jews” are plotting to take over the world, but Apple Books is portraying it as a non-fiction piece. The Protocols has been referred to as the “warrant for genocide” of the Jewish people, and has been used by antisemites for over a century to justify their hatred for Jews and support for the mass murder of Jews. The Apple product description does not warn readers that it is a forgery, long debunked in courts of law. Instead, it virtually reiterates the contents of the Protocols. Apple states:

“Truth or hoax... read and decide by yourself... When the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion were first discovered, Freemasons and Zionist Jews everywhere screamed and complained that these 24 Protocols are a hoax, a forgery, even a blood taint against the Jews. But then came the brutal and barbaric Communist Bolshevik Revolution in Russia and its captive republics, led by covert Masonic Jews Lenin, Trotsky, Kaganovich, and others. The cruel and sinister crimes of the crypto-Jew revolutionaries seemed to have jumped off the pages of the Protocols. The Red Terror, with its torturous massacres of innocent people, its monstrous gulag concentration camps, and the setting up of a Jewish dictatorship, also followed the agenda of the Protocols as did the persecution everywhere of Christians and churches. The entire world witnessed horrors that were a direct result of the heinous prescriptions laid out earlier in the Protocols. Find out how the Protocols are still being worked in our day and how our freedoms, even our very lives, are in jeopardy.”

Vehicle registration plates: 1488
A vehicle registered in the ACT with the plates “1488” was spotted at Canberra airport on 13 September 2022. The number “1488” is a combination of white supremacist and Nazi numerology. The number “14” refers to the 14 words of the White Supremacy credo by David Lane (“We must secure the existence of our people and a future for White children”); and the number “88” is code for the letters HH, which stand for ‘Heil Hitler’.

Minimisation of antisemitism: antisemitism “things of the past”

An opinion piece published in The Mercury on 24 January 2022, on the Religious Discrimination Act, by John Short, state secretary of the Australian Manufacturing Workers Union of Tasmania, erroneously implies that antisemitism no longer exists. Short wrote:

• “The old sectarianism separating Catholic from Protestant, and anti-Semitism are generally things of the past. Apart from some anti-Islamic sentiment, which has become more prominent over the past decade or so.”

Um_ Sue: Jews “control the world”

During the Sydney Festival, held 6-30 January 2022, there was controversy over the Israeli Embassy in Canberra donating $20,000 towards the festival. Some anti-Israel artists withdrew from performing. There was much media publicity and discussion on social media. One Twitter account holder, um_sue, posted the identical comment on many Twitter accounts of those supporting boycotting the Sydney Festival, including the accounts of Jennine Abdul Khalik, Fahad Ali, Omar Sakr, Lee Rhiannon, Tom Ballard, and others, as well as tagging the Sydney Festival twitter page, at least seven people all within a minute of each.

You are right, we mustn't give in to the Jews. They control the world with money. Germany already knew it long time ago

Nazi Analogy: Qld Premier depicted as Hitler
Annastacia Palaszczuk, Premier of Queensland, was depicted as Hitler in a placard at a protest in Brisbane on 23 February 2022. A woman held the large placard sign featuring Palaszczuk with a Hitler moustache, dressed in a grey army uniform, a Nazi swastika on her sleeve, another Nazi swastika composed of injecting needles, and the message ‘making human rights obsolete again’. The placard also had an image of Prime Minister Scott Morrison in a uniform, with the masonic symbol, which is often associated in antisemitic conspiracy theories, on the lapel.

Nazi analogy: WA Premier depicted as Hitler
An image of Mark McGowan, Premier of Western Australia, photo-shopped to look like Adolf Hitler, and giving the Nazi salute, was placed on the rear window of a Hyundai van, and driven around Perth in February 2022. It is thought to have been motivated by opposition to the WA border closure, lasting around 700 days, due to the Covid-19 pandemic. However, many people, as reported in the media found it disgusting to “compare the WA leader with the dictator responsible for the genocide of six million Jews.”

Nazi analogy: Scott Morrison and Hitler
A satirical article, titled ‘Shock move: LNP and Labor Party to merge’, in an online magazine, Gumshoe News (based in Melbourne), was posted on 7 April 2022. It focussed on National Socialism (Nazism) and included an image of then Prime Minister Scott Morrison as Hitler with the words “No jab, no job”. Content of the article included:

- “In a surprising move, the Liberal-National Coalition and the Labor Party have agreed to merge, Prime Minister Scott Morrison and Labor leader Anthony Albanese announced yesterday. New name: “Aussie National Socialists” Campaign slogan: “She’ll be Reich, mate!” … “Let’s call ourselves the National Socialists!” “National, to keep Barnaby Joyce happy,” said Mr Morrison. “And Socialists,” said Mr Albanese, “To remind people of what the Labor used to be, in the good old days when Labor actually represented the workers instead of Big Business.” “And I added ‘Aussie’,” said Mr Morrison, “so people wouldn’t confuse us with the National Socialist party in Germany in the 1930’s.” “Though I admit we have borrowed a few of their policies, such as excluding a class of people from society and the workforce, and removing many of their human rights, like the right to earn a living. …”

Analogy: death toll of Covid and the Holocaust
In an article titled “The funny side of Covid” by Phil Jarratt, published on 13 January 2022, a section makes a comparison between the death toll of Covid-19 and that of the Holocaust. Such a comparison elicits the idea that the Holocaust was an unfortunate catastrophe that affected all people rather than the planned systematic murder of a particular people:

- “After the tragic events of 9/11, the American entertainment community, and to a lesser extent entertainers all over the world, were trying to work out the taste boundaries of their new normal, in a similar situation to that which we find ourselves in now, although the death toll from Covid is more like the Jewish genocide of World War II than the 3000 plus toll from 11 September, which is to take nothing away from the shock and horror felt around the world.”

Nazi analogy: Seqwater operators and Goebbels
In an article in the Courier-Mail on 21 March 2022, journalist Peter Gleeson, condemned the Wivenhoe Dam operators releasing water during Brisbane's floods in February. In doing so, he compared Seqwater, the Queensland Government Bulk Water Supply Authority, to Joseph Goebbels, the Propaganda Minister in Nazi Germany under Hitler. The line was later deleted from the online version of the article. Gleeson wrote:

- "It was just following the manual, it says. That was German propagandist Joseph Goebbels' favourite line."

Nazi analogy: Climate Change is Kristallnacht
A post by Lucy Turnbull AO, businesswoman and spouse of former PM, on Twitter compared climate change with Kristallnacht (the pogrom in Nazi Germany in 1938 in which Jews were murdered, 20,000 Jews were incarcerated, hundreds of synagogues, Jewish homes and businesses set on fire). She wrote on 26 March 2022:

- “It is tragic. It is like our #ClimateChange version of Kristallnacht – but instead of broken glass of sacked Jewish owned property, and burned books in Germany 1938, we have this. Destruction of treasured things, lives, homes smashed by storms, floods.”

Jeremy Leibler, Zionist Federation of Australia president, replied to Turnbull that “As a friend of the Jewish community, I think if you reflect on this analogy you will realise it is completely inappropriate and should be deleted”. Turnbull replied, “I meant no offence. Anti-semitism, Nazism and The Holocaust was one of the very worst, horrendous catastrophes ever. So is climate change now. But I understand and respect that you do [not] want there to be any comparisons made. So I have deleted the tweet.”

Lyle Shelton: “Nazi-like to cancel debate”
Lyle Shelton was the managing director of the Australian Christian Lobby (ACL) from 2013 to 2018, and a candidate in 2019 federal election for Cory Bernardi's Australian Conservatives. In a tweet on 16 April 2022, during the 2022 federal election, in response to Scott Morrison’s support for Katherine Deves on the issue of transgender people, Shelton stated that:

- Lyle Shelton@LyleShelton · Apr 16, 2022
Good to see @ScottMorrisonMP again supporting Katherine Deves. He is right to double down. He is WRONG to say she has been “insensitive”. Children ARE being “mutilated” & made “infertile” because of harmful ideology & “treatments”. And yes, it is Nazi-like to cancel debate.

Nazi Memorabilia
The display, promotion and sale of Nazi and Holocaust memorabilia, although not illegal, has been widely condemned as offensive and distressing, especially by Holocaust survivors and others who lived under the savagery that was Nazi Europe, and by ex-service people who fought and sacrificed so much to defeat Nazi tyranny. Such items have often been used to promote or glorify racism, bigotry, hatred and even violence. Many businesses will not sell Nazi or Holocaust memorabilia, but some auction houses and other commercial outlets do.

There were several businesses across Australia which were involved in the display or sale of Nazi/Holocaust memorabilia during the period in review, including: Luger pistols, replica Nazi pistol, medals, medallions, metal badges, cloth badges, Luftwaffe badge, Luftwaffe service medal with swastika, replica Nazi badges, mother’s cross, coins with swastikas, flags, armbands, pennants, Third Reich gas canister, 1932 Coburg badge (the first badge recognised as a national award by the Nazi party), Third Reich Luftwaffe flak uniform, Nazi uniforms, a Luftwaffe general’s set of rank boards and collar tabs, a general’s cockade and wreath, a Luftwaffe pilot’s patch, books, photos of Hitler, SS regalia book, a signed photo of Hitler, posters and photographs of Hitler, sunglasses worn by Goering at the Nuremberg trials, letters written by Himmler as a child, ceramic Third Reich soup bowl, hand-painted soup bowl, and an antisemitic children’s book (Fuchs auf grüner Heid und keinem Jud auf seinem Eid or Trust No Fox on his Green Heath and No Jew on his Oath).

Nazi memorabilia being sold at shops or auctions include:

- Cleaver Firearms, Brisbane – Oct. 2021
- Danielle Elizabeth Auctions, Brisbane – Dec. 2021
- Dirty Jane’s Antique Market, Bowral, NSW – Jan. 2022
- Snowball Auctions Albany, WA – Feb. 2022
- Danielle Elizabeth Auctions, Gold Coast, Qld – May 2022

Responses to the sale of Nazi memorabilia:
Peter Wertheim, co-CEO of the Executive Council of Australian Jewry, stated, 1 Aug. 2022: “Cashing in on the notoriety associated with a mass murderer like Hitler is about as low as it gets as a way of doing business. The fact that there is a market for Nazi memorabilia is not only a sad reflection on the ghoulish tastes and amorality of collectors but also of the coarsening of contemporary popular culture and the dilution and dumbing down of history, whose lessons are increasingly lost in the process. This iniquitous trade is an insult to the memory of the millions who died and suffered under Nazi tyranny and to the sacrifices made by the brave men and women of the Allied forces to rid the world of this evil. Those who engage in this trade need to ask themselves whether turning a dollar is worth sacrificing their integrity, humanity and sense of decency.”

Julie Nathan, Executive Council of Australian Jewry research director, 4 June 2022, stated: “With rising levels of hate incidents against Jews, and with neo-Nazis becoming more active in Australia, we would prefer to see all commercial operators voluntarily stop this trade, rather than being compelled to do so. These items belong in museums, not on people’s mantelpieces.”

EDUCATION

The education system, through its curriculum, text books, teaching materials and the like, plays a major role in influencing young people, whether at primary, secondary or tertiary levels, or whether in state or privately-run institutions. Over many years, antisemitism has been present in the education system, through some teaching materials, and through antisemitic incidents directed against Jewish students or Jewish teachers, by other students or staff.

Schools

During the year in review, several incidents of antisemitic bullying of Jewish students within schools came to light. Where these were verbal or physical incidents, they have been placed in chapter 2 Incidents; where antisemitic bullying occurred online, the events are described in this chapter. In response to the level of antisemitic bullying at schools, the NSW Jewish Board of Deputies launched an online portal for Jewish students and their families across NSW to report incidents of antisemitic bullying - https://www.nswjbd.org/bullying/. Many previously unreported incidents were reported.

Survey of Victorian state schools

A Jewish student group, J-Voice, conducted a survey on the experiences of Jewish students studying in Victorian state schools. The survey covered 13 schools and involved 74 students from Year 7 to Year 12. The survey’s report, Being Jewish in a non-Jewish School, found that 33% of Jewish students, who had participated in the survey, had experienced occasions of Jewish stereotyping, anti-Jewish jokes or anti-Israel comments. It also found that Holocaust studies were either tokenistic or, in some cases, completely overlooked. A presentation of the report was given at the B’nai B’rith’s Australia and New Zealand Triennial Convention in September 2022.

Knox Grammar School students: “Hitler is always stay in my heart”
Knox Grammar School is an elite Uniting Church private boys high school located on the north shore in Sydney, founded in 1924. Some students set up a chat room called ‘Gang Gang,’ on the messaging app Discord in 2020. The closed chat room involved mostly Knox students, some former students, and friends. Students posted racist, including antisemitic, comments, images and videos, as well as those of an overtly homophobic, sexist, misogynist, and paedophile (eg raping children) nature. Although the group was set up two years ago, it was only brought to the attention of the school administration in July 2022 and was disbanded in August. Material from the chat room was provided to the police. Some students were suspended from the school, while others left the school after being spoken to by police. User names included: ‘Nigger Removal Service’ and ‘Faggothater3000’. The matter went public in the media on 31 August 2022. Examples of chat content included:

- “I hate fems I hate gays, jews, people who don’t play fortnite, furries, niggers, I love titties, feet abortion, rape, drugs …”
- “Hitler is always stay in my heart”

Universities
During the past 12 months, several university student unions passed resolutions condemning Israel. Although such resolutions are not antisemitic per se, some contained antisemitic content, and created an atmosphere hostile to Jewish students and Jewish university staff.

The resolutions often contained incorrect information, erroneous claims and fabrications, for example, claims that Israel is guilty of ethnically cleansing Palestinian Arabs, is an apartheid state, commits massacres, is a colonialist state, and that Zionism is racism. Accordingly, these motions not only demonised Israel, but sought to erase Jewish history and identity. They vilified Jews who support the continued existence of the State of Israel (ie the overwhelming majority of Jews) as being supporters of racism and genocide, and portrayed them as deserving of exclusion, ostracism and in some instances violence. The wording sought to impose on Jewish students a fabricated definition of Jewish identity without any input from Jewish students themselves. As well, often the wording tended to minimise or ignore antisemitism, past and present.

Some university chancellors publicly condemned the antisemitism inherent in such a process. The Australian Union of Jewish Students (AUJS) was active in opposing these motions, and in exposing the fallacies on which they were based and explaining how the content and context of such motions adversely affected Jewish students.

Covered in this section are activities of student unions at the University of Adelaide, University of Melbourne, University of Sydney, University of Western Australia, and Australian National University.

University of Adelaide: On Dit student magazine
At the University of Adelaide, the student newspaper On Dit (French: “we say”) is the official organ of the Adelaide University students’ union, renamed as YouX. YouX is a separate body from, and over-sees, the Student Representative Council. On Dit has an online magazine, Facebook and Twitter pages. During 2022, under the leadership of Habibah Jaghoori as editor, and contributor, On Dit published content which overtly supported violence against Israeli Jews. Jaghoori is a self-proclaimed Islamic fundamentalist from Iran.

Of most concern are articles and Facebook posts proclaiming “Glory to the Intifada” and “Death to Israel”. “Intifada” is an Arabic word, it refers to acts of violence against Israeli Jews, including by shooting, stabbing, car-ramming, bombing, and similar acts. Jaghoori’s “Glory to the Intifada” included the statement “InshAllah it will be merciless”.

All Coloniser Hands on Deck as Al-Aqsa Mosque is Once Again Under Attack.
Words by Habibah Jaghoori
- “The illegitimate and genocidal state of Israel is carrying on its tradition of apartheid, of ethnic cleansing and of settler colonial violence... This dirty and anti-human behaviour is the culture of Israel. ... There is no resistance like the Palestinian resistance. The world may be burning, ... there is a divine resistance among the people. ... Glory to the Intifada. InshAllah it will be merciless.” [emphasis added]

One Nation come for our Free Speech and Democracy.
Words by Habibah Jaghoori
- “... The South Australian Legislative Council by introducing a motion that calls for the Upper House to adopt and endorse the backwards International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) definition of antisemitism. ... In reality, this motion is ... to force the Upper House to extend unwavering allegiance to the genocidal state of Israel. It’s a lowbrow attempt at giving impunity to Israeli politicians, armed forces or settlers to commit ongoing colonialism, ethnic cleansing and apartheid. This motion ... is an attack on our democracy and it’s an attack on the fight for sovereignty both abroad and here, on stolen land. It’s part of the constant endeavour to normalise the Australian imperialism and capitalistic goals at the cost of peace, free speech, Australian working-class demands and Palestinian freedom. There is no anti-semitism in criticising and oppoing Israel. ... they would come to know that Palestinians are actually semites. ... Solidarity with Palestine will always be an action in the hearts of every anti-capitalist, anti-imperialist, freedom-fighting person. Every day, more and more people are realising Israel’s illegitimacy and war crimes. ... The inspiring resistance of the Palestinians and the global solidarity behind them will not be halted by the rich and powerful. ... bring forth whatever motion they please, but it will never stop the inevitable and near freedom of Palestine from the river to the sea.” [emphasis added]

For Palestine, There is No Ceasefire.
Words by Habibah Jaghoori
- “The recent bloodshed in Palestine represents what Zionism is. A military occupation, a colonial project, a Western capitalist endeavour and ethnic cleansing in practice. ...
As long as Israel exists then the genocide and occupation of Palestine will exist. ... The solution to achieving peace and bringing forth justice for Palestine is to demand the abolition of Israel. Free Palestine and Death to Israel.” [emphasis added]

The article was then shared on Facebook with the added words "Glory to the Intifada".

  “For Palestine, there can be no ceasefire. 'The recent bloodshed in Palestine represents what Zionism is. A military occupation, a colonial project, a Western capitalist endeavour and ethnic cleansing in practice.' Glory to the Intifada. Glory to the resistance. On Dit stands with Palestine through and through and so should you.” [emphasis added]

The antisemitism inherent in the article is articulated by AUJS:
- AUJS · August 30, 2022 ·
  “The article actively calls for and encourages the destruction of the world's only Jewish state. The explicit call for 'death to Israel' does nothing to advance the peace process, and further targets Jewish students for whom Zionism is a legitimate expression of identity. The majority of Jewish students identify with Zionism. Rather than seeking to understand the religious and cultural connection Jewish students have to the Land of Israel and encouraging productive conversations, the divisive and hateful speech in the On Dit article sends a dangerous message to Jewish students. The demonisation of Zionism has resulted in Jewish students feeling scared and uncomfortable in spaces on campus as they are barred out of conversations pertinent to their Jewish identity. Calling for the death to Israel and 'glory to the Intifada' is a call to violence and a reference to the First and Second Intifada, a wave of terror attacks against Israelis. The article ... actively calls for the abolition of the world's old (sic) Jewish state and by nature its population. ... Rhetoric like we have seen in On Dit encourages hostility towards Jewish and Israeli students. ... The On Dit article... openly incites hate calling for the destruction of the Jewish state, placing Jewish students in the crossfire.”

Response by Jewish student at Adelaide University, reported in Adelaide Now, 31 Aug. 2022:
- “I do not feel safe or welcomed on my campus as a Jew, knowing that these anti-semitic views are shared by many students. I am terrified knowing that many students on my campus are calling for the annihilation of the only Jewish state and proudly calling for the incitement of violence against Jews.”

  Annihilate means to abolish the genocidal & apartheid state that Israel is & to decolonize and un-occupy Palestine. It means to Free Palestine & put an end to Zionism. This has nothing to do with Jewish people. I think you are saying it’s okay to ethnically cleanse Palestinians.

SRC meeting: motion and “Death to Israel till I die"
1 Sep. 2022
At the University of Adelaide SRC meeting on 1 September 2022, in response to the On Dit content by Habibah Jaghoori, a motion was put. Motion 1: “The SRC calls upon Habibah Jaghoori to remove her [‘Death to Israel’] article from the On Dit website and publicly apologise to those she has offended with her hate speech” – the motion was defeated.

During the meeting, Jaghoori repeatedly shouted: "Death to Israel, Death to Israel and I'll say it again Death to Israel. I do not recognise Israel as this "Jewish Utopia" as Zionists claim. ... Death to Israel, Death to Israel till I die."

The way that Jewish students were treated during the meeting and subsequent motions was also of concern. During the SRC meeting Jewish students were talked over and not allowed to speak about their concerns and experiences. Their attempts to speak were met with snickering and hostile side comments. See full video of the meeting here: https://fb.watch/fgrS5KLEbO/

A student attending the SRC meeting made the following observations: “Jewish Student starts speaking asking people not to speak for the Jewish community as the whole discussion has been saying what is or isn't antisemitism. Then Habibah (On Dit Editor) buts in and goes "Did I do that?" ... "No I was talking about Israel, not Jewish students." Then when the Jewish student said she lived in Israel for two years, the whole room goes "Ew" "Shame". Then the editor starts laughing at everything the Jewish student says. When the Jewish student says: "Not everyone is educated and will take your words 'death to Israel' literally", Habibah the editor responds with "and I mean it Death to Israel" and starts laughing. Then when the Jewish student says: "If you aren't going to condemn her then you are standing with her" and the room laughs and says "yeah we are". When a Jewish student says calling for violence against any country is not productive, the On Dit editor interrupts with "Death to Israel."...

The Australian Jewish News reported the following. A Jewish student who attended the SRC meeting of 1 Sep. described the scene as: “Everyone laughed and ridiculed us when we were trying to explain how we actually felt. We didn’t feel like they listened to us at all.” The AUJS president was “laughed at when citing the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism.” A Jewish student was “ridiculed while asking the SRC to not speak for Jews.” After the motion was rejected and the student says, “This is so sad for Jewish students,” a voice can be heard saying, “Oh, cry about it.”
https://www.australianjewishnews.com/scared-to-attend-campus/

After the first motion failed to pass, and after the constant “Death to Israel” shouts above by Jaghoori, a second motion was put - supporting Habibah Jaghoori, the On Dit Editor, and standing in solidarity with her, which was passed.

- Stasi Kapetanos  … Israel is essentially carrying out a genocide against the Islamic and Arab world through its genocide of Palestinians. … Clearly AUJS and their Young Liberal tools. I think this extremist group should be shunned on all campus and excluded from student affairs over this, all their stochastic incitement against Habibah and God knows whatever else they get up to. …

- Stasi Kapetanos  I know exactly what AUJS and other 21st century zionists stand for, its essentially pure evil. You complain about words. I complain about genocide, oppression and apartheid. You are the real phoney.

- Alice Bardot  … But hey, let’s stop this unnecessarily holocaust industry and anti-semitism card as a shield. … Jewish people are among the richest and most influential people anywhere they are with a strong lobby group. For example, there are many Jewish billionaires among the top richest Australians, Australia's current AG is a Jew, former Treasurer was a Jew, Ukrainian President is a jew etc. They are well over represented compared to their numbers, because I don’t disagree that they’re smart, but also, there's no more fundamentalist, nationalistic, religious and tribal group than the Jews. No other group collectively identifies so much with their ethnicity, religion, only state with the religious/ethnic majority etc. than the Jews which helps them become well organised and they indeed are!

YouX: removes Jaghoori as On Dit editor
13 Sep. 2022
Adelaide University’s student YouX, the University’s elected Student Union, Board removed Habibah Jaghoori from her position as an On Dit Editor, on 13 September 2022, and issued the following statement. “Statement regarding On Dit Editor: Following a detailed investigation and referral from the YouX Student Media Independent Committee, the YouX Board has made the decision to remove Adelaide University Student Media Director, Habibah Jaghoori from her position as an On Dit Editor effective immediately.” However, her removal was “not against her article For Palestine, there is No Ceasefire, the investigation specifically related to her conduct and behaviour since the article's publication. ... she has continued to use language in public forums that can be clearly construed to support actions that could threaten the welfare of students. ...” [https://youx.org.au/onditstatement/ In addition, YouX adopted the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism at this meeting, enshrining it into the YouX Roles and Responsibilities rules.

Jaghoori: working to oppose AUJS admission to YouX as a student organisation
It came to light that, prior to her removal, Habibah Jaghoori had been actively involved in trying to prevent the Jewish students’ union, AUJS, from being approved as a student body on campus. Evidence is a Twitter conversation initiated by Jaghoori with ‘Rabbi Linda’, a parody Twitter account which poses as the Chief Rabbi of Gaza (a territory where no Jews are allowed to enter), where Jaghoori is requesting support to oppose AUJS. University of Melbourne: Student Union (UMSU)
UMSU motion: ‘UMSU stands with Palestine - BDS and Solidarity Policy’ 29 Apr. 2022
The University of Melbourne Student Union (UMSU) proposed and passed (10 votes to 6) a resolution on 29 April 2022 titled ‘UMSU stands with Palestine - BDS and Solidarity Policy’. The motion was based on a number of demonstrably dishonest and erroneous premises. However, the motion originally included support for “armed struggle” but this wording was replaced.

The motion originally included the following but were removed from the final version:

- “UMSU supports the self-determination of the Palestinian people and their right to engage in armed struggle against their occupiers” [later amended to “engage in self-defence against…”]
- “UMSU recognizes Palestinians as the true owners of the territories” [thus denying any Jewish connection or rights to the land].

The motion that was adopted included the following wording of particular concern:

- “the Indigenous Palestinians … This colonial project… Israel has been deemed as a settler colonial apartheid state ... the ongoing ethnic cleansing of Palestinians … UMSU supports the self-determination of the Palestinian people and their right to engage in self-defence against their occupiers. UMSU deems Zionism as a racist, colonial ideology. …”

UMSU then added statements about Jews and antisemitism:

- “UMSU condemns any and all forms of anti-semitism against students of the Jewish faith, and stands in solidarity with Jewish students. UMSU recognises that Israel’s actions are not representative of the Jewish community. Similarly, Israel’s crimes are its responsibility alone and not that of Jewish people worldwide. UMSU strongly endorses that Judaism and Zionism are not to be conflated as one.”
While the resolution said it “supports the self-determination of the Palestinian people”, it denied that same right of self-determination to the Jewish people.

In response to the motion, the Australasian Union of Jewish Students (AUJS) and the Melbourne University Jewish Students Society (MUJSS) wrote, 29 April 2022: https://www.facebook.com/aujsfb/posts/101581252592227047

- “The motion is outrageous as it misrepresents Jewish students’ beliefs, misconstrues Zionism and incites hate. It is blatantly antisemitic.

However, AUJS and MUJSS are most disgusted by the line that states, “that Judaism or Zionism are not to be conflated”. The UMSU has no mandate to speak for the Jewish community on what constitutes Judaism. The movers of the motion did not reach out MUJSS or consult the Jewish community about the views and beliefs of the large Jewish student population at the University of Melbourne. Similarly, the throwaway line about standing in solidarity with Jewish students is hypocritical and tokenistic at best, given there was no attempt to hear the experiences and opinions of Jewish students.

The explicit support for the BDS movement, specifically the call for an academic boycott of staff, institutions and organisations, and other Jewish voices from spaces on campus where they should feel free to express their diverse and nuanced perspectives. The BDS movement normalises the targeting of Jewish students for their inherent historical, cultural and religious connection to the land of Israel.

AUJS and MUJSS commend those who acknowledged the blatant antisemitism of this motion and voted against it” noting that “Students representing the Australian Labor Party left and Right factions all voted against this motion.”

The University of Melbourne, via a spokesperson, publicly responded on 4 May 2022 with this statement:

- “The University of Melbourne Student Union (UMSU) is a self-governing body and operates as a separate entity to the University.

This anti-Semitic motion, narrowly passed in a vote by 16 members of the UMSU Students’ Council, is not the position of the University of Melbourne; nor is it one that is endorsed or supported by the University.

The University of Melbourne is deeply committed to the values of inclusion and respect, and all members of our community must feel welcome and safe from discrimination or racism. Any form of anti-Semitism is antithetical to who we are and what we stand for. Tackling it and its damaging effects is a responsibility of all members of our community. Jewish students and staff are valued members of our University, along with our Jewish alumni and friends. We are proud of our relationships with the Jewish community in Australia and across the world, and our academic partnerships with Israeli universities and scholars. Similarly, academic freedom and freedom of speech are core values of the University of Melbourne as outlined in our Freedom of Speech Policy, which applies to students, staff and visitors of the University. We expect all members of our community to exercise these rights respectfully.”

Australian Jewish leaders from many mainstream organisations responded on 5 May 2022:

- “We stand with our students, we unite in the face of antisemitism, we will not allow myths and mistruths to fan the flames of bigotry. … While denying the Jewish people their right to self-determination, in a blatant display of discrimination and double standards, the UMSU resolution advocated for the Palestinian right to self-determination. … The real, intended, harm is to smear Israel before as wide an audience as possible. … Ultimately, the culture of a university is determined by its leadership. A culture which permits antisemitism of the kind we have seen with this resolution should be anathema to any university with pride in its reputation. …”

UMSU motion: rescind ‘UMSU stands with Palestine - BDS and Student Policy’
The University of Melbourne Students Union (UMSU) rescinded the motion (which was passed on 29 April) on 26 May 2022, by 10 votes to six. There were several contributing factors: AUJS’ opposition, the threat of being sued, and the University of Melbourne condemning the motion as antisemitic.

AUJS stated that UMSU decided to rescind the motion “after countless meetings between AUJS and UMSU and after the legal action taken by Melbourne University student Justin Riazaty against UMSU for racial discrimination ... The original UMSU motion was put forward over the objections of Jewish students. UMSU attempted to define Judaism, Zionism and antisemitism in a way that solely reflects the views of a fringe group of Israel-haters but bears no relationship to the lived experience of the Jewish people.”
https://www.facebook.com/318218457046/posts/10158165502662047/

Peter Wertheim, co-CEO of the Executive Council of Australian Jewry, remarked: “In a major victory against growing antisemitism on Australian campuses, the Australasian Union of Jewish Students (AUJS) has helped bring about the rescission of an anti-Israel resolution passed in late April by the University of Melbourne Students Union. The resolution was subsequently condemned as antisemitic by the University administration.”

In response to the rescission, Fahad Ali, an advocate for Palestine, likened Jewish students to “TERFs, homophobes, white nationalists”, and also asserted that Jewish national self-determination is not a peoples’ movement but rather an ideology. TERF is an acronym for “Trans-Exclusionary Radical Feminist.”

- Fahad Ali | فهاد علي@fahad_s_ali · 4:10 PM · May 26, 2022. UMSU has just voted to rescind a motion in solidarity with Palestine, following a legal threat from a Young Liberal. This sets a dangerous precedent by validating lawfare tactics against student organisations, and leaves UMSU open to legal attack in the future.

- Fahad Ali | فهاد علي@fahad_s_ali · 4:15 PM · May 26, 2022. One can conceive of a situation where any ideological group — TERFs, homophobes, white nationalists, etc. — can sue UMSU in response to any motion they don’t like. By taking this decision today, UMSU has given those groups a green light.

UMSU motion: ‘UMSU stands with Palestine - BDS and Student Policy’ 15 Aug. 2022

A motion, based on the one from 29 April (which was adopted, then rescinded on 26 May), and rewritten was moved and voted on at an UMSU meeting on 15 August 2022, and passed. The motion was as problematical as the original motion that had been rescinded, and for the same reasons.

Responses to the motion:
Prior to the vote, AUJS expressed its views on 13 August 2022, including:

- “The motion lays bare the real objective of this campaign, which is the disappearance of Israel as a Jewish state and the removal from the land of most of its Jewish population by one means or another. The motion strips the Jewish people of their right to national self-determination and dignity. Like previous motions, it will lead to a further increase in antisemitism on campus. Jewish students are determined to fight against this insidious form of racism and fight back against anyone who is making Jewish students feel unsafe on Australian university campuses with every legal means at our disposal. We commend the University administration for having condemned a similar motion earlier this year, and we call upon it to take much more decisive action against this singling out of one nation and one people for vilification and abuse.”

https://www.facebook.com/aujsfb/posts/pfbid0Xp7PQyEyFaH3KbWUtVVKXGJsFg3aw4UAQmYQE3F8nzCKexsi8rxjXd57VZRC8Mwj

Natalie Gunn, president of the Australasian Union of Jewish Students said she vehemently opposed the new motion and rejected the “utterly false and ludicrous version of history” set out in the motion. She said it would lead to “further anti-Semitism on campus”.

Five major national and state Jewish organisations - Executive Council of Australian Jewry, Australia/Israel & Jewish Affairs Council, Zionist Federation of Australia, Jewish Community Council of Victoria and Zionism Victoria - condemned the Melbourne University Student Union motion on the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, stating:

- “It is disingenuous to suggest that this motion is simply about criticism of the Israeli government or support for the Palestinians. It effectively advocates the eradication of Israel as a state and thus denies the basic right of national self-determination of the Jewish people. The motion is imbued with racism and its language drips with venomous hatred. When student representatives falsely deny the Jewish connection to Israel, they deny to Jewish students the right to their own identity. When they promote hatred of Israel so unrelentingly, they are telling Jewish students and faculty that they don’t belong on campus unless they willingly forego their own identity. Only one country is singled out. Only one ethnicity is vilified. This has real-world implications. Jewish students are facing increasing intimidation, including death threats, and a planned stabbing. ... Motions like this do nothing for Palestinians, but they make life on campus more dangerous for Jews.”

University of Sydney: Student Representative Council (USyd SRC)

USyd SRC motion: Sydney Festival boycott 2 Feb. 2022
University of Sydney SRC passed a resolution on 2 February 2022 in support of a boycott of the Sydney Festival, which had received a $20,000 sponsorship from the Israel Embassy in Canberra for a dance routine to be performed at the festival by the Sydney Dance Company. The dance had been devised by a renowned Israeli choreographer. The motion included the following statements:

- “artwashing of apartheid, plain and simple. Israel is an apartheid state…”

- “Any corporation that sided with Israel is no friend of students”

As expressed by AUJS, on 3 Feb. 2022: “This comment explicitly isolates Jewish voices and intends to exclude AUJS, as a representative body of Jewish students, from the student body and their goals. Additionally, this statement ostracises any student with a connection to Israel by excluding them from their definition of students.”

https://twitter.com/AUJS/status/1489001402974470148

In addition, Jewish students were heckled, intimidated and silenced during the debate on the motion. The AUJS political affairs director Gabrielle Stricker-Phelps was told ‘go back to your rich eastern suburbs home’.

University of Sydney SRC passed a motion on 4 May 2022, to “Commemorate Al-Nakba, Solidarity With Palestine.” The motion was passed with 16 votes in favour, three against and three abstentions. The motion included:

- “… apartheid in Israel was brutally established through the expulsion of 85 per cent of the Palestinian population and the murder of 15 000 people… The Israeli state’s repression of the Palestinians… Israel’s genocide against Palestine.”
- “The USYD SRC stands in solidarity with Palestinians, fighting back against daily repression and violence”
- “[a student] proposed an amendment to the action points to add: ‘4. The USYD SRC stands against all acts of terrorism and violence against civilians.’ It was not amenable to the movers” and lapsed.

In response, Australasian Union of Jewish Students (AUJS) vice-president Alissa Foster said, “Picking and choosing from a series of complex historical events misleads the general student population, and is insensitive to those students directly impacted. While expressing solidarity with Palestinians is one thing, the motion rather falsifies the story of the land of Israel. This comes after the Student Union passed a motion commending the boycott of the Sydney Festival in February. Since then the Student Union has been reluctant to engage with AUJS, leaving Jewish students feeling unheard by and uncomfortable with their representative body.”

USyd SRC motion: ‘From The River To The Sea’ 1 June 2022
The SRC at the University of Sydney passed a motion “From the River to the Sea: The Sydney University SRC Stands in Solidarity with Palestine” on 1 June 2022. It included the following:

- “… apartheid. … ongoing ethnic cleansing of Palestinians. To champion the cause of Palestine is a basic anti-imperialist and anti-racist act. … support of Palestinian resistance. … Solidarity protests and campaigns such as Boycott, Divestment, Sanctions are central to this fight. The council calls on Sydney University to divest from Israeli institutions and uphold the academic boycott of Israeli universities. … Israeli occupation of Palestine and its system of militarised apartheid and ethnic cleansing. … support for the Palestinian struggle for liberation, justice and self-determination. The SRC supports a free Palestine. … The Sydney University SRC endorses the international Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions movement targeting Israeli apartheid.”

Then it stated:

- “The Sydney University SRC rejects the idea opposition to Israel is anti-Semitic. Not all Jewish people support Israeli apartheid. The council opposes both anti-semitism and the actions of the Israeli state.”

https://www.facebook.com/287412797993075/posts/5293329420734696/

In response: Peter Wertheim, co-CEO of Executive Council of Australian Jewry, on 9 June 2022, said the term “From the River to the Sea” is “an overt denial of the right of Israel to exist, a call for the extinguishment of a nation-state … It is a denial of the right of national self-determination of the Jewish people, a crude form of antisemitism. The supporters of the resolution patronisingly assert that they know better than Jews what antisemitism is. This assertion itself is antisemitic, and founded in ignorance.”

https://www.australianjewishnews.com/this-motion-is-awash-with-lies/

The University of Sydney vice-chancellor Mark Scott in a letter to NSW JBD on 24 June 2022 stated that “the SRC’s motion does not represent the position of the University of Sydney. The University of Sydney deeply values our Jewish community members, and the close ties we share with the broader Jewish community. As an institution, we do not consider the Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions policy appropriate. It is not a University-endorsed policy… racist, intimidating, abusive or threatening behaviours are not tolerated. … We do not tolerate anti-Semitic language or behaviour on our campuses and take any complaints extremely seriously.”

USyd SRC motions: on antisemitism 3 Aug. 2022

At the University of Sydney SRC meeting on 3 August 2022, three motions concerning antisemitism were moved.

The first motion ‘The SRC Opposes Anti-Semitism’ focussed mostly on combatting the “far-right” and “fascist politics” and of “collaboration with other anti-racist, anti-fascist and left-wing organisations” to fight the far right; antisemitism was only mentioned almost as an afterthought, as ammunition to condemn the far right. Notably, the only source of antisemitism mentioned was the far-right. This motion only paid lip service to antisemitism. The motion was carried.

The second motion ‘BDS bad? More inside’ called for the SRC to condemn the Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions’ (BDS) controversy in Boston (which listed the names and addresses of Jewish organisations in Boston USA), noting that “This motion condemns the racist actions of the BDS who... often overstep the bounds into inciting violence against Jewish people.” The motion provided evidence of left-wing antisemitism, and the threat it poses to Jews. The motion failed.

The third motion ‘USYD SRC report into action against antisemitism’ called for the SRC to “publish a full report outlining what this SRC has done against antisemitism on campus”. The motion failed.

Australian National University: Student Association (ANUSA)

ANUSA motion: in solidarity with the UMSU 18 May 2022

The Australian National University Student Association (ANUSA) passed a motion on 18 May 2022 titled “Solidarity with UMSU”, referring to the UMSU motion of 29 April 2022 (referred to above). The motion included:

- “ANUSA rejects the argument that criticism of Israel is antisemitic. The attempt by the Melbourne University admin, a Liberal Party member and right-wing media commentators to intimidate students into silence using this accusation is shameful. We stand in solidarity with students ... against these slanderous accusations. ANUSA supports Palestinian resistance, including the international BDS campaign. Israel is an internationally recognised apartheid, settler-colonial state engaging in the ethnic cleansing of Palestinians. The Israeli government has committed innumerable war crimes… using false accusations of antisemitism in order to discipline the left and misconstrue and justify Israel’s apartheid regime is disingenuous and dangerous …”

In response, AUJS on 24 May 2022 stated on Twitter and Instagram:

AUJS@AUJS · May 24, 2022.

• “Standing in solidarity with another student council should never come at the expense of Jewish students. The Australian National University Student Association @anustudents passed a motion last week in solidarity with the UMSU. See our statement below.”

• “Both the UMSU and ANUSA motions are antisemitic, not because they “criticise Israel” but because their supporters have arrogated to themselves the right to define Judaism, Zionism and antisemitism in a way that conveniently meets their own views, over objections of Jewish students and the vast majority of Jewish people, and is contrary to the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism. ...

• AUJS rejects the idea that antisemitism only exists on the political “right”, and condemns the hypocrisy of those people who have no difficulty condemning racial forms of antisemitism and Holocaust denial from neo-Nazis and other white supremacists, but seem to be emotionally and ideologically incapable of recognising more contemporary forms of antisemitism from the “progressive” side of politics. This includes the rejection of Jewish peoplehood and the Jewish people’s collective right to national self-determination.”

University of Western Australia: Student Guild (UWASG)

UWA Student Guild motion: violence and death in Palestine 25 May 2022

The University of Western Australia (UWA) Student Guild passed a motion on 25 May 2022 in support of the UMSU motion of 29 April 2022. In addition, this motion accused Israel of murder without there having been a trial:

• “journalist Shireen Abu Akleh, who was murdered by Israeli forces … woeful acts of violence by Israeli forces … to show support to Middle Eastern & Palestinian students on campus affected by this crisis. … to commemorate Shireen Abu Akleh and the Palestine Nakba.”
COVID-19 related antisemitism

The COVID-19 pandemic, which began in Australia in January 2020, has produced its own forms of antisemitism. Many antisemites used the impact of the pandemic as part of their arsenal of false claims against Jews. Much of this was documented and exposed in an extensive article in May 2020: Covid-19 and the plague of online antisemitism. The claims, posted online, on extremist sites, included assertions that Covid-19 was created by Jews, spread by Jews, part of a Jewish plot to control the world, is a Jewish hoax, is a Jewish money-making scam, that Jews are receiving divine punishment, as well as mocking the Holocaust, and expressing joy at Jewish deaths.

Since then, the antisemitism related to COVID-19 has become much more public and is expressed in the mainstream (as well as on extremist online sites) by politicians, street protesters, anti-vaxxers and others. Only antisemitism expressed on mainstream sites, eg Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, is included in this section.

A trend developed whereby COVID denialists and those opposed to government health measures, such as vaccinations and lockdowns, adopted the false belief that they are being treated in the similar or same manner as Jews were treated under Nazi German rule. For example, they appropriated the yellow star that Jews were forced to wear by the Nazis in the 1940s, and wore them as a protest against government regulations; they also wore striped clothing similar to that worn in Nazi concentration camps. While this practice is not necessarily done as an act intended to be hostile towards Jews, it impliedly minimises and trivialises the Nazi persecution of Jews and the Holocaust.

Insights
Nina Bassat, former president of the Executive Council of Australian Jewry, former president of the Jewish Community Council of Victoria, child survivor of the Lvov Ghetto, in response to anti-vaxxers who wear yellow stars or striped pyjamas as a sign of protest, 27 Jan. 2022:

“The problem is not only the hurtful appropriation of Shoah symbolism, but it is also, and even more so, the distortion of it. ... Jews were not having their freedom taken away, when they were wearing a yellow star, they were at risk of being killed. They were not having just their freedom taken away when they were in Auschwitz in striped pyjamas; they were a second or a millisecond away from death. ... Lockdown is not exactly being in the ghetto scrambling for potato peels or being in a concentration camp, wondering if you’ll survive the night in the cold with the hunger and the disease. ... What it really highlights is the complete and utter ignorance of what the Holocaust was because in order to make those comparisons, it shows no knowledge whatsoever.”

Analogies
The following are a selection of comments made by people comparing the COVID regulations, such as vaccine mandates, mask-wearing, and lockdowns, to the Holocaust.

Unvaccinated couple: “Segregation of Jewish People”
Frew@IAmFrew · Dec 23, 2021.
“My Husband I Were Refused Service at the Coffee Club in Hervey Bay Mall QLD Yesterday As Being UnVaxed. I've Never Felt More Humiliated In My Life & What Came To My Mind Instantly Was the History of WW2 and The Segregation of Jewish People. Today Its The Unvaxed I'm Broken.”

Nazi analogy: Covid mandates and the Holocaust
The deputy president of the Fair Work Commission, in October 2021, commented on an image on social media of a post by another woman, who had posted it on Facebook on 2 October 2021. The image showed a Jewish couple in Nazi Germany wearing the yellow Star of David, to identify them as Jews, on their coats, and text underneath the photo. The deputy president’s comment, using her professional LinkedIn account, was: “I fully agree Tania”.

Unvaccinated Restaurant owners: “being segregated like the Jews in Germany”
After a restaurant owner and her daughter were arrested on 7 February 2022 and charged for breaching the WA Emergency Management Act for allegedly working despite not being vaccinated, the husband stated that unvaccinated West Australians are “being segregated like the Jews in Germany”, according to The West Australian. Unlike the Jews of Germany, the restaurant owners were charged not for who they are, but for what they did, or failed to do, ie they had a choice of whether or not to comply with the law.

Café: Mask mandates akin to the Holocaust
A man in a cafe in Perth in early February 2022, when a staff member asked him to wear a mask indoors, stated that it was akin to how the Jews were treated during the Holocaust. As expressed by the journalist: “the Holocaust was the systematic persecution and murder of six million Jews by the Nazi regime using brutal mistreatment, mass shootings and specially designed killing centres.”

Pro-vaccination person: “same disquiet Jews might have felt in Germany in the 1930s.”
In a letter to the editor of the Byron Shire Echo, on 9 February 2022, a person wrote of how he felt that he was being marginalised for his pro-vaccination views, and wrote that “I feel alienated from most of my neighbours. I just don’t raise the subject… don’t mention ‘the V word’. It’s a bit like the same disquiet Jews might have felt in Germany in the 1930s.” The analogy is false and offensive. No one is going to arrest a person for holding pro-vaccination (or even anti-vaccination) views and taken to a concentration camp.

Nazi analogies: wearing yellow stars and striped shirt with number
The two Facebook posts below provide good examples of content by an anti-vaxx campaigner making analogies between COVID counter-measures, and the persecution of Jews under the Nazi regime. In the post of 10 October 2021, the woman is wearing a striped shirt, with a number sewn on it, reminiscent of Nazi concentration camp uniforms, and uses language that reinforces that analogy. In the post of 11 October 2021, the woman and her three children are each wearing a yellow star (forced upon Jews by the Nazis) with the words ‘No Vax’ inside, and the words comparing unvaccinated people being excluded from public places (because they chose not to be vaccinated) with Jews under Nazi rule, who lost jobs, homes, and eventually their lives, regardless of any choices they had made.

Placards at protests

At street protests against vaccinations and/or lockdowns, some protesters held placards making analogies of COVID-19 counter-measures with Nazi Germany and/or the Holocaust. The protest material often included direct reference to the Holocaust, images of the yellow star badges or armbands Jews were forced to wear by the Nazis, image of the sign over Auschwitz “Arbeit Macht Frei” (Work Makes Free), and wearing the striped uniform of Nazi concentration camp prisoners. 4. ORGANISATIONS and ONLINE

Introduction
This chapter aims to highlight the main themes and expressions of anti-Jewish hatred found in the online content of certain Australian organisations and individuals. This chapter, although far from comprehensive, provides only an intimation of the volume of online antisemitic content generated or elicited by organisations and individuals which is freely and directly accessible to any member of the public.

Organisations
There are many types of groups and organisations operating within Australia which openly espouse and promote an antisemitic ideology, sometimes intermixed with white supremacist and other racist themes. Antisemitic and other extremist organisational activity has changed over the years. It was once primarily sourced from actual organisations of people meeting and acting together. In more recent years, it has become much more common for people to form virtual groups of “online communities” consisting of like-minded people who may never meet physically but who combine together to disseminate hate propaganda online, and reinforce one another’s extremist views. There were some groups at this time, however, notably neo-Nazi, who maintained a physical presence and connection to members.

Previous antisemitic groups promoted a motley assortment of ideologies, ranging from civic patriotism, nationalism, and racism, including National Socialism (Nazism). These organisations and groupings have focused primarily on articulating and promoting societal fears, hatreds and resentments, the targets of which vary according to social conditions, but have typically included minority groups which are portrayed as ‘the other’. These include immigrants, Australians of Asian, African, Indigenous or Muslim background, sexually- and gender-diverse people, and the perennial ‘other’, Jews. Some groups subscribed to conspiracy theories about a monolithic global Jewish elite who conspire together to exercise inordinate power over the world’s governments, banks and media.

During 2021 and especially 2022 some right-wing extremist organisations expanded in their membership and activities, and new organisations appeared. Many of these new groups are neo-Nazi in ideology, and are closely connected with each other. As they often tend to be geographically concentrated, they form, in effect, local branches of a broad neo-Nazi movement. There is cooperation between different groups in different states, and their members visit one another. Members meet up locally and engage in activities together, including ‘physical training’, and dissemination of propaganda material such as leaflets, posters, and stickers. Many of these organisations and individuals use two or more online platforms. Some have websites. Most use various extremist social media sites in order to showcase their presence, promote propaganda material, advertise their activities, and recruit members and supporters.

There is also a distinct overlap between the ideology and rhetoric of sections of the far Right and far Left when it comes to Jews and/or Israel. Nazi-style Jew-hating comments have frequently been posted on anti-Israel or pro-Palestinian social media pages of ostensibly left-wing organisations, and elicit supportive posted comments. Left-wing antisemitism tends to be expressed in anti-Zionist or anti-Israel terms, frequently deploying the tropes of classical antisemitism. A proportion of those who are vocal or involved in political activity directed against Israel have frequently expressed themselves in terms which are coarsely derogatory of Jews and fall well within the criteria specified in the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism. (See Chapter 7 – ‘Antisemitism in the anti-Israel Movement’.)

Online
The internet has caused a revolution in producing, disseminating and accessing information. The internet provides a relatively cheap and easy means of publication, giving anyone with a computer or mobile phone potentially a global reach. Items posted on the internet are potentially accessible not just in one local area or country, but throughout the world. Internet publishers have operated with far less stringent editorial guidelines and standards than those which constrain publishers in the print and electronic media.

With the internet, vilification and other forms of racism are easily and widely propagated, often with few restraints, and often anonymously. Avowedly antisemitic organisations and individuals have been able to express and propagate their views on websites, social media platforms, video channels, and even via online mainstream media sites. Even websites and mainstream social media sites ostensibly espousing an anti-racist agenda often fail to uphold their own principles when it comes to vilification of Jews, whether directly or with regard to the State of Israel.

However, there has been a concerted effort over the last few years by many organisations and individuals to counter hate on the internet. This has included efforts by Jewish organisations and others, and increasingly by social media platform providers and internet service providers, such as Google, Microsoft, Facebook, Youtube and Twitter. In the last few years these companies have devoted significantly more resources to detecting and eliminating content which breaches their community standards, and also to tightening their standards. This includes removing the accounts of some individuals and groups who are gross or persistent offenders. However, racism continues to be expressed on these platforms and many racists have moved over to newer platforms that allow racist and other hate content, notably Bitchute, Gab, Odyssey, Parler, Telegram, VK, and others – these platforms are the main online vehicles for driving antisemitism.

To illustrate the influence of social media, and how it can amplify hate: Kanye West (now known as Ye), American rapper, songwriter, record producer and fashion designer, Tweeted a threat against Jews on 8 October 2022: “I’m a bit sleepy tonight but when I wake up I’m going death con 3 On JEWISH PEOPLE.” At that time, West had over 31 million followers on Twitter and over 18 million on Instagram – a massive audience. Online, West/Ye reaches more than three times the total number of Jews in the world, which stands at only 15 million. There are many such ‘influencers’ on social media who have multiple millions of followers and who post anti-Jewish content online.

Insight into online antisemitism

Mike Burgess, Director-General of Security, Australian Security Intelligence Organisation (ASIO), 9 Feb. 2022:
“The internet is the world’s single most potent and powerful incubator of extremism. Online radicalisation is nothing new, but COVID-19 sent it into overdrive. Isolated individuals spent more time online, exposed to extremist messaging, misinformation and conspiracy theories. Social media platforms, chat rooms, and algorithms are designed to join up people who share... the same views, and push them material they will ‘like’. It’s like being in an echo chamber where the echo gets louder and louder, generating cycles of exposure and reinforcement. More time in those online environments—without some of the circuit breakers of everyday life, like family and community engagement, school and work—created more extremists. And in some cases, it accelerated extremists’ progression on the radicalisation pathway towards violence. ... We are seeing a growing number of individuals and groups that don’t fit on the left–right spectrum at all; instead, they’re motivated by a fear of societal collapse or a specific social or economic grievance or conspiracy.”

UNESCO report on Holocaust denial / distortion online
https://unesdoc.unesco.org/ark:/48223/pf0000382159
A report by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) and the UN Department for Global Communications (released on 13 July 2022) detailed the proliferation of Holocaust denial and distortion online. Its Executive Summary states:

- “Holocaust denial and distortion is dangerous. It is an attack on truth and knowledge. It feeds on and spreads antisemitic tropes and prejudices, and threatens our understanding of one of the most tragic and violent histories: The genocide of six million Jews by Nazi Germany, its allies and collaborators. In countries across Europe, people became complicit in the persecution and murder of their neighbours. Holocaust denial and distortion can prevent society from reckoning with this past. It impedes our comprehension of the causes and warning signs of genocide, and that might strengthen efforts for genocide prevention. It is insulting to the victims and survivors of the Holocaust, and risks the rehabilitation of violent, antisemitic ideologies. At its most extreme, it celebrates and glorifies this history, inciting violence against Jews and calling for another genocide.”

- “This report ... is based on a manual review of almost 4,000 pieces of content collected in June and July 2021 that related to Jews, the Holocaust, antisemitism and Holocaust denial and distortion from five major online platforms and messenger apps. It looks at content posted on Facebook, Instagram, Telegram, TikTok and Twitter: some of the world’s largest online platforms and collectively home to billions of users. It addresses content in four different languages: English, French, Spanish and German”

It found that of content which discusses the Holocaust, on the five platforms, the following percentage of those discussions “either deny or distort” the Holocaust:

- Facebook 8%
- Instagram 3%
- Telegram 49%
- TikTok 17%
- Twitter 19%

That is, “Nearly half (49 per cent) of all content on public Telegram channels that discusses the Holocaust either denies or distorts its history.” NB Telegram is not moderated.
Stanford University: Study on Gab

The Stanford Internet Observatory Cyber Policy Center, at Stanford University, conducted a study on Gab, a popular online platform. A table of the groups with the highest number of posts, shows ‘Australia’ is in 9th place (page 20). A graph, Figure 13, shows the exponential growth in the number of users on Gab from 2021 onwards. Extracts of the study follow.

“Gabufacturing Dissent: An in-depth analysis of Gab”, by David Thiel and Miles McCain, Stanford Internet Observatory Cyber Policy Center, June 1, 2022.

- “Founded in 2016, Gab positions itself as an alternative “free speech” social media platform.” [p3] “Gab ... differentiates itself by refusing to remove the most extreme racist, violent, and bigoted content. Gab’s content enforcement only prohibits content that is explicitly illegal within the US.” [p21]

- “Common themes are the vilification and encouragement of violence toward Jews, as well as the narratives that LGBTQ people are pedophiles and that children are being groomed by communists, Jews, and gay people in schools (sometimes all at once). In addition, there is an abundance of “black on white crime” posts, as well as explicit racism against Black people, screeds against multiculturalism, the promotion of the narrative of “white genocide” orchestrated by Jews, and incitement to begin a “racial holy war.”” [p23]

- “The volume of hateful content present on Gab is essentially analogous to sites founded with the explicit purpose of inciting hatred and violence—it differs from those sites primarily by a layer of more mainstream content on top. Unfortunately, this combination makes Gab a fertile recruiting ground for extremists, as larger right-wing audiences that have migrated from more mainstream platforms are repeatedly exposed to hateful content that would not have been allowed on their prior platforms.” [pp23-25]

- “… The constant vilification and dehumanization of Jews and other minorities on Gab makes further real-world attacks against these groups increasingly likely, even without centralized efforts to organize attacks or specific instructions to do so. Indeed, while it is common to attribute lone-wolf attacks by white supremacists (such as the Pittsburgh synagogue shooting) to single individuals, such attacks are fed by a broader pattern of online ideological extremism.” [p25]

Poll on Gab

A poll conducted on Gab by user “SamParkerSenate”, on one of the most active Gab groups, and open for one week (from 8 Sep. to 15 Sep. 2022), elicited over 2,500 votes. The poll question was: “Who’s the greatest threat to the United States?” with the choice of 7 answers being: “Whites, Blacks, Hispanics/Latinos, Jews, Chinese, Middle Easterners/Muslims, Indians.” The responses in descending order of votes were: Jews 81%, Blacks 7%, Chinese 5%, Middle Easterners/Muslims 4%, Whites 2%, Hispanics/Latinos 1%, and Indians 1%.

The result overwhelmingly shows the high level of antipathy towards Jews, and that Jews are considered the biggest threat by users of Gab, and more than ten times a threat than the group with the second highest score, namely Blacks.
Definitions of ‘far-right extremism’

The Victorian Legislative Council Legal and Social Issues Committee, in its Inquiry into extremism in Victoria Report (released 30 August 2022) defined ‘far-right extremism’, on pages 4-5, as referring to people or organisations who:

“• oppose democratic principles and processes • favour authoritarianism • favour exclusionary nationalism, which ‘openly advocates against the principle of egalitarianism’ and ‘advances a selective, often ethnically/racially/sexually/religiously restrictive view of the citizen’ • consider violence to be a legitimate way to achieve ideological goals (regardless of whether followers are specifically instructed to engage in violence).”

The Institute for Strategic Dialogue (ISD) report (released 7 April 2022), states on page 10:

The “ingredients of right-wing extremism ... [are]: exclusionary ethno-nationalism, conspiratorial beliefs, hostility to democracy, notions of racial or religious supremacy, and the justification of violence.”, “Antisemitism forms the backbone of right-wing extremist conspiracy theories...” and “Right-wing extremist movements are defined by their rejection of electoral democracy in favour of revolutionary violence.”

Ideologies embracing antisemitism
The main ideologies which espouse and exhibit, to varying levels, overt antisemitism in Australia today include the following, listed in alphabetical order. There is often overlap between one or more ideologies.

Christian Identity:
“Christian Identity is an antisemitic, racist theology that rose to a position of commanding influence on the racist right in the 1980s. “Christian” in name only, it asserts that white people, not Jewish people, are the true Israelites favored by God in the Bible. The movement’s relationship with evangelicals and fundamentalists has generally been hostile due to the latter’s belief that the return of Jewish people to Israel is essential to the fulfillment of end-time prophecy.” — Southern Poverty Law Centre (SPLC)

A strand within Christian Identity holds to the belief that Europeans are the descendants of Adam and Eve, while Jews are the descendants of Eve and Satan (often personified through the serpent). There are various versions of this strand, which are used to explain and justify belief in non-Europeans, notably Jews and sub-Saharan Africans, as being of a lesser humanity or even sub-human, and therefore deserving of inhumane treatment.

Christian Nationalism:
“At its core, Christian nationalism is a political ideology that advocates for the fusion of a particular form of Christianity and a country’s civic and political life, and for a privileged place for Christianity in the public realm. ... Christian nationalists believe that their countries are defined by Christianity and that their governments and citizens should take steps to keep it that way. ... Christian nationalism has also been linked to a host of alarming attitudes among self-professing Christians — including racist, misogynistic, authoritarian, homophobic, and violent views.” - Nilay Saiya, Assistant Professor at Nanyang Technological University in Singapore.

https://www.abc.net.au/religion/christian-nationalism-is-a-global-problem/13968062

Christian Nationalism as a movement was founded by Gerald K Smith in the US in the 1950s. Over the last few years, many Australian extremists, who are racists and antisemites, but who had not previously expressed any religious belief, or were self-declared atheists, have adopted Christianity as a religion, but usually in the form of Christian Nationalism, often equating Christianity with Western civilisation and European ethnicity. This is a merger of traditional Christian antisemitism and militant white nationalism. A prominent Christian Nationalist is Andrew Torba, owner of Gab.

Cultural Marxism:
The "Cultural Marxism" thesis is a conspiracy theory claiming that Jewish academics associated with the Frankfurt School of social theory and philosophy conceived a plot to undermine and destroy European Western culture. This plot is said to be implemented through the promotion of equality, human rights, civil rights, feminism, homosexual rights, abortion, multiculturalism, secularism and internationalism. In this way, "Cultural Marxism" is portrayed as the ideological weapon by which "traditional" Western societal values and national identities are being undermined, and the resilience of "white people" to maintain their own traditional culture is being diminished.
Eco-fascism:
“Eco-fascism draws a link between the environmental effects of climate change and overpopulation and global migration. ... Eco-fascism has also become a vehicle to promote antisemitism, with Jews presented as a de-racinated, corrupt, cosmopolitan elite destroying the land through industrialisation, mass migration and global capitalism at the expense of ‘real people’.” – Lydia Khalil, 2022, ‘Rise of the Extreme Right’, pp60-61.

Identitarianism:
The Identitarian Movement, or Identitarianism, is a pan-European ethno-nationalist movement which focuses on the preservation of European culture and identity. Identitarians subscribe to the view that immigration to Europe (and to other ethnic-European majority countries) by non-white people and Muslims is a threat to “European identity”. Identitarians therefore are opposed to non-Europeans residing in Europe and in the majority ethnic-European countries of North America and Australasia. Many subscribe to the Great Replacement concept (see White Replacement below).

Identitarian policies to ensure the continuation of European culture and identity include: stopping non-ethnic-European immigration to European lands; opposition to multiculturalism; and remigration (that non-ethnic Europeans should migrate from European lands and return to their ancestral lands). Identitarians oppose multiculturalism within nations, and instead claim to believe in ethnopluralism (the idea that each ethnic population should live in their own lands). Identitarians use the Greek letter lambda (λ) as a symbol, with the lambda usually encased in a circle, and typically black on yellow or yellow on black.

National Socialism (Nazism):
National Socialism (Nazism), under Hitler and in its contemporary manifestation (often referred to as neo-Nazism), is a race-based ideology. National Socialism is constructed around a racial theory and a conspiracy theory. At its core, Nazi ideology subscribes to the racial theory of a superior “Aryan race” and a sub-human “Jewish race”; that humanity consists of a hierarchy of biological races; and that all people are categorised and defined by their biological “race”. In addition, Nazi ideology subscribes to conspiracy theories that “the Jews” are evil and powerful, and manipulate and control governments, finance and media, with the aim of totally dominating the world. Nazism therefore designates “the Jews” as the most dangerous threat to the “natural supremacy” of the “Aryan race”. Nazis also believe there is an existential and eternal battle between the “Aryan race” and the “Jewish race”. Nazis believe that for the “Aryan race” to assert its “natural supremacy” and triumph in this apocalyptic battle, Jews must be annihilated from the earth. Neo-Nazism, like its earlier incarnation under Hitler, is thus a totalitarian and genocidal ideology. In their attempt at total genocide, the Nazis and their collaborators rounded up and murdered six million Jews.

QAnon:
“at its core, QAnon is an antisemitic, anti-establishment, fascist conspiracy theory that dovetails with right-wing extremist beliefs and goals. The core myth of QAnon is that a secret cabal is taking over the world by kidnapping children and drinking their blood to gain power, and that this cabal is composed of individuals in high positions financed by Jewish money. This is a rehashing of the old ‘blood libel’ conspiracy theory outlined in The Protocols of the Elders of Zion, which animated Nazi Germany. In fact, it is a modern internet version of the same antisemitic conspiracies around ritual murder and harm of children that have existed since the twelfth century. ... QAnon t-shirts read, ‘Camp Auschwitz: Work brings freedom’, the slogan that greeted prisoners at Nazi concentration camps. Another Q slogan, ‘6MWE’, stands for ‘Six Million Wasn’t Enough’, a reference to the number of Jews killed in the Holocaust.”

Sovereign Citizens:
Sovereign Citizens, colloquially SovCits, encompass a range of groups. In summary, Sovereign Citizens do not recognise the legality or authority of government, state or federal, often viewing modern government as an illegitimate corporation, and therefore believe that laws do not apply to them, including imposing taxes or enforcing laws. Sovereign Citizen ideology embraces antisemitic conspiracy theories. Sovereign Citizens may include a white supremacist element, but also tends generally to not be racially based, apart from the antisemitism, and includes people of diverse ethnic backgrounds, including some indigenous Australians. People opposed to the COVID-19 countermeasures, such as vaccinations and lockdowns, have been attracted to the Sovereign Citizen movement. Australian Sovereign Citizens have adopted the Red Ensign flag, the official Australian maritime flag, to indicate their Sovereign Citizen beliefs.

In Australia, according to Toni Hassan, there appears to be a loose confederation of various groups, including the Original Sovereign Tribal Federation (OSTF - formed in 2010 by Mark McMurtrie); the Great Australian Party (which declared in a media release “the current state and federal governments of Australia are operating without license”); Reignite Democracy Australia (a major anti-vaccine lobby group); the United Australia Party’s Craig Kelly and Clive Palmer; and an assortment of others with fringe ideas.

“White Replacement” / “White Genocide” ideology:
The concept of "White Replacement" (sometimes called "White Genocide") is the false belief that there is a global conspiracy, usually described as created and orchestrated by "the Jews," to "import" non-Europeans — especially Africans, Asians and Arabs — into Europe, North America and Australasia for the express purpose of subjugating and decimating the European races and destroying Western civilisation. Those who subscribe to the "White Replacement" myth believe that through such mass immigration, people of ethnic European background will become a minority group, outnumbered and dominated — that is, replaced — in countries where once they were a majority of the population. This concept is sometimes euphemistically referred to as ‘Ethnic Replacement’ or ‘Demographic Replacement’. Those who subscribe to the "White Replacement" myth often view both Jews and Muslims as the prime enemies — Jews as the plotters and instigators, Muslims as the means. Or, as one white ethno-nationalist phrased it: Jews are "the disease," Muslims are "the symptom."

"White Revolution" / "Race War":
Those who subscribe to the "White Replacement" myth often see the solution in terms of what they term "White Revolution" and "Race War." They advocate violence with the aim of instigating a civil war in Western countries between the majority ethnic Europeans and the various minorities of non-European ethnicity. Acts of terrorism and mass murder, such as occurred at the synagogue in Pittsburgh in 2018 and the mosques in Christchurch in 2019, aim at sparking this "Race War." The ultimate aim is the "ethnic cleansing", by deportation or murder, of all people who are not of European ethnicity from Europe, North America and Australasia. They envisage mass hangings (referred to as “the day of the rope”, as glorified in the book ‘The Turner Diaries’) of “white” people who have “betrayed” their race by opposing racism. The term "Race War" is often used in the acronym GTKRWN ("Gas The Kikes, Race War Now"), as a signal and code that "the Jews" (derogatively referred to as "kikes") are the prime enemy, and hence are the ones to be targeted and annihilated in order to win the "Race War."

White Sharia:
““White Sharia” is a misogynistic white nationalist slogan that began as a meme & evolved into an anti-feminist vision of extreme patriarchy, where women are subjugated to the extent they are nothing more than white baby factories.” - Southern Poverty Law Centre (SPLC)
https://twitter.com/splcenter/status/112393522285340034

The concept of “White Sharia” was formally introduced in 2017 by white supremacist, Andrew Anglin in the USA. Since then, the idea has developed, and expanded. It is now common to see it referring to a real or perceived convergence of ideas and beliefs between European ethno-nationalists and other right-wing extremists, including neo-Nazis, and Islamic law / militant Muslims, notably around three core issues: the subservient role of women in the family and society; Jews, including Israel, as the prime enemy; and homosexuality as an expression of societal decadence. It is often expressed in memes by right-wing extremists that: “Islam is right about Women,” “Islam is right about Faggots,” and “Islam is right about Jews.”

Codes and Terms for “Jew”
Antisemites often use coded words, symbols and terms in referencing Jews. Some use them in an attempt to evade a crackdown on racist speech by some platform providers. Others use these terms to highlight their hostility towards Jews, or to denigrate Jews, or as a signal to others to indicate their antisemitic beliefs or political alignments.

Numbers, corresponding to letters of the alphabet, are used as code, eg the number 1 corresponds to the letter A as it is the first letter in the alphabet. For example: “18” is code for the letters AH, which stand for ‘Adolf Hitler’; “88” is code for the letters HH, which stand for ‘Heil Hitler’. Other numbers have their own meanings, eg: “420” is code for “April 20”, Hitler’s birthday; “109” is code for the number of countries from which Jews allegedly have been expelled over the last 2000 years, and “110” includes a threatened future expulsion of Jews (presumably from western countries) advocated by these groups. The number “14/88”, and its variations, is one of the most popular white supremacist slogans. “14” refers to the 14 words of the White Supremacy credo by David Lane (“We must secure the existence of our people and a future for White children”). A more recent code is “83” which refers to “Heil Christ”.

The use of older terms such as ‘cosmopolitans’, ‘globalists’, ‘internationalists’, ‘Rothschilds’, and newer terms such as ‘Soros’, ‘Cultural Marxist’, ‘European-Style Socialist’ (coined by neo-Nazi Andrew Anglin), “Chosenite”, “the Tribe”, and “lizard-people”, “small hats” or “little hats” (in reference to the Jewish male head-covering), can, in context, be used as code to convey the meaning of “Jew”, and/or supposed Jewish wealth and power, but without saying the word “Jew”. Examples of other commonly-used codes and symbols follow.

The triple parentheses or ‘Echoes’ symbol ((( ))) is placed by antisemites around the name of a person who is, or is thought to be, Jewish, or around an entity considered to be controlled by Jews, to identify them as Jewish, eg (((Rosenberg))), (((media))).

“GTKRWN” stands for "Gas The Kikes, Race War Now".

“Jew/Jews” may be spelt incorrectly and denigratingly as ‘Joo’ ‘Ju’ ‘j3w’ ‘jwz’ ‘j€w$’ ‘jew’ ‘Juze’ and other variants in order to avoid being picked up by online hate speech detectors.

“Kike” is an intensely derogatory word for Jew. It originated in the USA, and has been culturally assimilated into the online vocabulary of Australian antisemites.

“Qui?” (French for “who”) became a new code for “Jews” in June 2021 when Dominique Delawarde, a retired French General, made references in support of antisemitic conspiracy theories on a live television interview, then when asked to clarify, he responded “Qui?”, as in “Who [controls...]”; the implied answer to the question “Qui?” is “the Jews”; it is recognised under French law as referring to Jews and is considered an expression of racist hate.

“Red Pill” and “Blue Pill” are terms derived from the film The Matrix (1999) and are used as metaphors by white supremacists. Taking the Red Pill refers to “waking up” and seeing the world as it ‘truly’ is (according to racist ideologies) eg the Jews control the world, feminism is destructive of societies etc. Taking the Blue Pill refers to remaining in one’s current state of blissful ignorance or current illusion of the world (according to far-right ideologies).

“WN” = White Nationalist. This is the term by which white supremacists usually refer to themselves.

“ZOG” is the acronym for “Zionist Occupied Government” implying that “the Jews” control the government.

Hebrew and Yiddish words are used online by antisemites as to mock and denigrate Jews. The commonest example is the use of the ancient Hebrew word “goym” which simply means “nations” (“goy” is the singular, meaning “nation”), and is often translated as “gentiles”. However, antisemites falsely claim that “goy/goym” means “cattle” in order to promote the myth that Jews believe they are superior to all other peoples. Other Hebrew or Yiddish words and expressions are used by antisemites to convey the message that they are ethno-nationalists who are awake to the “Jewish Question”. Some antisemites also use mock Hebrew words as online names eg “MosheShekelRod” or “Shabbos Shekels”.

Further codes and terms used for Jews, and an explanation of why or when they are antisemitic, can be found at https://www.ajc.org/translatehateglossary

“Shlomo” - antisemitic meme

A common method to caricature Jews is through the image of the cartoon stereotype, originally known as “The Happy Merchant” and later as “Shlomo” (Hebrew for Solomon). The character is a caricature, depicted as a bearded, thick-lipped hook-nosed male wearing a skullcap, rubbing his hands together in glee. It portrays Jews as greedy, deceptive, scheming, manipulative, conspiratorial, controlling – all antisemitic stereotypes. The character has been used on social media and elsewhere, and has been embellished with colour and various backgrounds.
Antisemites and others freely acknowledge that there are various codes used for “Jew”. Below are two images posted on Gab identifying some of these codes.

Antisemitism Online - by individuals and groups
The following is a reproduction of content authored mostly by individuals, and some by groups. Many of the posted comments are on Gab or Telegram - sites which allow virtually free reign to all kinds of rhetoric on their platforms, including racist hate-speech and incitement to violence. When major platforms like Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and Youtube, closed the accounts of thousands of racist extremists, many of them moved to Gab, Telegram and elsewhere.

As with all social media, some people use their real name, others use pseudonyms or code-names. In reproducing the following posts here, the names of page owners and authors have been left as posted, and may not be genuine. Many groups and individuals have several accounts, eg on Gab and Telegram, and often post the exact same, or similar, content on most of their sites. Many of them also post images along with textual comments. It became increasingly common in 2022 for these people to post hate music, either video or audio, on their pages.

The content below is only a tiny proportion of the many hundreds of accounts and thousands of comments seen online and documented over the past twelve months for this report. Several individuals and groups have been selected, reproducing a page or two of content by each (rather than selecting a few posts each by a hundred people), as it provides a better overall view of the types of beliefs espoused by those who are hostile towards Jews. Entries below are generally in alphabetical order.

  ... That the Jewish community and their oligarchy here in Australia act as a foreign entity with their own exclusive task forces to target, menace, harass and imprison White Australians. ... This is the so called democracy we live under in Australia, a Jewish controlled system reinforced by shabbos goys willing to work with foreign entities to undermine the freedoms of White Australians. The state of affairs will change and all traitors and foreigners will be dealt with accordingly. The time of the White man is coming.

Australian Sovereignty Alliance
The Australian Sovereignty Alliance (ASA) was founded by Sam Packer and Dane Pritchard. They are based in Queensland, and have been active in speaking at street protests, including the so-called ‘Freedom’ rallies. ASA has a website and Telegram channel. The ASA heavily promotes the pro-Nazi, antisemitic “Europa: The Last Battle” series of videos.

  ASA Admin, Nov 26, 2021 - Cultural Marxism in Australia
... the history of Australia. ... Europeans were brought here in chains, made slaves by the Crown, after they were forced into poverty by the global Jewish bankers. Uprooted from their homeland and their families. The Crown, in debt to Jewish bankers, prospered through Jewish owned slave ships and colonial enterprises which brought these convicts to this country ... None of this was contrived by the hands of everyday European people, however, the Crown and Jewish Bankers ensured, just like many times throughout history, that the attention was not on them, but on the “white race”. ...

  ... Hitler fought the real communists. He took Germany out of the clutches of the Jewish global bankers and turned Germany into one of the wealthiest, happiest nations on earth. Which quite obviously did not sit well with the Jewish global bankers. ... the winners of WWII were the Jewish global bankers, the real communists. ... the Jewish global bankers bribed and blackmailed other nations into fighting a war that wasn’t theirs to fight; to completely destroy the enemy of globalism.

  Russia Vs Ukraine ... Russia has been completely owned and operated by Jewish oligarchs since they violently overthrew the Russian Tzar during the Bolshevik revolution ... Ukraine has been controlled by Jewish oligarchs also for some time. Ukraine’s current president, Volodymyr Zelensky is Jewish and is funded by a Jewish oligarch by the name of Igor Kolomoisky. ... The European Union, the UN and NATO come from the one communist mindset and remember, communism is a Jewish creation. ... Don’t get sucked into Jewish theater. We’re not interested in any more brother wars, that is, European vs European as this will only divide and weakens us further, ultimately delaying the real battle, which is defeating international finance, communism, the Jewish Oligarchs and their New World Order.

Blair Cottrell
Blair Cottrell is a former leader of the United Patriots Front, a predominantly anti-Islam group formed in 2015. In 2017, Cottrell, along with two others, was convicted of inciting hatred toward Muslims after staging a mock beheading with a dummy in Bendigo in 2015. Over the last couple of years, Cottrell has focussed, at least publicly, on making body-building videos of himself, and occasionally posting antisemitic comments online. He posts on both Gab and Telegram.

  The Jews are a lot more open these days, about the fact their “religion” is actually just a race-cult and a programme for preserving and advancing that race in spite of all others. There was a time where they got awkward about being acknowledged as a race, and they’d promise they weren’t actually a race, just white with a different religion. I suppose now that they’ve successfully made whites the most pathetic and hated race on Earth, they’re proud to openly distinguish themselves and admit that this whole time they were actually a different race pretending to be white.

Zelenskyy further proving my point: … Because when you're Jewish for example, like Ukraine’s President and Prime Minister are; when you're not even a member of the nation you’re leading and only wearing that nationality like a skin-suit and for your own purposes, then what sense of duty could you have towards the dumb masses you’ve duped? When you’re a foreign interloper who through swindling and tricks has acquired leadership over a nation of people to whom you don’t belong, those people are like cannon fodder to you. Your concern for them is comparable to a concern for excess livestock. Even if you lose this stock, you can still retreat to one of your many other farms where there’s plenty more stock to work with.

While learning about the crisis between Ukraine & Russia, I've come to understand that it's more accurate to regard the crisis as being between Russia and the United States or, more accurately still: between the Eastern and Western oligarchies, of which the west seems more fundamentally Judaic and degenerate but this is only my current understanding. ... Basically, the rootless oligarchs who control the western world from out of the US use NATO to control what the majority of Europe's military forces do. ...

My interest in astrology ... Saturn for example in old terms is Chronos (or Kronos) the God of time. ... In controversial theory, the Jews are said to worship “Satan” or “Saturn” (Chronos). There’s some disagreement among astrologers whether Satan is Saturn. But it’s always been my view that the Jews may indeed favour “Saturn” and this simply means they appreciate and favour time over force. Their power in the world is all based on time consideration, money-lending and interest/ wealth/power accumulated over time. Results based psychological-warfare, relying heavily on thinking and planning “ahead of time”. ...

We struggle for a free White Australia. ... This struggle is global ... A Global White Revolution is the only solution to our troubles. ... It only took a small team of hard-working Jews to dismantle White Australia and create a Jewish hegemony of power. Power over Government. Power over banking. Power over media. Power over thought. Power of culture. It will take a team of hard-working Aryans to dismantle this Jewish power and create a White Australia. ... Our enemies are poisoning us. They are poisoning the food and the farm. They are poisoning the water and the wells. They are poisoning the culture. They are poisoning the race! They are poisoning the soul! This Corona-vaccine is a poison that is slipping into us, no different than how the Jew slipped into our nations. Everyone sees the poison that is in our society, in a different way. Our mission is to explain to everyone that it all comes from the same source. ... We are here to fight a Great Satan, and we are not here to compromise to this Great Satan!

We are in a fight between life and death! A fight for life is a fight for eternity! The Aryan is the only one that fights for life - the Jew fights for death! The Aryan serves the upwards force, the lifeforce, the Godforce! The Jew serves the downward force, the deathforce, a Devilforce! ... We are made of blood and of honour! ...   Jews subvert ... Jews lie. It's what they do, it's what they've always done, it's what they will always do. ... The lie of COVID was told. ... Now a war between Russia and Ukraine ... This is how Jews operate. They lie, they lie some more, and with each lie, they become larger, greater, more extravagant, simply to distract and disarm you. Like a magician using patter to distract from the actual mechanics of a trick he is performing, these Jews use larger and larger scale events to distract from what is truly occurring. They know the COVID narrative has lost its legs, the uprisings worldwide was proof of this, but they still had to brute force legislations involving less freedoms for the people and more power for the governments they occupy - so a greater lie was needed, a larger distraction. This is why there is war in Eastern Europe. ...

  It doesn't matter how far down the rung the Jew is: At the end of the day they support the same goals. The Jews down the street want hate speech laws and they consider themselves chosen (they refer to us as goyim or cattle). The left-wing Jews want us to ... The right-wing Jews want us to ... The rich and powerful Jews think of us as goys and they want us dead or submissive courtesy of the Holocaust narrative, which has been proven false. The Jews have always denied their atrocities and their subversive actions and they always claim the eternal status of victimhood. ... the Jew uses the Holocaust as a cudgel to beat us down to accept diversity and tolerance. ...   All the White populations of Europe, North America, Australia and New Zealand are being replaced. This is orchestrated, planned a century ago by jew Richard von Coudenhove-Kalergi, upon whose ideas the European Union’s immigration policies are based. It also suits the desires of the Zionist bankers and their acolytes in the European nobility who want to mix all the races together, destroying ethnic diversity to create a slave race to serve a master race (basically the Jews) who will live forever thanks to genetic engineering.

It’s the Jews. ... Jewish elites have been instrumental in imposing the policies of mass immigration and multiculturalism upon Australia against the will of the Australian people. Whilst pushing this mass immigration and multiculturalism upon Australians, jewish elites work to explicitly advance the interests of their own ethnicity. In order to do so, they work to criminalise the explicit advancement of White Australian interests by White Australians. ... When native Australians point out the undue influence of jewish interests on Australian politics they are dealt with. ... It is an axiom that the definition of a democracy is a country controlled by jews, and the evidence collected here demonstrates that Australia is well and truly a democracy. ... we are effectively under control by that foreign power and its agents. This pattern of foreign control is global. This is why Australian nationalists point out the tyranny of modern Australia and the harm caused by jewish influence, regardless of the cost. Halting this government tyranny and removing this influence from our land is vital for the freedom and survival of our people.

Ukraine and Russia are two sides of the same coin to me, it is jew vs jew which equates to tragedy for the White race.

Dealers of hard drugs must viewed as agents of the juden, as destroyers of our people.

The relevance of Mein Kampf to today's society is not something that has failed to astound me. Many of the issues faced by the Germans at that time are the same that we find ourselves facing now. As is the agenda of those responsible which is and always has been the enslavement of mankind and the destruction of the white race.

Melbourne anti vax rally today... Oy vey the goyim are starting to rise!

The nerve of these fucking kikes admitting they are responsible for the decline of Aryan culture in white countries while insulting a white man for pointing it out! I look forward to the day the smile is wiped from their faces.

This entire system is a lie. It is a distraction created by zionist jews and their freemason minions who's purposes is to destroy Aryan nations and Aryan culture, while allowing them to suck whatever blood they can from the dying corpses that they leave in their wake.

I know a lot of lads hate Elizabeth, I consider myself as one of them but, I do believe it's possible her and all her family have been held hostage by the jews, no different than what the kikes did to Tsar Nicholas...
Matthew Roebuck
Matthew Roebuck, aka Matty Rose, self-describes as a “Christian nationalist.” He was a prolific poster on Gab and Telegram. Over the years, he wrote many articles which were published on the XYZ website, and had a weekly video show. His Gab account was closed by Gab in January 2021. He has not posted on Telegram since December 2021, and he is no longer published on XYZ. He provides a clear example of antisemitism within the ideology of Christian Nationalism.

National Socialist Movement (NSM)
National Socialist Movement Australia/New Zealand (NSM) is led by Christian Boyle in Queensland, and became active in 2022. NSM states it is “the Aus/Nz arm of the National Socialist Movement of the USA. NSM is the oldest and largest NS [National Socialist] organisation on earth with close ties to Rockwell himself, operating under the guidance of Commander Burt Colucci.” NSM members have letterboxed NSM leaflets in Sydney, Brisbane, and the Gold Coast; have placed antisemitic posters at a synagogue in the Gold Coast; and held a banner over a freeway. NSM joined Telegram in Feb 2022, and Gab in May 2022. NSM and its leader appear to be highly disliked by other neo-Nazi groups.

  Paddy Tarleton - The Naming of the Jew. You know you have to do it. Name the jew or continue living in this hell we live in.

National Socialist Network (NSN)
National Socialist Network (NSN) began public operations on 8 January 2020, and became a story in the mainstream media in May 2020. Although NSN is an innately antisemitic organisation, many of its activities and propaganda materials promote white nationalism and “white revolution” rather than overtly antisemitic themes. NSN beliefs, as expressed in public statements, include: that “the Jews” control governments, media, universities, are behind non-white immigration into ‘white’ countries. NSN members, clad in black clothes, and with faces covered by balaclavas, have photographed themselves, often with the NSN flag, in public places, eg at the Adelaide Holocaust Museum on 27 August 2022. NSN has placed a variety of stickers regularly around many cities; and members have done banner drops at overpasses on freeways. NSN posts on Telegram, through several channels, but sparingly, and these often are copies of messages from Thomas Sewell, NSN leader.

Why a Holocaust museum exists in Adelaide is anyone's guess. National Socialists pay respect to the 60 million Europeans who fell defending their homelands instead.

To us, it is hilarious to watch the frantic panicking of the Jewish press and the Jewish security services, over a group of White men who stood and saluted proudly in front of a "museum" full of lies. ... as the political terror police is weaponised once again upon White Australians, and Swastika bans are pushed in yet another state by screeching Jewish MP's. ... The escalation in insane language used by these Jewish groups, and the Jewish press, proves that they are terrified and becoming increasingly paranoid. As more White men awaken to the lies they have been fed, and realise they are being replaced, the beast system will only become more desperate. The only part these lying vermin actually got correct, was calling us "The Modern Faces of Hitler", to us this is a compliment, as we consider it the highest of honours to carry forward the spirit of Adolf Hitler. National Socialist Network Activists disregard all this screeching and kvetching, lighting up crosses hailing Adolf Hitler and our inevitable victory instead!

Ryan Fletcher

Ryan Fletcher has for many years openly espoused and promoted anti-Jewish themes and consistently called for the killing of Jews. His articles are published on the ‘XYZ’ website, often alongside cartoon illustrations in his name. These have been reproduced on Gab, and more recently on Telegram. He has also produced many short videos, usually of 2-3 minutes in length, with text, often antisemitic, and these have been published on XYZ and Gab. Fletcher writes books for children, one of which, published in July 2021, was listed by the US-based international organisation, Terrorism Research & Analysis Consortium (TRAC). Early in 2022, Fletcher began posting about Christianity and the Bible, something he had not done before. He edited his profile on Gab to self-describe as a “Supersessionist Christian.”

In December 2020, Fletcher posted online that he had been arrested on 9 November 2020 by the Victoria Police Security Intelligence Unit (SIU) for an offence under the Victorian Racial and Religious Tolerance Act 2001 - Serious Religious Vilification and Incitement, and a second offence under the Commonwealth Criminal Code of “Use Telecommunications Device to Menace”. This did not stop Fletcher from advocating violence against Jews, and continuing to call for the murder of Jews. In May 2022, Victoria Police dropped all charges against Fletcher without publishing a reason or reasons.

Stephen Wells

Stephen Wells has spoken at public protests, including at the Rally for Freedom in Perth in 2021. He posts on Telegram, and his articles are published on XYZ. Stephen Wells self-describes as a Christian, and claims that Europeans are the real Israelites, and not the Jews.

  The ancient Israelites were Gods chosen people, but their genetic descendants are not modern day Jews. At least no more than any European is. Judaism was born a couple of hundred years after Christ and the Talmud is basically a series of arguments between Rabbis that all contradict each other over minutia in the Books of Moses.

  Jewish ideology is not compatible with Christian ideology. Marxism on the one side, Usury based capitalism on the other. Both propped up by a religious background of seeing non Jews as “Goyim” or cattle to be exploited are not conducive to living together or to allowing those in our countries to hold positions of power or influence over people in power. ... After WW2 ended a propaganda campaign was started to justify the tens of millions of dead in that war. That propaganda campaign was called “The holocaust”. It is a fabrication. It didn’t happen. But it has been the main tool of propaganda used by the Globalist elite to manufacture a world of Globalism ...

The Jewish messiah has not yet come. He is a Christ who will give the Jews dominion over all the world. All other races will be their servants and slaves. They are promised worldly power, not eternal life in heaven.

Thomas Sewell
Thomas Sewell has a long history of right-wing extremist political activism. Sewell was an active member of the United Patriots Front, an anti-Islam group, formed in 2015. Later, along with others he formed the Lads Society in 2017, which was basically a front for neo-Nazis and other right-wing extremists. Sewell became a self-proclaimed National Socialist (Nazì) and admirer of Hitler. Sewell was instrumental in forming, and leading, the National Socialist Network (NSN) in 2020 and the European Australian Movement (EAM) in 2021. He has also written articles for the XYZ website, often related to his Telegram posts. Most of his content is on Telegram, under a few channels, including a backup channel – content from three channels appear below. Sewell often gives ideological sermons on western civilisation and National Socialism. He joined Gab in May 2022, where he self-describes as “Aryan”.

  … this "Aboriginal Voice" will be appointed and what powers it will have … to approve whatever the jews and anti-white libtards behind this initiative have planned … So this is a very dangerous thing, basically it will be used for Jews to establish bureaucratic oversight on the democratically elected officials of the Australian government under the auspices of "Aboriginal Sovereignty" …

  "Antisemitism is slave morality, you just resent Jews because they're successful" This is a misdirection, because the fact that they are successful is itself only a problem because they leverage that success to become politically powerful in white countries and subvert our political systems to serve their interests. … that's why Jewish power is a problem.

  Jews run all the major social media companies in the US except Twitter, Jews also run all the major media conglomerates except Fox … the majority of the chairmen of the largest American asset management firms, private equity funds and hedge funds are Jewish. … There is no fucking way you can explain this shit away, sorry.

  Once again the Jewish System is making garbage charges against Australian National Socialists. This is a sign that the system is scared of the work that Australian Nationalists are doing, when they have to start rounding up activists for thought crimes and book charges in order to suppress us. … White power. 1488.

Hate Music Online

Today, with the internet, the racist music scene is changing. There is a proliferation of music with racist, and especially antisemitic, lyrics being promoted and shared online. These are posted as videos on video channels such as YouTube, Bitchute, Odysee, and on social media platforms such as Gab and Telegram. Racist lyrics combined with emotive melodies and vivid visuals, can inspire and incite racist acts. Hate music can be just as inciting, or more so, than even the most riveting hate speeches by demagogues. See the article “Music as a Medium of Antisemitism” (February 2022) in Chapter 9 Articles below. The following hate music has been posted by individuals named above, during the period in review; some music below was posted by multiple individuals or groups named above. It is generally in chronological order.
Ovens of Auschwitz - (from The Sound of Silence)
DanTheOracle@DanTheOracle · Nov 24, 2021
Ovens of Auschwitz Fashy Simon Garfunkel by White Hot Takes, April 5th, 2021.
[Lyrics] “Hello merchant, you old fiend / we have grown tired of your greed / in the darkness, always creeping / Looting our nations while we’re sleeping / And know cattle cars lie empty on the line / we’ll bide our time / heating the ovens of Auschwitz / In restless dreams I walked alone / Newer streets of cobblestone / ’Neath the halo of a street lamp / I raised my right arm and began Mein Kampf / When our backs were stabbed by the flames of the Reichstag fire / a funeral pyre / then lit the ovens of Auschwitz / And in the fire’s light I saw / Six million Hebrews, maybe more / Lying even without speaking / poisoning young minds with false teachings / time we tell it that we all had to share / No one dared / to send the trains to Auschwitz / ”Fools” said I, ”You do not know / Jewry like a cancer grows / Hear my words that I might teach you” / But the allied bombs like heavy raindrops fell / And cooled the ovens of Auschwitz / And the people bowed and prayed / To the volcano god in flames / but one man left his warning / In our hearts it is yearning / And the man said, ”The lies of the rabbis / can only be stopped by force / And gas of course / And in the ovens of Auschwitz.”

American History X segment - (from The Battle Hymn of the Republic)
Jaz Searby@Jaz_Searby · Nov 25, 2021
[Lyrics] “My eyes have seen the glory of the trampling at the zoo, We washed ourselves in niggers’ blood and all the mongrels too. We’re taking down the ZOG machine, Jew by Jew by Jew. The white man marches on.” [extract from the movie "American History X", segment of song sung by the character "Seth"]

Naming of the Jew - (from The Rising of the Moon)
DanTheOracle@DanTheOracle · Dec 17, 2021
2021 Australian anti-semitism awards presented by the Executive Council of Australian kikery, December 17th, 2021 ... my hatred of the fucking parasitic kikes. ... Naming of the Jew - by Paddy Tarleton.
[Lyrics] “Oh come hither saddened children of the occident low tide / Our heads may hang low this time round / But onwards will we strive / Against the shysters, crooks and shylocks, / Infiltrators, traitors too / And you won’t see the sun rise now until you name the Jew / Oh the naming of the Jew / Oh the naming of the Jew / And you won’t see the sun rise now until you name the Jew / In 1290, our dear Longshanks had tossed them in the bin / ’til that roundhead scoundrel Oliver had let the kikes back in / Since those days the sludge had seeped in / Even slightly out of view / And the anglosphere won’t be mucked up until it names the Jew / Oh the naming of the Jew / Oh the naming of the Jew / And the anglosphere won’t be mucked up until it names the Jew / For years these shameless bastards have gone by many names / From the oligarchs to upper one percent, its all the same / They have taken far more than they give, demand high status too / So stand, be heard and say the word, it’s J E W / Oh the naming of the Jew / Oh the naming of the Jew / So stand, be heard and say the word it’s J E W / And while brave ... maintains the stronghold in the east / We’ll keep up the pressure in the west / Until we bleed the beast / Oh the hours late and the time is now, but it all starts with you / Rope and Throw your chains off now and proudly name the Jew / Oh the naming of the Jew / Oh the naming of the Jew / I rope and Throw your chains off now and proudly name the Jew / Oh the naming of the Jew / Oh the naming of the Jew / And you won’t see the sun rise now until you name the Jew.”

Oy Vey, Shut It Down - Original Song. Dec 19, 2021, foudning
[Extract of lyrics] “you always know when you get close to the viper’s den cuz you can hear them scheming / don’t even jest or the hornet’s nest will descend upon you with a Shock and Awe / they fudge the scores they fund the wars it’s how they knew in Waterloo who was the loser / it’s Protocol to hoax it all like each pathogenic menace they design / don’t believe these lying eyes there’s no conspiracy comprised of lies and history’s alibis this timeline isn’t right / oy vey shut it down the goyim know too much / we rule the land with mighty hands that have the Midas touch / call me meshuggeneh for noticing a trend / there’s certain things you cannot say so sing them all instead / ... oy vey shut it down you’re shoahed now good luck /...”

Fascist - (an original by “Mr Bond”)
https://t.me/illawarraActiv88/8 Activ88 Illawarra, [14/05/2022]
[Lyrics] “Rolling through the Reich, slow, Gassing the Kikes, Yo, Lebensraum for Whites, Put Kebabs on Spikes, Fresh up out the Beerhall ... Give a Jew Long-shanks, For an all-White nation, free of hooknose banks, I go roarrrr, like a Stuka Flieger, I’m from Austria, home of the original leader...”
[‘Mr Bond” is Philip Josef Hassler, of Austria – a neo-Nazi rapper, convicted and sentenced to 10 years in prison for inciting violence and glorifying Nazism, in April 2022].

Everybody Wants a Jew-free World - (from Everybody Wants To Rule The World)
https://t.me/NSM88AusNz/1427 National Socialist Movement A/NZ, [19/07/2022]
[Video] Everybody Wants A Jew Free World @DKNATsturm
[Lyrics] “Welcome to the Reich / There’s no Jews or Blacks / Even while we sleep / We despise you / Judging by your past behavior / Deception is in your nature / Everybody wants a Jew free world / Whites are in decline / It’s Jews’ fault of course / Help protect our kind / Help us bake them / Put those demons under pressure / Eradicate Kikes forever / Everybody wants a Jew free world / There’s a room where the gas will find you / More than Zyklon will come falling down / When we’re through humankind won’t mind you / Since Adolf didn’t make it / Those bastards had to fake it / Everybody wants a Jew free world / Usury and circumcision / Will earn you a crucifixion / Everybody wants a Jew free – / They say we’ll never never never never beat them / Jewish lies don’t believe them / Everybody wants a Jew free world / We can realize this endeavor / Eradicate Kikes forever / Everybody wants a Jew free world.”

Gas Chambers In Auschwitz - (from Hey Jude)
Pure Blood Baby Führer@OzPat · Jul 29, 2022.
Sing along 7-29-22 BitChute [ABOUT GAS CHAMBERS IN AUSCHWITZ, (TO TUNE OF HEY JUDE), BY PEOPLE HATERS, JULY 29, 2022] Jim Rizoli
[Lyrics] “Hey Jew, don’t tell me lies / About gas chambers in Auschwitz / Six million scheines are alive / With their circumcised sons, ugly daughters and wives / Hey Jew, the new Reich is here / And this time it is for real / We have to stop your worldwide desecration of man / Youre Satans spawn and not the Chosen / Hey Jew, in your synagogue / Preaching hatred for the Gentile / Remember we know what youre up to, you Jew / Zionism is communism, theres no denial / Hey Jew, you hooked nosed kike / With your dreams of world domination / We will fight until the glorious end / And the end is your extermination/ Hey Jew, please stay away / I don’t need you to cry on my shoulder / Now I know what youre all about / Now that I am just a little bit older / Hey Jew don’t tell me lies / About the gas chambers in Auschwitz / Six million kikes are still alive / With their fucking children and their ugly wives.”

Jews control the media and created Hollywood. They own the banks and control world Governments.

Jews are the vanguards of third world immigration, feminism, White guilt, porn, and degeneracy.

The gas chambers were used to fumigate inmates’ clothes. We used zyklon-b in the USA for the same reason at Japanese internment camps.

Jews created communism which is responsible for over 100 million lives just in the past 100 years.

Jews didn’t write the Old Testament and claimed our White Christian identity as theirs.

Jews are the synagogue of Satan referred to in John 8:44

White European people today are the Children of God, while the Jews are a brood of vipers, the serpent people, that old Dragon, the Devil.

5. CHRISTIAN

Christian authority figures and institutions have a past history over many centuries of promoting antagonism and hatred towards Jews and Judaism. In recent decades most churches have moderated, negated and even reversed these positions; many have sought reconciliation with Jews and promoted respect for Judaism, and are very supportive of the Jewish people and Israel. However, some churches, or some of their religious leaders, maintain hostility towards Jews and Judaism, perpetuate the view that Judaism has been “superseded” by Christianity and is no longer a valid faith; while others have developed their supersessionist beliefs about Jews and Judaism into hostility and active opposition to the existence of a Jewish state.

In general, mainstream Christians in Australia in recent years have not published overt and vile antisemitic expressions, or been involved in antisemitic activities, of the kind that have been expressed by some Christian clerical figures in Europe and the Americas. However, there have been a small number of exceptions.

There were several instances, in the mainstream media, of articles published in Australia which made derogatory commentary about Jews as a group, including the trope that there is an intrinsic Jewish quality of “smugness”, which deprives Jews of the ability to see the divinity of Jesus and that Jews terrorised early Christians (who, incidentally, were all Jews). In addition, one article drew an analogy between euthanasia and “the consignment of ethnic groups to the concentration camps”.

Extremist, ostensibly Christian, discourse also continues to exist on the fringes of society.

In this chapter, examples of antisemitism from an extremist, supposedly “Christian” site, and from mainstream Christian publications are included.

Bible Believers
Bible Believers is a fringe website run by Anthony Grigor-Scott, who is based in regional NSW. The content of the website includes a proliferation of antisemitic conspiracy theories cloaked in his version of Christian theology. Extracts from three Newsletters follow showing typical content on this site.

Bible Believers' Newsletter 1177

- “With the fall of the Roman Empire, Jewish predominance was established and the nations of Europe entered into the Dark Ages. ... History is repeating itself. Presently, whole nations are being enslaved by their money-power. ... The funding Lenin received... Clearly the Bolshevik movement was the expression of a general Jewish movement with certain Jewish Banking-Houses interested in the organization of this movement. ... The actions of the Rothschild's and other Satanic "Jewish" bloodlines during countless wars and revolutions prove their first allegiance is not to "Jews," Hebrews, Scripture, or even to the Talmud, but to Lucifer himself. ...”

Bible Believers' Newsletter 1200
“Putin is not waging War vs. Ukrainians, but against this Special Group”

- “March 3, 2022 — Russia is not waging war on the Ukrainian people, but on a small group of people within the US power that has transformed Ukraine without its knowledge, the Straussians. ... Let us stop for a moment to consider this group, the Straussians, about whom Westerners know little. They are individuals, all Jewish ...”

Bible Believers’ Newsletter 1207

“The Secret Ukrainian Military Programs”

- “May 31 2022 — ...the objective of the war is global depopulation and the economic collapse of Europe to bring the world under dominion to the Jewish banksters.”

- “June 5, 2022 — the Biden Idiot and his neoconservative controllers have turned over to Zelensky, a Jew allied with Nazis, the decision whether there will be Armageddon.”

Catholic Leader: “hid from the Jews”

An article, “The good news that Jesus practised and preached is always powerful”, published in the Catholic Leader, the Catholic newspaper of the Archdiocese of Brisbane, on 15 April 2022, portrayed “the Jews” in general as dangerous and a threat to others, without any context:

- “We know from the Gospels that within just a few days of the death of Jesus, the disciples who hid from the Jews in the upper room and then fled Jerusalem in terror (Mark 14:50), began to experience Jesus as raised from the dead. Their terror turned to renewed faith and courage.”

Catholic Weekly: “smug piety of “the Jews” kept them blind”

An article, “Saving blindness, blessed sight”, published in the Catholic Weekly, the Catholic newspaper of the Archdiocese of Sydney, on 3 April 2022, made several generic claims about Jews as a group, without qualification, including the imputation that Jews in general, by reason of their non-belief in Jesus, personify and exemplify “self-righteousness, moral superiority”, “smug piety”, and are “blind”.

- “They [the Jewish leaders] had also decided that Jesus was a sinner and could not be from God because he did not keep God’s commandments (John 9:16, 24). John is not being antisemitic by his criticism of “the Jews” however, he is being critical of a religious attitude, personified and exemplified in them, that is so secure in its own self-righteousness, moral superiority and theological worldview that it falsely imagines it has no need of God’s saving mercy.”

- “It was the extreme need of the blind man that gave him the humility and openness to reach out to Christ while the smug piety of “the Jews” kept them blind to the Light of what God was doing in history. The theme of the “sinner” getting it right and the “righteous” getting it wrong is one of the major themes of the Gospels.”

(Emphases added).
Catholic Weekly: euthanasia comparison

An editorial article, “Drop dead disgrace”, published in the Catholic Weekly, the Catholic newspaper of the Archdiocese of Sydney, on 25 May 2022, in discussing the debate around NSW legalising voluntary euthanasia, made a comparison between voluntary euthanasia and “the consignment of ethnic groups to the concentration camps”.

- “Premier Dominic Perrottet ... said the journey toward the passage of laws allowing euthanasia had ‘brought people together.’ ... The process of legalising the ending of human life had ‘brought people together’? ... Somehow, Mr Perrottet went on, that the political debate had been far more non-confrontational than might otherwise have occurred was some kind of a positive. ... “I think it’s brought us more together.” Yet we could not, for example, ever contemplate that a debate over slavery in which those in favour of its barbarism won could ever be characterised as “okay” or a “bringing us together.” No-one could call a debate over the consignment of ethnic groups to the concentration camps and which ended in that outcome a ‘unifying’ experience.”

The Australian newspaper, in an article ‘Catholic Weekly condemned for invoking Holocaust in euthanasia debate’, 26 May 2022, reported that “The Catholic Weekly newspaper has denounced Premier Dominic Perrottet over assisted dying laws in NSW and compared voluntary euthanasia to the Holocaust, sparking a rebuke from Jewish community leaders.”

The Executive Council of Australian Jewry Co-CEO Peter Wertheim provided The Australian with the following comment, which was only partially quoted:

“Whilst the Nazis did indeed murder several hundred thousand people with disabilities through their infamous ‘euthanasia program’, there was nothing remotely voluntary about it on the part of the victims or their families. The same is true of the Nazis’ industrial-scale genocide of the Jewish, Roma and Sinti peoples. To make any kind of comparison of these mass atrocities to the recently passed voluntary assisted dying legislation in NSW is fatuous, whether or not one agrees with the legislation or with statements made by members of parliament. Such comparisons also insult the memory of the millions of innocent people who perished at the hands of the Nazis and are callously insensitive to the ongoing trauma of the survivors.”
6. MUSLIM

The Muslim communities within Australia are religiously, ethnically, and politically diverse. There are many excellent and successful interfaith programs and forms of dialogue between Muslims and Jews which seek to break down barriers and create better mutual understanding.

However, there are individuals and groups who self-identify as Muslims and who in the name of Islam have expressed and promoted anti-Jewish views, either from a religious or political perspective, or a confused amalgam of both.

In addition, publications or organisations describing themselves as Muslim have described Israel or its laws or policies as “apartheid”, but have not referred to analogous laws and policies in Muslim-majority countries or western countries in those terms. In this regard, we note that one of the criteria listed in the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism is “Applying double standards by requiring of [Israel] a behaviour not expected or demanded of any other democratic nation”.

This is not to suggest that statements positing the themes referred to in this Chapter necessarily give expression to an authentic or legitimate Islamic belief, or are generally representative of the views of Muslims or Muslim organisations in Australia.

Statements published by two self-described Muslim organisations are reproduced in this section.

Australasian Muslim Times

The Australasian Muslim Times (AMUST) publishes, in hard copy and online, many articles and news items of interest to Australian Muslims. As a rule, AMUST does not publish or encourage antisemitic content. However, articles by various authors do occasionally contain antisemitic content, including those below.

- Dr Aslam Abdullah | 1 Feb, 2022

  “The emerging alliance between the world’s two most dangerous ideologies is a matter of concern for all. India’s current rulers promote the Hindutva ideology that believes in the supremacy of upper-castes while Israel is under the control of Zionism that believes in the divine origin of Israel based on the Biblical assertion that God gave the ownership of the land to His chosen people. Jewish religious belief defined the land where Jewish religious law prevailed and excluded territory where it did not apply. According to the Book of Genesis, God first promised the land to Abraham’s descendants. The followers of replacement theology (or supersessionism) do not accept the Old Testament prophecies. ... These two ideologies are reminiscent of Hitler’s Nazi Germany that brought genocide and holocaust to millions of its non-Aryan citizens. Moreover, both Zionism and Hindutva aim to eliminate Palestinians and non-upper castes.”
In our view, the following example in the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism applies to the above passage:

Drawing comparisons of contemporary Israeli policy to that of the Nazis.

Abdullah asserts that the national self-determination movement of the Jewish people, known as Zionism, is one of the “world’s two most dangerous ideologies.” He then makes false claims about Zionism and about Judaism. Abdullah then compares Zionism to Nazism, i.e. to the Nazi genocide, and accuses Zionism of aiming to eliminate Palestinian Arabs living in Israel and the Territories, whose population has increased more than five-fold since 1948. Abdullah also distorts Hitler’s “genocide and holocaust” by claiming that it was aimed generally at “non-Aryan” (sic) people, when it was in fact principally aimed at eliminating Jews.

- Dr Aslam Abdullah | 20 May, 2022
  “the state of Israel ... What else do you expect from a rogue state that has robbed the people of Palestine of their life, dignity, and property ever since it illegally occupied the land? The inhabitants of the Zionist entity base its claim on Palestine on a mythical, biblical notion that the God of Israel gave the so-called holy ground to his chosen one. When they regard God as their main backer, they can justify everything. The apartheid state has justified every act of brutality as an act of God. ...”

In our view, the following example in the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism applies to the above passage:

Making mendacious, dehumanizing, demonizing, or stereotypical allegations about Jews as such Abdullah’s statement misrepresents Jewish peoplehood and history and the concept of the Chosen people, in a way that traduces Jewish people generally.

- Professor Shahjahan Khan | 30 May, 2022
  “In its National Conference in Adelaide from 16-18 December 2018, the ALP passed a resolution calling that the next Labor government recognise Palestine as a state ... If Australia genuinely believes in ‘two-state’ solutions, why has the Government recognised only one state? Why the Australian Government has been turning blind eyes ... In spite of Zionist media control and undue influence on western political institutions, 138 countries have already recognised the State of Palestine including European countries. Unfortunately, Australia is a laggard. In my recollection, the only time the Australian Government did not blindly side with the USA in all UN resolutions supporting the Israeli apartheid state is when Kevin Rudd and Bob Carr were Foreign Ministers, two ALP champions and great Australians. ... This is where the Australian Government could play an important role to ensure that “Palestinians have a right to self-defend” and deny all occupation and apartheid rules imposed on them by the foreign illegal settlers.”

In our view, the following example in the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism applies to the above passage:

> Making mendacious, dehumanizing, demonizing, or stereotypical allegations about Jews as such or the power of Jews as collective — such as, especially but not exclusively, the myth about a world Jewish conspiracy or of Jews controlling the media, economy, government or other societal institutions.

Khan’s statement, in reference to an ALP resolution, repeats an antisemitic trope, namely the falsehood which asserts Jewish/Zionist control of the media and undue influence on governments.

  “A substantial number of Sikhs seek to create a homeland for their community, Khalistan. ... Christians generally expect the beneficiaries of their social work to convert to their faith while Jews are primarily concerned about Jewish life. ... Christianity failed to distance itself from racism and white supremacy, and Judaism refused to see the humanity of Palestinians regardless of their faiths. Through their organizations like VHP, RSS, and BJP in India, Hindus promoted a worldview built on hatred and violence.”

In our view, the following example in the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism applies to the above passage:

> Making mendacious, dehumanizing, demonizing, or stereotypical allegations about Jews as such Abdullah’s statement, in an article about Indian Sikhs’ desire for a homeland, Khalistan, includes false and derogatory generalisations about Jews and Judaism, as well as Christians and Christianity, Hindus and Hinduism.

Ismail al-Wahwah (Abu Anas) is reportedly the spiritual leader of Hizb ut-Tahrir in Australia. After HT held a street protest in Lakemba, Sydney, on 11 May 2021 where HT speakers publicly called to “Destroy the Jews”, "Oh Allah, give us the necks of the Jews!", and similar calls for violence, Al-Wahwah posted the following on his Facebook page, after this was exposed in the media.

Hizb ut-Tahrir Australia
https://www.facebook.com/hizbaust/

Hizb ut-Tahrir Australia (HT) (Party of Liberation) is the Australian chapter of the global Islamic political movement Hizb ut-Tahrir. HT is an organisation which campaigns for the establishment of a caliphate in Australia and throughout the world. A caliphate is a theocracy in which ultimate power rests with Muslim clerics applying their interpretation of shari’a (Muslim religious law) to all facets of public and private life. HT is banned in many countries, including some with a majority Muslim population.

Hizb ut-Tahrir opposes the existence of the State of Israel on the grounds that it is a Jewish state in what they consider to be exclusively Muslim-owned lands. HT is so vehemently opposed to the existence of the state of Israel that it does not refer to it by its proper name or to the fact that it is a state, instead consistently calling it the “Jewish entity”. HT calls for the destruction of Israel, because it is a sovereign State of the Jewish people where over half of the world’s Jewish population lives, located on what HT considers to be “Islamic lands”.

The following are extracts of content posted by HT on its Facebook page, including opposition to Jews praying at Jewish holy sites (the Al-Aqsa Mosque is located on the Temple Mount, the holiest site in Judaism), claims that Jews desecrate Muslim sites simply by their presence at these sites and hence that the sites need to be purified of Jews, and multiple quoting of Islamic religious texts in support of HT’s call for the killing of Jews. In our view, other statements in the extracts below meet the following example in the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism:

Making mendacious, dehumanizing, demonizing, or stereotypical allegations about Jews as such or the power of Jews as collective — such as, especially but not exclusively, the myth about a world Jewish conspiracy or of Jews controlling the media, economy, government or other societal institutions

This return to Islamic rule is not a fantasy.

The hadith is a beautiful prophecy that proves beyond doubt that our beloved prophet Mohammad saws is a true messenger of Allah - because this 1400 year old prophecy details that the Jews will occupy Palestine, and this is the very reality we are faced with today! Likewise, the rest of the hadith which mentions how the Muslims will fight the Jews in Palestine and be victorious over them is also a divine truth that will definitely happen! The return of the #Khilafah upon the way of the Prophethood will bring about this battle, which will uproot the entity of Jews that has desecrated the pure Palestine, eventually returning it completely to the lands of Islam. Because during this great battle the hadith describes a war or combat between the Muslims and the Zionists, and that the trees and rocks will speak to the faithful Muslim Mujahideen telling them that “there a Jew behind me, so kill him”!

Should it not fear and desist, because it is surrounded by Muslim Lands and their armed forces? No! The Jewish entity has no fear of military response, because it knows that the rulers of Muslims are agents of colonialism ... Give Nussrah for the Khilafah (Caliphate) on the Method of Prophethood, that will annihilate the Jewish occupation. Allah (swt) said,

“And kill them wherever you overcame them, and expel them from where they expelled you” [TMQ Surah Al-Baqarah 2:191].

The following posts on Twitter by “Mujaddidi Naqshbandi” are comments made in response to Twitter posts by Julie Nathan, of ECAJ. Note the use of the terms and concepts “apes and pigs” (a reference to Jews in the Quran), “Dajjalic” (the Islamic anti-Christ figure), “rocks and the trees” (from an Islamic hadith about the extermination of the Jews in the end days). As well, referring to Israelis as “nazi-like” and referring to Jews as “treasonous people who owe their loyalty to a foreign state” are both examples that are covered in the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism.

Israel is officially a Jewish state, so don't cry foul when the synonymous identity of the occupying baby-killer state is mentioned. Besides, no one has any right to tell us what we can or can't ask Allah. Indeed we beseech Allah to destroy the siblings of apes and pigs.
These devil worshippers believe they have the right to violate the human rights of the Palestinians and they are above criticism. WE WILL NOT STOP ADVOCATING FOR JUSTICE IN AL-QUDS AND CALLING OUT THESE DAJJALIC WAR CRIMINALS FOR WHAT THEY ARE.

Notice the language used by the bloody liars. Criticism of the illegitimate state is being a "hater"; and these poor innocent lambs are the ones who "struggle" with the Palestinians. It's the Palestinians who face aggression and war crimes by these nazi-like occupying terrorists.

Will this lying scum teach us who or what is or isn't Muslim and what can and can't be said in the name of Islam? Imagine them squealing like pigs if someone taught them what is and isn't "anti-semitism"! Allah's la'anah strike these hypocrites & their children & parents! Aameen.

We can talk to Allah and ask Him whatever we want. Why are the brothers and sisters of apes and pigs, those who do not believe in Him, irked by our prayers to Allah?

Around the world there are apathetidal and treasonous people who owe their loyalty to a foreign state.

Their lies never cease to amuse us, but it's the rocks and the trees that point out their names that will catch them by surprise.
7. Antisemitism in the ANTI-ISRAEL MOVEMENT

All governments are legitimately the subject of criticism for their policies and actions, including the governments of Israel as much as those of Australia or any other country. However, some ostensible criticisms of Israel cross the line from ordinary political discourse into antisemitic hate speech. Often this is through demonisation, delegitimisation, and double standards used against Israel (as explained in Natan Sharansky's article below). Other discourse, which is dressed up as ordinary political criticism, is framed within older anti-Jewish motifs, most commonly the Blood Libel, deicide claims, and conspiracy theories of Jews as a group supposedly controlling or aiming to control the media, economy, government or other societal institutions.

Thus, contemporary antisemitism, especially in the anti-Israel movement, is often expressed using classical anti-Jewish motifs and themes which have been given a modern cloak. For example, where once it was said that the Jews seek to control the world, now it is said that Israel, conceived as a Jewish collectivity, seeks to control the world; where once it was said that Jews lusted after Christian/gentile blood, now it is said that Israel, conceived as a Jewish collectivity, lusts after Arab/gentile blood; where once it was said that Jews/Judaism were Satanic, now it is said that Israelis/Zionists are Satanic.

It is this nexus which can infuse seemingly ordinary political discourse about Israel or Zionism with an antisemitic subtext, as the negative qualities traditionally attributed by antisemites to the Jewish people collectively are transferred to Israel as the contemporary symbol of Jews as a group. The use of the word “Zionist” can in some contexts be taken as an epithet against Jews collectively. All such discourse is to be assessed according to its objective meaning when considered in context, rather than exclusively on the basis of the professed subjective motives or intentions of those who engage in that discourse.

There are other ways in which antisemitism is sometimes expressed as anti-Zionism. To deny only the Jewish people the right to self-determine their own collective identity, or to assert that the Jewish people have inferior collective rights to other people, is clearly discriminatory and therefore antisemitic. Taking into account the overall context, the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism recognises the following as examples of antisemitism even if expressed as anti-Zionism:

- Accusing the Jews as a people, or Israel as a state, of inventing or exaggerating the Holocaust.
- Accusing Jewish citizens of being more loyal to Israel, or to the alleged priorities of Jews worldwide, than to the interests of their own nations.
- Denying the Jewish people their right to self-determination, e.g., by claiming that the existence of a State of Israel is a racist endeavor.
- Applying double standards by requiring of it a behavior not expected or demanded of any other democratic nation.
- Using the symbols and images associated with classic antisemitism (e.g., claims of Jews killing Jesus or blood libel) to characterize Israel or Israelis.
• Drawing comparisons of contemporary Israeli policy to that of the Nazis.

• Holding Jews collectively responsible for actions of the state of Israel.

As Thomas Friedman of The New York Times accurately put it, "Criticizing Israel is not anti-Semitic, and saying so is vile. But singling out Israel for opprobrium and international sanction -- out of all proportion to any other party in the Middle East -- is antisemitic, and not saying so is dishonest."

I have set out a list of criteria that distinguish antisemitism from legitimate criticism. Here are my criteria:

A CHECKLIST of factors that tend to indicate antisemitism:

1. Employing stereotypes against Israel that have traditionally been directed against "the Jews." For example, portraying Israel as devouring the blood of children or characterizing Israeli leaders with long hook noses or rapacious looks.

2. Comparing Israel to the Nazis or its leaders to Hitler, the German army, or the Gestapo.

3. Characterizing Israel as “the worst,” when it is clear that this is not an accurate comparative assessment.

4. Invoking anti-Jewish religious symbols or caricaturing Jewish religious symbols.

5. Singling out only Israel for sanctions for policies that are widespread among other nations, or demanding that Jews be better or more moral than others because of their history as victims.

6. Discriminating against individuals only because they are Jewish Israelis, without regard to their individual views or actions.

7. Emphasizing and stereotyping certain characteristics among supporters of Israel that have traditionally been used in antisemitic attacks, for example, “pushy” American Jews, Jews “who control the media,” and Jews “who control financial markets.”

8. Blaming all Jews or “the Jews” for Israel’s policies or imperfections.

9. Physically or verbally attacking Jewish institutions, such as synagogues or cemeteries, as a means of protesting against Israel.

10. Stereotyping all Jews as fitting into a particular political configuration (such as “neo-conservatives,” Zionists, or supporters of Sharon).

11. Accusing Jews and only Jews of having dual loyalty.

12. Blaming Israel for the problems of the world and exaggerating the influence of the Jewish state on world affairs.
13. Denying, minimizing, or trivializing the Holocaust as part of a campaign against Israel.

14. Discriminating against only Israel in its qualification for certain positions or statuses, such as on the Security Council, the International Court of Justice, and the International Red Cross.

15. Blaming the Jews or Israel, rather than the antisemites, for antisemitism or for increases in anti-Jewish attitudes.

16. Taking extreme pleasure from Israeli failures, imperfections, or troubles.

17. Falsely claiming that all legitimate criticism of Israeli policies is immediately and widely condemned by Jewish leaders as antisemitic, despite any evidence to support this accusation.

18. Denying that even core antisemitism—racial stereotypes, Nazi comparisons, desecration of synagogues, Holocaust denial—qualifies as anti-Semitic.

19. Seeking to delegitimate Israel precisely as it moves toward peace.

20. Circulating wild charges against Israel and Jews, such as that they were responsible for the September 11 attacks, the anthrax attacks, and the 2005 tsunami.

A CHECKLIST of factors that tend to indicate legitimate criticism of Israel:

1. The criticism is directed at specific policies of Israel, rather than at the very legitimacy of the state.

2. The degree and level of criticism vary with changes in Israel’s policies.

3. The criticism is comparative and contextual.

4. The criticism is political, military, economic, and so forth, rather than ethnic or religious.

5. The criticism is similar to criticism being raised by mainstream Israeli dissidents.

6. The criticism is leveled by people who have a history of leveling comparable criticisms at other nations with comparable or worse records.

7. The criticism is designed to bring about positive changes in Israeli policies.

8. The criticism is part of a more general and comparative criticism of all other nations.

9. The criticism is based on objective facts rather than name calling or polemics.

10. The critic subjects his favorite nation to comparable criticism for comparable faults.

Source: http://www.huffingtonpost.com/alan-dershowitz/when-legit-criticism-cros_b_3524.html
I offer a simple “3-D” test for differentiating legitimate criticism of Israel from antisemitism. This “3-D” test applies the same criteria to the new antisemitism that for centuries identified different manifestations of classical antisemitism.

The first “D” is the test of demonization — as noted in the State Department report. Jews have been demonized for centuries as the embodiment of evil, whether in the theological form of a collective accusation of deicide or in the generalized depiction of Jews as money-grubbing Shylocks. Today we must take note when the Jewish state or its leaders are being demonized, with their actions being blown out of all rational proportion.

For example, the comparisons of Israelis to Nazis and of the Palestinian refugee camps to Auschwitz — comparisons heard frequently throughout Europe and on North American university campuses — are clearly antisemitic. Those who draw such analogies either are deliberately ignorant regarding Nazi Germany or, more commonly, are deliberately depicting modern-day Israel as the embodiment of evil.

The second “D” is the test of double standards. From discriminatory laws many nations enacted against Jews to the tendency to judge their behavior by a different yardstick, this differential treatment of Jews was always a clear sign of antisemitism. Similarly, today we must ask whether criticism of Israel is being applied selectively. In other words, do similar policies pursued by other governments produce similar criticism?

It is antisemitic discrimination, for instance, when Israel is singled out for condemnation by the United Nations for perceived human rights abuses while proven obliterator of human rights on a massive scale — like China, Iran, Cuba, Saudi Arabia, Sudan and Syria, to name just a few — are not even mentioned. Likewise, it is antisemitism when Israel’s Magen David Adom, alone among the world’s ambulance services, is denied admission to the International Red Cross.

The third “D” is the test of delegitimization. Traditionally, antisemites denied the legitimacy of the Jewish religion, the Jewish people, or both. Today, they attempt to deny the legitimacy of the Jewish state, presenting it as, among other things, the prime remnant of imperialist colonialism.

While criticism of an Israeli policy may not be antisemitic, the denial of Israel’s right to exist is always antisemitic. If other peoples, including 21 Arab Muslim States — and particularly the many states created in the postcolonial period following World War II — have the right to live securely in their homelands, then the Jewish people has that right as well, particularly given the sanction of the United Nations in setting up and recognizing the country at its founding. Questioning that legitimacy is pure antisemitism.

Insights into Antisemitism and Anti-Zionism

Amanda Berman, founder and executive director of Zioness, 15 March 2022:
“Without Israel, without sovereignty, Jews would be plunged back into a state of total systemic powerlessness, our self-determination and our communal security ripped away.”

Ben Cohen, journalist, 10 July 2022:
“... the main victims of anti-Zionist activism, particularly the BDS campaign seeking to quarantine Israel from the international community, have not been Israeli companies, but Jews living in Diaspora communities. Especially in campus settings, calls to boycott Israel have frequently involved harassment of individual Jews who, while they might well sympathize with the Jewish state, are not its citizens. ... the slogan “Free Palestine” became inseparable from the physical attacks on Jews, anti-Semitic chants ... the boundary between anti-Zionist rhetoric and hate speech is blurred indeed, while the causal relationship between such rhetoric and anti-Semitic violence has, sadly, become firmly established.”

Bren Carlill, director of public affairs, Zionist Federation of Australia, 13 Jan. 2022:
“What seems obvious is that these [BDS] boycotters are only interested in Palestinian rights when Jews are involved. There’s a word for that.”

Colin Rubenstein, executive director, Australia/Israel & Jewish Affairs Council, 7 Jan. 2022:
“BDS is an insidious movement whose tactics, strategies and aims, as stated by its leaders, make it clear that they don’t want a Palestinian state alongside Israel, but to replace Israel. It is in this sense that the BDS movement is inherently antisemitic, not motivated by desires of peace or reconciliation but by intense animosity and an obsessive desire to deprive Jews of the right to self-determination afforded to other peoples.”

David Collier, journalist, Aug 27, 2022:
“Zionism is a part of Jewish identity. The vast majority of Jews are Zionists - even those who are critical of some Israeli policies. Being a Zionist simply means that you believe in Israel's right to exist. When 'zionism' is deplatformed - the Jews are deplatformed.”

David Hirsh, Senior Lecturer in Sociology at University of London, 12 Jan. 2022:
“...people who are hostile to Zionism have given the word "Zionism" a meaning that reflects their own hostility. ... Antizionism is essentialist. It understands every material reality in Israel as though it was caused by Israel’s putative inner essence. ... But in our day the word “Zionism” itself often functions as an antisemitic curse word, which hurts and discredits Jews. ... The word “Zionism” in antizionist usage conveys a familiar mixture of contempt and fear, as have previous words that have been used against Jews. ... The word “Zionism,” which still resonates for many people as an expression of hope for Jewish survival and liberation, has also become a weapon in the antisemitic arsenal. ... The “Zionism,” against which the antizionists build their worldview, is constructed out of their own imaginations; and it also draws upon older antisemitic elements and tropes. That Zionism, meaning racism, meaning apartheid, symbolizing everything bad in the world, is invented by antizionists and is only tangentially related to the actual histories and realities of Zionism, or to the ways in which actual Jews relate to Israel. ... The antizionist definition of Zionism as racism is hostile and it is thrust upon Jews without their consent or their collaboration. ... It defines Zionism as racism and as support for apartheid. In so doing it defines most Jews as alien to any decent community of human beings. ... Antizionism goes on to define a whole worldview on that hostile and largely fictional foundation. ...

Antisemitism always positioned its own notion of “the Jews” at the center of everything bad in the world. Antizionism’s propensity to universalize its Zionism, or its picture of Israel, as the “other” of good things, is not so different. ... This characterisation of Zionism creates and legitimizes ways of thinking that cast Jews as evil, even if there are notional exemptions for exceptional Jews. Those ways of thinking are antisemitic. ... Antisemitism treats “the Jews” as an idea rather than as a collectivity of actual human beings. ... the antizionism that constructs “Zionism” to be evil in its essence: this antizionism is, in our day, an ideology that demonizes Jews. ...

Einat Wilf, former Israeli MP, · May 1, 2022.
“The BDS movement, by its own definition, is anti-Zionist. It denies the Jewish people their equal and universal right to self-determination in any borders whatsoever. The tool to negate Jewish self determination is its demand for "return"…”

Emily Shrader, the CEO of Social Lite Creative LLC, 17 Jan. 2022:
“While the [Boycott, Divest and Sanction (BDS)] movement self-identifies as a progressive human rights cause which is non-violent, in fact, its goals, as stated by co-founder Omar Barghouti, are to destroy the State of Israel. ... The blatant lies of Barghouti and BDS are just another attempt at gaslighting Jews and all minorities in the Middle East who have suffered under Arab colonialism for hundreds of years. There’s nothing progressive about erasing indigenous identity and any person of conscience, progressive or not, should not fall for the deceit of BDS.”

Eve Barlow, journalist, · Nov 17, 2021.
“The only thing the BDS movement has been successful at is making the West less safe for Jewish civilians. That is it. It hasn't made any positive impact upon peace in the Middle East because it was not born with that intention.”

Jamie Hyams, Senior Policy Analyst, Australia/Israel & Jewish Affairs Council, 13 Jan. 2022:
“the true aim of the BDS movement, as shown by many statements from its leaders, is not the end of Israel’s occupation; it’s the end of Israel. ... The movement, therefore, denies for Jews the right to a state in the Jewish homeland, where Jews are indigenous and have lived for thousands of years, while demanding that right for others. This is one reason it has been widely described as antisemitic.”

Jonathan A. Greenblatt, CEO, Anti-Defamation League, 12 June 2022:
“Zionism is a belief that the Jewish people have the right to self-determination and statehood in their ancestral homeland. The yearning to return to Zion (the biblical term for the land of Israel) has been central to Judaism and Jewish identity for thousands of years. Anti-Zionism, in its current form, is not just the intellectual opposition to this idea. It is a belief system predicated on the negation of Jewish nationhood and the Jewish right to self-determination. These anti-Zionist groups deny the historic and spiritual connection that Jews have to the land of Israel and seek to de-legitimize and extinguish the existence of the world’s only Jewish state. ... activists may be calling out “Zionists,” but this is just how they whitewash their attacks on Jews.”
Juliet Moses, spokesperson NZ Jewish Council, Jan 19, 2022:
“Next time you hear that BDS is about peace and human rights, remember its leader’s own words. It is about dismantling Jewish self-determination and the one state in the ME where Jews can live free and protected and replacing it with another Arab state that Jews will have to flee.”

Mark Regev, former spokesperson for Israel, 25 Nov. 2021:
“First, on the substantive level, anti-Zionist activists deny Jewish peoplehood and reject the Jews’ right to national self-determination. This while championing the very same right for others, the Palestinians. When you uphold a universal principle, but oppose it for the Jews, what is that called?”

Noa Tishby, Israel's Special Envoy for Combatting Antisemitism, Jun 9, 2022:
“On Friday, the Mapping Project and @BDSBoston published a map of local Jewish synagogues, schools, and individuals, blaming them for the world's evils. This type of scapegoating and use of antisemitic conspiracy theories has led to violence against Jews for millennia.”

Oren Jacobson, co-founder of Project Shema, in the US, 26 Oct. 2021:
“That’s why when people attack Zionists, we hear “Jews.” We hear them saying that the 80-90% of Jews who believe Israel has a right to exist are unacceptable, and that Israel, a country that came into existence with the vote of the international community and today is home to 7 million Jews, must be ended. Why is that antisemitism?

First, it singles out Jews when most people believe Israel has the right to exist. ... Second, it seeks to deny Jewish people the right to self-determination by erasing our peoplehood and connection to the land. Third, it declares that a national movement for Jews is uniquely unacceptable, while at the same time advocating in support of another national movement. Fourth, it divides Jews into good and bad. Only those who oppose their own national movement can stay. Only Jews who reject Zionism are allowed. Replace “Jew” with any other group and ask if that would be acceptable. ... It says that Jews must be a perpetual minority on this earth subject to the whims and bigotries of the societies they live in.”

Philip Mendes, professor, Department of Social Work at Monash University, 3 May 2022:
“In contrast, the BDS movement demands the end of Israel’s existence as a Jewish state, and its replacement by an ethnocentric Arab State of Greater Palestine in which Jews at best would be allowed to remain as a tolerated religious minority. The global guru of the BDS movement, Omar Barghouti, has consistently emphasised that they demand ‘a Palestine next to a Palestine, rather than a Palestine next to Israel’.

Ritchie Torres, US Congressman, Jul 12, 2022:
“BDS is not merely a “protest.” It takes the sinister position that Israel should no longer exist as a Jewish state. It’s an eliminationist movement at its core, one that should itself be protested by any public official professing a concern for peace.”

Yoseph Haddad, Israeli-Arab, 3 Nov. 2021:
“The people in the BDS movement who refer to Israel as an apartheid state – either they know they’re lying, or they are simply ignorant, and are taking the definition of apartheid and completely changing it.”
An example of Antisemitism cloaked as Anti-Zionism
An example of the use of the term ‘Zionist’ as a cloak to refer to Jews in an antisemitic way:

- Khamenei.ir@khamenei_ir · Jun 8, 2022.
  “Today, #Zionism is an obvious plague for the world of #Islam. The Zionists have always been a plague, even before establishing the fraudulent Zionist regime. Even then, Zionist capitalists were a plague for the whole world. Now they’re a plague especially for the world of Islam.”

As stated by Yair Rosenberg@Yair_Rosenberg · Jun 9, 2022.
“I will translate this extremely lazy antisemitism from Iran's Supreme Leader for you: "The Jews have always been a plague, even before establishing the fraudulent Jewish regime. Even then, Jewish capitalists were a plague for the whole world." He thinks you're dumb. Don't be.”

An example of BDS targeting the Jewish Community: BDS Boston Mapping Project

“An antisemitic "Mapping Project" accuses every Jewish entity in Massachusetts of causing harm to society and has posted their names and addresses alongside calls for them to be "dismantled." …”

Jeff Jacoby, columnist at Boston Globe, 14 June 2022:
“...The Mapping Project was unveiled last week by far-left extremists associated with BDS Boston. ... It consists of an interactive map of Massachusetts on which are linked nearly 500 public and private entities of every description. Its creators call it “an organizing tool” for “fighting back against Zionism, US imperialism, and other interlocking systems of oppression.” They claim that the organizations it highlights represent the “local institutional support for the colonization of Palestine.” In the age-old manner of antisemitic conspiracy-mongers, The Mapping Project purports to show that a sinister web ties the Bay State’s Jewish schools, synagogues, cultural groups, and charities to the politicians, media, police, and local governments they supposedly influence. ...

“Our goal in pursuing this collective mapping was to reveal the local entities and networks that enact devastation, so we can dismantle them,” the project’s home page declares. Ponder that for a moment: so we can dismantle them. To facilitate that “dismantling,” it provides the street address of every organization it lists, and in many cases the names of key staff members. Who and what does The Mapping Project hope to dismantle? For starters, every organization with the word “Jewish” in its name ...

In the world according to The Mapping Project, all these entities share in the collective guilt imparted by their Jewishness. ... “plan ways to disrupt these systems and one day dismantle them altogether.” ... They are placing a target on American Jews — declaring that anything and everything associated with Jewish life in this country is fair game for false accusations of crimes against minorities, delegitimization, and, at the very least, hounding out of the public square and, perhaps, ultimately violence. ...

Survey Finding: Double Standards
New Zealand Jewish Council ‘Survey of Antisemitism in New Zealand 2021’, published in March 2022, included a question to determine the level of double standards against Israel.

Countries’ right to exist. We asked people “The State of Israel has every right to exist as a majority Jewish state” (Section 4.5.3.1), and by way of comparison “The State of Pakistan has every right to exist as a majority Muslim state”.

Israel and Pakistan were founded within months of each other in 1947/8 and each were formed on the basis of being a home for a particular ethno-religious group. It is important to highlight that Jews are an ethnic and religious group who have also been an indigenous national group in history; whereas Muslims are only a religious group. ... Israel’s right to exist is regularly challenged, while the same cannot be said for Pakistan.

- No Green Party voters are against the right of Pakistan to be a majority Muslim state, but 10% reject the right of Israel to exist as a Jewish majority state; and
- People with a postgraduate degree are more than 6.6 times as likely as someone with no formal education to be against Israel’s existence as a Jewish nation and not against Pakistan’s existence as a Muslim nation.

Boycott, Divestment, Sanctions (BDS) campaign
A small number of Australian groups and their supporters, some of whom are referred to in this chapter, support and promote the BDS campaign against Israel. Some supporters openly call for the elimination of Israel as a Jewish state; while others are less open about the final outcome they envisage. Many BDS supporters deny that BDS is antisemitic, claiming to be ‘only’ anti-Zionist and/or anti-Israel. This claim does not stand up to scrutiny. BDS aims at eliminating the State of Israel and replacing it with another Arab state. Links to a comprehensive analysis of BDS, and three relevant articles appear below.

- Understanding BDS - https://blogs.timesofisrael.com/understanding-bds/

Antisemitism in Anti-Israel Groups
Across Australia, there are several groups which express support for the Palestinian cause. Of itself this is unexceptional. However, much of this support is expressed as trenchantly negative polemical commentary not merely about Israeli government policies and actions, but about Israel’s very existence, and right to exist, as an expression of the Jewish people’s right to national self-determination. The members of these groups are sometimes an uneasy alliance of people of mainly Western background from secular far-Left groups such as Socialist Alternative and Socialist Alliance, and those of Arab and/or Muslim background with purportedly religious and conservative views, as well as some coming from a purportedly Christian perspective. Some groups have websites, most have social media pages, particularly Facebook and Twitter. Some universities have a Students for Palestine group, with varying levels of activism. There are also other individuals with social media pages which are dedicated to opposition to Israel.

 Among the following posts and comments on sites that are ostensibly critical of Israel are generalised accusations that Jews/Zionists/Israelis are affected by bloodlust, target children, control governments and the media, have inordinate power and influence, are intrinsically evil and satanic, behave the same as or worse than the Nazis, are ‘Christ-killers’, poison water, harvest body organs, present a mortal threat to the whole of humanity and cause antisemitism. The posts and comments express other canards which have been classically applied to Jews collectively but are now applied to Israeli Jews and to diaspora Jews merely for supporting the right of Israel to exist.

 Some of the main themes and generic claims made in anti-Israel discourse include:

 - Inordinate power of the “Jewish lobby” or “Zionist lobby” or “Israel lobby” to influence, bribe, cajole, and intimidate politicians and governments to support Israel
 - Jewish or “Zionist” control of the media, thus ensuring only the Israeli narrative is heard
 - Jews are “colonialists” and therefore have no claim to any of the territory of Israel
 - Israel is a Nazi state, and Israel is committing genocide against Palestinian Arabs
 - Holocaust denial, and Jews learnt nothing from their suffering during the Holocaust
 - Jews collectively, both Israeli and in the diaspora, are evil
 - Israel, conceived as a Jewish collectivity, must be destroyed, for the sake of humanity and for world peace.

IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism – opposition to

The IHRA definition is widely accepted within the UN, and by governments and other bodies, and Jewish communities throughout the world, as a non-legally binding standard and educational tool to combat antisemitism. Although it is not antisemitic per se to oppose or criticise the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism, such opposition is often expressed in a way that downplays the extent and severity of antisemitism, or suggests that the concerns of the Jewish community about antisemitism should be dismissed or minimised, or implies that Jewish organisations which support the IHRA Working Definition are necessarily acting in a duplicitous manner and with malicious intent. Examples are provided in this Chapter.
Amnesty International Australia

Amnesty International Australia (AIA), on its website, claims that “We’re an independent, global movement of people who campaign courageously for human rights.” Despite this claim, and despite originally being an organisation that specialised in seeking freedom for political prisoners, Amnesty International Australia has taken partisan positions in national disputes, promotes anti-Israel themes, and tolerates antisemitic comments posted on its social media pages.

On 1 February 2022, Amnesty International (AI) released its 280-page report “Israel’s Apartheid Against Palestinians”, sub-titled “Cruel System of Domination and Crime Against Humanity”. Two responses to the report are below.

NGO-Monitor reviewed the AI report and stated:
- “Statements by Amnesty officials and the report’s recommendations highlight that Amnesty’s objective is the end of Israel as a Jewish state. ... the Amnesty publication is fundamentally flawed, using lies, distortions, omissions, and egregious double standards to construct a fraudulent and libelous narrative of Israeli cruelty. A careful examination of the text shows that Amnesty conducted almost no primary research. ... Amnesty also liberally uses the term “Jewish domination” to refer to Israel’s policies ... a concept... that directly evokes antisemitic tropes of Jews seeking to wield power over others. When these accusations are made by relying on hundreds of deliberate factual errors and misrepresentations, mixed in with gross application of double standards, it is akin to historical libels of the Jewish people.”
  [https://www.ngo-monitor.org/reports/amnesty-internationals-cruel-assault-on-israel/]

Alfred Ngaro, New Zealand MP 2011-2022, of Pacific Islander descent, co-director of the Indigenous Coalition for Israel, condemned the Amnesty International report:
- “Jews have more than three thousand years of continuous connection to the land of Israel. If, as the AI [Amnesty International] demands, self-determination and indigeneity must be denied to Jews, one of the world’s most ancient indigenous peoples, what rights remain for other indigenous peoples?”

The following are some posts by Amnesty International Australia which, although not antisemitic of themselves, elicited anti-Jewish comments from others and remained unmoderated on its social media pages. In each case, for the sake of completeness and to provide necessary context, we have reproduced both the AIA post and the comments it elicited.

AIA posted on its Facebook page over a dozen posts on the AI report on Israel throughout February to May 2022, and many of the antisemitic comments are in response to the AI report. In our view, those comments fall within one or more of the following examples listed in the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism, including:

- Drawing comparisons of contemporary Israeli policy to that of the Nazis.
- Holding Jews collectively responsible for actions of the state of Israel.
- Accusing Jews as a people of being responsible for real or imagined wrongdoing committed by a single Jewish person or group, or even for acts committed by non-Jews.
Making mendacious, dehumanizing, demonizing, or stereotypical allegations about Jews as such or the power of Jews as collective — such as, especially but not exclusively, the myth about a world Jewish conspiracy or of Jews controlling the media, economy, government or other societal institutions.

AFOPA - Australian Friends of Palestine Association
The Australian Friends of Palestine Association (AFOPA) is an anti-Israel organisation based in South Australia. AFOPA was established in 2004. During 2022, AFOPA actively campaigned against adoption of the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism and unsuccessfully lobbied members of the South Australian state Parliament not to vote in favour of endorsing IHRA, falsely claiming that it outlaws criticism of Israel, and that it is designed to silence criticism of Israel.

Although it was not antisemitic per se to oppose or criticise the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism, AFOPA’s opposition was at times expressed in a way that downplayed the extent and severity of contemporary antisemitism, or suggested that the concerns of the Jewish community about antisemitism should be dismissed or minimised.

• AFOPA STATEMENT ON ANTI-SEMITISM – 2 May 2022
http://www.afopa.com.au/blog/2022/5/2/afopa-statement-on-anti-semitism
“AFOPA ... Regarding the definition of anti-Semitism, we do not endorse the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) definition of anti-Semitism as its effect will be to silence valid criticism of Israel and its supporters. We see its adoption by governments and other organisations as an attack on the right to free speech for all Australians. We note that Jewish community leaders continue to push for the IHRA definition of anti-Semitism, ostensibly to fight racism, while invariably defending Israel which practices racism. We believe existing laws protect Jews and others from violence, incitement to violence, vandalism and discrimination. ...
“We do not observe a global crisis of anti-Semitism but rather an increasing crisis of legitimacy for Israel as its policies and apartheid nature become more apparent. We see campaigns to ban pro-Palestinian politics in France, to criminalise Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) activities in Britain and even to have anti-Zionism classified as terrorism in the United States. All of these measures deny citizens in those countries the right to criticise Israel, like any other state ... We believe free speech is absolutely fundamental to a free society and that the best remedy for those offended by the statements of others is to publicly debate them.” [emphasis added]

APAN - Australia Palestine Advocacy Network

https://www.facebook.com/AustraliaPalestineAdvocacyNetwork

The Australia Palestine Advocacy Network (APAN) was formed in 2011 ostensibly as a pro-Palestinian lobby group. APAN describes itself as: “involved in a range of activities and campaigns that seek to influence Australia’s public policy in regard to Palestine and Israel.” APAN regularly undertakes “lobbying trips to Canberra” and organises “study tours to Palestine.” In 2015, APAN finally declared its support as an organisation for BDS, having previously prevaricated on that issue. Since then, there has been an increasing tolerance of anti-Jewish posted comments on the APAN Facebook page, even if the posts by APAN itself were not antisemitic.

A selection of these follow. In each case, for the sake of completeness and to provide necessary context, we have reproduced both the APAN post and the comments it elicited. In our view, those comments fall within one or more of the following examples listed in the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism, including:

- Drawing comparisons of contemporary Israeli policy to that of the Nazis.
- Holding Jews collectively responsible for actions of the state of Israel.
- Accusing Jews as a people of being responsible for real or imagined wrongdoing committed by a single Jewish person or group, or even for acts committed by non-Jews.
- Making mendacious, dehumanizing, demonizing, or stereotypical allegations about Jews as such or the power of Jews as collective — such as, especially but not exclusively, the myth about a world Jewish conspiracy or of Jews controlling the media, economy, government or other societal institutions
- Accusing Jewish citizens of being more loyal to Israel, or to the alleged priorities of Jews worldwide, than to the interests of their own nations.

In addition, over the 12 months of this Report, APAN actively opposed adoption by Australia and Australian institutions of the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism. APAN falsely claimed that adoption of IHRA will “stifle legitimate criticism of Israel. ... the definition is used to police speech.” (‘Why the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism is causing controversy’ https://apan.org.au/factsheet-ihra/). In fact, the IHRA Working Definition states expressly that “criticism of Israel similar to that leveled against any other country cannot be regarded as antisemitic”. Although it is not antisemitic per se to oppose or criticise the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism, APAN at times expressed its opposition in a way that ignored the extent and severity of contemporary antisemitism and suggested that Jewish organisations which support the IHRA Working Definition are necessarily acting in a duplicitous manner and with malicious intent:

- Victorian Government wrong to adopt IHRA definition of antisemitism

May 12, 2022. The Australia Palestine Advocacy Network is outraged at the Victorian Government’s move to endorse the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance definition of antisemitism. We completely reject the definition and the appended working examples, as they do little to address antisemitism, and only serve to suppress and punish legitimate criticism of Israel and its ongoing human rights abuses. The criticism of Israeli apartheid-like policies and actions is not antisemitic ...

“There is no justification for the Victorian Government rushing through this IHRA endorsement,” APAN President, Bishop George Browning said. “The definition has been pushed by particular lobby groups, who use it as a political tool to censor and punish people raising genuine concerns about Israel’s ongoing human rights abuses.” APAN Vice President, Nasser Mashni, says “The Government adopting this definition this week, which deliberately seeks to stop human rights advocacy, is disturbing. ...”

ARTICLES
Articles by several people on a various websites were published which invoked anti-Jewish stereotypes about supposed Jewish power and control, often in terms of “the Lobby”, as well as opposition to the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism, and fabrications and false claims about Israel. Some were on mainstream media sites, most were on websites run by individuals or groups. The articles are in chronological order.

Israel lobby’s overreach far exceeded any other diaspora community
Bob Carr, Oct 9, 2021
“The former editor of The Sydney Morning Herald John Lyons has done democracy a service by publishing a small book exposing the most concerted and best funded foreign influence operation in Australia: the Israel lobby and in particular its dogged attempts to shape media coverage of the Israel-Palestine conflict.”

In our view, the following example in the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism applies to the above passage:
“Accusing Jewish citizens of being more loyal to Israel, or to the alleged priorities of Jews worldwide, than to the interests of their own nations.”

“... But no inconsistency is perceived between such criticism of a specific violent incident, and the violence intrinsic to Zionism itself. ... Israel’s treatment of Palestinians amounts to the internationally recognised crime of apartheid. Again, this is integral to Zionism, not incidental. ... The pushback from Israel and its lobby groups around the world has seen no attempt to refute such findings. Rather, the tactic is to block discussion by equating such thoroughgoing criticisms with anti-semitism. Central to this tactic is the definition of anti-semitism circulated by the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) ...

“Crucially, the IHRA definition blurs the distinction between anti-Jewish racism and criticism of Israel. In accompanying examples, it is claimed to be anti-semitic to label the Jewish state as a “racist endeavour” even though, as recorded by Amnesty, the secondary status of non-Jews was built into it from the outset. Declaring Israel a “settler-colonial state” also falls foul of this clause. ... Another IHRA example of anti-semitism is defined as denying “the Jewish right to self-determination” ... Secondly, the phrase, “Jewish right to self-determination” is a non-sequitur. ... There is no Jewish right to self-determination for the same reason that there is no Buddhist, Hindu, Islamic or Christian right. ...”

In our view, the following examples in the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism applies to the above passage:

the targeting of the state of Israel, conceived as a Jewish collectivity.
UN Independent International Commission of Inquiry on the Occupied Palestinian Territory, East Jerusalem & Israel
By John Brennan, Jun 26, 2022
“... Historical Aspects of the Zionist Agenda. ... Since the successful Zionist creation of the Jewish Israeli State, afforded by the UN in 1948, the Jews, believing that God had given them the status as his chosen people, therefore reasoned that Palestine was exclusively theirs.”

In our view, the following examples in the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism apply to the above passage:

Denying the Jewish people their right to self-determination, e.g., by claiming that the existence of a State of Israel is a racist endeavor.

Making mendacious, dehumanizing, demonizing, or stereotypical allegations about Jews as such or the power of Jews as collective — such as, especially but not exclusively, the myth about a world Jewish conspiracy or of Jews controlling the media, economy, government or other societal institutions.
8. RESPONSES to ANTISEMITISM

“Fighting antisemitism is a responsibility for the society at large and must not be left to the Jewish community. Antisemitism needs to be fought on all levels and by all possible actors.”
- Katharina von Schnurbein, EU Coordinator on Combating Antisemitism (10 Feb. 2016)

Introduction

Major counters to antisemitism are public condemnations of it by those in positions of leadership within society, including politicians, academics, clergy, editors and journalists, businesspeople, trade unionists, and other community leaders.

In addition, government policies and legislation which discourage or restrict antisemitism and other forms of racism, and protect Jews and other targeted groups, play a major role in countering antisemitism. In addition to providing individuals and groups who are the targets of racism with the legal means to defend themselves, legislation plays an educative role by setting a community standard that conveys a strong message that public manifestations of racism are unacceptable.

This section includes a summary of public counters to antisemitism that continued to operate and achieve prominence in Australia during the year in review, including legal and quasi-legal measures, government responses, political leadership, educational responses, and expressions of solidarity by ethnic communities.

“...to ensure that effective laws are in place to counter hate-motivated attacks against any group and to deal with anyone who advocates violence.”
Julie Nathan, ECAJ Research Director, 20 April 2022

LEGAL and Quasi-LEGAL MEASURES

- Anti-vilification Laws: Commonwealth and state, civil and criminal
The following table is composed of racial vilification laws, although some of these laws also prohibit vilification that is based on attributes other than race. Most states have both civil and criminal vilification laws, while two states have only one form. Of note, under Australian law, Jews are categorised as a ‘race’ due to Jews having “a common ethnic origin”, as Jewish identity encompasses both national and religious aspects.

HUMAN RIGHTS and ANTI-RACISM BODIES

There are Federal and State bodies that deal with anti-racism and human rights in each state. Federally and in NSW and Victoria, the two most populous states, these include:

- Australian Human Rights Commission (AHRC)

- NSW Anti-Discrimination Board

- Multicultural NSW

- Victorian Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commission

- Victorian Multicultural Commission

GOVERNMENTAL RESPONSES

- Victorian Parliament: Inquiry into Extremism in Victoria
  The Legal and Social Issues Committee of the Victorian Legislative Assembly held an Inquiry into Extremism in Victoria. This opened on 7 February 2022 and closed on 30 August 2022. The Terms of Reference focused only on “the rise of the far-right extremist movements in Victoria”. It did not include other forms of extremism.

  The Jewish Community Council of Victoria (JCCV), Australia/Israel & Jewish Affairs Council (AIJAC) and Online Hate Prevention Institute (OHPI) lodged submissions to the Inquiry. On 14 and 15 June 2022, people from three Jewish organisations – ECAJ (Julie Nathan), JCCV (Naomi Levin, Daniel Aghion), AIJAC (Dr Colin Rubenstein, Jeremy Jones) – and from OHPI (Dr Andre Oboler, Dr Nasya Bahfen) addressed the Inquiry hearings.

- Queensland Parliament: Inquiry into serious vilification and hate crimes
  The Legal Affairs and Safety Committee of the Queensland Parliament, in 2021, held an ‘Inquiry into serious vilification and hate crimes.’ The Committee’s report to the Legislative Assembly (ie Parliament) was tabled on 31 January 2022, and is available at:

  The Queensland government’s response to the report was to accept all 17 Recommendations, and is available at:

- South Australian Parliament: Inquiry into Neo-Nazi Symbols
  “The Malinauskas Labor Government will move to establish a Parliamentary committee inquiry into the use of Neo-Nazi symbols. This inquiry comes after the National Socialist Network was photographed giving a fascist salute in front of the Adelaide Holocaust Museum, and other recent vandalism involving antisemitic stickers. Issues to be looked at include: The symbols used to identify and promote Neo-Nazi groups, and options to prohibit their display; The activities of Neo-Nazi and other ideologically-motivated extremist groups in South Australia; Discrimination faced by Jewish South Australians and other targeted groups within the community; Prohibitions on such symbols in other jurisdictions.”

- Victorian Government: ban of Nazi swastika
  Victorian Premier Daniel Andrews stated on 21 June 2022: “Victoria has become the first Australian state or territory to ban the public display of the Nazi symbol in recognition of its role in inciting antisemitism and hate. The Summary Offences Amendment (Nazi Symbol Prohibition) Bill 2022 was passed today which makes it a criminal offence for a person to intentionally display the Nazi symbol (the Hakenkreuz, often referred to as the Nazi swastika) in public. Anyone who intentionally displays the Nazi symbol in public will face penalties of up to almost $22,000, 12 months imprisonment or both. This landmark passing sends a clear message that the dissemination of Nazi and Neo-nazi ideology through the public display of the Nazi symbol has no place in Victoria...” The law comes into effect in December 2022.
It is to be noted that the legislation only refers to the Nazi swastika, and not to other Nazi symbols. Under ‘Definitions’ in the legislation:

- “Nazi symbol means— (a) a Hakenkreuz, being a symbol of a cross with the arms bent at right angles in a clockwise direction; or (b) a symbol that so nearly resembles the symbol referred to in paragraph (a) that it is likely to be confused with or mistaken for that symbol; Example A cross with the arms bent at right angles in a counter clockwise direction.”

Jaclyn Symes, Victorian state Attorney-General, 11 May 2022:
“Victoria will become the first Australian state or territory to ban the public display of the Nazi symbol in recognition of its role in inciting antisemitism and hate.”

Ros Spence, Victorian Minister for Multicultural Affairs, 21 June 2022:
“These laws are part of our unwavering commitment to challenge antisemitism, hatred and racism wherever and whenever they occur.”

NSW Government: ban of Nazi symbols
The NSW parliament passed the following law on 11 August 2022.

“Crimes Act 1900 - SECT 93ZA Offence of displaying Nazi symbols
(1) A person who knowingly displays, by public act and without reasonable excuse, a Nazi symbol commits an offence. Maximum penalty— (a) for an individual—100 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months, or both, or (b) for a corporation—500 penalty units.
(2) For subsection (1), the display of a swastika in connection with Buddhism, Hinduism or Jainism does not constitute the display of a Nazi symbol.
(3) Also, without limiting subsection (1), a reasonable excuse includes the display of a Nazi symbol done reasonably and in good faith— (a) for an academic, artistic or educational purpose, or (b) for another purpose in the public interest.
(4) In this section— public act has the same meaning as in section 93Z.”

Annastacia Palaszczuk MP [Premier of Queensland] · May 26, 2022
“BREAKING: Queensland will ban the public display of hate symbols. We do not do this lightly or without good reason. Late last year, police seized a Nazi flag flown near a Brisbane synagogue. Only a few months earlier, a train carriage in the suburbs was graffitied with Nazi slogans. Today I’m announcing our intention to introduce legislation to parliament that will make it a criminal offence to display symbols promoting hatred and causing fear. These crimes are not harmless. Nor are their ideologies. They are to be called out, confronted and condemned.”

- Tasmanian Government: intention to ban Nazi symbols
  On 5 June 2022, Elise Archer, Tasmanian Attorney-General, announced that the “Tasmanian Liberal Government will introduce legislation to criminalise the display of Nazi symbols, including the swastika, when used for hate and fear.”

- Adoption of IHRA working definition of Antisemitism
  The International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) Working Definition of Antisemitism has been adopted in Australia by the following federal, state, and local government bodies: Australian federal government (Oct. 2021) with bipartisan support; NSW state government (Dec. 2021); NSW state parliament’s Legislative Council (March 2022); Victorian state government and parliament (May 2022); South Australian state parliament’s Legislative Council (July 2022); Waverley Council, in Sydney (Nov. 2021); Glen Eira City Council, in Melbourne (April 2022).

POLITICAL LEADERSHIP
  Australia held a federal election on 22 May 2022, resulting in a change of government, and some MPs losing their parliamentary positions and/or seats. Some of the following statements are in response to state parliamentary debates on banning Nazi symbols and many on adopting the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism. All statements were made during the year in review.

  - Scott Morrison, Prime Minister (until 22 May 2022), Liberal, 27 Jan. 2022:
    “The virus of anti-Semitism still lives in our world. We know its symptoms … the de-platforming, the cancelling and silencing of the Jewish people. ... The boycotting of Jewish businesses and Jewish artists hidden under the guise of geopolitical lobbying. The threats to Jewish leaders. The attacks on Jewish places of worship. The blaming of Jewish people for every ill in the world. And the willingness of humanity to see differences in others as threats and not shared expressions of the kaleidoscope of our humanity.”

  - Scott Morrison, Prime Minister (until 22 May 2022), Liberal, 24 Feb. 2022:
    “This is why the [Safer Communities Fund] program exists. My most enduring memory of these issues was as a young boy driving past Temple Emanuel and I asked Dad, why are all these people standing outside? And he explained it to me. That has always stuck with me, and it’s a great shame that we need this in this country. It’s a great shame that Josh Frydenberg as Treasurer has to have a close personal protection detail. I was treasurer for three years, I didn’t need it at all. He doesn’t have it because he’s the treasurer. He has it because he’s Jewish. And I think that’s just appalling that that is necessary. But this is a fact. And it’s a real fact that people of Jewish faith deal with every single day. And that always breaks my heart that’s the case. So we will always be stepping up doing everything we can, so that young Jewish boys and girls can go to school, they can go to temple, they can come together as community, they can do all those things and enjoy that in the same way that all other Australians can and to be fair, I want people of all religious faiths to be able to do that.”
Statement in response to the question: “The Jewish community were beneficiaries recently under the safer communities fund. I just wanted a comment on the importance of continuing to keep Jewish communities and institutions secure?”

- Dave Sharma, federal Member for Wentworth in Sydney (until 22 May 2022), Liberal, 1 Feb. 2022:
  “Unfortunately, the Jewish community in Wentworth has been the target of a number of attacks in recent years. There is a demonstrated need for strengthened security measures to ensure the community can practise their faith in freedom and without fear. I am pleased that I have been able to help secure such funding from the government. Examples of antisemitism are still far too prevalent in Australia. It is important we do all we can to protect vulnerable communities from this and other forms of intolerance and bigotry. I will continue to speak up for and protect the Australian Jewish community.”

  “That weeping sore on the history of the 20th century — anti-Semitism — is unfortunately not a thing of the history books”

- Tim Wilson, Liberal MP for Goldstein (until 22 May 2022), 5 May 2022:
  “Sitting at the heart of the BDS movement is a deep antisemitism and a selective focus targeting Israel on a standard that would never be applied to any other country. It’s not just disgusting and despicable, it’s antisemitism that needs to be called out.”

- James Paterson, Senator for Victoria, Liberal, 14 Aug. 2022:
  “All racism is evil, but there’s a particularly deep and old sickness in humanity of antisemitism, and those who have the opportunity in public life to keep it at bay … must uphold that opportunity.”

- Hollie Hughes, Senator for NSW, Liberal, 6 Sep. 2022:
  “Last week ... we did was a visit to Ramallah. Whilst in Ramallah, we met with the Palestinian prime minister and were given a tour through what is referred to as a refugee camp but is a settlement; these are permanent buildings. Perhaps one of the most disturbing things I have ever seen was pointed out by our Palestinian guide; to quote her, this monument we were looking at was to commemorate ‘the suicide bombers who had killed Jewish civilians’. These people were being immortalised in monuments in this centre in Ramallah. I spoke to the Prime Minister of Palestine from the PA in his office about this and asked how, by immortalising these people, by not even adhering to the basic principles of the rule of war, by actively killing civilians, they could ever expect a conversation. But the fact is that the Palestinians have a policy that is colloquially known—in fact, I think it’s even a bit more formal than that—as ‘pay for slay’. If you kill a Jewish civilian and get sent to jail, you receive circa 12,000 shekels per month. That is three to four times what the average teacher gets paid. If you happen to be killed, your family receives this money. This money comes from the international community. It is a disgrace. And this is backed by the ABC, hence the removal of Fouad AbuGhosh’s Twitter account.”

- Peter Malinauskas, Premier of South Australia, Labor, 11 Aug. 2022:
  “antisemitism is to be abhorred, and my Government will not tolerate antisemitic behaviours in our community.” (in a private letter)
• Dominic Perrottet, Premier of NSW, Liberal, 16 Dec. 2021:
  “Antisemitism is one of the oldest forms of racism. Sadly, no place in the world is immune from its scourge. Yet there is no place for it anywhere in the world, and especially not in NSW. It goes against everything our proud, strong, multicultural state stands for. The hate must stop here. Today I’m proud to announce that the NSW Government will join our federal colleagues in embracing the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance working definition of antisemitism. To fight something, you need to be able to identify it. To be able to describe it. To name it. A definition is an essential and important tool. It’s a tool which empowers all those who fight this fight. ... We hear the Jewish community, and today we stand with them in the fight against antisemitism. This definition will make a difference. It will help people call out antisemitism wherever it hides. On social media. On educational campuses. On the streets of NSW. Embracing this definition is an important step to ensure our peaceful, vibrant, multicultural society remains just that.”

• Mark Speakman, NSW Attorney-General, Liberal, Nov. 2021:
  “Antisemitism has no place in our society. Hate speech of any kind is abhorrent and stands contrary to the fundamental values of tolerance and equality that underpin our vibrant multicultural community.”

• Anthony Roberts, NSW Minister for Counter Terrorism, Liberal, 5 Nov. 2021:
  “Symbols of hatred and antisemitism are unacceptable anywhere in our community. This government is committed to addressing racially motivated hate crime, racial discrimination, and racial vilification in NSW. And this includes public threats and incitement to violence on the basis of race or religion.”

• Walt Secord, NSW MLC, Labor, speech to parliament on CRIMES AMENDMENT (DISPLAY OF NAZI SYMBOLS) BILL 2021, 13 Oct. 2021:
  “This is a bill which, after the Shoah—which saw the murder of six million Jews, including 1.5 million children—I find distressing to see the need for. Unfortunately, due to the conspiracy theories and the rise of Neo-Nazi activity spurred on by social media, especially during COVID, we are seeing once again the display of Nazi symbols on the streets of our capital cities. ... between June 2018 and April 2020, there were at least 31 separate incidents reported to New South Wales police where Nazi flags and symbols were displayed in public places, aimed at intimidating and vilifying Jews. ... Nazism is a specific, fully formed and fully documented political ideology. ... For this reason, the display of Nazi symbols goes well beyond the realm of political debate or ordinary free speech. These are not symbols of ideas but acts of intimidation. They telegraph hate for individuals and hate for our society at large. A Nazi symbol is an offensive symbol in any context. Daubing a racist slogan on a temple, church, synagogue or mosque or carrying a Nazi flag is not an expression, it is an outright incitement to hatred and violence. It has no place in our society after so many Australians sacrificed their lives to rid the world of this scourge.”

• Matthew Guy, Victorian Leader of the Liberal Party, 18 Nov. 2021:
  “The Victorian Liberal Party will always stand against intolerance and all forms of hate. This [IHRA definition] is a vital step to tackle anti-Semitism in our schools, communities and online so that everyone in our multicultural community can live free of hate. ... By adopting a uniform definition of antisemitism, law enforcement, community groups and social media operators are better informed to recognise and take action against instances of antisemitism. Every Victorian deserves to go about their daily lives free from fear of intolerance, abuse or violence based on who they are. With instances of anti-Semitic abuse, violence and property damage increasingly common in our local communities, further action is needed to combat the rise of hate and intolerance. This important commitment complements the Victorian Liberal Nationals’ policy commitment and campaign to ban the Nazi swastika announced in February 2020.”

- David Southwick, Victorian Deputy Leader of the Liberal Party, 18 Nov. 2021:
  “Tragically, instances of antisemitism continue to rise across our community and no one should tolerate abuse based on who they are. The best way to stop hate is to educate and the adoption of this [IHRA] definition is an important step to take action against antisemitism.”

- Dr Matt Bach, Victorian Shadow Attorney-General, Liberal, 18 Nov. 2021:
  “Abuse, violence and threats based on who a person is have no place in Victoria. This clear and uniform [IHRA] definition of antisemitism will help Victorians better understand, recognise and act against intolerance.”

- Shayne Mallard, NSW MLC, Liberal, 23 March 2022:
  “There is no doubt that there is no place for antisemitism, hate speech or discrimination anywhere in the world, particularly in New South Wales. ... By adopting this [IHRA] definition—and I encourage members to read the definition in full—we are now able to clearly identify and call out antisemitism wherever it hides on the street and on social media.”

- Scott Farlow, NSW MLC, Liberal, 23 March 2022:
  “This should not be controversial but some members seek to make it controversial. We need to stamp out antisemitism. We need to ensure that the Jewish people are protected wherever they may be around the world. The IHRA definition gives us an opportunity to define antisemitism to ensure that we stamp it out. Defining antisemitism does not in any way, shape or form limit people from criticising the actions of Israel or the democratic government in Israel, whichever hue it may be. In Israel, we know those hues are often rainbow coalitions.”

- Natalie Ward, NSW MLC, Minister for Women's Safety, Liberal, 23 March 2022:
  “I support the motion [on IHRA] ... Antisemitism is on the rise and there is a report into antisemitism every year which ensures that we have a way of addressing this issue and identifying it and recording it. I wish we did not have such a report, but nonetheless we do. That is why the motion is important. ... Discrimination and public threats of violence have no place in New South Wales. The motion is seeking to endorse that in relation to antisemitism, which we know is on the rise, is a threat and must be addressed. ... Having such a definition ensures that we have an opportunity to focus on what antisemitism is and what it is not, and that is very clear and specific from the definition in the motion. In my experience, the Jewish community is not concerned about criticism; it embraces criticism. Israel is a highly democratic country and its Knesset demonstrates that. I support the motion.”

- Dennis Hood, South Australian MLC, Liberal, 15 June 2022:
  “Although we do not hear about the antisemitic acts as defined by IHRA that are committed in our local communities very often now, we cannot deny that they are in fact occurring and perhaps at a higher rate than many of us are aware. Indeed, it is unfortunate that the Jewish community is one of the only groups within Australia whose places of worship, their schools, their communal organisations and community centres are required to operate under the protection of high fences in many cases, armed guards in some cases, metal detectors, CCTV cameras and the like, for security purposes. Our nation's law enforcement agencies have long recognised the necessity for these measures due to the higher incidence of physical attacks against Jews and their communal property in recent decades, and the threats that can continue unabated. It is extraordinary to think that this is the case in our modern world, given the coverage of such incidents does not seem commonplace and appears to be disproportionate when we consider the level of attention similar acts of discrimination tend to receive when other ethnicities or religions are targeted. It is of great concern to me. Unfortunately, there is evidence to suggest that antisemitic incidents are actually occurring in our nation and, indeed, across the world and may in fact be on the rise. ... I believe that now more than ever our parliament has a responsibility to the South Australian Jewish community to do whatever it can to support local and global efforts to counter this phenomenon.”

- Waverley Council: adoption of IHRA definition of antisemitism
  Waverley Council, in the eastern suburbs of Sydney, adopted the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) definition of antisemitism, on 2 Nov 2021. It is understood to be the first local government council to do so. The vote was 9-1. All Liberal and Labor councillors, and one Greens councillor voted in favour, while another Greens councillor Dominic Wy Kanak voted against the motion. The motion was introduced by Cr Tony Kay.

- Tony Kay, Councillor at Waverley Council, 3 Nov. 2021:
  Waverley Council is “leading the way at the local government level in Australia and making it clear that antisemitism has no place in our community. By adopting this definition and its contemporary examples, we commence our journey towards better dialogue, better understanding, and better actions on identifying and dealing with antisemitism in all its forms. While there are obvious acts of antisemitism, such as the swastikas scrawled across Bondi Beach walls, other behaviours which too often fall below the radar need to be called out too. The definition … will be an excellent guide to new conversations and actions around antisemitism to create a safer and more welcoming Waverley.”

EDUCATIONAL and other RESPONSES

- La Trobe Student Union: adoption of IHRA definition of antisemitism
  In contrast to some other university student unions, La Trobe Student Union (LTSU) passed a motion on 15 June 2022 adopting the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) Working Definition of Antisemitism. The motion also said that LTSU “recognises that marginalised groups have the right to define what determines discrimination, and affirms that it is against the boycotting of institutions or individuals simply because of their nationality, race, religion, or any other personal characteristic.”

  LTSU president Joel Blanch, said that the motion “adopts a clear definition of antisemitism, because that way we can follow it as a union and have some sort of clear understanding of what is and isn’t antisemitism.” There was significant opposition to this motion from the Socialist Alternative group at La Trobe. Blanch stated that “There’s been a really insidious effort from certain groups, including Socialist Alternative, to conflate support of Palestine with being antisemitic … I think they use the issue of the horrible treatment of Palestinians, and the serious conflict that is going on with allowing themselves to be both supporting Palestine and antisemitic.”

- Hate Crime website
  The ‘Hate Crime’ website was launched on 15 February 2022. “About this project: The University of Sydney in collaboration with the Australian Hate Crime Network has created this website and its resources to help raise awareness about the problems of hate crime and hate incidents in NSW. We hope that the website will provide a ‘one stop shop’ for information about when hate is a crime, where to find support and how to take action. Our vision is to build awareness, promote support and guide action and advocacy.”

- His Eminence Archbishop Makarios, Primate of the Greek Orthodox Church in Australia, Greek Orthodox Archbishop of Australia, 27 Jan. 2022:
  “There is no place in our faith for hatred towards our fellow human beings. There is no place for discrimination on the grounds of religion or ancestry. There is no place for sinister and stereotypical perceptions that foster antisemitism. ... It is our duty to keep alive our historical memory and not leave any gap open that would allow humanity, ever again, to experience horrors similar to those of the Holocaust.”

ETHNIC COMMUNITY RESPONSES
At a Hizb ut’Tahrir street protest, held in Lakemba in Sydney in May 2021, speakers called to “Destroy the Jews” and “Give us the necks of the Jews” and similar other calls, with cheers from the crowd. After this became public knowledge in October 2021, several ethnic organisations publicly condemned the antisemitism and showed support for the Jewish community.

- Armenian National Committee of Australia
  “Armenian National Committee of Australia Condemns Anti-Jewish Hate Speech, 26 October 2021. The Armenian National Committee of Australia condemns the recent provocation of hate speech and racism against the Jewish-Australian community, where a group of protestors were recorded chanting offensive statements including “Destroy the Jews” and “Give us the necks of the Jews”. Words which intend to demean, dehumanise or incite violence against a particular group, whether based on race, sex or religion, are absolutely unacceptable and undermine the harmonious co-existence of our multicultural society and Australian democracy as well as being against the core values of humanity.

  Calling out and condemning such hate speech and incitement is the vital first step to protecting the nation’s multicultural fabric to mitigate the threats posed by prejudice and intolerance. Australia has a proud tradition of free political expression, discourse and dissent which should never be allowed to be replaced with hate speech and incitement. As fellow descendants of genocide survivors the ultimate act of racial and religious intolerance, Armenian-Australians stand with Jewish-Australians in declaring that words matter today, as they did in the Ottoman Empire during WWI and in Europe during WWII, when the normalisation of such hate speech and incitement created the atmosphere and facilitated two of the gravest crimes against humanity in modern history.”
Assyrian National Council of Australia

“Assyrian National Council of Australia Stand in solidarity in Condemning Anti-Jewish Hate Speech, October 29, 2021. Assyrian National Council of Australia joins the Armenian National Committee in condemning the recent provocation of hate speech and racism against the Australian Jewish community, in which a group of protesters were recorded chanting offensive statements including “destroy the Jews” and “give us the necks of the Jews.”

Anti-Semitism, the world's oldest disease, has no place in our way of life in Australia. All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights and have the capacity to contribute constructively to the development and well-being of their societies. Any policy of racial superiority is scientifically wrong, morally condemnable, socially unjust, and dangerous, and must be rejected. Although Australia remains an open and tolerant society, unfortunately there are a small number of individuals and organizations that actively denigrate Jews and other ethnic minorities, and they are widely condemned. Most Australians consider anti-Semitism unacceptable. We are truly blessed and fortunate to live in such a harmonious country with many different cultures we can learn from. We should all stand together to protect our communities against all forms of violent extremism.”

Hindu Council of Australia

“Hindu Council of Australia: Statement Against Hate Speech, 26/10/2021. Hindu Council of Australia stands with the Jewish community and condemn the hate speech hurled towards the Jewish community during a protest in the month of May 2021. The Hindu community believes in peaceful coexistence of people of various faiths and ethnicity anywhere in the world and treat the whole world as ‘Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam’ (The world is one family).”

Greek-Australian Society

“Statement: 1 November 2021. The Greek-Australian Society expresses its deep concern at the recent recording of anti-Jewish hate speech at a protest rally in Sydney, where people were recorded allegedly calling for “the necks of the Jews”. GAS denounces the incitement of hatred and violence in all forms, including on the basis of ethnicity and religion. This sort of language undermines our multicultural society and has no place in our town centres and suburban roads. This recent Sydney incident has been referred to NSW Police. As a Partner to the Keep NSW Safe coalition, GAS is proud to stand alongside our fellow citizens in New South Wales to nurture and protect a peaceful community with friendship and goodwill.”

INTERNATIONAL RESPONSES

UN: Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR)
https://www.ohchr.org/en/special-procedures/sr-religion-or-belief/antisemitism

Antisemitism, Special Rapporteur on freedom of religion or belief, 26 May 2022

- “In his 2019 report to the UN General Assembly A/74/358, the Special Rapporteur on freedom of religion or belief, Ahmed Shaheed, identified violence, discrimination and expressions of hostility motivated by antisemitism as a serious obstacle to the enjoyment of the right to freedom of religion or belief. A subsequent review undertaken by the Special Rapporteur of trends in antisemitism since 2019 revealed many positive developments in combating antisemitism but also enduring challenges. Therefore, the Special Rapporteur developed a Follow-up Action Plan outlining key eight recommendations intended to enable key stakeholders to make further progress in implementing the recommendations set out in the 2019 report on antisemitism and to address the serious challenges identified. In formulating them, the Special Rapporteur engaged with a number of national, regional and international actors, including governmental actors, international human rights experts and civil society actors, committed to combating ‘hate speech’ generally and antisemitism specifically. See the Action Plan”

1. Adopt and communicate a zero-tolerance approach to antisemitic statements and incidents.

2. Establish national structures to ensure consistent attention to understanding and combating antisemitism.

3. Ensure all of society can recognize antisemitism and know the facts of the Holocaust.

4. Improve national efforts to monitor, record, and publish data on antisemitic hate crimes and incidents and support victims of antisemitism.

5. Ensure Jewish communities’ physical safety and ability to practice their religion.

6. Curb the spread of harmful antisemitic narratives online while appropriately safeguarding freedom of expression.

7. Express solidarity with Jewish communities and strengthen intercommunal and interfaith cooperation.

8. Ensure international organizations devote appropriate attention to combating antisemitism as a human rights concern.
UN General Assembly Resolution on Holocaust Denial, adopted on 20 Jan. 2022:

“Bearing in mind that Holocaust denial in its various forms is an expression of antisemitism,

Noting that distortion and/or denial of the Holocaust refers, inter alia, to:

- Intentional efforts to excuse or minimise the impact of The Holocaust or its principal elements, including collaborators and allies of Nazi Germany

- Gross minimisation of the number of the victims of The Holocaust in contradiction to reliable sources

- Attempts to blame the Jews for causing their own genocide

- Statements that cast The Holocaust as a positive historical event

- Attempts to blur the responsibility for the establishment of concentration and death camps devised and operated by Nazi Germany by putting blame on other nations or ethnic groups”

[NB. This UN definition is the same wording adopted by the IHRA working definition of Holocaust denial and distortion in 2013, see further below.]

US Government policies to combat antisemitism
https://www.jns.org/opinion/is-anti-semitism-a-jewish-problem/

Ellie Cohanim, senior fellow at the Center for Security Policy and former U.S. Deputy Special Envoy to Monitor and Combat anti-Semitism, 14 Oct. 2021: “The Trump administration, for which I was proud to serve as deputy envoy to combat anti-Semitism, crafted the following policies to fight the phenomenon wherever it reared its ugly head:

- We in the administration understood the basic truth that Israel is the safe haven for Jews around the world, and when there is escalating anti-Semitism in places like France and England, to the point that Jews in those countries find their living conditions unbearable and need to find refuge, they move to Israel.

- We also understood this basic truth: that the Jewish state did not come about because of the Holocaust, as some haters of Israel claim. The opposite is the case, the Holocaust took place because there was no Israel. There was no Jewish country to escape to; no Jewish army to defend Jews; and thus the forces of evil were able to rise.

- We understood, as well, that today the hatred of the Jew among nations—that is, the hatred of the Jewish state of Israel—is developing into a new form of anti-Semitism worldwide, and that the best way to counter it is by bolstering and supporting Israel. Foremost among this support was the recognition of Jerusalem as Israel’s eternal capital and the move of the U.S. embassy there from Tel Aviv.”
The IHRA’s Member Countries adopted the working definition of Holocaust denial and distortion by consensus at the IHRA’s Plenary meeting in Toronto on 10 October 2013. ... IHRA hereby adopts the following legally non-binding working definition as its working tool.

Holocaust denial is discourse and propaganda that deny the historical reality and the extent of the extermination of the Jews by the Nazis and their accomplices during World War II, known as the Holocaust or the Shoah. Holocaust denial refers specifically to any attempt to claim that the Holocaust/Shoah did not take place.

Holocaust denial may include publicly denying or calling into doubt the use of principal mechanisms of destruction (such as gas chambers, mass shooting, starvation and torture) or the intentionality of the genocide of the Jewish people.

Holocaust denial in its various forms is an expression of antisemitism. The attempt to deny the genocide of the Jews is an effort to exonerate National Socialism and antisemitism from guilt or responsibility in the genocide of the Jewish people. Forms of Holocaust denial also include blaming the Jews for either exaggerating or creating the Shoah for political or financial gain as if the Shoah itself was the result of a conspiracy plotted by the Jews. In this, the goal is to make the Jews culpable and antisemitism once again legitimate.

The goals of Holocaust denial often are the rehabilitation of an explicit antisemitism and the promotion of political ideologies and conditions suitable for the advent of the very type of event it denies.

Distortion of the Holocaust refers, inter alia, to:

1. Intentional efforts to excuse or minimize the impact of the Holocaust or its principal elements, including collaborators and allies of Nazi Germany;
2. Gross minimization of the number of the victims of the Holocaust in contradiction to reliable sources;
3. Attempts to blame the Jews for causing their own genocide;
4. Statements that cast the Holocaust as a positive historical event. Those statements are not Holocaust denial but are closely connected to it as a radical form of antisemitism. They may suggest that the Holocaust did not go far enough in accomplishing its goal of “the Final Solution of the Jewish Question”;
5. Attempts to blur the responsibility for the establishment of concentration and death camps devised and operated by Nazi Germany by putting blame on other nations or ethnic groups.

Comprehensive study of hate incidents in Australia

by Julie Nathan 28 July 2022

A comprehensive study has revealed a clearer picture of the state of reported hate incidents in Australia from 2014 to 2021.

The study was based on the reports of three targeted communities - Jewish, Muslim and Asian – the only communities who have a reporting and documentation system, and which produce reports on hate incidents against their community.

The three reports used in this assessment are: the Executive Council of Australian Jewry’s ‘Report on Antisemitism in Australia’ (produced annually since 1990); the Islamophobia Register Australia’s ‘Islamophobia in Australia’ (three reports produced, in 2017, 2019 and 2022); and the Asian Australian Alliance’s ‘COVID-19 Coronavirus Racism Incident Report’ (two reports produced, in 2020 and in 2021).

It is important to note that the reports by each of these organisations vary in four distinct ways: 1. different or unknown criteria for inclusion/exclusion as a hate incident, 2. different data categories of hate incidents (notably, two reports include online discourse as incidents while one report excludes online), 3. different transparency levels of incidents (eg one report lists all incidents, two reports provide some examples of incidents), and 4. different time frames of reporting periods. This means that making accurate comparisons between the incident data in the different reports is complicated, yet attainable.

Despite these differences, by looking at the reports produced by each organisation a clearer and more comprehensive picture of hate incidents in Australia emerges from the data, at least within these three targeted communities.

Summary of incidents

The study found that there were 3,522 reported hate incidents in the seven-year period between 17 September 2014 and 30 September 2021. That amounts to an average of over one incident a day. There are two periods, corresponding to different reporting periods of the communities.

In the first period, in the five years between late 2014 and 2019, there were 2,203 reported hate incidents. These were composed of 1,364 anti-Jewish incidents (in the 60 months from 1 October 2014 to 30 September 2019) and 839 anti-Muslim incidents (in the 64 months from 17 September 2014 to 31 December 2019).
In the second period, in the two years of 2020 and 2021, there were 1,319 reported hate incidents. These were composed of 778 anti-Jewish incidents (in the 24 months from 1 October 2019 to 30 September 2021) and 541 anti-Asian incidents (in the 15 months from 2 April 2020 to 28 June 2021).

To provide some context, the Australian population is composed of 25 million people. The intensity of hate incidents on communities can be understood through proportionality. According to the Australian Bureau of Statistics in 2016, in Australia there were just under 100,000 Jews, 604,000 Muslims, and 2.4 million people of east and southeast Asian ancestry. This means that proportionally, for every 100,000 people in each community, there were 306 anti-Jewish incidents, 24 anti-Muslim incidents, and 18 anti-east/southeast Asian incidents, on average annually.

The three communities face similar types of hate incidents, but in varying proportions. Using data from the latest reports by ECAJ, IRA and AAA, the top two categories with the highest percentage of incidents for each community are: verbal abuse (33%) and graffiti (24%) against the Jewish community; online content (44%) and hate speech (25%) against the Muslim community; and, direct racial slur/name calling (35%) and online harassment (25%) against the Asian community.

Anti-Jewish incidents

The Executive Council of Australian Jewry (ECAJ) has produced an annual Report on Antisemitism each year since 1990, spurred on by a spate of arson attacks on synagogues in 1990 and 1991. The ECAJ, formed in 1944, is the peak national body representing the Australian Jewish community. Each Antisemitism Report covers the 12-month period to 30 September each year.

There was a total of 2,142 anti-Jewish incidents reported for the seven years from 1 October 2014 to 30 September 2021; averaging 306 incidents annually. The annual number of anti-Jewish incidents ranged from 190 incidents in 2015 to 447 incidents in 2021.

Anti-Jewish incidents, documented in the 2021 ECAJ report, as a percentage of the total number of incidents, in descending order, comprised: verbal abuse (33%); graffiti (24%); email, postal, phone (23%); placards, posters, stickers (16%); physical assault (2%); and vandalism (2%).

Of note, the ECAJ, unlike other organisations, does not include in its tally of incidents general expressions of hate against Jews that appear online, as these are too numerous and ubiquitous to measure from year to year in any meaningful way.

Anti-Muslim incidents

The Islamophobia Register Australia (IRA) was established “in response to increasing harassment and attacks” against Muslims after police raids in Sydney and Brisbane in September 2014.

There was a total of 839 anti-Muslim incidents reported between 17 September 2014 and 31 December 2019, a 64-month period, of which 388 (47%) were online posts/comments. The average number of anti-Muslim incidents annually for the five years between 2015 and 2019 was 147.

The three reports by IRA documented 243 incidents in 2014 and 2015 (16 months), 349 in 2016 and 2017 (24 months), and 247 in 2018 and 2019 (24 months). Of these incidents, 55%, 42% and 44%, respectively, were online content.

IRA’s 2018-2019 report noted that the 138 offline incidents, which account for 56% of all incidents, in descending order, comprised: hate speech (46%); discrimination (14%); discrimination by authorities (14%); graffiti/vandalism (13%); physical assault (8%); damage to individuals (3%); and property damage (2%). Of the 109 online incidents, these occurred on Facebook (86%); email (6%); online media (6%); and Twitter (2%). These percentages were similar to those in the second report.

Combining all 247 incidents, ie offline and online, in 2018-2019, the percentages, in descending order, comprised: online content (44%); hate speech (25%); discrimination (8%); discrimination by authorities (8%); graffiti/vandalism (7%); physical assault (4%); damage to individuals (2%); and property damage (1%).

Anti-Asian incidents

The Asian Australian Alliance (AAA) report was motivated by the racism against Asians in Australia arising from the COVID-19 pandemic. The first report covered the 2-month period from 2 April 2020 to 2 June 2020 and recorded 377 incidents. The second report covered the 13-month period from 3 June 2020 to 28 June 2021, and recorded 164 incidents. This is a total of 541 anti-Asian incidents over a 15-month period, and an average of 432 incidents for a 12-month period.

In the second AAA report, incidents, in descending order, comprised: direct racial slur/name calling (35%); online harassment (25%); making it out as a joke (13%); verbal threats (8%); getting spat/sneezed/coughed on (7%); physical intimidation/harassment (7%); shunning (6%); workplace discrimination (2%); and other categories of discrimination under 2%.

Countering hate incidents

These 3,522 hate incidents comprise only a proportion of hate incidents occurring in Australia. Many other anti-Jewish, anti-Muslim and anti-Asian incidents are unreported. In addition, incidents against other targeted communities - on the basis of race, ethnic/national origin, religion, gender, sexuality, disability, and other attributes - go unreported due to the lack of an organisation which takes reports for these communities.

Hate incidents detrimentally affect individuals, communities and the society as a whole. It is therefore crucial to counter and reduce the number of hate incidents, and the prevailing prejudices that drive them. This requires information and resolve.

The hate incident data by these three targeted communities can be used by governments, human rights bodies, police, and others, to formulate policies and practices towards countering hate incidents. This data is an invaluable resource providing evidence for the state of hate incidents in Australia within these three communities.
Julie Nathan is the Research Director at the Executive Council of Australian Jewry, and since 2013 has been the author of the ECAJ Report on Antisemitism.
Around the world, we see Jews increasingly under attack - synagogues vandalised, Jewish students ostracised, Jews beaten up in the streets or murdered in their homes, calls for Israel to be destroyed. It has become so pervasive and overwhelming.

What can we do, where to begin? It is good to have a panoramic view of what is occurring across the world. However, to counter antisemitism, we need to break it up into its various components, and develop specific strategies with which to tackle each component.

Every person who so desires can play their role. Everyone has areas of interest, skills and knowledge they can utilise in this campaign. People just need to find where they are best suited and then use their own abilities and skills in that area.

Firstly, let’s look at the three main components of the antisemitism machine.

Sources: The Engine
Today’s antisemitism derives from four main sources, each ideologically driven: extremist elements within the political right and political left, and amongst Muslims and Christians. Each of these four sources is composed of various strands of belief, activity and influence.

Left-wing antisemitism tends to dress itself in a cloak of social justice, under an anti-racism mantra; whereas right-wing antisemitism tends to lay itself bare, without any cloak to hide its inherent racism. Within both the Muslim and Christian worlds there are individuals and organisations seeking to harm Jews and/or Israel, often from a supersessionist and supremacist base. For them, at the very least, Jews must be ‘put back in their place’.

Methods Used: The Wheels
The delivery methods used to express antisemitism can be quite diverse, but are roughly divided between discourse and incidents, ie what is said and what is done.

Discourse covers bias and misinformation in mainstream society, and vilification and incitement on the extreme margins of society. It is found in politics, the media, universities, social clubs and elsewhere. It proliferates on the internet and social media – communication channels used by governments and corporations, media and academics, groups and individuals. With the tap of fingers on a keyboard, hate is spread instantaneously across the globe.

Much more serious are antisemitic incidents - Jews being verbally abused and physically assaulted, vandalism of Jewish community property, and threats of mass murder. To thwart physical attacks, Jewish organisations in many countries have security measures in place around Jewish sites, without which there would be many more casualties.

Attacks against Jews do not come out of nowhere. They are built upon foundations of hate, often centuries in the making, and inspired by antisemitic discourse; from libels and teachings of contempt, creating an atmosphere that poisons how Jews are perceived, through to overt propaganda that demonises Jews. This leads to attacks on Jews, ranging from verbal abuse on the streets to mass shootings. The methods used to attack Jews, whether through discourse or incidents, are as much a legal and police issue as a political or social issue.

Power Structures: The Fuel

In any given society or nation, the power structures and those with influence have the ability to increase or decrease the levels and intensity of antisemitism. There are also international power structures such as the United Nations, the European Union, the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation, that act as a major source of anti-Zionism, by targeting Israel for unfair and discriminatory treatment, with a hugely unbalanced focus on the Jewish state. In addition, dozens of NGOs such as the BDS movement, operate internationally; their anti-Zionism intensifies the demonisation of Jews.

It is these institutions, through the authority they hold, that draw the line between what is acceptable or unacceptable behaviour towards the Jewish people and the Jewish state.

How Can We Counter Antisemitism?

The following are some ideas where you may like to focus your attention:

- Joining a political party or engaging in interfaith dialogue and working from within.
- Monitoring social media, to report the haters and to campaign for more accountability from platform providers, and to initiate and engage in social media campaigns to counteract the haters.
- Holding mainstream media to standards of honesty, accuracy and balanced reporting.
- Campaigning for law reform to outlaw vilification and incitement to violence.
- Ensuring that universities are places of robust learning but not discrimination against Jewish students.

If we each choose one particular area and focus on countering antisemitism there, then it all contributes to the campaign.

Wherever you are, in your country and in your life, and whatever your particular interests and expertise (eg law, media, social media, your local environmental or women’s group), choose where you are most suited and feel most comfortable, and work from there. Seek comrades and allies, and do what you can, whenever you can.

We are not alone. We are not incapable. There are many people who provide excellent role models in countering antisemitism. There is plenty of scope to find where one can contribute to countering antisemitism, and defending Jews against hatred.

In summary – get involved, educate others, demand accountability, expose hate, report incidents, and let’s fight this plague together!

Music as a Medium of Antisemitism

Julie Nathan 9 Feb. 2022
https://blogs.timesofisrael.com/music-as-a-medium-of-antisemitism/

Exposing and countering racist hate on the internet is predominantly focussed on social media sites, both mainstream and extremist, which post racist text and images. However, one area has not received much attention – racist music. Today, with the internet, the racist music scene is changing. There is a proliferation of racist, and especially antisemitic, music being promoted and shared online.

This takes four main forms: German Nazi music, movie segments, replacing the lyrics of known songs, and creating new music and lyrics, often rap-style. These are posted as videos on video channels such as YouTube, Bitchute, Odysee, and on social media platforms such as Gab and Telegram. To illustrate the problem, examples of music posted by Australian right-wing extremists are provided.

1. Music from Nazi Germany

One of the most popular songs today with neo-Nazis, from the period of Nazi Germany, is ‘Erika’. Videos of the song are produced and played with various backgrounds, most commonly showing film footage of Hitler, Nazi flags, soldiers and military parades.

The lyrics of ‘Erika’ are not political or racist, referring to both a type of flower (heather) and a girl’s name. The lyrics describe that: “On the heath, there blooms a little flower and it's called Erika. ... Back at home, there lives a little maiden and she's called Erika.” However, the lyrics and melody were written about 1930 as a marching song, and it was popularised during the Nazi period as a marching song for German soldiers in the Nazi military machine.

‘Erika’, with various background versions of Nazi graphics, has been posted by known right-wing extremists in Australia such as Thomas Sewell (on 7 April 2021 and 17 April 2021) and Ryan Fletcher (on 26 October 2021). Videos of ‘Erika’ posted by Sewell, the leader of the neo-Nazi group, National Socialist Network, included extensive viewing of Hitler and Nazi soldiers marching. The video posted by Fletcher is of a cartoon of a Jew hiding in bed while lights are flashing outside to the sounds of ‘Erika’ and marching jackboots.

Videos of Nazi-era music, such as ‘Erika’, seek to normalise and promote Nazism as an ideology and to stir up hatred of Jews. Posting Nazi-era propaganda music with Nazi-themed visuals in the background is advocating antisemitism, militarism, totalitarianism and violence.

2. Movie segments

Segments of racist music from movies are also posted online. One example is from the movie ‘American History X’, about two brothers involved in the neo-Nazi movement. A segment from this movie was posted online by Australian neo-Nazi Jarrad Searby (on 25 November 2021) on Gab; namely, the scene with the character of ‘Seth’ driving an orange Dodge van, where Seth is vehemently singing:
“My eyes have seen the glory of the trampling at the zoo,
We washed ourselves in niggers’ blood and all the mongrels too.
We’re taking down the ZOG machine, Jew by Jew by Jew.
The white man marches on.”

The original melody is from the American civil war era song, ‘The Battle Hymn of the Republic’. The lyrics are: “Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord. He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored. He hath loosed the fateful lightening of His terrible swift sword. His truth is marching on.”

While movies such as ‘American History X’ (1998), ‘Romper Stomper’ (1992 and 2018) and others are not aimed at promoting or legitimising racism, but rather at exposing racists, and racist inspired violence, segments are misused in the cause of racism. The ‘Seth’ segment is short, concise, and intense. The music in the segment is overtly expressing anti-black, anti-mixed race, and anti-Jewish racism, glorifying violence, and is upbeat enough to catch on as a tune, with its racist lyrics - all captured in under 20 seconds.

3. Replacing lyrics

This method uses existing songs, usually well-known ones, by keeping the melody but replacing the lyrics. (It is similar to the ‘Seth’ example above, but without having been created for a movie). The danger is that, as these original songs are already quite well known, it makes it much easier for people to pick up the melody and repeat the new lyrics. Two examples follow.

‘The Rising of the Moon’ is an Irish ballad about the Irish rebellion against the British in 1789. It shares a similar melody with another Irish ballad, ‘The Wearing of the Green’, on the same theme; both were written in the mid-1800s. Lyrics include: “At the rising of the moon, at the rising of the moon. For the pikes must be together at the rising of the moon ... By the rising of the moon, by the rising of the moon. And a thousand pikes were flashing by the rising of the moon.”

However, an American musician, Paddy Tarleton, known for white supremacist and other racist music and for appropriating traditional Anglo-Celtic melodies, wrote new lyrics. Thus, ‘The Rising of the Moon’ became ‘The Naming of the Jew’. Using the traditional well-known melody, the lyrics now include:

And you won’t see the sun rise now until you name the Jew.
Oh the naming of the Jew, Oh the naming of the Jew ...
In 1290, our dear Longshanks had tossed them in the bin,
’til that roundhead scoundrel Oliver [Cromwell] had let the kikes back in ...
For years these shameless bastards have gone by many names,
From the oligarchs to upper one percent, it’s all the same ...
So stand, be heard and say the word, it’s J E W ...
We’ll keep up the pressure in the west until we bleed the beast ...
And you won’t see the sun rise now until you name the Jew.”

‘The Sound of Silence’, the 1964 hit by Simon and Garfunkel, is another song that has been hijacked and abused by racists. This song, with its gentle undulating melody and philosophical lyrics, has been turned upside down and recast into a call for genocide. Much of the original lyrics remain, but with select words and phrases replaced eg the first line of ‘Hello darkness, my old friend’. The reworded song is named ‘The Ovens of Auschwitz’, and is sung by ‘White Hot Takes’. Its lyrics include:

Looting our nations while we’re sleeping
And know cattle cars lie empty on the line, we’ll bide our time heating the ovens of Auschwitz ...
then lit the ovens of Auschwitz.
And in the fire’s light I saw six million Hebrews, maybe more ...
send the trains to Auschwitz.
"Fools" said I, "You do not know, Jewry like a cancer grows” ...
And the man said, "The lies of the rabbis can only be stopped by force
And gas of course and in the ovens of Auschwitz”.

Both these songs, ‘The Naming of the Jew’ and ‘The Ovens of Auschwitz’ were posted on Gab by an Australian antiseemite, “DanTheOracle” (on 24 November, and on 17 and 25 December 2021), and on his Odysee video channel (on 5 April and 17 December 2021).

The danger with these songs is that the melodies are well-known, the original songs were popular, and the new race-hate words are as catchy as the original lyrics. These ‘new’ songs, with familiar tunes, become an easy way to demonise Jews, and to incite violence against Jews.

4. New creations – hip-hop/rap music

Another form of racist music is that of newly created music, both lyrics and melody. Often this is in hip-hop or rap style where the person does not sing, but instead speaks rhythmically to an accompanying beat. Often these people use their music to express not only racism but also other forms of bigotry. Examples of such music by two people follow.

Raymond Foster has posted several videos of his music, which he recites rap-style while showing the lyrics on the screen. Foster’s hate videos have been posted on his Facebook pages (since removed) and on his YouTube channel, with links also posted on Gab. His lyrics generally express violent and murderous acts.

In Foster’s ‘DON'T NEED THAT SUFFERING’ (16 June 2019), the lyrics vilify Jews ("kikes", “heebs”), blacks, Muslims, homosexuals (“fags”), and women (“THOTS” = “that ho over there”). The lyrics include:

“just trying to keep these dirty lying kikes away ... begin stepping in this oven, kike get in Get in this oven, Kike get in ... Sieg heil 88 ...
now I’m gonna bag every fucking fag and drag em naked behind a horse on jagged gravel until they’re (sic) limbs are fucking dangling off and feed em to crocs ... crusade every Muslim on the face of earth convert em by blade or make em drop ... what I got in store for the THOTS, Your gonna bleed a lot ...
And heebs you’ll leaving as ash, get in the oven.”

In a second video by Foster, ‘88 MUTHA FUCKAS’ (20 June 2019), he again glorifies and incites violence against Jews:

“I’ll be dragging bodies down an alley to stab em don’t panic only kike maggots get damaged... we’re wild Aryans we overtake ... happily put a knife to ya throat ...
break through this Jewish cage ...
fuck ya optics I’ve lost it maybe I’ll Holocaust it ...
I think I got time to drop every last dogshit kike ...
always keep the kikes in the eye of your sight ...
so I’m like the forth (sic) Reich.”

In a third video by Foster, ‘HONOUR ME’ (21 June 2019), lyrics include: “1488 Race War Gas all the fucking kikes”. A fourth video by Foster, ‘WHO OWNS HOLLYWOOD?’ (12 July 2019), includes the lyrics of:

“... fuck ya optics ... then I mention Jews ...
Who owns all the banks Who owns all the oil
Who owns big pharma Who owns all the media
They’re trying to harm ya Who owns Hollywood
They’re trying to harm ya
I’m naming the Jew everyday are ya?
If not you better start brah start another Shoah ... ride with da Reich ... that’s what’s like with these kikes...”

Jarrad (Jaz) Searby is another rapper; he has become involved in the neo-Nazi group, National Socialist Network. He posts his videos on Gab and Telegram. Many of his songs include content denigrating or threatening Jews. The lyrics to Searby’s music video, ‘THE AWAKENING’ (27 June 2021), include:

“... we know the Jews have always hated us
They fuck us up the arse these cunts are smiling while their raping us ... now we’re coming with a vengeance and they don’t know what to do
We will be catching them real soon then we’ll throw them in a room you smell that gas? Yeah I do too
And that’s the end of you know who!
I can’t help it I drop J pills every time I’m in the room ...
And now all across the world people are screaming FUCK THE JEWS
Now we’re ready for the white Boy Summer 2022
And now these kikes will start to run every time we enter rooms ...
I will see Valhalla soon...”

These examples of rap-style music are newly created works, with original lyrics and using a rhythmic beat. Rap is a popular style of music that does not require a musical voice or even music. The lyrics of rap-style are often not as audibly clear as other forms of music. Yet despite this, as can be seen through the lyrics, this form of music is glorifying hate and advocating violence.

Conclusion
The internet allows the easy dispersion and proliferation of hate propaganda. Mostly, online hate is composed of articles on websites and posts/comments and images on social media sites, as well as videos uploaded onto most platforms. The genre of music adds a medium of hate that is much more easily transmissible and retainable in the memory. Regardless of whether the production of such music is for the enjoyment of racists or for propaganda and recruitment purposes, it remains a source of hate that is likely to grow, and thus is of great concern.

Music has an effect on the human psyche. The saying that music soothes the savage beast is certainly true. It can relax and soothe. Music speaks to the soul. Equally true is that music can also stimulate the emotions, raising excitement levels and aggressive tendencies.

Herein lies the danger – racist lyrics, emotive melodies and vivid visuals, can inspire and incite racist acts. Hate music can be just as inciting, or more so, than even the most riveting hate speeches by demagogues. One hears such music, and if it connects, it is absorbed. And the propaganda seeds have been planted.

Erasing Antisemitism from the Narrative

Julie Nathan 21 Feb. 2022

Data by police agencies, Jewish community organisations, and others throughout the western world show that antisemitism is on the rise, and is thriving. It takes many forms, including verbal abuse and physical assault on the streets, attacks upon synagogues, the promotion of genocidal anti-Jewish ideologies, hostage taking and murder.

Yet, there are those who are in denial about the persistence and impact of antisemitism, effectively erasing or minimising its existence. Their narrative is usually along the lines that if ever antisemitism did exist, it ended in 1945 with the defeat of Nazi Germany.

The erasure of antisemitism occurs, consciously or unconsciously, in parts of the mainstream media, party politics, universities, and the discourse of certain public figures. This is not a fringe phenomenon perpetrated by extremists of the Nazi jackboot variety, the kind who happily acknowledge and publicise their antisemitism. Airbrushing antisemitism out of the picture occurs in more subtle ways.

Six examples from media, politics, university, and elsewhere, all in Australia, will suffice as illustrations.
1. Mainstream Media: Erasure of Nazi antisemitism

A Channel 9 News segment in Queensland focused on the neo-Nazi group, National Socialist Network (NSN). The program was advertised on 23 March 2021, and aired the next night. In advertising the program, on both dates, the promotions on Twitter stated that NSN “Want to see the downfall of women, immigration, Islam, and the LGBTQ+ community” and that NSN are “anti-women, anti-immigration, anti-gay and anti-Islam”.

There was no mention of Jews or antisemitism. As if by magic, the Channel 9 blurb erased Jews as the most fundamental target of Nazism. Any basic reading of the history and ideology of National Socialism (Nazism), and of neo-Nazi groups, such as NSN, shows that Jews are the main object of Nazi hatred. At the core of Nazi ideology is the belief in an eternal race struggle between ‘the Aryan’ and ‘the Jew’, and that the Jews must be exterminated so the Aryans can take their ‘rightful place’ in the world. In enacting this ideology, Nazi Germany hunted down, rounded up, and killed 6 million European Jews including 1.5 million Jewish children. The Nazis also persecuted and incarcerated homosexuals and Roma; whereas there was no persecution of women or Muslims – in fact, the Nazis allied themselves with certain Muslims, including the notorious Palestinian Arab leader, Haj Amin al-Husseini.

National Socialist Network seeks to replicate the basics of Nazi Germany in Australia, including the elimination of all Jews. By omitting, and erasing, any mention of NSN’s hatred of Jews, Channel 9 effectively treated NSN’s gross antisemitism as inconsequential, and thus became complicit in it.

2. Mainstream Media: Erasure of Jews from the attack in Mumbai

Another example was a piece by the ABC in 2015 which listed the names of the targets of the terrorist attack in Mumbai in 2008. ABC correspondent Stephanie March said that the attack occurred “… when militants from Pakistan crossed the border and attacked hotels, a café, and a railway station in Mumbai in 2008, killing 164 people.”

One venue that was omitted from that list of targets was the Jewish centre in Mumbai, Nariman House, which was taken over by the terrorists and endured a three-day siege. Seven Jews were mutilated and murdered by the Pakistani “militants”, simply because they were Jews, including the rabbi and his pregnant wife. These horrors did not rate a mention by the ABC presenter. The fact that Jews were targeted and murdered was erased from the story.

3. At University: Erasure of antisemitism from anti-Nazi motion

At the National Union of Students (NUS) National Conference held in December 2017, two Socialist Alternative members moved and seconded a motion titled “ETHNO 11.7: We stand against the Antipodean Resistance” condemning the neo-Nazi group Antipodean Resistance. The lengthy motion named the targets of Antipodean Resistance as being LGBTI, Muslim, and Chinese. It stated that Antipodean Resistance had engaged in: “demonising LGBTI people throughout the equal marriage postal vote”, “put up posters demonising Muslims”, “plastered posters which told Chinese international students that they would be deported” and “put up posters linking homosexuality to pedophilia”.

However, the motion made no mention of Jews as targets of Antipodean Resistance, indeed one of their principal targets, along with homosexuals. Antipodean Resistance posters have called to “Legalise the execution of Jews”, accused Jews of poisoning Australian society, and of being the hidden hand behind non-white immigration into Australia. These posters have been produced since December 2016 and were often placed at universities. Antipodean Resistance propaganda primarily and overwhelmingly targeted Jews and LGBT people; some posters also targeted people of east Asian (Chinese) and Indigenous background, but not Muslims.

The motion pledged to oppose racism, the far right and Antipodean Resistance. Yet, if Socialist Alternative cannot or will not name Jews as targets of neo-Nazis, then any Socialist Alternative claim to oppose racism is hollow, and shows Socialist Alternative’s own racist bias against Jews. By erasing antisemitism, they are not only being dishonest and biased, but also betraying the same mindset as Nazis – that Jews can never be worthy of sympathy or solidarity.

4. In Politics: Erasure of all forms of antisemitism, except one

A variant of the erasure of Jews and antisemitism is the attempt to redefine them both in a way that is subservient to a preconceived political or ideological agenda, but bears no relationship to reality. This occurs most commonly when those who wish to attack right-wing extremists do so by naming and condemning right-wing antisemitism, while omitting all reference to antisemitism from other sources, such as left-wing, anti-Zionist, or Muslim extremists.

A case in point is the “Greens Statement on Fighting Antisemitism” published in November 2021. According to the Greens there is only one source of antisemitism, that of “far-right extremist politics and neo-Nazi activity”. All other sources of antisemitism are erased from their statement, as antisemitism from these other sources does not fit, and indeed falsifies, the Greens simplistic ‘goodies and baddies’ worldview.

Despite its title, ‘Fighting Antisemitism’ does not suggest a plan of action tailored to combat antisemitism as a phenomenon in its own right. Instead, it is grouped together with “all forms of racism”, a subtle way of minimising and downplaying its significance.

Worse still, the Greens’ Statement attacks one of the most effective tools against antisemitism that has been developed in recent years, namely the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance’s (IHRA) Working Definition of Antisemitism. This definition has been overwhelmingly accepted and promoted by Jewish community organisations around the world, including those engaged in countering antisemitism, and has been adopted by the UN, governments, universities and many others.

In summary, the Greens’ Statement undermines the fight against antisemitism in three ways: by naming only one form of antisemitism and erasing the other forms, by opposing the IHRA working definition of antisemitism, and by subsuming the problem of antisemitism into a general anti-racism package.

If the Greens had not erased all forms of antisemitism, except the far-right variant, in their ‘Statement on Fighting Antisemitism’, they would have been able to acknowledge the immense value of the IHRA working definition, and embrace the reality that antisemitism, while a form of racism, is also a unique hatred with a long, intense, and genocidal history.
5. By prominent people: Erasure of antisemitism by replacing it with something else

Others have erased antisemitism by claiming, falsely, that it has been superseded by other, worse forms of bigotry, thus implying that antisemitism no longer matters.

A case in point are comments made by Julian Burnside, QC, a former Greens election candidate. In 2014 and 2015, Burnside repeatedly stated that: “Islamophobia is the new antisemitism”. At that time, Jews were subject to a much higher rate of attack than were Muslims; for example, in the USA, a Jew is six times more likely to be attacked than a Muslim, and in Britain, four times more likely.

More recently, in an interview on The Big Smoke, published on 29 August 2021, in reference to Australian government policy on human rights and asylum seekers (many of whom are Muslim) over the last 20 years, Burnside stated:

- “Consider how the public at large have been induced to fear and hate Muslims. Consider the parallels with antisemitism in Germany in the 1920s to the 1940s.”

Burnside’s analogy is fallacious. While Muslims have undoubtedly faced discrimination and hostility since the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks in the US, they have not been stripped collectively of their rights as citizens, their jobs and their businesses. Nor have they been forced to wear humiliating identifying insignia, imprisoned in ghettos, subjected to mass shootings, or transported in packed cattle cars to purpose-built extermination camps.

In addition, Burnside’s analogy erases contemporary antisemitism. If he sought only to highlight anti-Muslim sentiment, he had no need to mention antisemitism a century ago. Burnside’s erroneous claims do justice to neither antisemitism nor to Islamophobia. There are many ways to protest against anti-Muslim prejudice without making spurious comparisons with Nazi antisemitism, which in effect minimise the Holocaust and antisemitism in general.

6. By political activists: Erasure of antisemitism by false analogy

Antisemitism has also been erased through the use of false analogies. One example is found in the writings of Jeff Sparrow, a political activist, and founder of Socialist Alternative. In his book, Fascists Among Us: Online Hate and the Christchurch Massacre, published in 2019, Sparrow, in seeking to describe the seriousness of anti-Muslim bigotry does so by erroneously comparing it to antisemitism. Sparrow writes (on pages 31-32):

- “Prior to 9/11, Islamophobia remained a relatively minor current in the West. The War on Terror changed that, normalising a discourse that replicated, almost exactly, the key tropes of pre-war anti-Semitism. Islamophobic bigots linked all Muslims to jihad, precisely as anti-Semites had held all Jews accountable for Bolshevism. … Almost every aspect of early-twentieth-century anti-Semitism repeated itself in twenty-first-century Islamophobia, often with substantial institutional support.”

This claim is demonstrably false, and erases the realities of early twentieth century antisemitism. During the first two decades of the 20th century, in Europe and other western countries, Jews were still often denied civil rights, were legally discriminated against, and at times murdered with impunity. In pogroms in Russia and Ukraine between 50,000 and 200,000 Jews were massacred. In contrast, Muslims in the first two decades of the 21st century, in Europe and other western countries, retained civil rights and have not been massacred, except for one horrific incident in Christchurch perpetrated by a single individual who has been imprisoned for life without parole.

In addition, the claim that anti-Muslim bigotry today is comparable to anti-Jewish bigotry a century ago has the unstated implication that anti-Jewish bigotry no longer exists in the 21st century, but has been superseded by anti-Muslim bigotry. Again, if one wishes to focus on anti-Muslim bigotry, one does not need to belittle or erase contemporary or past antisemitism, as a polemical tool.

Sparrow’s analogy also lacks historical context. While he acknowledges that Islamophobia was “a relatively minor current” prior to 9/11, he provides no background to early twentieth century antisemitism, treating it as though it came out of nowhere. It ignores the fact that Jews had been discriminated against, demonised, ostracised, segregated, persecuted and massacred over the previous 1800 years, with hatred of Jews becoming ingrained into western culture. There is no parallel with regard to Muslims.

Conclusion

When antisemitism is erased from the narrative in the mainstream media, in party politics, in universities, and elsewhere, and by public figures and commentators, the net effect is the desensitisation of society to antisemitism.

This leads to a fantasy understanding of our society and world through which laws, social conventions and information can cease to be grounded in reality. These are the conditions in which Jews can be persecuted and attacked with impunity. The same is true for any other group similarly erased from the public narrative. This undermines our democratic way of life, our rights and responsibilities as citizens, our social cohesiveness as a nation, and our fight against all hatreds and bigotries.

Antisemitism did not end in 1945, instead, it went underground, only to re-emerge when the opportunities arose and the political and ideological atmosphere was conducive. Its continuing spread is aided and abetted by those who refuse to condemn it or to act against it, and also by those who erase antisemitism from their narrative or minimise or relativise it. As history has shown time and again, societies in which antisemitism is not acknowledged, and not opposed, set themselves on a path to devastation.

Singling out Jewish businesses in the name of Palestine

by Bren Carlill 25 August 2022

In 1930s Germany, lists of Jewish businesses were made, and ‘good Germans’ were encouraged to boycott them. The Jews were accused of participating in a global conspiracy against Germany and of aiding socialism. Threats of violence – and then actual violence – against these shops and their owners soon followed.
The murder of six million Jews in the Holocaust is widely known. However, few people outside Jewish communities seem aware that the Holocaust wasn’t an aberration. Rather, it was the culmination of centuries of hate and the acquiescence of the majority to the radical few who singled out Jews and encouraged violence against them, whether for reasons of religion, racial purity or protection from global conspiracies.

My point? Jewish businesses are once again being listed, and people are being encouraged to take action against them. Starting with Boston, such lists have popped up in a few places internationally in recent months. This month, it was Australia’s turn, in the form of Jewish-owned Melbourne restaurants selling Israeli food.

‘What you do with this information is up to you. Be bold comrades’, is the instruction on the list. The list first appeared on the Twitter account of local wannabe cultural critic Muhib Nabulsi, but it was eagerly retweeted – and added to – by the Palestine activist echo chamber.

Nabulsi prefaced his list by explaining how Zionism is a global conspiracy, with nodes everywhere, and that the businesses on his list were a ‘crucial component of Israel’s global genocide campaign’.

Nabulsi is a fan of the BDS Movement. BDS activists like to claim that BDS is a non-violent movement supporting Palestinian peace. But its leaders have made clear that their objective is not Palestine alongside Israel, but Palestine instead of Israel, an objective shared by outlawed terrorist groups like Hamas and Islamic Jihad.

Targeting Jewish businesses outside of Israel was always going to be the logical next step of the BDS movement. Listing these businesses, along with implied encouragement for violence against them, is a reversion to the dangerous antisemitism of previous centuries.

Indeed, Nabulsi wants us to believe that what should concern us is not the lack of Palestinian statehood but that Israel threatens everyone with ‘global genocide’. His logic is clear; local Jews are a threat to us all, so local Jews need to cop it. This script has played out hundreds of times throughout history. And it always ends badly for the Jews.

At its heart, BDS has always been an antisemitic movement. With this list, Nabulsi has exposed BDS for what it is.

The irony is, BDS helps prove the need for Israel’s existence. The Jewish people and religion come from the land of Israel. They were ethnically cleansed and dispersed to the four corners of the world but never forgot their homeland. It was only in the 19th century – as international travel became easier and the concept of national self-determination began developing, that the modern movement, which came to be called Zionism was born.

It was the yearning for a homeland, not antisemitism, that created Zionism. But the increasing violence against Jews in the 19th and early 20th centuries certainly made it more popular.

Modern antisemitism – these days wrapped in the language of ‘anti-Zionism’ – is much the same as its previous iterations; Jews are rhetorically and physically threatened because of events they have nothing to do with (and which are usually made up).
While the security situation for Jewish populations in most Western countries is the best it has ever been, it’s also true that violent antisemitism is rapidly increasing throughout the Western world. The constant – and they are constant – threats against Jews make return to homeland a valid option for many.

It is ironic that while BDS activists want to ethnically cleanse Zion of its Jews by targeting Melbourne felafel shops, they are making an increase of the Jewish population in Israel more likely.

Twitter removed some of the more egregious of Nabulsi’s claims (which, given the extremist filth it usually allows on its platform, is really saying something), but it left his list of Jewish businesses and his implied encouragement of violence.

We don’t need to get too far ahead of ourselves, of course. An ignorant supporter of an antisemitic movement posting a list of Jewish-owned businesses for people to vandalise doesn’t make Melbourne 1930s Berlin. It’s not the existence of the list that should worry us – after all, racists exist everywhere. The real problem is the acquiescence of the majority, who respond to such expressions of racism with silence.

This acquiescence has real-world ramifications. Consider this: with a handful of exceptions, it is only Jews that are pushing back against things like the listing of Jewish businesses. It is mostly only Jews that are pushing back against the increasingly hard-line and blatantly false anti-Israel rhetoric from sectors in civil society – such that Zionism is racist, that Israel practices apartheid, that Jews don’t have cultural links to the land.

Because of the lack of wider public disquiet, Palestine activists and their fellow travellers are ever more encouraged to further ramp up their rhetoric. In doing so, they purposefully preclude nuanced conversation about the best way to resolve the Israeli–Palestinian dispute. Further, they are also increasingly intolerant of people remotely sympathetic to Israel – which, of course, is most Jews.

On campus, student unions are passing motions that position Zionists (that is, anyone who thinks Israel should continue existing) as morally beyond the pale. Given these student unions represent the entire student body, and almost every Jew in Australia is sympathetic to Israel’s existence, Jewish students are feeling the squeeze.

Listing Jewish businesses might have been the logical next step for the BDS movement, but it’s not the logical endpoint; violence against Jews is. (Hence the catch cry among Palestine activists to ‘globalise the intifada!’)

Encouraging violence against businesses owned by an ethnic minority because of events on the other side of the planet over which they have no control is racism, pure and simple. But if the wider community tolerates this racism with silence, the thugs will interpret acquiescence as acceptance, and take the next step into violence. It is up to us all to stop this.
